COTORAL TICKET. is now complete, THOMAS F. liaving heen placed on it for the legist District. The spirit and promptitude the which the Whigs have acted in this matthat the thet lie leelingly alive to the imperests sevolved. The Ticket is as CHARLES McDowell, of Burke co. I.s. WELLBORN, of Wilkes. Rammon, of Lincoln. MERCAN, of Caswell. BERRIEN RENCHER, of Chatham. B. Karty, of Moore. H. Smitte, of Orange. Manty, of Wake. 1 G. RUFFIN, of Franklin. W. CHERRY, of Bertie, Thomas E. Jones, of Perquimons. 13 Josian Cottins of Washington. W. Bayan, of Carteret, 15. DANIEL B. BAKER, of New-Hanover.

CANDIDATES IN ROWAN,

Issae Burns, Francis Williams W. Long, and John H.

CANDIDATES IN DAVIDSON. For the Senate - Alfred Hargrave, Esq. SB. L. Beall, Chas. Brommell. Col John M. Smith, B. B. Roberts, (William Kennady.

CANDIDATES IN CABARRUS. For the Scatte + C. Melchor, Esq.

CANDIDATES IN SURRY

Cols Purvear.

(V. B.) P. Dobson. H. P. Poindexter, (Whig.) N. Boyden. Q. Franklin. P. B. Roberts, Dick'n Taliver, T. C. Houser.

(Whig.)

We are remested to announce JOHN VER. Esq. as a candidate to represent wen comply in the Commons in the next

NEW CARRIAGE MAKING

lens leave to inform his and and file public at large, that he has ced the shave business, on Main Street, halforse, where he is now prered to make to order, on short notice,

CARRIAGES.

OF EVERY DESCRIPTION. he most moderate terms, out of good and duamaterials, and in a style of workmanship brice to none in this section of Country. Innding to make his star permanent, he hopes by Martin to a briose who may favor him with Orders from a distance will be thankfulreived and faithfully attended to. with nearness and despatch, and on modlaterms to correspond with the times. One or two good workmen in the athe of historiess will meet with employment, NATHAN BROWN.

1840. - 6w48

SHERIFF'S SALE.

Vin Sals sony of the Srd day of August Therog Caut day the by Wm. D. Crawford, which the stid Crawford purchased of Thos. digge, to satisfy a Writ of Venditioni Ex-

Caldwell and wife a-Also, at the same time MI taluable NEGROES, managed John a groman named Mary, girl and Cotton Machine; and an unimed Lot ad bining Mrs. Woodson and others. March, Almir, Andrew Baggerly, William J. H. HARDIE, Shiff.

NEW AND GOOD. received at the Salisbury Coffee House.

TONS NODUITE respectfully informs his and contorrers, and the public genhas an won hand at his Establishalsplendid assortment of ev. the lo his line of business, and very low for eash : Sugar at to the dollar : Coffee at 5, 6 and della; Louf Sugar of different and 25 cents per lb.; first rate Tobacco from 20 to 75 cents per lb.; of Brinkables, such as Albany Ale; Coder London Porter : the best kind Wine, and al! other kinds of Wines; the and Liemon Syrup; all kinds of all kinds of Liquots, and great many ods of Groceries, such as Teas, Cloves, Back; all kinds of Nuts, and a great other articles that he has on hand too nu-ous to mention, and according to the pres-tof the times, he will self very low indeed the liberal patronage he has heretofore reed, and by his strict attention to business

Mishury, June 12, 1840-1946

Matchman,

PENDLETON BRUNER. EDITORS AND PROPRIETORS.

Published Weekly at Two Dolls, and Fifty Cts.

NO. 52-VOLUME VIII. WHOLE NO. 416

SALISBURY, JULY 24, 1840.

Poetical.

THE DEFAULTER'S FAREWELL. Air - The Bride's Farewell.

Farewell Amos! then art filling. Extra Globes with extra lies ; I would aid thee, oh, how willing! But my dark fate onward cries. Farewell, Amos, now I leave thee, Hopes and fears my bosom swell; Where I go they may believe me Thou could'st never, Fare thee well !

