

POETRY.

A VENETIAN LOVE SCENE.

Sweet solemn Venice! o'er thee fade Eve's latest hues of glory.
While by yon shadowy colonnade Near Balbi's palace hoary.

"Appear, my lady love, appear—Look from thy latticed bow, And bless his sight who watches here The livelong twilight hour.

"But others gaze upon thee now, And drink thy glorious smile, And make thy spirit mindless how Mine maddens here the while.

"Lol! jealous eye and ear are far,
And fast the evening flies;
Then loiter not, thou lovely star—Young moon of beauty rise!

"By yonder shaft he leans to bide, The proud impatient boy—I'd steal upon his song," she cried, In girlhood's rosy joy.

"One look—but come—we'll leave her there, To madness and the moon;
A sweet lute shivered by despair,
With every string in-tune.

Rowan Co. Sunday School Union.

THE Superintendants of Sunday Schools connected with the Rowan County Union, are respectfully solicited to send in without failure, by the 30th of the present month, to the Secretary of the Union, in Salisbury, answers to the following questions, to enable him to make out his Report to the Parent Society.

1st. What is the number of pupils and teachers connected with your School?
2d. How many books have you in your library?
3d. What number of conversions among the pupils, or among the teachers, has taken place during the past year?
4th. Has any other circumstance worthy of notice taken place in your School during the year?

MY BUSINESS has become so much extended, and the amount of arrearages has become so great that I must settle. It will be the greatest injustice to require me to travel all over the country for this purpose. It is to be hoped, therefore, that those who owe me will save me trouble and expense by remitting my due through the Post Office, and that without delay.

Important Information
TO THOSE SUFFERING WITH Cholera Morbus, Diarrhoea, Summer Complaints, Colic, Cramps, and Spasms.

THE efficacy of R. S. BERNARD'S Remedy for Cholera has been proved to be a problem.
Experience, the only safe foundation of Medical science, as on all other kinds of knowledge, has effectually established what the judicious composition of the Remedy, its admirable adaptation to the various indications which occur in the course of these diseases of the stomach, liver and bowels, usually designated as Cholera complaints, led the Proprietor to anticipate from the first of all experience, however, that of men competent to discriminate accurately and to decide justly upon the effects of a medicine, must be the best; and with such in his favor, even the most fastidious in these matters, must lay aside these prejudices.
The indications of cure are—to tranquilize the stomach and bowels; to relieve the excessive puking and purging; to allay the increased irritability of the intestines, giving rise to increased peristaltic motion; to relieve that rheumatic stasis of the bowels which is often the attendant of chronic cases sometimes accompanied with inflammation and ulceration; to overcome the spasms; equalize the circulation, and restore warmth to the surface; remove congestion of the internal organs; and to relieve the morbid irritability of the brain and nervous system;—all of which have been effected by the use of Bernard's Remedy for Cholera; certificates of the efficacy in cases widely different in their origin and progress of each other.

Look to the certificates; they are the best evidence that can be given.

The commendations which several liberal and intelligent Physicians have bestowed upon the Remedy, have already been published, and the subscriber has now the gratification of adding the following from a most respectable practicing physician of Somerset, Va.

R. S. BERNARD
Somerton, May 14, 1837.

Dear Sir— I feel it my duty to inform you I have tested the efficacy of your Remedy for the Cholera in several instances that have lately come under my care, and that its effect evince it to be a judicious preparation—most eminently serviceable, I will say altogether competent to cure the disorders for which it is recommended. I feel no hesitation, therefore, in declaring that for the treatment of such disorders, I shall regularly dispense your Remedy from my office; and would recommend it to be kept in all families liable to these dangerous attacks.

W. L. PARHAM
This certificate was given to my agent, E. P.
Nash, of Petersburg and for its importance, read Mr. Nash's remarks:
"As agent for Bernard's Cholera and Diarrhoea Medicine, I call the attention of the public to the certificate below from one of the most respectable gentlemen in the state; and I particularly call their attention to the one given by a gentleman in this town—and if it were necessary, I could produce a half dozen others from Petersburg, who have tried the medicine within two weeks past."

EDW. P. NASH
Mr. Edward P. Nash, Agent for Bernard's Cholera Medicine.

Dear Sir: I feel it a duty I owe to the proprietor of the above medicine, as well as the public generally, to inform you that the bottle of Cholera mixture which I bought at your store a few evenings since, has entirely cured me of a severe Diarrhoea. The cure was effected in taking only two doses, and as I had tried many other remedies without the least effect. I am fully of the opinion that the medicine here alluded to is every thing that it is said to be.

JAS. S. WALLACE, Petersburg, Va.
Who will neglect to supply themselves with Bernard's Remedy for Cholera, when it is so fully proved to be efficacious in all the diseases for which it is recommended? In no case has it failed to cure the most obstinate attack of summer complaint made upon children. In one instance a permanent cure was effected upon a child in this place, after the summer complaint had put it (as thought by the doctors) beyond the power of medicine to relieve. It was such an aggravated case that the child had in the course of one day and night, sixty-three evacuations from the bowels. Yet one bottle proved a sovereign remedy.

This valuable Medicine is for sale in this place by J. & W. Murphy, in Lexington by John P.
Mabry, in Charlotte by Williams & Boyd.

THE Subscriber has been engaged for a number of years, upwards of ten—and has succeeded in forming a composition by which machinery, of either water or horse power, can be run with much more ease, and almost entirely free from heat or wear. By this method, the trouble of boxing and bushing, as well as making links, is saved. Persons would do well to be aware of impostures, as I will send written instructions with the persons who do business for me—others the public will find not to be genuine—though they may make free to exhibit my hand bills.

