POETRY.

LINES ON AN OLD GENTLEMAN.

BY O. W. HOLMES.

I saw him once before,
As he passed by the door—
And again,
The pavement stones resonnd
As he loiters o'er the ground
With his cane.

They say that in his prime,
Ere the pruning knife of Time
Cut him down,
Not a better man was found
By the crier on his round
Through the town.

But now he walks the streets,
And he looks at all he meets,
So forlorn,
And he shakes his feeble haud,
That it seems as if he said,
"They are gone!"

The mossy marbles rest
On the lips that he had pressed
In their bloom,
And the names he loved to hear
Have been carved for many a year
On the tomb!

My grandmamma has said—
Poor old lady she is dead
Long ago—
That he had a Roman nose,
And his cheek was like a rose
In the snow.

But now his nose is thin,
And it rest upon his chin
Like a staff:
And a crook in his back,
And a melancholy crack
In his laugh.

I know it is a sin
For me to sit and grin
At him here:
But the three cornered hat,
And the breeches—and all that,
Are so queer!

And if I should live to be
The last leaf upon the tree
In the Spring,
Let them smile, as I do now,
At the old forsaken bough,
Where I cling.

Richmond and Petersburg

RAIL ROAD.

THE completion of this Rail Road (from Petersburg to Manchester, opposite to Richmond) makes the chain of Rail Roads through the State of Virginia continuous, with the exception of only 9 miles; and adds important advantages to the Inland Route for the Northern and Southern travelliag.

There are established on it Two Daily Trains, one of which is in connexion with the North and South Mail Line; and a tri-weekly train connecting with the "Halifax, Wilmington and Charleston Rail Road, Stage, and Steam Boat Line."

PASSENGERS from the South by the daily "Metropolitan Mail Line" will arrive in Richmond on the evening after that on which they leave Raleigh; and having the night for rest, proceed to Baltimore on the succeeding day, and thence to Philadelphia the same night in time for the Morning Boat to New York: time, less than three days from Raleigh to New York.

The Route through Petersburg and Richmond will be found also to be one of the best routes from the South to the Virginia Springs. The Passengers can arrive in Charlottesville, having only 44 miles Stage travelling after reaching the Rail Roads in Virginia, in three days from Charleston, and two days from Raleigh.

All possible arrangements are made on this Rail Road for the comfortable and safe transportation of Passengers.

He hopes that the extent of his stock, the care with which it has been selected, and the very low prices at which he can afford, and is determined to sell, will be hopes secure not only the continuance of his former customers, but also encourage others to come and examine for themselves. He is determined that the decline of Goods at the North shall be felt and known here also, that its benefits shall not be confined to himself, but that his customers who have felt the inconvenience of SELLING LOW, shall also BUY AS LOW as Goods can be afforded. Important Information

TO THOSE SUFFERING WITH

Cholera Morbus, Diarrhœa, Summer Complaints, Colics, Cramps, and Spasms.

THE utility of R. S. BERNARD'S Remedy for Cholera has ceased to be a problem. Experience, the only sure foundation of Medicinal, as on all other kinds of knowledge, has effectually established what the judicious composition of the Remedy, its admirable adaptation to the various indications which occur in the course of those dizesses of the stomach, liver and bowels, usually designated as Cholera complaints, led the Proprietor to anticipate from the first of all experience, however, that of men competent to discriminate accurately and to decide justly upon the effects of a medicine, must be the best; and with such in its favor, even the most fastidious in these matters, must lay aside these prejudices.

The indications of cure are—to tranquilize the stomach and bowels: to relieve the excessive puking and purging; to allay the increased irritability of the intestines, giving rise to increased peristaltic motion; to relieve that rheumatic state of the bowels which is often the attendant of chronic cases sometimes accompanied with inflamation and ulceration; to overcome the spasms; equalize the circulation, and restore warmth to the surface; remove congestion of the internal organs; and to relieve the morbid irritability of the brain and nervous system;—all of which has been effected by the use of Bernard's Remedy for Cholera: certificates of which have been given at various times of the efficacy in cases widely different in their origin and progress of each other.

☞ Look to the certificates; they are the best evidence that can be given.