Farewell, MARTIN! thou art smiling, But there's sadness on thy brow; Vain the hope that's now begailing, Vain the trust that fills thee now. Farewell, MARTIN! thou didst give me Office, ere thy fortunes feel : And I'll love, although I leave thee, Suffering MARTIN, fare thee well!

Farewell, Calhots ! thou art turning, As thou didst when first we met. Still thy patriot bosom burning, On the strongest side to get. Farewell, mild and gentle Levi, Though more dear than words can tell. AMOS! MARTIN! CALHOUN! LEA!! All belov'd one's, fare ye well.

> From the Log Cabin Advocate. POMPEY SMASH.

> > TUNE -" Jim Brown."

The following song was handed in by a 'gem-

(V. B.) I am a New York nigger, and my name's Pomger dash :

I'm to dine wid the President, case I'm from Kinderhook An I'm quainted wid his sassy son jes like a book:

I go de famous Army Bill, for fightin I'm de stoff. The sassy Ingens mus be whip'd, dev've whip'd us long enuff :

Dey've whip'd de Gineral Matty, an de aid de An Benton, Blair, and Amcs K. an all de blood bonn crew :

I vote for massa Matty, for he always go de fig-When dere's any voten done for the rights of de

John Calbonn, To pay for the French furniture, de plate and white man waits. Dat Matty bought when minister of dese Benighted States: For de slick cle fox, what votes for de nigger.

Why he say all men bawn free an equal, bofe de Edward Norton, of Eastport, (Me.) was hang white man and, the darkey, an ip any hab de ling lifeless athwart the heat. power gib it to de darkey. Now, my dea friens, I Young Peach, after thus escaping from their you know massa Van Buren second dis notion, hands, travelled ten miles through Mangrove ebery time de rights ob de nigger come into con | bushes part of the time, and swimming the re- feelings, that tract wid de rights ob de ole Revolution soldier. mainder He was stripped as they all were on such an

VILL, in sold for each at the Court House Matty walk'ed in de footsteps, and did de ting was right. When he voted for to bolish out de nasty word

Up to de polls de nigger now can strut wid mas An push de soldier back and say, dis is de rights

Stan back an let de darkey come-he go de hole For Martin, Amos, Blair & Co. de friens ch de

I spec to hab an office soon, on massy Matty's

He's got de money pus in han, and wants de na-Dey better mind dis sly de fox, what come from Bartha, bry Bob and boy Jim-a He git he finger in de pie an eat him like a book: begged for life and water. The Captain not He git he finger in de pie an eat him like a book: begged for tite and water. In and I was being and control of the country; and be proper source and the legislation of the country; and be just tuling in the fear of God -2 Sam. 23-3.

A votin for dis cunnin fox, de frien ob de nig-back you New Yawk niggers.

To de master ob de Globe, now I drink de goblet And to de master o' de pus, I fill de flowin cup; To all de loafer focos, I gib de frienly han, An I'm de frien throughout, to de famous little

Now go it New Yawk darkeys, an cut de hansom figger, In votin for de ole fox, de frien ob de nigger.

"Ing "-Somebody writes us from Indiana that "Tillming (Tilman) A. Howard can't come it for Governor." Tilming is they came off to breakfast they should have him. and forward the money, free of expense. He to which, under any circumstances, it would be now notice two of their objections to Harrison, the candidate that works in a collar, it will be recollected .- Greensboro Patriot.

[By the U. S. Mail, Schr. Hayne] PIRACY AND MURDER.

