

POETRY.

SELECTED FOR THE WATCHMAN.

ADORATION. By MOORE.

The Turf shall be my fragrant shrine; My temple, Lord, that arch of thine; My cencer's breath, the mountain airs, And silent thoughts my only prayers.

My choir shall be the moonlight waves, When marmuring homeward to their caves; Or, when the stillness of the sea, Even more than music, breathes of thee.

I'll seek, by day, some glade unknown, All light and silence, like thy throne; And the pale stars shall be, at night, The only eyes that watch my rite.

The Heaven, on which 'tis bliss to look, Shall be my pure and shining look, Where shall I read in words of flame, The glories of thy wondrous name.

I'll read thy anger in the rack, That clouds awhile the day beam's track; Thy mercy in the azure hue Of sunny brightness, breaking through.

There's nothing bright, above, below, From flowers that bloom, to stars that glow, But in its light my soul can see Some features of thy Deity!

There's nothing dark, below, above, But in its gloom I trace thy love; And, meekly, wait that moment, when Thy touch shall turn all bright again.

Books! Books!! AT THE N. CAROLINA BOOK STORE

MAY now be found a larger Stock of Books than can be seen at any other Establish in the United States. The collections which has recently received very large additions, now embraces almost every work in Sciouce, Literature, Theology, &co extant. Amongst these are many rare works, which the Proprietors bave purchased from Private Libraies, very seldom met with in a Book Store .-The supply of School Books is very extensive and complete. The annuals, and other Fancy Books, are superior to any thing of the kindwhich have yet been offered to the public. Turner & Hughes, thankful for the patronage hitherto extended to them by the citizens of North Carolina, take this method of informing their friends that no exertions on their part shall be wanting to merit a continuance of their suppart As an evidence of this, they invite an examination of their present Stock, in the procarement of which they have spared neither nains nor expense

TO THOSE SUFFERING WITH Cholera Morbus, Diarrhea, Summer Cont-plaints, Colics, Cramps, and Spasms.

THE utility of R. S. BERNARD'S Reme

Layfor Cholera has ceased to be a problem. Experience, the only sure foundation of Medicinal, as on all other kinds of knowledge, has effectually established what the judicious composition of the Remedy, its admirable adaptation to the various indications which occur in the course of those diseases of the stomach, liver and bowels, usually designated as Cholera complaints, led the Proprietor to anticipate from the first of all experience, however, that of men competent to discriminate accurately and to decide justly up-on the effects of a medicine, must be the best; and with such in its favor, even the most fastidious in these matters, must lay aside these pre-

The indications of cure are to tranquilize the stomach and bowels : to relieve the excessive puking and purging ; to allay the increased irritability of the intestines, giving rise to increased peristaltic motion; to relieve that rheumatic state of the bowels which is often the attendant of chronic cases sometimes accompanied with inflamation and ulceration; to overcome the spasms; equalize the circulation, and lestore warmth to the sarface; remove congestion of he internal organs; and to relieve the morbid irritability of the brain and nervous system ; - all of which has been effected by the use of Bernard's Remedy for Cholera: certificates of which have been given at various times of the efficacy in cases widely different in their origin and progress of each other. Look to the certificates; they are the best evidence that can be given. The commendations which several liberal and intelligent Physicians have bestowed upon the Remedy, have already been published, and the subscriber has now the gratification of adding the following from a most respectable practising physician of Sometton, Va. R.S. BERNARD Somerton, May 14, 1837.

Mr. R S Bernard. Dear Sir-This is to inform you I have tested the efficacy of your Remedy for the Cholera in several instances that have lately come under my care, and that its effect evince it to be a judicous preparation-one eminently servicable, I will say altogether competent to cure the diseases for which it is recommended. I teel no hesitation, therefore, in declaring that for the treatment of such disorders, I shall regularly dispense your Remedy from my office, and would recommend it to be kept in al! families liable to to these dangerous attacks.

