NEW TERMS.

The "WATCHMAN" may hereafter be had two dollars in advance, and two dollars and fly cents at the end of the year. No subscription will be received for a less time dian our year, unless paid for in advance. No paper discontinued (but at the option of the Editors) until all arrearages are paid.

TERMS OF ADVERTISING. One dollar per square for the first insertion and menty five cents for each continuance. Court notices will be charged 25 per ct, high e than the above rates. A deduction of 334 per cent will be made to thise who advertise by the year. All advertisements will be continued unti Utild and charged for accordingly, unless order! ed for a certain number of times. Letters addressed to the Editors must come post aid + visure attention. BRANDRETIES PILLS.

Methicks I've cast full twenty years aside and am again a boy. Every breath Of air that trembles through the window bears Lousual odour : - Proctor's Miraneola.

THE unprecedented success which has resulted from the adoption of Brandreth's Pills, durling a period of upwards of 35 yearsthe numerous and extraordinary cures which they have performed upon hundreds of individnals whem they have rescued from almost inevjuble death, after they have been pronounced incurable by the most eminent of the facultyidsily Dr. Brandreth, the proprietor of this Vegetable Universal Medicine, in warmly and conscientionsly recommending it to the especial notice of the public.

Dr. Brandreth wishes mankind to consider this truth, that health solely depends on the state of parity in which the blood is kept, every part of the body being supplied daily with new olood of the body be more or less healthy. To obtain, therefore, 'he most direct purifier of the blood, is a question of no little importance to every indi-

That Brandreth's Pills are the most direct puit is considered that they have gained their pre have accomplished in every variety of disease. The peculiar action of these pills is most saretful, until the system be freed from some of its law, then and there to give their votes for Repmost vitiated and torgit humours. This accomplished, dose sufficient to cause two or three and the constitution will be restored to a state of and signed the same with my hand.

The thousands who use and recommend these symptom of the only one disease to which the human frame is subject, namely : impurity of the blood or in other words, and impure state of the fluids. These pills do indeed "assist na tate" to all she can do for the purification of the haman body: yet there are numbers whose cases are so bad, and whose bodies are so much debilitaled, that all that can reasonably he expected is temporary relief, nevertheless some who have commenced using the Pills under the most tryint circumstances of bodily affliction, when alnost every other remedy had been altogether marailing, have been restored to health and happiness by their use. Dr. Brandreth has to teturn-thanks to a generous and enlightened public for the patronage they have bestowed on him, and he hopes by preparing the medicine, is he has ever done, to merit a continuation of

Dr. Brandreth's office is now kept at the sub suther's Boot and Shoe store, 6 doors below the Market Main street, Richmond, Va. where the Pills can be obtained at 25 cents per box.

PAgents in the country supplied as usual, DANFORTH BUTRICK. Agents are appointed in every county in the tale, for the sale of Dr. Brandreth's Pills. Each agent has an engraved certificate agency, signed B. Brandreth, M D. The following persons are agents for the above > AGENTS on & Bruner, Salisbury, N. C. Gaither & Co. Lexington, N. C. Siceloff, Midway, Davidson co. N. C. Salem, Stokes co. N. C. Germanton, Stokes co. N. C Rockford, Surry co. N C. ille, Surry co. kesboro', Wilkes co. N. C. per's Store, Burke co " herfordton, Rutherford Rutherford co. N . Lincoln, co. N. Iredell co. N. e co., N. C.

Seor. 748 16 a 18 1 33 a 40 15 a $1 $125 a 1 25 51 a 6 $100 bush Steel Amer. 10 a 00 English 121 Teaimpe. $1 $1 37 FAYETTEVILLE, March 31, 1841.

German 12 a 14 peach 45 a 50 | Molasses. 27 a 30 40 a 45 | Nails, cut. 61 a 7 Sugar brown. 84 a 12 25 a 26 Lump. 124 a 184 | Loaf, SI a 1 10

E FAIRY GIFT, embellished with ahave one hundred Engravings, for sale by TURNER & HUGHES.

15 a 20

Carolina Matchman.

PENDLETON & BRUNER, EDITORS AND PROPRIETORS.