the loss of the Br. brig Vergon, and her capture by pirates. 1st May, 1840 - together with a list of the crew saved and those murdered for Halifax, with a cargo of 85 puncheons Rum, and a crew consisting of James Conning. ham master, and John McCloud mate, residents of Halifax, Geo. McCoy, Benj Pesch, Rdwd. Norton, and James Tyler, (colored man) cook. bearing south by west three leagues distant, a boat was seen coming from the shore and making for the brig-at first sight the Captain supposing it to be filled with some shipwrecked seamen, he bore down for it, but the wind being the proximity of the brig to the boat, the latter ly. their shots they poured volley after volley at the brig's crew, who were obliged to retreat below with the exception of the mate and one seaman, who took refuge behind the masts. Here they remained without any hopes of life except by went below, and thus left the decks clear for the pirates, who immediately hoarded and ordered the Captain to come on deck. On the Captain obeying their command, one of them stated that a Spanish Man of War was lying in the river, and had sen! for their papers. They next ordered the flag to be hoisted and the vessel steered for the land, which was done, and at night the brig was anchored in shore, close to a fisherman's but. The sails were clued And I'm guine on to Washington to cut a nig- up and the crew ordered aloft to furl them. After this was done they conducted each one as he came from aloft and confined them altogether in the forecastle and closed tight. In about an hour and a half they opened the scuttle, and ordered I'm a new grit dimecrat - go de whole figger. them on deck. On reaching the deck they found quiet submission, for there were no arms on board, until the pirates came alongside, when by a motion to go below, made by the waiving of the hand of one of the pirates, they too reluctantly

For Massa Van Buren, de ole frien ob de nig- an addition to the pirates' gang of four fishermen. who, with the first, were eating, and drinking. The crew were then allowed samething to eat. During the whole night a strict watch was kept by the pirates, and no one was allowed to ap-

The next morning they ordered the crew to get the brig underway, and after all the sails were set, they streted the vessel about ten miles along the coast where a river discharged itself into the sea. Up this river they conducted the brig about six miles inland - the name of the River is Panto del Rio; here they ran the brig ashore and drawn picture of a partizar. It was not said ordered the crew to discharge the cargo. They it political, purposes, but in justice to what I go de whole Sub Treasury Scheme, wid massa | obliged Capt. Conningham to assist in discharg ing, although he was feeble from age. When the eargo was out, they ordered the Captain and ment and held up by his fellow citizens for three of the crew into their boat, which already An for de splendid English coach, on which de had five pirates in it. The Pirates told them all that they were not going to kill them, but gosailors tow the boat, and when about four gun I think most seriously, that I'm a new fangled dimecrat - I vote the whole shots from the brig, the work of death brigan, by things is one of the dangers of one of the Pirates, in the bow of the best, stab- I most love. I do not say bing the Cook in the heart. This was about 4 Gen H. is a Christain, n o'clock, and the signal they had to commence the he is not. I know that Spoken .- Whaw! whaw! De eb- massacre was the order to cease rowing. After erlastin blessin ob de whole nigger race rest on killing the Cook they threw his body overboard. mind has been de dat great frien oh de nigger, massa Van Buren and then stabbed him again while in the water. ject of sersons Bress God, I spect to see de day when dis here At this moment young Peach sprang overboard is pass. nigger will take he seat in de halls ob Congress. and made for the shore, among the Mangrove er heat. mining of overy discription in his line will Den I get up an make speech to de nasty bushes in which he secreted himself. Once he ter of Gen. Whigs, an say -Stan back dere, you no frien to looked back and saw the Captain's head over de nigger like de President. What do massa the gunwale of the heat, and saw the Pirates Jefferson say in he Decoration ob Independence? | outling his throat. The body of another sailur.

> by the Pirates, of every thing but the pantaloons. Hence, his feet were continually bleed ing from the cuts he received on the cord rocks Doring this long period, he had nothing to subsist on but a wild pigeon he killed with a slick on the second morning in the Mangrove bushes! Still he wandered on sucking the blood and eating the fiesh of this bird At last he saw a small schooner sailing along the coast, but it growing dark, he soon lost sight of her. Here he slept all night, and on the morrow he saw with mistrust the schooner had reached in shore, and fearing he was about to fall into the hands of some of the same gang, he hesitated a moment, but such was his miserable condition from starvation and hirst, and the heat of the sun on his bare budy. that he had rather die than continue such a mis etable existence-he therefore swam off to the schooner and threw himself upon his knees and cast away sailor, took care of him and by signs made him understand he was safe.

