AGRICULTURE.

By C. W. Everett.

How blest the farmer's simple life!—
How pure the joy it yields!

When morning wakes, with rosy hue,
O'er the far hills away,

When Sol's first beam in glory glows,
And blithe the sky-lark's song,

While noon broods o'er the sultry sky,
And sunbeams fierce are cast,

When twilight's gentlest shadows fall
Along the darkening plain,

Down the green lane young hurrying feet
Their eager pathway press;

Then, when the evening prayer is said,
And heaven with praise is blest,

Nor deem that fears his dreams alarm,
For cares, with earing din;

Ob, ye who run in folly's race,
To win a worthless prize!

Ho! monarch! flushed with glory's pride!
Thou painted, gilded thing!

Worcester Cattle Show.—The Worcester
Ægis gives a full account of the Cattle
Show at Worcester on the 9th instant.

talking some time about the cotton crop, currency, politics, etc., he presented a bill of exchange from W. P. Brooks of Paola, Mo., for $2500, in favor of Samuel Dickens, which he wished to negotiate to advantage, and a letter of recommendation from the same source.

The bills of exchange were all forgeries, and his letters of introduction counterfeits. He was carried before the Recorder and committed to the calaboose.

QUITE CHEERING TO THE LEG-TREASURERS.

There is a Mr. Patton of the North of us, who proposes, for a premium of $5000, to transport the mail from New York to New Orleans in 15 hours.

A rhyming word for "Silver."—It is a fact well known to the literary world, that there is no legitimate word in the English language that will rhyme, or, in poetic parlance, gingle with the word silver.

$50 REWARD.

ABSCONDED about the last of October, from the subscriber, at that time residing in Stokes County, N. Carolina, my Negro man COLEMAN, about 27 or 28 years of age, and of a very bright complexion. He is a Shoemaker by trade, has a very bushy head of hair, a thin visage, is spare built and weighs from 135 to 140 pounds. He has a very large scar on one of his legs near the ankle, believed to be on the right leg, also a scar on each arm just below the elbow occasioned by a burn. His heels have been frosted, which injury has left scars upon them. Coleman has a wife (a free woman) near Blakely, N. Carolina, and it is probable that he may be in that direction, although many persons believe that he was decoyed off by a white man, named Joshua Young, who left the neighborhood about the same time for Indiana. I will give a reward of Fifty Dollars to any one who will deliver Coleman to me near Brook Neal in Campbell County Va. or who will confine him in jail, so that I get him in my possession. $30 REWARD.

RANAWAY from the Subscriber living in R. Hamburg, S. C. on the 27th of August last, a negro man by the name of

he is about twenty five or thirty years of age, he is a bright mulatto, about five feet eight or ten inches high, he stoops a little when walking, steps quick, has a downcast look, he is a little blink-eyed, knock-kneed, and is a very plausible fellow. I bought said negro from Mr. Andrew Drew, of Salisbury, North Carolina, some time in November last, from which place, he brought Simeon. It is probable he will try to go back to Salisbury, as he says his mother lives there. When he left, he had on a green broad cloth frock coat, a checked shirt, striped pantalons and vest, a new straw hat, and a pair of yankee made boots. Whenever he stops, he probably will attempt to get employment in some public house as a waiter, or in some stable as ostler, as he has been accustomed to such work since he belonged to me. I will pay for his apprehension and delivery to me in Hamburg, S. C., the above reward, or TWENTY FIVE DOLLARS if lodged in any Jail in this State (South Carolina,) or North Carolina. THOMAS G. PARKINSON. Hamburg, S. C. Sept. 20th, 1839—3m5
