

ANOTHER HARRISON LETTER.

Wilmington, N. C., June 12, 1840. Editor of the Wilmington Daily Chronicle: On the 31st day of January...

Dear Sir:—Your letter of the 11th ult. reached me at North Bend by the yesterday, from whence it was sent to me this place last evening.

Dear Sir:—I am not now, or ever was, a member of an Abolition Society. I am not a member of any Society, and I do not know but as a member of one.

Dear Sir:—I am not now, or ever was, a member of an Abolition Society. I am not a member of any Society, and I do not know but as a member of one.

Dear Sir:—I am not now, or ever was, a member of an Abolition Society. I am not a member of any Society, and I do not know but as a member of one.

Dear Sir:—I am not now, or ever was, a member of an Abolition Society. I am not a member of any Society, and I do not know but as a member of one.

Dear Sir:—I am not now, or ever was, a member of an Abolition Society. I am not a member of any Society, and I do not know but as a member of one.

Dear Sir:—I am not now, or ever was, a member of an Abolition Society. I am not a member of any Society, and I do not know but as a member of one.

FROM SEVEN TO TEN THOUSAND FREEMEN AT A "LOG CABIN RAISING."

Well Done Maine! Cheering indications. The Van Buren men of the State of Maine have caught the Harrison fever.

ISAAC DYER & FORTY-TWO OTHERS. Mr. Smith has consented to deliver the address.

Gen. Harrison returned to this city last evening, accompanied by Gen. Solomon Van Rensselaer, of New York, and Maj. Clark and Col. Todd.

The New Orleans Bee of June 16th says:—We have received a letter from an intelligent gentleman of Kentucky, whose means of knowledge upon the subject are ample.

MURDER WILL OUT. "One fact is worth more than a hundred professions."

THE PEOPLE IN EARNEST. We learn from the Portland Advertiser that Edward Kent was, on Wednesday, nominated for the office of Governor.

THE PEOPLE IN EARNEST. Under this heading, the Sangamon Journal publishes a glowing account, extending through several columns, of a most enthusiastic convention held there by the young men of Illinois.

From the Log Cabin. THE OFFICE HOLDERS' CONVENTION.

On the last day of the Great Convention of the People at Baltimore, a slender and sickly band of the dwindling adherents of the Dynasty of Misrule assembled in the Musical Hall of that city.

Of course Martin Van Buren was nominated for re-election to the Presidency, without a dissent from a body so constituted, this was the most natural thing in the world.

MURDER WILL OUT. "One fact is worth more than a hundred professions." Martin Van Buren has been styled by his friends, "A Northern man with Southern principles."

THE VICE PRESIDENCY. We wish every freeman in the Union were acquainted, even so slightly as we are, with JOHN TYLER, the Reform Candidate for Vice President of the United States.

THE VICE PRESIDENCY. We wish every freeman in the Union were acquainted, even so slightly as we are, with JOHN TYLER, the Reform Candidate for Vice President of the United States.

meet. Simple and unpretending in his manners, all his habits and tastes formed from his life-long intercourse with his brother tillers of the soil, though often at the call of his country mingling in her Councils with the loftiest, Gov. Tyler is just such a man as any farmer would rejoice to have for a neighbor or companion.

Gov. Tyler was educated in the strictest school of Jeffersonian Democracy, and has ever been an ardent disciple of that school. He came into the Senate a decided supporter of the Election of Gen. Jackson, and of course of his Administration.

Gov. Tyler was educated in the strictest school of Jeffersonian Democracy, and has ever been an ardent disciple of that school. He came into the Senate a decided supporter of the Election of Gen. Jackson, and of course of his Administration.

Gov. Tyler was educated in the strictest school of Jeffersonian Democracy, and has ever been an ardent disciple of that school. He came into the Senate a decided supporter of the Election of Gen. Jackson, and of course of his Administration.

Gov. Tyler was educated in the strictest school of Jeffersonian Democracy, and has ever been an ardent disciple of that school. He came into the Senate a decided supporter of the Election of Gen. Jackson, and of course of his Administration.

Gov. Tyler was educated in the strictest school of Jeffersonian Democracy, and has ever been an ardent disciple of that school. He came into the Senate a decided supporter of the Election of Gen. Jackson, and of course of his Administration.

Gov. Tyler was educated in the strictest school of Jeffersonian Democracy, and has ever been an ardent disciple of that school. He came into the Senate a decided supporter of the Election of Gen. Jackson, and of course of his Administration.

Gov. Tyler was educated in the strictest school of Jeffersonian Democracy, and has ever been an ardent disciple of that school. He came into the Senate a decided supporter of the Election of Gen. Jackson, and of course of his Administration.