After seeing the unfortunate man attended to, Capt. Antonion Peloso, the worthy comman-Spoken-Whaw! whaw! whaw! When der of the Schooner, coasted along the shore in git in dis here office, and finger in ule Uncle search of the vessel supposed to be wrecked. Sam's pocket, den I come out, wid massa Mat- When within 9 miles of Cape Antonio, he landty, a new grit dimecrat, and dat is an ole feder | ed at the spot which the English Sailor pointed alist dyed in de wool. In we can relect de ole out, thinking that the vessel was there, and fox. I spec to be Minister Penitentiary to de having no suspicion of Pirates. On Capt. Pecourt of Johnny Bull, whar massa Van Buren leso's landing he was met by the seven Pirates study de science ob dimecracy. Massa Kindall and four Fishermen, who threatened his life, nudder great man. He be Minister Penitentia | but by artifice he deceived them and gained ry to de court of Philip Louis, de Parley Vo) their confidence From them he gained the in-Mountseer .- Massa Benton he guine to tread in telligence of an English Brig having been tade footsteps ob he great predecessor, and massa ken, and part of their crew mordered, that two Calhoun where he guine? I spec he hab to were still alive but would soon be put to death. nullify 'gain. Whaw! whaw! Stan It was now that the brave Spanish Capt. Don Antonio Peluso determined to save these unfor tunate or die in the attempt. He gave the Pirates three muskets and invited them to break. fast with him on the morrow, but before leaving them he sought an opeortunity of seeing the two sailors who were in their power and still alive.

nd at a signal given he and his crew rushed on them and secured the whole that came off in the host. After confining them, Capt. P. manned his host and went ashore and took the The following information, furnished by a resident of Havanna, contains full particulars of two pirates who were guarding the two sailors, prisoners. There then was a scene beyond the power of pen to describe. The liberator and liberated rushing into each other's arms. - The Pi-The Br. brig Vernon, lest Jamaica 26th April, rates and four fishermen are now sale in the Punta prison, and next week will suffer death.

J. S. JENKINS, formerly of Columbia, (S. C.) Havana, June 19, 1840.

On the 1st May, at 10 A. M. Cape Autonio, GEN, HARRISON'S MORAL CHARAC-TER.

We find the following interesting letter, from the Rev. Sylvester Holmes, in a late number of the Boston Recorder, a religious light there was but little progress made. On journal of high standing in this communi-It fully confirms some statements reswas discovered to contain 7, men, armed with peeting Gen. Harrison's christain benevomuskets and knives When within teach of lence and moral character, which appeared in our paper of last week:- Boston Atlas.

> To the editor of the Recorder : "I have noticed in the Atlas, a communication, in which reference was made to me. If I do not mistake, J. T., the writer in the from the Anniversaries in New York, I ton's birth day. field conversation with a gentleman to whose name the initials J. T. would answer; among the various subjects, Gen. Harrison's name was introduced and that very naturally, as I have more than once been in Oand other Western states. It did not might or would be repeated, much less published. As my much esteemed friend thought proper to refer to some facts by me stated. I can only say that they were very correctly repeated, and if I regret that they were published, it is only because I have, as a minister, had little to do with any of the exciting subjects of the day. These I have hought it proper to leave to those who have much calorie in their composition: they can breather a hot atmosphere most freely. I think I have not voted more than three imes in twenty five years! I do not say Gen. WM. HENRY HARRISON. this because I am sure I have done right in neglecting to go quietly to the polls 1 have stated this fact that all may know that what I said of Gen. II. was not the over-

