

POETRY.

The following lines appeared in the Evening Post some days ago, and are transferred to our columns for their beauty. Philosophy, religion and poetry, all combined in the inspiration that produced such a striking picture of that marvel and mystery: man.—New York American.

MAN.

I.
The human mind—that lofty thing!
The palace and the throne,
Where reason sits a sceptered king,
And breathes his judgment tone.
Oh! who with silent step shall trace
The borders of that haunted place,
Nor in his weakness own
That mystery and marvel hid
That lofty thing—the human mind!

II.
The human heart—that restless thing!
The tempter and the tried;
The joyous, yet the suffering—
The source of pain and pride;
The gorgeous thronged—the desolate,
The seat of love, the lair of hate—
Self-stung, self-defied!
Yet do we bless thee as thou art,
Thou restless thing—the human heart!

III.
The human soul—that startling thing!
Mysterious and sublime!
The angel sleeping on the wing
Worn by the scuffs of time—
The beautiful, the veiled, the bound,
The earth enslaved, the glory-crowned,
The stricken in its prime!
From heaven in tear to earth it stole,
That startling thing—the human soul!

IV.
And this is man—Oh! ask of him,
The gifted and forgiven—
While o'er his vision, drear and dim;
The wrecks of time are driven;
If pride or passion in their power,
Can chain the time or charm the hour,
Or stand in place of heaven!
He bends the knee, he bows the knee—
"Creator, Father, God, but thee?"

DEATH OF OLD GRIMES' CAT.
Poor old Tabby's dead that good old cat,
We ne'er see her more;
She used to eat both lean and fat,
And lie upon the floor.

She was as kind as cat could be,
And never evil thought,
But did with other cats agree,
Which made her company sought.

When winter came with living cold,
She in the corner lay;
Around her legs, her tail she'd fold,
And sleep the live long day.

She always stay'd about the house,
Like all cats ought to do;
And every day she caught a mouse—
On Sunday she caught two.

Her fame was spread both far and near;
And every cat would bow,
Just like old neighbor Samson's steer,
Would bow to Grimes' cow.

Ever since poor Spotty died,
She seemed to pine away;
To think a friend that time had tried,
Should moulder into clay.

But now she's gone, we'll let her rest;
The last of Grimes' train,
She'll sleep in peace on Spotty's breast,
Far down the muddy lane.

PETER'S VEGETABLE PILLS.

THESE Pills have long been known, and appreciated for their extraordinary and immediate powers of restoring perfect health, to persons suffering under nearly every kind of disease, to which the human frame is liable.

In many hundred of certificated instances they have even rescued sufferers from the very verge of an untimely grave, after all the deceptive nostrums of the day had utterly failed; and to many thousands they have permanently secured that uniform enjoyment of health, without which life itself is but a partial blessing. So great, indeed, has their efficacy invariably & infallibly proved, that it has appeared scarcely less than miraculous to those who were unacquainted with the beautiful philosophical principles on which they are compounded, and on which they consequently act.

The proprietor rejoices in the opportunity afforded by the universal diffusion of the daily press, for placing his VEGETABLE PILLS, within the knowledge and reach of every individual in the community. Unlike the host of pernicious quackeries, which boast of vegetable ingredients, these Pills are purely and solely vegetable, and contain neither Mercury, Antimony, Arsenic, nor any other mineral, in any form whatever. They are entirely composed of extracts from rare and powerful plants, the virtues of which, though long known to several Indian tribes, and recently to some eminent pharmaceutical chemists; are altogether unknown to the ignorant pretenders to medical science, and were never before administered in so happily efficacious a combination.

Wherever these pills have been once introduced into a family, they become a standing remedy, and are called for again and again, which is sufficient proof of their good qualities.

It is a truth, that almost every person who has ever used Peters' Vegetable Pills, recommend them to their friends, & it is from this circumstance alone, that they have gained such an unrivalled reputation.

When taken according to the directions accompanying them, they are highly beneficial in the prevention and cure of bilious fevers, fever and ague, dyspepsia, liver complaints, sick head ache, jaundice, asthma, dropsy, rheumatism, enlargement of the spleen, piles, cramp and bilious cholera, female obstructions, heart burn, pleurisy, furred tongue, distention of the stomach & bowels, incipient diarrhoea, flatulence, habitual costiveness, loss of appetite, bloated or sallow complexion, and in all cases of torpor of the bowels, when a cathartic or an aperient is needed. They have the testimony of the whole medical profession in their favor, while not a single case of ill consequences or inefficiency, can be alleged against them.