" See that the Government does not acquire too much power. Keep a check " upon all your Rulers. Do this, AND LIBERTY IS SAVE."-Gen'l. Harrison. NO. 37-VOLUME IX. WHOLE NO, 453.

SALISBURY, APRIL 10, 1841.

State of North Carolina,

By Ilis Excellency, John M. Morehead, Governor, Captain General and Commander-in-Chief, in and over the State aforesaid.

HEREAS, I have been duly inf rmed by the Proclamation of His Excellency, Tin. WILLIAM HENRY HARRISON, President of the United States, that the last Monday of May next, (being the 31st day thereof,) has been fixed upon hy him for the meeting of the first Session of the twenty-seventh Congress of the United States: an event which renders it expedient and necessary that the Elections for the Representatives from this State in the next Congress should be held at an earlier day than the usual time of holding said Elections:

Now, therefore, by virtue of the authority in me vested, by an Act of the General Assembly of this State entitled " An Act concerning the mode of choosing Senators and Representatives in the Congress of the United States," (Revised Statutes of N. C Chapter 72d.) and to the from the food consumed, consequently, accord- end, that the Freemen of this State may be ing to the purity of that blood, so must the state duly represented in the next Congress, at its first session commencing as aforesaid, I do issue this my Proclamation, hereby commanding and requiring all Sheriffs and other Returning Officers of the several Counties composing each Congressional District, to cause Polls to be others of the blood there will be no doubt when pened and kept, and Elections to be held, for Representatives to the next Congress of the sent very extensive sale by their own intrinsic United States, on Thursday, the thirteenth day merit, proved by the numerous sures which they of May next, at the places established by law in their respective Counties, for holding said Elections. And I do further command and require prising—their operations being more or less pow- said Sheriffs, and other Returning Officers, to erful, according to the pureness of the circula- meet for the purpose of comparing the Polls, at fing fluid. On a person in a fair state of health, the times and places prescribed by law for that who is only costive or slightly billious, they will purpose. And I do, by this, my Proclamation, be scarcely felt - on the contrary, if the com- further " require the Freemen of this State, to plaint be chronic, and the constitution much de- meet in their respective Counties, at the time" ranged, the effect generally at first is most pow- aforesaid, and "at the places established by resentatives," in the next Congress. In testimony whereof I have caused the evacuations daily, will soon remove the disease, Great Seal of the State to be hereunto affixed, Done at the City of Raleigh, this the twenty second day of March, in pills, is proof positive of their extraordinary and [>>) the year of our Lord one thousand beheficial effect. They in fact assist nature to eight hundred and forty-one, and of the Indedo all she can in the curing every form and pendence of the United States the sixty fifth. . J. M. MOREHEAD.

By the Governor: JA: T. LITTLEJOHN, P. Sec'y.

4

F.F. 17 Cotton bag, 20 a 25 ject to a widow's dower,lying on the great South-34 a 371 Whiskey 30 a 35 Brandon, dec'd A credit of twelve months will be allowed and bond with security for the purchase money bearing interest from the date, required on the day of sale

SAM'L SILLIMAN, CME March 27, 1841 -8#95

New Jail to Build.

THE undersigned will receive sealed proposals to build a JAIL in the Town of Concord, until the second Tuesday in April next, at which time the contract will be clused.

The building to be of Brick on a stone found ation 45 feet long by 35 feet wide, covered with

The Contractor will have until the first day of January, 1843, to complete the building, but will be required to have the foundation laid by of November next and $2,500 annually thereafter until the whole amount is paid.

Bond and security will be required of the per son contracting. A plan and spefications of the building may be seen by applying to either f the undersigned.

L. B. KRIMMINGER. Com'ers. W. BARRINGER! R. ALLISON, Concord, Cabarrus co., N. C. March 27, 1841.

ON THE LOSS OF FRIENDS.

BY J. MONTGOMERY.

Friend after friend departs. Who hath not lost a friend? There is no union here of hearts That finds not here an end! Were this frail world our final rest, Living or dying none were blest.

Beyond the flight of time, Beyond the reign of death, There surely is sometblessed clime Where life is not a breath; Nor life's affections transient fire, Whose sparks fly upwards and expire.