I know of Gen. H. I see not why a man called from retirethe highest place in the gift of the nation. should be called an angel or a devil, as will ing to get ballast for the brig. They made the best serve the purposes of him who speaks > more than a year a. lie meeting of a bible in er's church in Cincin ing he made an address known, who ircumstance on that tive. I remail sted me very much: necasion which The Rev. Mr. Roper, a Methodist clergyman of much distinction. was a speaker state to violate it. I have already made public, son, and Van Buren is nothing but his pleage on that occasion. He had been a corporal the principles by which I should be governed, if tool to carry out his plans. This he probable in the army commanded by Gen. H. Both elected President, so far it relates to the groper promised to do when he entered into the high the gentlemen alluded to their former rela- Executive duties of that office. But almost in- office which he now fills. The Bible directs in tion and present meeting with mutual kind- numerable applications have been made to me, to select wise and good men for our rolers, which ness and respect, and with much feeling. I for my opinions relative to matters of legislation, appear from the following texts: Dethro case afterwards often heard lie Rev. Mr. R speak of Gen. H. in the kindest manner .- lished letters to Mr. WILLIAMS and Mr. DEN- God, men of tinth, hating covetousness; and Nearly a year after the above meeting, Ny, will show that I do not consider the Presi place such over them to be rulers." Exc. 18-21. when an Agent of the American Bible So- dent a constituent branch of the Legislature : This advice not with the approbation of God, ciety, I had addressed the Rev. Mr. Brooks' but it is impossible to read the letters that have and Moses acted accordingly. The following congregation, where Gen. H. attends wor. been addressed to me, without believing that ma- text contains the words of God addressed to Daship, he did pledge the lot of land to the my of the writers had adopted the opinion, that wid: f. The God of Israel said, the Rock of I present when S. P. Chase, Esq. was appointed to go and receive the deed. to say these things in justice to myself, and sentiments, more than almost any thing else. It would seem that the great mass of the people for from a motive unworthy of any Minter, to serve the purposes of a party. I have only stated what I know of the gentleman who is now before our nation. If others know base things I can only say I me the channel through which such turbid waters flow.

SYLVESTER HOLMES.

AMOS KENDALL DUT-DONE!

That Amos Kendall is not "solitary and alone" in his newspaper speculation, will appear from the following, taken from the New Orleans Bulletin:

The Pirate Captain said, that after murdering Mexico, the second part of Mr. Kendall's game upon which the Legislature may be called to his character the Sprilsmen have invented charthe Captain and part of the crew he reserved with the Extra Globe. It seems that Almonte, act, the pledges and opinions should be required, ges and preferred them against him, which have the rest to paint their boat and mend their sails who, it is known, has occupied a high place a lif required at all, of the candidates for Congress, all been proved fulse and erroneous, yet they informed them that he had picked up on the called 'Aurora'-which circular he has directed to a Republic, and of the most dangerous tenden- or be stlent. But they are afraid to be silent coast an English sailor, who probably had es- to every functionary of the Central government, ev. caped from this vessel, and to-morrow when requiring him to obtain all the subscribers be can, | 3d. Because, upon all the questions in regard swing on, although they are run out. I will Thus they parted for the night. On to morrow, closes with this usual flourish. 'God and Lib- at all proper for me to make answers, my senti- and the first is, that he is too old. With resthe Pirates, faithful to their engagement, came erty. [Satan Despotism?] Mexico, May 12, ments have already been fully and clearly given pect to this objection, I will merely remark that on board Capt. Peloso's schooner to breakfast, 1840.

Tyon the N. Y. Courier and Enquirer. GEN. HARRISON AND THE WHIGS OF THE NEW YORK LEGISLATURE.

dence between the Whigs of the New York than he ascended. Jackson fought two bar Legislature and the Whig candidates for the Presidency and Vice Presidency of the United he flew until he roosted on the Presidential the States. The action which led to the correspon- At the time belought those battles the nation dence was comsummated on the 22d of February, the birth day of Washington; and the fourth her sons bleeding and dying in the battle fiel of July, the birth day of the Republic, has been | While this dark cloud spread its hoorrors ov for its publication. The letter of General Har- leans fortified himself, by which means he easily rison is frank, full and explicit. It takes the conquered the British army, who were expect ground that should be maintained by every presidential candidate. The adoption of the principles of the letter will do more than any thing of lightning and electrified the people, which else to carry back the Republic to the purity and enrapt red their minds and gorged them with integrity of its earlier days, and to introduce an enthusiasm, that for several years their reason. administration worth to succeed that of Wash-

ALBANY, 28th February, 1840.