You may use this certificate as you will !! Yours, very respectfully. W. L. PARHAM

This certificate was given to my agent, E. P. Nash, of Petersburg and for its importance, read

Mr. Nash's remarks; "As agent for Bernard's Cholera and Diarrhoe Medicine, I call the attention of the public to the certificate below from one of the most respectable gentlemen in the state; and I particularly call their attention to the one given by a gentletoan in this town -and if it were necessary, I could produce a half dozen others from Petersburg, who have tried the medicine within two weeks

Who will neglect to supply themselves with Bernard's Remedy for Cholera, when it is so fuly proven to be efficacious in all the diseases for The tempest o'croomes them, but cannot which it is recommended? In no case has it tailed to cure the most obstinate attack of summer complaint made upon children. In one instance a permanent cure was effected upon a child in this place, after the symmer complaint had put it (as thought by the doctors) beyond the power of medicine to relieve. It was such an aggravated case that the child had in the course and thy joys, and thy hopes, and thy griefs of one day and night, sixty-three evacuations from the bowels. Yet one buttle proved a sov ereign remedy.

PROSPECTUS

THE WEEKLY PROATURE Published in New Orleans, every Monday Mor-

F. A. LUMSDEN & G. W. KENDALL. N consequence of the popularity which our daily paper has gained in all sections of the country, and the numerous demands we are receiving from all quarters for a weekly journal, we have determined on starting one of that de scription, to be entitled 'The Weekly Picayune.'

To adopt the same figurative style used in our first prospectus, we have fitted out the Picayune for more distant voyages, and freighted her with all sorts of notions in the shape of readables; and if the same success attends her which she has met with while consting nearer home, we shall doubtless receive rich returns.

To prepare our little craft for the more extended sea on which she is destined to move, we have put upon her many additions and improvements. Some of her old timbers have been taken out and replaced by new-she has a greater measurement fore and aft, a greater length of beam, and her SHEETS have been materially on Notwithstaning the increased size, the public may rest assured that the Picayune will be enabled to work in shoal water with the same facility as heretofore, and form channels of communication which it would be folly for the dull, heavy vessels at present sailing from this port to grounds. The unimproved Land is of good navigate.

Commissioners merchants and others having freight in the shape of advertisement to ship for the country trade, would do well to send them on board our clipper, as she is up for every city in the United States, and all intermediate land-

We reiterate to those fanatical pirates who cruise under the black flag -- who oppose slavery because they are themselves the slaves of igno rance and superstition - who pretend to rub clean the upper decks of their neighbors with a HOLY stone - we say look out for breakers. To Hotel keepers we recommend our paper; in every engagement her commander will be first to lead on the BOARDERS.

To the Heads of Families the trim appearance of our craft will be an object of interest. Most married folks have experienced the effects of light sparring. We shall endeavor to make those smugglers, the Bachelors, heave to-show them the advantages of the proper "companion way," recommending a double state room, with BIRTHS, We shall send our boat aboard Theaticals and other amusements; those pretty pleasure boats, which make our passage over the take of life so delightful. Dancing we shall especially encourage; as we conceive that the safety of a vessel often depends upon keeping both pumps going. On first launching the Picayune we promised o carry a press of valin case we were warranted by a sail from the press Through all the storms which have raged since she first sailed she has borne up under foli sails, without ever being taken aback and is now ranked A. 1 at all the insurance officers of the city. Our policy still holds good, and we never intend it shall run out. Dropping our figure, and returning to plain language, we will now add that we intend to-make the Picayne a vehicle of fun, wit, humor sentiment, and a little of every thing that's going on It shall be our delight to crack jokes, to tell stories in our own way, to ridicale fully, and to correct the manners of the age by exciting laughter against them. In this, however, we shall endeavor to avoid that licentiousness which vainly seeks to benefit the public by wounding the feeling of individuals.

A portion of our paper will be occupied with comprehensive notices of all passing eventsgiving the pith of the news of the day, without burdensome details.

continue to express our opinions on all public measures. Follies in government, as well as in social life, are open to ridicule; and when humor seizes us, we shall not spare them, on whichever party the censure may fall.

All local occurrences of general interest shall be promptly noticed, so that our distant readers may see at a glance the miniature world which is congregated in this emporium. With this expose of our intentions, and determined to endeavor with unremitting industry to fulfil them, we look with confidence for a continance of that patronage which has hitherto been so cordially extended to ns. . The Weekly Picayone will be published every Monday morning, at $5,00 per annum, parable in all cases in advance : and will contain four additional columns, embracing all the news of the week, with whatever of interest trans Those persons at a distance who will procure four subscribers, and send us a $20 bill, shall be entitled to one copy gratis
