

WATCHMAN.

SALISBURY: SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 27, 1841.

The subscribers to the "Watchman," please excuse us for discontinue them week before last. The weather being so cold to ride so far—even to get...

THE CABINET.

It is of necessity that the President Elect, some days before he enters on the duties of his office, make selections of persons to fill the Executive Departments of Government...

We anticipate the warm approbation of a great majority of the People of the United States of these selections, and of the aggregate result. In some cases, doubtless, choice has been difficult...

The Locofoco papers chuckle very much at the stoppage of the U. S. Bank of Pennsylvania, and other Banks at the North. Nothing could have pleased them better...

We propose publishing in our next paper a report from the committee on Foreign Affairs, drawn up by Pickens, of South Carolina, together with the debate which arose thereon...

The Whigs of Mecklenburg county having given notice to, and requested the attendance of the Whigs of that District, were to have held a meeting in Charlotte, on last Tuesday...

We omitted last week to notice the appointment of Benjamin Julian as Postmaster at this place, vice Henry W. Conner resigned.

The appointment of our distinguished townsman, the Hon. George E. Baker, to the Navy Department, as announced in another part of this paper, will doubtless meet the cordial approbation of a large majority of the people of this State...

Death of the Rev. John Culpepper, Sen.—We learn that this venerable Minister of the Gospel, of the Baptist denomination, died at Gum Branch, Darlington District, S. C., on the 16th ult. in the 76th year of his age...

MR. WISE. We make the following extract from the speech of Mr. Wise, on the Bill providing for the issue of Treasury Notes, and about which the Loco focos make so much talk...

But at this time, and under the present emergency, I shall vote for this bill, for three very important considerations. I shall vote for it—1st As the friend of the coming Administration...

The Richmond Equivocal of the 19th inst. containing a letter from Washington, dated the 14th inst., is the following significant quote: "Would you be surprised to find Mr. Wise amongst the opponents of the new Administration?"

When the cold storm howls around your door. And you, by light of taper, Sit calmly by the evening fire...

THE PHILADELPHIA BANKS. Among the reasons assigned by the National Gazette why some indulgence should be shown by the Government of Pennsylvania to the Bank of the United States, in the present conjuncture...

The Loco Foco papers, every one of whom advocated the propriety of an extra session of Congress when called by Mr. Van Buren in 1837...

men who have come into the Whig ranks just in time to share the spoils. Let me see his stripes, his perspiration, his toils and his sufferings and sacrifices, and compare them with mine...

THE TARIFF. We make the following extract from a record of the debate in Congress on Saturday 5th inst. for the purpose of expressing our entire concurrence with the views expressed by Mr. Cushing:

Mr. Cushing desired to say a word in regard to the opinion, real, or supposed, of the North upon the question of the Tariff. It is simply this, (continued Mr. C.) as I believe, and I may say, as I know...

Mr. Thompson, of Mississippi, was understood to inquire of Mr. Cushing what the merit by discriminating duties—being, as he (Mr. C.) had expressed himself, opposed to a high protective tariff?

Mr. Cushing, I will tell you. By discriminating duties I mean this: duties imposed for the purposes of revenue, but so apportioned as to guard and promote the domestic interests of the country...

Mr. Wise, One of my friends says there is no necessity for such a defence. I know there is not with those who know me. But there are many who do not know me. Some few friends of mine may know perhaps that Gen. Harrison himself does not know me...

The Portland Transferer says, "we have read a little poetry in our day, and have been variously affected by it, but our feelings were never so wrought upon as in reading the following lines:"

Since April 14, 1838, that one institution (the Bank of the United States) has lent to the State of Pennsylvania the following sums: Special Loan, Act April 14, 1838 $340,000...

From the Danville Reporter. The Loco Foco papers, every one of whom advocated the propriety of an extra session of Congress when called by Mr. Van Buren in 1837...

ent Administration will be the result of the interest than by the public interest. Ever since the election of Van Buren has been the promised renovation of affairs...

THE UNITED STATES AND GREAT BRITAIN. From the New York Journal of Commerce. Notwithstanding some equivocal and rather irritating acts, we do not believe that Great Britain was, or intends to provoke it...

It will become necessary for the United States to exact an equal tariff as that recommended in Van Buren's message. It is proposed to confine the operation of the law to an inspection of all vessels bound to northern ports...

Paper Mill Burnt—The paper mill in this vicinity, belonging to Mr. M. Sater, we regret to learn, was destroyed by fire on Thursday last. The fire was communicated by a spark from a fire that had been kindled in the yard near the building...

Messrs. Adams and Wise. The Homeric lines, elicited by the scene in the House, between the venerable ex-President and Mr. Wise, are commented to be from the classic pen of Mr. Stansbury—Rich. Whig.

On the scene between Mr. Adams and Mr. Wise. As awful Jove, from great Olympus height, Beholds, on Troy's red plain, the Gods at fight, And, loud in glory, refuses to decide...

PROCLAMATION. TWO HUNDRED DOLLARS REWARD STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA. BY HIS EXCELLENCY EDWARD B. DUDLEY, GOVERNOR &c.

WHEREAS, it has been officially reported to this department, that on the 13th day of November, 1839, one Nathan Lambeth, of Davidson county, in this State, was so brutally bribed and managed that he died; and whereas JOHN GOSS stands charged with the commission of said deed; and whereas Lee Wharton, Abner Ward, Alexander Bishop, Joshua Deer and Hepe H. Sken were present aiding and abetting and maintaining the said John Goss in the perpetration of said felony; and whereas said offenders have fled and secreted themselves from the regular operations of the Law and Justice:

Now, therefore, to the end that the said John Goss and his accomplices in the murder, may be brought to trial, I have thought proper to issue this my Proclamation, offering a reward of Two Hundred Dollars each, for one or either of his accomplices, to any person or persons who will apprehend, or cause to be apprehended, any or all of the offenders and fugitives aforesaid, and confine them; or either of them, in the Jail, or deliver them; or either of them, to the Sheriff of Davidson county, in the State aforesaid. And I do, moreover, hereby require all Officers, whether Civil or Military, within this State to use their best exertions to apprehend, or cause to be apprehended, the fugitives and offenders aforesaid.

Given under my hand as Governor and Seal of the State of North Carolina, Done at our City of Raleigh, this 30th day of October, 1840. EDWARD B. DUDLEY.