Sin .- On behalf of the Whig members of the Legislature, being a majority of both the Sen ate and the House of Assembly, the undersigned have the honor to transmit to you the en closed Resolution prepared by us and passed with perfect unanimity and the most enthusiastic feel Atlas, is a gentleman of no ordinary merit, ing, by those members, at a meeting beld on Satin all the relations of life. In returning orday last, being the anniversary of Washing | goat, he was moved with Choler against the

We have also the honor to transmit to you a because he was not his political friend, and have paper containing a report in full of the speeches ling no control over him, he poured out his wrath and proceedings, at that meeting. We have the fullest confidence that in the and stamped upon it with his feet. About the views there expressed as to the character and time he perpetrated this vite and arbitrary not, policy of the present administration, as well as he remarked, that if Congress had consulted his in the tributes paid to your own character and the would have put them upon a plan for a then occur to me that the conversation public services, and to those of the distinguish which was tacitly saying that his wisdom was ed citizen associated with you in the Harrisburg superior to the united wiscom of Congress, and nomination, we had given utterance not only to that wisdom must die with him. Now what our own feelings and convictions, but to those of was his plan? There can be no doubt at all a large majority of the People of this State.

We are, with high respect. Your friends and fellow citizens, G. C. Verplanck, Martin Lee, Of the Senate. John Magnard, C. E. Clark, Wm. Duer. Later B. Porter,

D. B. St. John, J. Hobbard,

NORTH BEND, O. May 23, 1840.

Gentlemen : I have the honor to acknowledge | to be found in their characters. Washington had the receipt of your letter of the 25th February much more sound and useful knowledge than conveying the proceedings of a meeting of the Jackson. Washington was considerate and pro-Whig members of the Legislature, convened in | deut in all his acrs-Jackson impredent, rank the capitol of the State on the 22d of that month, and precipitate. Washington proved his humil-

deray, impressed with the honor which has been the Revol tionary war was over. Jackson when conferred upon me by the distinguished body, thelast war was over, instead of rendering up his whom on this occasion you represent. The sword to Congress, paraded with it round the great object of both my civil and military life has | Capitol at Washington. A campaign of more heen to serve my country, to the utmost of my than seven years proved Washington to be a abilities, and to obtain its approbation .- The hope man of real military talents. Jackson's camof this has often cheered me in circumstances of | paign was so short, that his military talents have great difficulty and embarrassment.

go somewhat beyond the mere purpose of acknow !- military fame, like that of his civil career, would edging the receipts of your communication, and have sunk much below par. Washington's moruse the occasion for making a few remarks, al character was unsullied; he selected for his which circumstances seem to require from me, in bosom friend a virtuous and amiable lady. Was respect to a declaration of opinions, or pledges, Jackson's mind embued with purity and justice as to my fature conduct, required of candidates when he selected his wife? Let his admirers

the country. My opinions on important subjects, profage swearer, and hesitated not to take the have been expressed from time to time, as those name of the most High in vain. Washington, subjects have arisen, and since my name has although as brave a man as ever lived deemed it been mentioned among those from whom a se- absurd to prove his bravery by fighting duthis service lection might be made for the office of President, els. But did Jackson's conscience prevent n with moral I have in several letters to friends, fully and him from this brotal mode of murder? It surely fall out any man frankly avowed my sentiments. Farther than | did not. And did the people expect a pure stream here he was well this. I cannot suppose intelligent persons could from such a polluted fountain? From the manharacter was defec. desire me to go. The prople of this country do ner in which they acted, it would seem they did not rely on professions, promises, and pledges. but to their sorrow they have discovered the They know, that if the candidate is unprinci- stream to be as foul as the fountain from which pled, he will not scruple to give any pledge that it flows. All the p litical evils, under which may be required of him, and as little will be hes- the nation is now groaning, originated with Jack or even to the proper mode of conducting basi- | Mass the following advice. "Theo shall pro ness in the two houses of Congress . My publivide out of all the people, able men, such as fear the Presidential office was the proper source and rael spake to me, He that ruleth over men mont opinion in my judgment, at war with every Solumon says, "when the righteous are in an Now, Mr. Editor, I have been compelled dangerous consequence. The prevalence of such | beareth rule, the people mourn."- Prov. 29-2. porcer of the Government in the hands of a sine had last sight of the foregoing texts of Scripture. of office. I feel it my most solemn duty to resist, subject. It is stronge that the people at the pledges or opinions on subjects which belong to condemn Slavery, should have overlooked the am very happy, that truth does not make the future legislation of Congress - because, above tex's which so plainly point out their doletters to Mr. Williams and Mr. Denny, that the subject of Slavery is not plain, but with re-Congress should be left as much as possible on- good to out duty in choosing officers, it is entiretrammelled by executive influence in the dis by plain. The abolitionists and others certainly charge of its legislative functions; and that a knt withat Gen Jackson did not fear and reverhetter guarantee for the correct conduct of a lence the Almighty, yet they made choice of him Chief Magistrate may be found in his charac- for President of the United States. ter and in the course of his former life, than in Gen. Harrison's moral character is pure and pledges and opinions given during the pendency unblemished, which must have been effectuated of a doubtful contest; and that although recog by his taking the Divine precepts for the rule of "Gen. Almonte, who it will be recollected by nising the right of the people to be informed of his conduct; and as to his military character, it all our readers figured conspicuously with Santa | the leading political opinions of the candidates is certainly better established than that of Jack Anna, in the Texian campaign, is playing in for offices of trust, vet as it regards the subjects son's. But not withstanding the excellency of that now the work was done, and to morrow mong the Central absolutists, has resigned, and 2d Because, the habit of considering a single still continue to repeat the same charges, which they must die. In order to gain greater confi has issued a circular, containing the prospectus individual as the source from which all the mean shows the meanness of their minds, and that dence with the Pirates, Capt. Antonio Peloso of a gazette which he proposes to publish, to be sures of government should emanate, is degrading they are necessivated to adopt this wicked course

