PROSPECTUS
OF THE
WESTERN WHIG BANNER.
Mr. GUION, the late Editor of this paper, wishing to devote himself entirely to the duties of his profession, has given up to the subscribers his interest in the office of the Banner.
Usage has rendered it necessary that the conductors of a public Journal should state, at the outset, the course which they intend to pursue with respect to the great political questions which agitate the public mind. In obedience to this custom we shall do so, in as brief a manner as possible.
The subscribers believe themselves to be true Republicans; and consequently, are opposed to the leading measures of the present Administration, and shall oppose, to the utmost of their ability, the re-election of Martin Van Buren, the present federal incumbent of the Executive Chair; and we will use all honorable exertions to promote the election of WM. HENRY HARRISON and JOHN TYLER; believing that upon their success depends the political salvation of our country—the continuation of our free institutions.
We look upon the re-election of Martin Van Buren as the greatest curse which can be inflicted upon our country. By the unwise measures of his Administration, our country presents a new spectacle for the contemplation of mankind—"When he assumed the reins of Government, our National Treasury was overflowing with millions; we were free from a National Debt; commerce & manufactures flourished; the labours of the husbandman and mechanic were crowned with success and profit; & prosperity blessed our country every where. But, behold! as if by magic, in a few short years, the aspect of things is entirely reversed; our National Treasury is bankrupt; a heavy National Debt is hanging over us; commerce and manufactures are prostrated; the price of our agricultural productions is so reduced as scarcely to pay for the labor bestowed on them; and calamity, ruin and desolation are spread over our land; in short, we see all the mighty energies of this great Republic completely paralyzed by the mad experiments and wasteful extravagance of a reckless party, who are only held together "by the cohesive power of the public plunder," and who seem determined to reduce every thing to a level with the hard money despots of Europe, and to establish a splendid monarchy on the ruins of American Liberty.
It is evident to every reflecting man that a change of rulers is necessary; we cannot be injured by it, and our condition must be improved we therefore call upon every man who feels the necessity of this change, to aid in spreading light before the people—to aid us in increasing the circulation of the Banner, in which we shall endeavor to lay correct information before the public; for it is only necessary to tell the truth to insure the overthrow of the present corrupt and profligate Administration.
Although the Banner will bear a character strictly political, we shall use every exertion to make it acceptable to the general reader, by devoting a part of our columns to the diffusion of information on Agricultural matters; to the cause of Morality and Virtue; the Arts and Sciences; Polite Literature, &c., &c.

TERMS.
The Banner is published every Saturday, in Lincolnton, N. C., at TWO DOLLARS per annum, if payment be made within three months from the time of subscribing; TWO DOLLARS and a half if paid before the expiration of the year; or THREE DOLLARS if payment be delayed until the end of the volume.
Any person procuring five responsible subscribers shall receive a sixth copy gratis.
No paper will be discontinued but at the option of the Editors, until full payment of all arrearages.
All written Communications to the Editors must be post paid, or they will not be attended to.

THE Largest, Cheapest, Handsomest, and most Comprehensive Newspaper in the United States.
EDITED BY PARK BENJAMIN AND EPES SARGENT.
With multiplied resources for rendering the New World more valuable than ever as a compendious newspaper and repository of elegant literature, we enter upon the second volume (folio) on the 24th of October, dressed in a beautiful garb of new type, cast expressly for the purpose. It will therefore be a fitting time to commence new subscriptions, as well as for the renewal of those which may then expire.
During the first year of the existence of the New World, it has acquired a reputation and circulation superior to that of any weekly paper in the country; and has furnished to its subscribers, during that period, (besides all the current news of the day, domestic and foreign) new and valuable works by Talford, D'Israeli, Thomas Moore, Miss Mitford, Mrs. Jameson, Charles Dickens, Ainsworth, Knowles, Bulwer, Marry-at and others—works, which in London could not be purchased for fifty times the amount of the subscription price of the New World. In addition to works of interest by these eminent authors, it has contained the cream of the periodical literature of the day, as well as original articles from the pens of some of the most popular writers of America, among whom we may mention Miss Sedgwick, Orville Dewey, Professor Longfellow, the author of "Yankee Notions," Simms, Street, &c. &c.
In politics we shall, as hitherto, maintain an armed neutrality—Our columns will as hitherto be unobjectionable in a moral point of view, in criticism we shall, in justice to the public, maintain a perfect independence, even though we incur the vengeance of all the dunces. We shall, in conclusion, earnestly strive to render our sheet not only worthy of the unparalleled favor it has experienced, but of a continually extending circulation. While we continue to furnish with all possible promptitude the most attractive literature of the day, we shall, as our means enlarge, afford that compensation to native authors, which may induce them to make the New World the medium for presenting to the public their best productions. Our excellent London correspondence will be continued, and due attention will be paid to the commercial, agricultural and news departments of our paper.