Prepared by Jos. Priestly Peters, M. D., at his Institution, for the cure of obstinate diseases, by means of Vegetable remedies, No. 129, Liberty street, New York. Each box contains 40 Pills—price 50 cents.

More than two millions of boxes of these celebrated Pills, have been sold in the United States since January 1835.

Dr. Peters has received upwards of fifteen hundred certificates, all given in consequence of the good done by his Medicines.

This valuable Medicine is for sale in this place by J. & W. Murphy, in Lexington by John P. Mabry; and can be found in almost every Town & Village in the Southern country.

N. B. Merchants can be supplied at New York prices by applying to Williams & Boyd of Charlotte, sole Agents for 10 or 12 Counties in the Western part of N. Carolina.

Important Information TO THOSE SUFFERING WITH Cholera Morbus, Diarrhoea, Summer Complaints, Colic, Cramps, and Spasms.

THE utility of R. S. BERNARD'S Remedy for Cholera has ceased to be a problem. Experience, the only sure foundation of Medical, as on all other kinds of knowledge, has effectually established what the judicious composition of the Remedy, its admirable adaptation to the various indications which occur in the course of those diseases of the stomach, liver and bowels, usually designated as Cholera complaints, led the Proprietor to anticipate from the first of all experience, however, that of men competent to discriminate accurately and to decide justly upon the effects of a medicine, must be the best; and with such in its favor, even the most fastidious in these matters, must lay aside these prejudices.

The indications of cure are—to tranquilize the stomach and bowels; to relieve the excessive purging and vomiting; to allay the increased irritability of the intestines, giving rise to increased peristaltic motion; to relieve that rheumatic state of the bowels which is often the attendant of chronic cases sometimes accompanied with inflammation and ulceration; to overcome the spasms; equalize the circulation, and restore warmth to the surface; remove congestion of the internal organs; and to relieve the morbid irritability of the brain and nervous system;—all of which has been effected by the use of Bernard's Remedy for Cholera: certificates of which have been given at various times of the efficacy in cases widely different in their origin and progress of each other.

Look to the certificates; they are the best evidence that can be given.
The commendations which several liberal and intelligent Physicians, have bestowed upon the Remedy, have already been published, and the subscriber has now the gratification of adding the following from a most respectable practicing physician of Somerton, Va.

R. S. BERNARD
Somerton, May 14, 1837.

Mr. R. S. Bernard.
Dear Sir—This is to inform you I have tested the efficacy of your Remedy for the Cholera in several instances that have lately come under my care, and that its effect evince it to be a judicious preparation—one eminently serviceable, for which it is recommended. I feel no hesitation, therefore, in declaring that for the treatment of such disorders, I shall regularly dispense your Remedy from my office, and would recommend it to be kept in all families liable to these dangerous attacks.
You may use this certificate as you will!!
Yours, very respectfully,
W. L. PARHAM

This certificate was given to my agent, E. P. Nash, of Petersburg and for its importance, read Mr. Nash's remarks:
"As agent for Bernard's Cholera and Diarrhoea Medicine, I call the attention of the public to the certificate below from one of the most respectable gentlemen in the state; and I particularly call their attention to the one given by a gentleman in this town—and if it were necessary, I could produce a half dozen others from Petersburg, who have tried the medicine within two weeks past."
EDW. P. NASH
Mr. Edward P. Nash, Agent for Bernard's Cholera Medicine.

Dear Sir: I feel it a duty I owe to the proprietor of the above medicine, as well as the public generally, to inform you that the bottle of Cholera mixture which I bought at your store a few evenings since, has entirely cured me of a severe Diarrhoea. The cure was effected in taking only two doses, and as I had tried many other remedies without the least effect. I am fully of the opinion that the medicine here alluded to is every thing that it is said to be.
JAS. S. WALLACE, Petersburg, Va.

Who will neglect to supply themselves with Bernard's Remedy for Cholera, when it is so fully proven to be efficacious in all the diseases for which it is recommended? In no case has it failed to cure the most obstinate attack of summer complaint made upon children. In one instance a permanent cure was effected upon a child in this place, after the summer complaint had put it (as thought by the doctors) beyond the power of medicine to relieve. It was such an aggravated case that the child had in the course of one day and night, sixty-three evacuations from the bowels. Yet one bottle proved a sovereign remedy.

This valuable Medicine is for sale in this place by J. & W. Murphy, in Lexington by John P. Mabry, in Charlotte by Williams & Boyd.