There is a world above. Where parting is unknown: A long eternity of love, Form'd for the good alone: And faith beholds the dying here Translated to that glorious sphere!

Thus star by star declines, Till all are past away : As morning high and higher shines To pure and perfect day : Nor sink those stars in empty night, But hide themselves in Heaven's own light.

From the Graham's Magazine for March. THE MAIDEN'S ADVENTURE.

A tale of the early settlers of Virginia "Well Kate," said her bridesmaid, Lucy Cameron, "the clouds look very threatening and you know it is said to be an unlucky omen for one's wedding night to be stormy."

ly and smiling bride. "You treat it lightly, and I trust it may jet black, was simply parted not be ommons of your conjugal life," re- back, and fastened behim are sumed Lucy; "but my Aunt Kitty says forehead of marble whitenes; and we

her lover because it was unlucky." good aunt's word, but there must have been in nature's most perfect mould. some more serious cause linked with the one you have mentioned. My life on it, I but at a distance, seemed now to have at sent situation, and flying to the woods for do not lose a husband for so slight a cause. tained its violence, and to concentrate concesiment; others, and the greater num-It must be something more than a common over the house. Peal after peal of thunder ber proposed remaining where they were, 'and I must prepare for the ceremony."

have spoken, had opened in unclouded of the more supersticious guests. The rain, In the meantime, the females, the firing splendor, and all seemed propitious to the which at first fell in large drops, that could having ceased, had left their biding places, nuptials that were to be solemnised in the be distinctly heard, amid the awful silence, and now mingled with the warriors. It was evening. The inmates of the cabin in which save when the thunders echoed, now came soon determined to hold on to their present the preceding conversation had been carried down in torrents; and the thunders pealed situation, and defend it to the last, should on, had arisen cheerfully with the first notes out, louder and louder, quicker and quicker, they again be attacked. The better to add of the early robin, to prepare for the festi- leaving scarcely intermission enough for to its security, several of the stoutest comval, to which the whole neighborhood, con- the voice of Richard Gaston to be heard by menced raising a barrier at the opening, (for neighborhoods were then large and hab- waited the invitation of Mr Lee to meet while others barricaded the doors and win-rents, and had been born and raised in the advanced to and seated himself by the side and found six of their number were killed and began to stem the rapid current. humble cottage which her father had assist- of his beloved Kate, and gently taking her when few ventured thus far in the Indian ter- smiled, and shook her head. redations so far, he had gone unscathed. Kate, than I would like to defer the consu-He was of good birth and education, agod mation of my hopes." the most hospitable man in the settlement. The property which he held, and the style and without raising her eyes. in which he lived, together with his supe- They rose from their seats, and advanto assist the needy, and always just in his to tell whether pleasure or fear predominaopinions and actions, he was looked to for ted on the countenance of the guests, as for nineteen years. She had now attained would play upon their faces, but as a rat-Sa 10 ern Post Road 6 miles South west of Salisbury, to full-blown womanhood, and, from her ting volley would strike their ears, their $5 a $6 | Wheat new 80 a 90 belonging to the heirs at law of William C. beauty and intelligence, her hand had been shrinking forms and bloodless lips beiray. often asked, by the hardy sons of the pion- ed their terror. The tempest seemed for eers. Her heart was untouched, until young a moment to have held its breath, as if to Gaston laid siege to it. To his elequent witness the conclusion of the nuptials; but ing only how best to offend, what he valued him, but again se zed the car, directed her appeals she lent a willing ear, and promised now as the parson concluded with 'sa- more than his life-his wife. to be his bride.

envied among the youths. Of fine manly even the parson, or Gaston himself, both of stature, superior intellect, and unflagging whom had been shocked perceived that the energy, he was the best match to the settle- chimney had fallen to the earth; until awa- dies that blocked up the doorway; an other side of the river, and when occasion shrill war-whoop of the Indians, which now which both education and nature fitted him. ling storm. He had been in the settlement about seven years, and from his open and conciliators | - defence against the savages seemed to the first day of November next, and will receive manners, his bold and manie, bearing, had be the first idea of all, as each man, with the rest, had gained an entrance, and I the following payments: $1500 on the 1st day become a favorite with all around him. He determined look, grasped his rifle, and gathwas always the first to take up his rifle, and ered around the females sally against the hostile Indians, when ne- The Indians, led on by their noted chief cessity required it, and from his undoubted | Eagle Eye, to avenge the death of their com-> parted from the girl of his heart with the give such orders as the time would allow. same joyful aspect, which he wore when . Let the females, said he, 'go above the wedding day.

company had assembled, to Mr. Lee.