CHEAPER THAN EVER.
MERCHANT TAILOR.

Benjamin F. Fraley.
IS now receiving from New York and Philadelphia, a general assortment of cloths and trimmings for Fall and Winter, embracing every article usually kept by Merchant Tailors; these goods have been selected by him in person, and can be confidently recommended to the public as cheap and good. Having worked at the Tailoring business for twenty years, he hopes he shall not be considered presumptuous in calling himself a Judge of cloths. He has also just received the New York and Philadelphia Fashions, and the above will be made up in a superior style of fashion, and warranted to fit well.
He will also keep on hand a general assortment of READY MADE CLOTHING, all of which will be sold very low for cash or on a credit to punctual dealers. All kinds of cutting will be done on short notice. Orders or work from a distance will be punctually attended to.

MARBLIEU,

THE property of Richard V. Michaux, bred by the late Hon. John Randolph, will stand the present season in North Carolina, at the stable of the Subscriber, at the Union Hotel, Statesville, Iredell county, N. C.
MARBLIEU was sired by Monsieur Ton-son, (the Ajax of his day,) dam Jet, by the imported Bluster; grandam Statira (imported) by Alexander the Great, &c.
For further particulars see hand bills.

THE PROPRIETOR.
The following Extracts from the Turf Register will be satisfactory to such as may choose to consult that very high authority.
MARBLIEU was by Tonson out of Jet; she by Bluster out of Statira; Statira by Alexander the Great, out of Rose by Sweetbrier; Rose out of Marlborough by Snap; she out of Miss Windsor by the Godolphin Arabian—(see Turf Register, Vol 5, page 488.) Bluster was by Orlando, the son of Whiskey, out of a High-flyer mare, sister to Escape, by Pegasus, her dam by Squirtle; Pegasus by Eclipse, out of a Bosphorus mare, sister to Grecian Princess; Orlando was out of Amelia, by Highflyer, her dam Miss Tins, sister to Maiden by matchin; Salttram, son of Eclipse out of a Calash mare by Herald; her dam Theresa by matchin; Regular by Godolphin Arabian—(See Turf Reg Vol 11, page 51.)
Besides the above, see reference in the Hand bill to the Stud Book.

STATESVILLE, march 17, 1838—7m34 Having been requested to examine the Turf Register (which I own) on the subject of these Pedigrees, I did so and find the above statement entirely accurate.

FOR A NEGRO BOY NAMED
ARMSTEAD.

RANAWAY from the subscriber's farm, in Richmond District, S. C., on the last of October, 1837, my boy named ARMSTEAD,

He was apprehended and committed to the Charlotte Jail. I sent and got him home about the 1st of November. He the next morning ran away again, and pursued the same route and was committed to Salisbury Jail. I sent for him again and got him back about two miles South of Charlotte, when he broke away and made his escape. I suppose he is trying to get to Caswell county, N. C., where he was raised. When he left me he said he got in with a North Carolina waggoner by the name of Wm. Browney, of Caswell county, who the boy said first conducted him off, and promised to take him where he was raised; and I suppose when he made his last escape he was making for that county. This boy is about 15 or 16 years of age, of a dark mulatto color, he is four feet 8 or 10 inches high, he is left handed and has a scar of a burn on his left wrist, and his left big toe is cut off above the nail. This boy when he was in Salisbury Jail, called his name George, and said he belonged to James Patterson, of South Carolina, which was the man I purchased him from. I will give the above reward for his apprehension in any Jail so that I can get him again.

foundation, 18 inches above, and about the same below the surface, two feet thick, 8 windows below of 18 lights 10 x 12 glass, and 10 windows above, 15 lights, same size glass, all the windows with venetian blinds, painted green; Roof of Tin, two outside doors with stone steps, 4 inside doors, one plain flight of steps, the first story to be in one room, except an entry of six or eight feet at the entrance, and the second floor to be divided into two rooms, one fire place below and two above, with plain mantles, the whole interior to be plastered, and hard finish with wash board all round; all the wood work to be painted. Three doors to have locks, the whole work to be done in a plain, but substantial and faithful manner, and of the best materials.
Persons disposed to contract for erecting such a building, are invited to apply to either of the Committee for particular specifications, (if by mail, post paid.) The contract will be closed leave Salisbury on the mornings at 4 o'clock, and arrive at Fayetteville on the evenings of the next days. Passengers rest nine hours at night, at Allen's in Moore county. Fare $5 50. These Stages connect with my line from Salisbury to Morganton. This route affords great facilities for merchants in the interior, to visit Fayetteville for the purchase of their Goods, Exchange of moneys, purchase of Drafts, &c. &c. as it is the cheapest, most expeditious, and most direct route between the two places. At Fayetteville Stage

AT THE N. CAROLINA BOOKSTORE MAY now be found a larger Stock of Books than can be seen at any other Establishment which has recently received very large additions, now embraces almost every work in Science, Literature, Theology, &c. extant. Amongst these are many rare works, which the Proprietors have purchased from Private Librarwhich have yet been offered to the public.

Turner & Hughes, thankful for the patronage hitherto extended to them by the citizens of North Carolina, take this method of informing their friends that no exertions on their part shall be wanting to merit a continuance of their support. As an evidence of this, they invite an examination of their present Stock, in the procurement of which they have spared neither