The commendations which several liberal and intelligent Physicians have bestowed upon the Remedy, have already been published, and the subscriber has now the gratification of adding the following from a most respectable practising physician of Somerton, Va.

R. S. BERNARD

Somerton, May 14, 1837.

Mr. R S Bernard.

Dear Sir—This is to inform you I have tested the efficacy of your Remedy for the Cholera in several instances that have lately come under my care, and that its effect evince it to be a judicous preparation—one eminently servicable, I will say altogether competent to cure the diseases for which it is recommended. I feel no hesitation, therefore, in declaring that for the treatment of such disorders, I shall regularly dispense your Remedy from my office, and would recommend it to be kept in all families liable to to these dangerous attacks.

You may use this certificate as you will!!

Yours, very respecfully,

W. L. PARHAM

This certificate was given to my agent, E. P Nash, of Petersburg and for its importance, read Mr. Nash's remarks;

"As agent for Bernard's Cholera and Diarrhœ Medicine, I call the attention of the public to the certificate below from one of the most respectable gentlemen in the state; and I particularly call their attention to the one given by a gentleman [illegible] produce a hall dozen others from Petersburg, who have tried the medicine within two weeks past.

EDW. P. NASH

Mr. Edward P. Nash, Agent for Bernard's Cholera Medicine.

Dear Sir: I feel it a duty I owe to the proprietor of the above medicine, as well as the public generally, to inform you that the bottle of Cholera mixture which I bought at your store a few evenings since, has entirely cured me of a severe Diarrhœa. The cure was effected in taking only two doses, and as I had tried many other remedies without the least effect. I am fully of the opinion that the medicine here alluded to is every thing that it is said to be.

JAS. S. WALLACE, Petersburg, Va.

Who will neglect to supply themselves with Bernard's Remedy for Cholera, when it is so fully proven to be efficacious in all the diseases for which it is recommended? In no case has it failed to cure the most obstinate attack of summer complaint made upon children. In one instance a permanent cure was effected upon a child in this place, after the summer complaint had put it (as thought by the doctors) beyond the power of medicine to relieve. It was such an aggravated case that the child had in the course of one day and night, sixty-three evacuations from the bowels. Yet one bottle proved a sovereign remedy.

This valuable Medicine is for sale in this place by J. & W. Murphy, in Lexington by John P. Mabry, in Charlotte by Williams & Boyd.

MY BUSINESS has become so much extended, and the amount of arrearages has become so great that I must settle. It will be the greatest injustice to require me to travel all over the country for this purpose. It is to be hoped, therefore, that those who owe me will save me trouble and expense by remitting my dues through the Post Office, and that without delay.

Salisbury, June 30, 1838.

New Terms for the remainder of the present Vol. only.

IN consequence of repeated applications for the MESSENGER for a less period than an entire year, the Publisher has concluded to alter the conditions, for the present volume only, so far as to receive new subscribers for the, remainder of this volume—to commence with either the May or July number: the Eighth numbers will cost $3 34; the six numbers, (or half a year,) $2 50

The heavy expense, which the publication of the Messenger in its present style renders unavoidable, and the wish of the Proprietor still farther to improve it makes it absolutely necessary that he should hereafter receive all subscriptions invariably in advance.

Appeal after appeal has been made to delinquents, and still many withhold their just dues. Why this is so, cannot be conceived, since it is acknowledged, on all hands, that the Messenger is richly worth the amount charged for it; no better evidence of which need be mentioned than the fact that the subscription price is known to have been frequently paid for old volumes.

As heavy drafts have recently been made on the Proprietor, for expenses incurred in establishing and conducting the Messenger, it is hoped those subscribers who are still in arrears, will immediately hand in or remit the amounts they respectively owe; which, though small when considered separately, yet, taken in the aggregate, present an amount of considerable importance. In fact, if one half the amount due him could be obtained, the Proprietor would be enabled to discharge every claim against his publication at once: that done, he would bring out the next volume of the Messenger in a new dress, and improve it in many other respects.

The risk of transmitting subscriptions by mail, will be sustained by the Proprietor. But every subscriber thus transmitting payment, is requested (besides taking proper evidence of the fact and date of mail,) to retain a memorandum of the number and particular marks of the note sent.