'No.' answered Mr. Lee with surprise, fend this opening.' 'I had hoped from the long peace that has reigned, we should have no more such outthat we can expect them to be quiet?"

to make all start from their seats.

soon as all was again quiet, 'we shall be as dying, forming a sort of breastwork at the likely to suffer from this rashness as the of- breach. Becoming more infuriated, as those fender, and must be prepared. I am glad who had gone before, fell, under the conyou have brought your guns with you, for stant fire of the whites, the savages, not, and rapid current, or at least to see the unless they come in too large a body we now in a compact body, attempted an en- sa'e beyond pursuit. The river shall be able to hold out against them " frequent recurrence of such circumstances the very breach, and then every man, with "Pshaw, Lucy, you would frighten me will produce as he re-hung his rifle, after his muzzle almost touching the Indians, with some old grandmother's tale, as if I preparing it for immediate use; the bride discharged his piece. The savages waver- strained him to the greatest exer were a child! I believe not in omens, and entered the room, in all the loveliness of ed, and then fell back, amid the shouts of reached the river-his cance was shall forget all unlucky presages, when the graceful beauty. Few ornaments decked the victorious yeoman. wife of Richard Gaston," answered the love- her person, because none con and to her The next flash of lightning discovered natural grace and elegance. that's the reason she never married; because mingling the wild rose with other forest the voice of Mr. Lee was heard in the it was raining in torrents the day she was flowers, was the only ornament on her head. thanksgiving, for their deliverance so far, to have been wedded, and she discarded Her neck and arms were perfectly bare, and and when he had concluded, he proposed seemed as if they, with her small fairy fect a consultation upon the best means to be "Ah, Lucy. I do not mean to doubt your and the rest of her figure, had been made pursued, as it was certain the Indians had

The storm, which, had before been heard attack. Some were for deserting their pre The morning of the day of which we scenery, and striking terror into the hearts them off.

'am ready,' answered Kate, blushing

WILL be sold at the Courthouse in Salis. opinions and actions, he was looked to for ted on the countenance of the guests, as bury on Monday the Srd day of May next, counsel, rather than treated as an equal, they pressed forward, to witness the solemn 50 a 55 Tobacco leaf 3 a 5 Land containing 312 ACRES, sub. child, and had been the solace of her parents the intervals of the thunder, a faint smile may heaven shed its perfection over you." lute your bride, a peal of thunder, keenet At this instant the whoop of the Indians was hand of love, how could the fragile skill be fost

As Kate was the loveliest girl in the coun- and more startling than any vet, struck irs, so was Richard Gaston the most to be such terror to their souls that none, not ment. He cultivated a little farm on the kened to a sense of their situation by the offered, engaged in the practice of law, for mingled in dreadful unison with the how-courage, was always chosen leader of the rade found in the morning, would perhaps little bands, formed to repel the savage there awaited the subsidence of the storm. had not the falling of the chimney display. When the torls of the wee and passed, ed to them, the disorder and confusion Gaston might be seen, with the on his within the cabin. Viewing it as the most shoulder, moving towards the river where favorable time for an attack, they raised his cance was fastened, and springing light- their dreaded war-whoop, and sprung to the ly into it, dashing through the foaming wa- breach. That whoop, however, served but ters, and among the rocks, as safely and to nerve the hardy pioneers, and chase from cheerfully, as if passing over a smooth and their bosoms the fears which the wars of glassy lake; and on the following evening, nature alone created. Richard Gaston, from he might be seen again braving the rushing custom, assumed the command; and with current, with the same careless ease, but that coolness and self-possession, which more thoughtful brow; for who ever yet indicates undaunted bravery, proceeded to going to meet her? Let us now return to and lie upon the floor, and we, my brave few that survived, made a rush, and dr boys, will show them what stout hearts and door close after them. They had I " Have you heard of the Indian that was strong arms can do in defence of beauty .found murdered on the bank of the creek Six of you go in the next room, and see sibly save them. If overtaken b this morning?" said a young man, after the that the villians enter not, except over your dead bodies, the rest will remain and de-

