ELECTION NEWS.

MISSOURI .- We have sufficient returns from this State to know it has gone for Van Buren. They have elected a Tory Governor, and beat the Whig ticket for Congruss. It is also probable that the Locos will have a majority in the Legislature. Not prepared yet to say whether it is a gain upon the vote of 1338.

ILLINOIS .- From Illinois we have news confirming our expectations. She has gone for Van Buren, having elected a Tory Legislature.

A gentleman of distinguished character writing from Illinois says the State is cer tain to go for Harrison in November.

Indiana - Bigger's (Whig) majority for Governor in 75 Counties, is 9.925. KENTUCKY.-Letcher's majority in 88

Counties for Governor, is 17,750.

We notice the Whigs at home and abroad, in counting up their loss and gain in the late battle between themselves and the Tories, count on a Representative from the 10th District in the next Congress, on the supposition that Mr. Fisher will resign his seat. This is all perfectly right; nor is it to be sup- | king the East the seat of war, with the Britposed, we think, that a gentleman of such loud Republican and Democratic professions as the Hon. Charles Fisher, will hold on to a scat in Congress, knowing that so large a majority of those he represents is opposed to him as he does. He will resignor ought to-of course, and let the people dates, order, however, was restored.

The English and French papers are filled with long articles, some of them highly inflammatery in their character, called forth by the ar ticle referred to. War and preparations for war are their burden, and affairs have really an alarming aspect.

NORTH EASTERN BOUNDARY.

The Report of the Commissioners on the North Eastern Boundary Line has been published, and an opinion was prevailing that Great Britain has a decided right to the whole of the disputed territory. The Report contends for as much, and the warm tory papers were putting the case strongly to the ' honor of old England." The Liverpool Mail says:

"The President steam ship, which sails today, will take out some intelligence which will rather admonish the President of the U. States, and Gov. Fairfield of Maine. The report of the commissioners on the North Eastern Bound ary has been published, and we learn is decisive as to the right of Great Britain to the whole of the disputed territory, and leaning to the opiuion that she is entitled even to some part of the State of Maine itself."

VERY LATE FROM EUROPE.

Correspondence of the Nat. Intelligencer.

NEW YORK, August 18.

By the President here, and the Acadia at Boston, via Halifax, there is a bost of important news, so important even as to threaten a rupture between France and England on the Eastern question. The four great Powers, it appears, to the exclusion of France, have taken the side of the Porte, while France sides with Mehemet Ali and a secret treaty is said to have been ogreed upon, of which France was kept ignorant. The Parisian journals are all in a blaze. They breathe little but war. The French Government have also taken steps to add 100,000 men to the army. It follows from this, I suppose, to convicted. that the four Powers will fan the Syrian insurrection, which has become more formidable. If Mehemet Ali does not assent to the offers of the Porte, sanctioned by England, Austria, Russia, and Prussia, they are to compel him, which will lead to war with him, if not with France. War with France, though France is highly embittered, is not to be seriously apprehended .-France has Algiers to take care of, and maish fleet in the Mediterrean, would hardly add to her glory.

Affairs in Spain are again assuming a perturbed state. There has been a serious riot in Barcelons, and disturbances in Madrid, created by the Queen's sanction to nomination of William H. Harrison, by

A Just Complaint .- The editor of the Emancipator, although an Abolitionist, is yet an American citizen, and as such is en titled to certain rights. by D. A. Miller and H. Walser, Esqrs. and others. The day was pleasant. The Whigs animated, and the whole proceedings showed much of the spirit of '76, and all would have passed off harmoniously had we not have been insulted by an attempt of the Locos to hoist a red petti- rying on coat flag, purporting to be granny Harrison, as they called it. But in reality was said to be the etticoat of a negro woman's in the service of John M. Stafford, one of the principal actors in R. Monroe and E. Birckhead, for $76, I believe, given by Jesse Lewis, Constable of Randolph county; one other given by Kincheon Stokes in favor of Alexander Smith, for notes left in his bands, and which receipts said Smith left in my hands until he return from the Western Country, whither he has gone. There were a number of other papers in the pocket book of no value to any one but myself, such as receipts and memorandums,

REMARKS.

A man of very suspicious appearance was found early on the morning of last Sabbath, the 16th inst., in the piazza of Newsom & Spencer's Store, two and a half miles from the residence of the Subscriber. Mr. Newsom had a conversation with him. He says he is about 5 feet 10 or 11 inches high, stone boilt, with small black whiskers, and that he had on a blue broad cloth coat, somewhat worn, with a white hat rather broad brim, of the Russia fur, and a dark colored pair of pantaloons. He carried nothing with him but a blue umbrella. He stopped at the Store with the pretence of wishing to purchase some shirts and pantaloons, but on being informed he could not get them on Sunday,-he inquired the way to Fayetteville, Stokes' Ferry, and other places, and then went off in a very contrary direction to that in which he seemed most anxious to know about. His whole manner, appearance and behaviour, left the strongest belieon the mind of Mr. Newsom, that he was a man of very suspicious and doubtful character. Someday, he was again seen a half mile from the Store above mentioned, but on the reverse end in which he left the Store, by Mr. Beverly Suratts of whom he also got breakfast. After he left Suratts' he was seen a half mile from his house on the Fayetteville road. Nothin more has been seen of him since.
