LINES ON THE DEATH OF MRS. ANN H. JUDSON, MISSIONARY IN BURMAH, THE HOPIA TREE.

Planted over the Grave of Mrs. Ann H. Judson
BY MRS. SIGOURNEY.

"Rest! Rest! The hopia tree is green, And proudly waves its leafy screen Thy lowly bed above;
And by thy side, none to weep, Thine infant shares the gentle sleep, Thy youngest bud of love.

"How oft thy feeble-wailing cry Detained unshed thy watchful eye, And pained that parting hour, When pallid death, with stealthy tread, Descended thee on thy fever bed,
And proved his fatal power!

"Ah! do I see with faded charm, Thy head reclining on thine arm,
The "Teacher" far away?
But now, thy mission-labors o'er, Rest, weary clay, to wake no more Till the great rising day."

Thus spake the traveller as he stayed His step within that sacred shade: A man of God was he,
Who his Redeemer's glory sought, And passed to win the holy thought Beneath that hopia tree.

The Salween's tide went rushing by,
And Burma's cloudless moon was high,
With many a solemn star;
And while he mused, although there stole An Angel's whisper o'er his soul, From that pure clime star—

Where swells no more the heathen sigh, Nor weath the idol's stony eye Dark sacrifice is done,
And where no more by prayers and tears,
And tolls of agonizing years,
The martyr's crown is won, Then visions of the faith that blest The dying saint's rejoicing breast And set the pages free, Come thronging on, serenely bright And cheer the traveler's heart that night, Beneath the hopia-tree.

works of romantic interest, which have been commenced in it, will be carried on to their compleand the United States. Now in the course of publication are Poor Jack, by Captain Marryat; Master Humphrey's Clock, by Charles Dickens, Etc. (Box) Ten Thousand a Year, the most

PROSPECTUS OF THE Western Carolina Temperance Advocate.
A monthly paper devoted to the Temperance Reform, published at Asheville, N. C., and edited by D. R. McANALLY.

The Temperance Convention, that was held at this place early in September, resolved on publishing a paper of the above title and character, and appointed Dr. John Dickson and D. R.
McAnally to conduct it. From the many attentive engagements of Dr. Dickson already has, he deems it impracticable for him to be recognized as one of the editors, though he will cheerfully use all his influence otherwise, to promote its interest; the subscriber therefore, proceeds to insert this Prospectus in his own name, with a hope that he will be aided in the undertaking, by all the friends of the Temperance cause throughout the country, and that the paper may soon have an extensive circulation.

Friends of the Temperance Cause! to you we make our most earnest appeal—while thousands of dollars are annually expended at these times, at circuses, at the race track, at groceries, while no pains are spared, the luxury of retirement and ease foregone, and no labor deemed too severe to advance the interests of political aspirants, can you not do something in a cause that must be dear to every true patriot, philanthropist, and Christian?—Recollect there are but few, very few, such papers in all the Southern country.
The Western part of North Carolina, the Western part of Virginia, and the Eastern part of Tennessee particularly, need a periodical of this kind, and it is for you now to say whether they shall have it.

The very low price at which it was fixed by the Convention, will make it necessary, that a very large subscription be had, before the publication of it can be justified.

TERMS.
The Western Carolina Temperance Advocate will be published on a medium sheet, in quarto form, each number making eight pages, and will be furnished at the very low price of Fifty Cents a copy. Where single copies are taken, the payment must be made invariably upon the reception of the first number.

Postmasters, editors or publishers of papers, and all Ministers of the Gospel, are authorized agents.

BRANDRETH'S PILLS.

Method I've cast full twenty years since And again a boy! Every breath Of air that trembles through the window bears Unmistakable odor:—Proctor's Miraculo.

THE unprecedented success which has resulted from the adoption of Brandreth's Pills, during a period of upwards of 95 years—the numerous and extraordinary cures which they have performed upon hundreds of individuals whom they have rescued from almost in-extinguishable death; after they have been pronounced ineffectual by the most eminent of the faculty—justify Dr. Brandreth, the proprietor of this Vegetable Universal Medicine, in warmly and conscientiously recommending it to the especial notice of the public.

Dr. Brandreth wishes mankind to consider this important health solely depends on the state of purity in which the blood is kept, every part of the body being supplied daily with new blood from the food consumed, consequently, according to the purity of that blood, so must the state of the body be more or less healthy. To obtain, therefore, the most direct purifier of the blood, is a question of no little importance to every individual.

That Brandreth's Pills are the most direct purifiers of the blood there will be no doubt when it is considered that they have gained their present very extensive sale by their own intrinsic merit, proved by the numerous cures which they have accomplished in every variety of disease.

The peculiar action of these pills is most surprising—their operation being more or less powerful, according to the purity of the circulating fluid. On a person in a fair state of health, who is only costive or slightly bilious, they will be scarcely felt—on the contrary, if the complaint be chronic, and the constitution much deranged, the effect generally at first is most powerful, until the system be freed from some of its most vitiated and torpid humors. This accomplished, dose sufficient to cause two or three evacuations daily, will soon remove the disease, and the constitution will be restored to a state of health and renewed vigor.

The thousands who use and recommend these pills, is proof positive of their extraordinary and beneficial effect. They in fact assist nature to do all she can in the curing every form and symptom of the only one disease to which the human frame is subject, namely: impurity of the blood or in other words, and impura state of the fluids. These pills do indeed "assist nature" to all she can do for the purification of the human body; yet there are numbers whose cases are so bad, and whose bodies are so much debilitated, that all that can reasonably be expected is temporary relief, nevertheless some who have commenced using the Pills under the most trying circumstances of bodily affliction, when almost every other remedy had been altogether unavailing, have been restored to health and happiness by their use. Dr. Brandreth has to return thanks to a generous and enlightened public for the patronage they have bestowed on him, and he hopes by preparing the medicine, as he has ever done, to merit a continuation of favors.

Dr. Brandreth's office is now kept at the sub-scriber's Boot and Shoe store, 6 doors below the Market Main street, Richmond, Va., where the Pills can be obtained at 25 cents per box.
