Orders from a distance will be strictly attended to, and articles of Dress carefully packed and sent off according to direction. P. S. Mrs. P. keeps on hand, for sale, a stock of Fashionable Bonnets, Caps, Turbans, &c. &c. Salisbury, October 1, 1836.

Pocket-Book Lost.

THE Subscriber lost on Sunday last his Pocket-Book, some where near Rocky River, on the road to Salisbury;—the Pocket-Book is of leather and chases with a clasp—it contained about three hundred and four dollars, in South Carolina money, Cheraw and Planters and mechanics' Banks—the money was put $100 in each bundle—a strip of paper round each bundle, and then folded up in a piece of new paper;—it also contained Notes to the amount of near seven hundred dollars, several were given by Mrs. W. Hunter of Darlington Court House, South Carolina, and one on E. D. Law for $100, with several other notes. I will give a handsome reward to any one who will give me information on the subject—information directed to either Salisbury or Darlington Court House, will reach me. CHRISTIAN TARR. Salisbury, Dec. 24, 1836-1f-23.

THE CELEBRATED RACE HORSE,

CAROLINIAN, WILL stand the ensuing season, at my stable, at Spring Grove, Brunswick Co. Virginia, within 2 miles of Lawrenceville, 50 miles south west of Petersburg, 23 west of Bedford, 48 north of Warrenton, N. C. and will be let to mares at $55 the season, and $60 insurance payable as soon as the fact is ascertained, or the property is in any way changed—with $1 in each case to the groom. Mares left with the horse, will be pastured gratis, and fed with grain agreeably to the owners directions, and on moderate terms. The season will end on the 10th July.

CAROLINIAN has just claims upon the public as those of any other horse, being a good race himself, and the getter of racers, of great distinction besides his purity of blood, being descended directly from the very best racers in England & America. He can boast of the uncommon stoutness, lastingness and ability to carry the heaviest weights, more particularly on the side of his dam, which traces directly down to the imported mare Kitty Fisher, by the Cullen Arabian, her dam by Cade, out of that famous mare 'Bald Charlotte,' the very best mare in all England of her day, which was a race of a million at New Market; on the 1st day of May 1747 carrying 8 stone, 288 lbs., beating Whiskey's Grey Horse Swinger, carrying 17 stone, 373 lbs. for 200 guineas; half forfeit. N. B.—This is the highest weight ever earned by any horse whatever. For corroboration of this positive fact, a reference may be made to the 1st Vol. Pick's Turf Register, the English Racing Calendar. Also—the 1st Volume of the Abridged Edition of the English Racing Calendar, at page 53. Carolinian's pedigree can be traced by a reference to 1st Volume of the American Turf Register, Sportsman's Herald, and General Stud Book. The most scientific and comprehensive work ever published on the genealogy of blood horses, page 140. For further particulars, see hand bills. A B DRUMMOND. February 6, 1f-31.