All thought of the storm vanished at once

was still during the brief address. The the speed of lightning-thirst for rerages against the poor Indians. But how Indians, whose numbers amounted to sevis it possible, sir, if they are thus shot down eral hundred, had fired once, and not being fresher than his chase, gained apon then able, on account of the rain, to load again now 'The body,' continued the first speaker, attempted to enter over the ruins of the was found by some of his tribe; and they chimney, and through the windows. The immediately threatened vengeance if the lights had been extinguished at the first murderers were not given up. But that is vell, and all was dark, save when the flash 100 many of them overtaken, fell be impossible; because we do not know them.' of lightning revealed to view within, the club of the savages. Gaston who was At this moment a loud crash of thunder fearful odds against them without. Sever- activity to any of his pursuers, had sou echoed through the woods, so suddenly as al volleys had meanwhile been poured into the lead; and with the speed of an arr the Indians, and a momentary flash reveal-"Well, my friends," said Mr. Lee, as ed the effects Many were lying dead or trance; and the whites still cool, if danger This was said with that calmness which a threatened not, waited until they reached hour of the ladians retreating to the woods, and dragn ging many of their dead with them. Ana other wild shout burst from the lips of the to the top of the back, and his wife only retired to devise some other mode of occurrence, that shall now break off the came ringing through the hollows, each because the Indians had not certainly gone match with Dick and myself. But see, the succeeding one apparently louder and more far, and if discovered, unprotected by the company are beginning to arrive," said Kate, crashing than the former Flash upon flash, logs, they must fall an easy prey, to such supert- dians were upon them ; She now attention as she looked from the window of her room, of the quick and vivid lightning, streamed or numbers, while by remaining, they had push her boat off, but she had remain out, resting awhile upon the surrounding some advantage, and a small chance to keep ute too long-a brawny and athles sisting of all within fifteen or twenty miles, his beautiful bride. He had patiently a- with the logs that had been thrown down. tations scarce,) were indiscrimately invited. his daughter, but no longer able, amid the dows. This being finished they begun an Kate Lee was the only child of her pa- war of elements, to restrain himself, he inquiry into the injury they had received, her boat in the direction of the org

The rain mean while had ceased, and the dised to construct with his own bands. Mr. hand in his, inquired if she was alarmed by tant motterings of the thunder could be only Lee had moved to his present residence, the storic? To this enquiry, she only heard at intervals. All was silent in the cabin, her husband struggled with the remain awaiting the expected approach of the savages. ritory; and by his own labors, and that of "I see not then, why we may not proceed Kate had approched Gaston when she first came his two servants, had erected a double cabin, with the ceremony, the storm."-here a Having received a satisfactory answer, she had her white dress moving gently to the soft by and cleared about fifty acres of land, upon keen and fearful crash jarred the house to remained silent by his side untit all was prepared and her hitle bark avoiding the many tooks a rich piece of high ground, a mile and a its foundation, leaving traces of fear on the for action. Then, for a moment, forgetting the ting their heads above, the rushing water half from the James River. By his urban- countenance of all, the lovers and the par- dangers that surrounded him, Gaston yielded to gave to a beholder the idea of some fatry. ity and kindness he had gained the confi- son. Gaston continued, however, the storm | the impulse of his heart, and drawing the love- kept up and guided by the superior power. dence of the Indians; and in all their dep- may last an hour, and that is longer, my ly being, who was now his wife, in all the ar- mistress. Steadily she moved until near upon her ruby lips, the kiss of which he had been led by a voice, some distance behind her so saddenly deprived by the onset of the savages first she thought it another Indian in pun