ALMONTE. to the public, in a manner to entitle them to cre. many of the administration party asserted when dence, as I conceive that no honest man soffer his friends to publish documents name which were not a then will opinions which he was not then will which were not genuine, or e

Accept, gentlemen, the assurance Messrs, Verplanck, Lee, Maynard, D. Clark, Porter, St. John and Hubbard.

Communications.

[FOR THE WATCHMAN.]

Gen. Jackson's popularity always of me, to be founded upon the sand, and ha quently brought to my mind the man in the fa ed up towards the sun, the heat of which m We publish below an interesting correspon- ed his wings and he fell with greater rapidi which caused him to obtain wax wings by wh involved in war, her commerce suspended a to his fire without any sort of a screen. This exploit flew over the country with the rapidi ing powers appeared to be suspended, as if some artfol demon had put a spell upon them. Du Jackson a pair of wax wings which swelled his ambition to overflowing, and caused him, like the proud king, Nebuchadnezzar, to say in hillient, "I will ascend above the heights of the clouds," and I will govern the nation independ ent of the Constitution and of the Council as will of the people. Like Daniel's ram, " in did according to his will," and like the be President of the Bank of the United States. upon the Bank, and east it down to the ground but it was the Sub-Treasury scheme; and we have reason to believe that the Standing Arms of two hundred thousand men, is also a plan o Jackson's, because Van Boren dared not in have concerted and revealed either of these scheme without the consent of his master, he being Jack son's President and not the people's. Hence it appears that these eggs were laid by Jackson, Of the Assembly, and Van Buren being very docile to his illustri ous predecessor, and accustomed to a sedanta; life, was chosen to hatch them, but I guess Van will find cook eggs hard to hatch. This great innovator and inventor of plans, was spoken of by many, as a second Washington, whereas it is doubtful whether there is one trail of resemblance I her you to believe. Gentlemen, that I am jiv by rendering up his sword to Congress, when not been sufficiently proved, but it is very prepa-You will pardon me. I trust, if in this letter I ble if the war had lasted seven years, that his answer this question. Washington feared God My public life, not now a short one, is before and venerated his name-Jackson was a most principle of the constitution, and of deep and thority, the people rejoice : but when the wicked would tend to consolidate the whole substantial who put Gen. Jackson in the Presidential Chair, ole tean; a tendency which, whether in or cut and many others that might be cited on the same I have declined therefore to give any further | North who appeal to the Bible for argument to 1st. I conceive, for the reasons given in my to in choosing their rulers. The Scripture on lest they should lose their soap, therefore they