Shoe and Boot MAKING.

THE Subscribers having entered into a Co-partnership in the above business, take this method of informing the public of the same, and of asking a liberal share of patronage. Further than to say they intend to "to work up" the very best materials that can be obtained anywhere, they deem it unnecessary to promise; as their characters for skill, industry and attention to business, they flatter themselves is established.
The subscribers have not resolved to go upon the cash system entirely, but are desirous in that respect, to deal about six one way and half a dozen the other. They must get money enough to pay all expenses of their shop, at least. Their shop is in the room formerly occupied by David L. Pool as a Silver-smith shop—just opposite J. & W. Morphy's Store.

JAMES D. GLOVER presents his compliments to his old friends and patrons, and requests that all of them who owe him, will come forward immediately, and make payment, as he is compelled to have money between this and the first of March.

PROSPECTUS

Western Carolina Temperance Advocate,
A new daily paper devoted to the Temperance Reform, published at Asheville N. C., and edited by D. R. McANALLY.
The Temperance Convention that was held at this place early in September, resolved on publishing a paper of the above title and character, and appointed Dr. John Dickson and D. R. McAnally to conduct it. From the many pressing engagements, Dr. Dickson already has, he deems it impracticable for him to be recognized as one of the editors, though he will cheerfully use all his influence otherwise, to promote its interest; the subscriber therefore proceeds to issue this Prospectus in his own name, with a hope that he will be aided in the undertaking, by all the friends of the Temperance cause throughout the country, and that the paper may soon have an extensive circulation.
Friends of the Temperance cause! to you we make a most earnest appeal—while those thousands of dollars are annually expended at theatres, at circuses, at the race track, at groceries, while no pains are spared, the luxury of retirement and ease foregone, and no labor deemed too severe to advance the interests of political aspirants, can you not do something for a cause that must be dear to every true patriot, philanthropist, and christian? Recollect there are but few, very few, such papers in all the Southern country. The Western part of North Carolina, the Western part of Virginia, and the Eastern part of Tennessee particularly, need a paper of this kind, and it is for you now to say whether they shall have it.
The very low price at which was fixed by the Convention, will make it necessary, that a very large subscription be had, before the publication of it can be justified.
TERMS.
The Western Carolina Temperance Advocate will be published on a medium size, in quarto form, each number making eight pages, and will be furnished at the very low price of Fifty Cents a copy. Where single copies are ten, the payment must be made invariably upon the reception of the first number.
Postmasters, editors or publishers of papers, and all Ministers of the Gospel, are authorized agents.

THE EVERGREEN—Vol 2

A Monthly Magazine of Popular Tales, Poetry and Music. TERMS—Two Dollars per annum in advance.
With the January Number will commence the Second Volume of this popular compendium of new and elegant literature. The various works of romantic interest, which have been commenced in it, will be carried on to their completion. A glance at its copious table of contents during the past year will afford the most satisfactory evidence of its value. It has comprised works by the most popular modern authors of England and the United States. Now in the course of publication are Poor Jack, by Captain Marryat; Master Humphrey's Clock, by Charles Dickens, Esq. (Boz); Ten Thousand a Year, the most popular and amusing story of the day; the Tower of London, by W. H. Ainsworth, author of Rookwood, Crichton, &c.; and Stanley Thorn, by the author of Valentine Vox. Gentlemen throughout the country, who wish to receive these works, can find them in no shape so convenient and so cheap. Back numbers, containing the commencement of all these stories, or either of them, can be furnished at the subscription price.
Besides the works above enumerated, the Evergreen will contain, as it has hitherto contained the spirit of the best foreign Reviews and Magazines, besides original pieces by native authors of distinction.
Former subscribers are requested to renew their subscriptions at their earliest convenience, and new subscribers not to delay for warding their names, so that we may know the exact edition that will be required. A single volume of the Evergreen is composed of about 800 pages of the choicest literary matter.
TERMS.—Two Dollars a year in advance, or Five Dollars for three copies, in all cases free of postage. New subscribers will receive all the back numbers from April to December, 1840, together with the second volume, for $3 remitted free of expense.