Gov. Tyler was educated in the strictest school of Jeffersonian Democracy, and has ever been an ardent disciple of that school. He came into the Senate a decided supporter of the Election of Gen. Jackson, and of course of his Administration.

ain, and the part which General Harrison acted in that drama, have been matter of history for the last twenty-four years, and have heretofore been universally accredited; the Administration party are now using every effort, to persuade the people that they have been deluded, and that Gen. Harrison never was in a battle in his life.

Gov. Tyler was educated in the strictest school of Jeffersonian Democracy, and has ever been an ardent disciple of that school. He came into the Senate a decided supporter of the Election of Gen. Jackson, and of course of his Administration.

Gov. Tyler was educated in the strictest school of Jeffersonian Democracy, and has ever been an ardent disciple of that school. He came into the Senate a decided supporter of the Election of Gen. Jackson, and of course of his Administration.

Gov. Tyler was educated in the strictest school of Jeffersonian Democracy, and has ever been an ardent disciple of that school. He came into the Senate a decided supporter of the Election of Gen. Jackson, and of course of his Administration.

Gov. Tyler was educated in the strictest school of Jeffersonian Democracy, and has ever been an ardent disciple of that school. He came into the Senate a decided supporter of the Election of Gen. Jackson, and of course of his Administration.

Gov. Tyler was educated in the strictest school of Jeffersonian Democracy, and has ever been an ardent disciple of that school. He came into the Senate a decided supporter of the Election of Gen. Jackson, and of course of his Administration.

Gov. Tyler was educated in the strictest school of Jeffersonian Democracy, and has ever been an ardent disciple of that school. He came into the Senate a decided supporter of the Election of Gen. Jackson, and of course of his Administration.

Gov. Tyler was educated in the strictest school of Jeffersonian Democracy, and has ever been an ardent disciple of that school. He came into the Senate a decided supporter of the Election of Gen. Jackson, and of course of his Administration.

Gov. Tyler was educated in the strictest school of Jeffersonian Democracy, and has ever been an ardent disciple of that school. He came into the Senate a decided supporter of the Election of Gen. Jackson, and of course of his Administration.

The following persons will open their houses, on the 4th July for the accommodation of the Ladies to which all are respectfully invited.

The following persons having been appointed by the Tippecanoe Club, to act as Managers on the 4th of July, are requested to meet at Dr. Henderson's Office on Friday the 3rd at 10 o'clock.

SHERIFF'S SALE. WILL be sold for cash at the Court House in Salisbury on the 3rd day of August next, being Court day, the

AND LOT in Salisbury, occupied by Wm. D. Crawford, and which the said Crawford purchased of Thos. A. Hague, to satisfy a Writ of Vendition Expositio in favor of D. F. Caldwell and wife against said Crawford:—Also, at the same time and place, SIX valuable NEGROES, a man named John, a woman named Mary, girl Eliza, girl Martha, boy Bob and boy Jim, a Lot in Salisbury, on which is situated a good Threshing and Cotton Machine; and an unimproved Lot adjoining Mrs. Woodson and others, to satisfy Executions in favor of D. A. Davis, W. March, Adm'r, Andrew Baggerly, William Walton and others.

NEW CARRIAGE MAKING. THE Subscriber begs leave to inform his friends and the public at large, that he has commenced the above business, on Main Street, north of the Court-House, where he is now prepared to make to order, on short notice, CARRIAGES, OF EVERY DESCRIPTION, on the most moderate terms, out of good and durable materials, and in a style of workmanship inferior to none in this section of Country. In tending to make his stay permanent, he hopes by strict attention to business, to be able to render satisfaction to all those who may favor him with their patronage.

NEW AND GOOD. Just received at the Salisbury Coffee House, MONS. ROUCHE respectfully informs his friends and customers, and the public generally, that he has now on hand at his Establishment in Salisbury, a splendid assortment of every thing desirable in his line of business, and which he will sell very low for cash: Sugar at 8, 9 and 10 lbs. to the dollar; Coffee at 5, 6 and 6 1/2 lbs. to the dollar; Leaf Sugar of different qualities at 20 and 25 cents per lb.; first rate Chewing Tobacco from 20 to 75 cents per lb.; and all kinds of drinkables, such as Albany Ale; New Ark Cider; London Porter; the best kind of Claret Wine, and all other kinds of Wines; Lime Juice and Lemon Syrup; all kinds of Cordials; all kinds of Liqueurs, and great many other kinds of Groceries, such as Tea, Cloves, Cinnamon Bark; all kinds of Nuts, and a great many other articles that he has on hand too numerous to mention, and according to the pressure of the times, he will sell very low indeed for cash.

Dr. James G. Womack, HAVING located himself permanently in the Town of Salisbury, tenders his services to his Citizens, and the adjacent counties, all the various branches of his profession, and can be found at his office on Main Street, door below the office of the Western Courier, (June 26, 1840—47)