" My own Kate," said he," if you find we are to be overcome, you must try and make your Her own name, breathed in accents that had escape through the back door, and thence to the ten thrilled her to the soul, was heard, son stor knowledge, gave him a standing among ced to the parson who immediately com- woods Here is one of my pistols, take it, and a thousand times more sweetly than ever on the settlers superior to all. Ever ready menced the ceremony. It was impossible if you are pursued, you know how to use it; ear. She quickly turned the head of her on you. Make for the river, you know where stream; she kept it stationary, antil Ga my cance is, the current is rapid and dangerous who had overcome his pursuers, reached it. but if you can reach the other bank you are safe. His great exertions in the onequal struggl As we said before, Kate was his only ceremony of uniting two beings for life. In Farewell now my own sweet luve, and if I fall, the bank, his efforts to reach the boat, and

Gaston was not a man to melt at every eir- him so little of the powers of life, that he curnstance, but to be thus seperated from his ed a few moments, after he had regained bride, perhaps never to meet again, brough; a wife. Kite knew the peril of permitting t test to his manly check. Leve had for a mo- boat to float with the current, and with all in ment enmanned his firm and noble heart; but c urage and coulores which woman practical it had past, and he was gain a soldier; think- times of danger, she did not stop to weep or sounded to the assault. Each o his post. The whites had been equa and a party stationed in each room. were now simultaneously attacked by and with clobs and large stones, the ed to force the doors. The silence mained within, while without all c and confusion. The door at length one board then another gave way, upon yell ruse at their success. " Hold on boys, until I give the w Gaston, " and then stop your blows voor lives."

The door and its whole support in poured the savages like a whirlwi now," eried Gaston, " and club your ;

Almost as one report, sounded the ery one in the house-the yells and c wounded and infuriated foe almost stoutest hearts; but this was no time fear, if they felt it. The Indians we every exertion to enter ever the pile of of each man within, elenched by the ba lowered only to add another to the be twenty minutes the fight had ruged w bated fory, and with unrelaxed exerti the moon, breaking forth in all her sp hibited the combatants as plain as t mid-day. One lodian, stooter, and b eyes on Gaston, as he saw him end directing the others to their work gave a lond yell and sprang at him ger on his prey. This quick eye Gaston too rapid for him, and in an lay dead from a blow of the young

But the strength of the brave li gan at length to fail. Their numbers ished more than half. Before the en bowever, entered, it had been pro ceded to, as the only chance that the should attempt an escape from the next the river, while the men should retreat, as well as their diminished would admit. Accordingly, an at made, and an exit gained; the whole the Indians being collected at the fre overcome the stubborn resistance of

The little phalanx stood firm to they saw the woman had suffle reach the wood before they could be ove and then, pressed by such superly they slowly fell back to the same the woods they were inevitably could gain them they might escape. caused by the closing of the door w the enemy were now scarcely fifteen The reader must not suppose that all the rear. Fear moved the one party additional strength to the other. The

ly. As they heard the savages close a every perve was excited, every mas but alas! the strength of the whites

He knew that his wife would river, and ic all probability would reach it; and it was his object to ge if possible in time to assist her across as he bounded down the rough could distinctly hear the rolling of ver the rocky bed. He took the n to the landing, and the yells of the scattered in every direction through " She must be taken, and I too, w like that of a startled fawn, drew his hites. When all was again still, had given up for lost -his darling Kat He took but one embrace, and his cance, for the Indians were but t cut loose the line that held his back close upon him

> " Shove off, Kate and trust reach the other shore," cried Gaston, edly, as he turned to engage the India doubtful whether to fly or stay and die husband. Gaston seeing her hesitation called frantically to her to escape, before seized the boat and sprang into it, feet of the alarmed maiden reated to the other end, and faced pair painted in every lineament of The Indian involuntarily stopped to the beautiful being before him. fatal to him Kate's self-possess taneously returned, and as the savag ward her she levelled her husband's fired. The bullet entered the savag be fell over the side of the boat and ed beneath the bubling waters; while t seizing the oar which had dropped from hand on her first alarm, Kate torned the b

During the few seconds that had thus e ed, the came had shot below the place dians; and she was now out of hearing combatants. Standing erect in the b long hair hanging lossely on her openvered but soon the chilling thought was dispe loss of blood from a deep cut on his arm, ha to the opposite bank .- Guided by the com