

SCENE IN THE PALACE.

Mr. Ritchie touched some days since, that the old hero kept perfectly cool on the Florida campaign.

A few days since, an honorable member of Congress was on a visit to the White House.

During the whole scene, the Attorney General, Mr. Butler, present. But, said the honorable member, I am informed, Mr. President, that the Tennessee militia were not more willing to fight than the other militia.

This episode afforded Mr. Butler an opportunity to speak when he remarked, 'Well general, you and I are old friends, and I must go to Florida and carry on the war.'

Well might Mr. Wise say on the floor of Congress—'I have given you a very limited account of the biography which was exhibited in ten or fifteen minutes conversation.'

THE SPY IN WASHINGTON.

Correspondence of the Journal of Commerce.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20, 1837.

A rumor, important if true, is in circulation to-day. A Treaty is said to have been concluded with General Santa Ana, as President of Mexico, while he was here, for the recognition of the independence of Texas and the cession of that territory.

The independence of Texas is to be acknowledged both by the United States and by Mexico. The boundary between the United States and Mexico, is to be the Rio del Norte.

Editor's Correspondence.

WASHINGTON, March 3, 1837.

CONGRESS, as you know, is under the necessity of closing its session sometime to-day.

The facts stated below are very interesting and gratifying to the citizens of the United States.

The American ships frequenting the ports of England are stated by several witnesses to be superior to those of a similar class amongst the ships of Great Britain.

acted before it closes. Some account of which I will give you in my next letter.

SEVENTH WARD BANK.

The following disgusting letter was brought to light by the Whitney investigation, and transmitted by the 'Spy at Washington':—

New York, 16th Dec. 1836.

We, the subscribers, officers and directors of the Seventh Ward Bank, in the city of New York, friends of the Administration, and of the Reverend Chief of the Administration, do hereby certify a portion of the fiscal patronage of the United States Treasury, for the Seventh Ward Bank.

Signed WALTER BOWNE, President.

WM. O'CONNOR, Cashier.

DIRECTORS.

'Friends of the Administration! Friends of the Reverend Chief! We have no comments to offer upon this letter, but await with impatience the report from the investigating committee.

The Seventh Ward Bank, its friends of the Administration, and the reverend Chief of the Administration, are the least of sinners. Denmark is rotten in every part.

In the recent debate on the Land Bill, in the Senate we find that Mr. Benton suffered himself to be betrayed into the following language, the insolence of which is in keeping with his whole character.

'In a few years (said Mr. B.) the West will settle this question of the Public Lands, just as they please. They would settle this matter, as they would settle the Presidency.'

About two years ago, Senator Tipton of Indiana, who had been in favor of the administration, turned against it. The Globe then gave the Senator to understand, that unless he instantly turned back again, it would expose certain of his villainous transactions in regard to the public lands.

On Sunday night last, the Jail of this county was broken and nine prisoners made their escape. It was effected by means of a couple of augers and a crow-bar which it is ascertained from a prisoner who remained, were handed in at the window on Saturday night.

GENERAL JAIL DELIVERY.

On Sunday night last, the Jail of this county was broken and nine prisoners made their escape. It was effected by means of a couple of augers and a crow-bar which it is ascertained from a prisoner who remained, were handed in at the window on Saturday night.

The first part was in relation to the publication of his letter, which he contended was not against the rules and articles of war, and that it was a defense of his reputation.

The facts stated below are very interesting and gratifying to the citizens of the United States. How great do they rebound to the enterprise and intelligence of our people, in what ever pursuit they may be engaged in.

whole world, the numbers cut off by shipwreck, and the temptations offered by the superior wages of American vessels cause a large number of British seamen every year to leave the service of their own country.

Southern Navy Yard.

The commissioners appointed by the Secretary of the Navy to examine the harbours South of the Chesapeake bay, with a view to the establishment of a Navy Yard, have reported, and give the preference to the port of Brunswick, in Georgia.

Columbia Telescope.

Mr. Nelson Alexander, from Wmmsborough, (S. C.) was waylaid near the Eight Mile House, early on Saturday morning, and robbed of $3,800.

Mr. Alexander, on Thursday last, was accosted near the Race Course, by a man calling himself Wm. Granger, who had with him two boys for sale.

Mr. Alexander now lays dangerously ill at the 8 Mile House, but he has all the attendance from his friends in town that can be possibly bestowed upon him.

MURDER.

On Saturday night last, a negro man named Boyd, the property of Mrs. Grice, of Sampson County, was stabbed in this town by another man named Bryant, the property of Norman McLeod.

As equally interesting as the Mexican antiquities or far as they go, an enumeration of some of which is given from the Boston Statesman, we would notice those in Ascension, one of the South Sea islands.

IMPORTANT FROM FLORIDA.

The schooner Polly, Captain Feltner, arrived yesterday from Jacksonville, and learned from Capt. F. that General Jackson had sent to Gary's Ferry for 400 horses to renew the campaign, the Chiefs having come in according to agreement.

We learn also by a passenger in the steamer S. S. Mills, from St. Augustine, that the articles had been received at that place, and that the hostilities were to be commenced on Saturday last, 25th ult.

In addition to the above, we have received the following from our correspondents at St. Augustine.

St. Augustine, Feb. 27, 1837.

THE WAR NOT ENDED YET.

On Saturday night last, information was received from General Jesup's Camp, at Dade's Battle Ground, and we regret to state that it is far from cheering.

After the usual preparation, the field appeared again at the post. Bets were in favor of Lady Morgan, against the field.

The race was now clearly decided unless Lady Morgan should fall down or bolt. The third heat was without interest or excitement, and terminated, as all supposed it would, in favor of Lady Morgan.

We had intended to say something in the nature of a general review of the Races just concluded, but must defer that task until to-morrow.

CHICKASAW DELEGATION.

We are informed that the Delegation headed by Mr. John Mot. Ish, which was appointed by the Chickasaws to select a country for them west of the Mississippi, has returned.

AGRICULTURAL BANK, BRANCH AT PONTOTOC.

As an evidence of the usefulness of this institution, the facilities it affords to the business community, and, above all, the amount of business done in this region of country, we would state, that on Wednesday, paper was discounted by the Bank to the amount of about forty thousand dollars.

OUR TOWN.

Never did a place suffer as Pontotoc does for want of corporate powers to regular its municipal affairs.
