NEW TERMS. WATCHMAN" may bereafter be had llars in advance, and two dollars and the douters and of the year. In ords at the end of the year. Ne subscription will be received for a less time he subscription will be received for a less time in one year, unless paid for in advance. net discontinued (but at the option o Editor) until all arrearages are paid. TERMS OF ADVERTISING.

fallar per square for the first insertion and air fre ceats for each continuance. nices will be charged 25 per et. bigh as the above rates deduction of SSt per cent will be made to who advertise by the year.

advertisements will be continued until in and charged for accordingly, unless orderin a certain number of times. Letters eddressed to the Editor most post paid to ensure attention.

THE SUBSCRIBER

WING perchased that well known and long established Public House, (known owned by Jno. I. Shaver and just below J. & W the name of Slaughter's Tavern,) in the Murphy nof Salisbury, N. C., informs his Friends the Public generally, that the same is now of the reception of Travellers & Boarders. HIS TABLE and BAR will be supplied with best the market and sorrounding country af- Ware.

His STABLES Spacious, and bountifully supand wab grain and provender, of all kinds, at. anded by faithful and attentive Ostlers. The updersigned pledges himself that no extion on his part shall be wanting to give gen-it it.

Nov. 13-1616

JAMES L. COWAN. Sdishury, Sept. 11, 1840: 17

WHO WILL GO BALD Oldridge's Balm of Columbia for the Hair

FROM Comstick & Co - Its positive quali-ies are as follows :- Ist For infants, keep-ing the head free from sourf, and causing a lux-orientgrowth of tair.- 2d For ladies after child-writh, restoring the skin to its natural strength and firmness, and preventing the falling out of New York. -3d For any person recovering from my debility the same effect is produced. 4th I used in infancy till a good growth is started, inty be preserved by attention to the latest pe-of strengthens the roots, imparts health and neor to the circulation, and prevents the hair fon changing color or getting gray .- 6th It uses the hair to curl beautifully when done up ait over aight No ladies tollet should ever be made without it. 7th Children who have by any means conmeted vermin in the head, are immediately and setectly cured of them by its use. It is infalli- situde, or a sense of fatigue.

Startling Facts.

rfundreds of children and adults are lost yeary with worms, when some other cause has been supposed to be the true one.

It is admitted by all doctors that scarce a man, woman or child exists but what are sooner or later troubled with worms, and in hundreds of cases, sad to relate, a supposed fever, scarlatina, cold, or some other ailing carries off the flowers Friends and the Public generally, that he of the homan family-while in truth they die of has opened a shop in Salisbury in the above busi-Worms! and these could have been eradicated pess, in a room directly opposite West's brick in a day, by the use of a bottle of Kolmstock's building, in the house of Dr. Barns' formerly Vermifuge, at the cost of a quarter of a dollar ! How sickening the thought that these things should be -and who can ever forgive themselves In addition to the above, the subscriber will for not trying this Worm Exterminator, when carry on the Silver Smith Business in all the they know that even if the case was not worms, varieties common in country towns: such as making Spoons, S.c., and repairing Silver this remedy could not by any possibility do hart -but always good as a purgative-term he disease he what it may. How important then to He begs to assure the public that if punctual use it, and who will dare take the responsibility attention to business, and skillful work will ento do without it? Let every parent that is not title him to patronage and support, he will mera brute, ask themselves this question in truth and soberness."

Mr JC Ringold had a child very sick for near two weeks, and attended by a physician. without relief, when Kolmstock's Vermifuge was given, and next day more than forty worms were passed, when the child recovered rapidly.

A child of a widow woman, living near the Are the best MEDICINES in the World, Manhaitan Water Works, had dwindled for a month, till near a skeloton, with great dryness DEING the cheapest and most pleasant .--DThe medical Facolty warmly approve them. of the month, and itching of the nose. A hu-Dr. Sherman is a skilful and experienced Phymane lady, who called to provide for the family, sent immediately for Kolmstock's Vermilage, sician, and a member of the Medical Society o which brought sway great quantities of worms for two or three days, and the child grew better

Sherman's Cough Lozenges, at once, and regained its full strength in less Are the safest, sorest, and most effectual remedy than a month. for Coughs, Colds, Consumption, Whooping

BY MRS. HEMANS.

Mother! they say the stars are bright, And the broad heavens are blue ; dream of them by day and night,

And think them all like you I cannot touch the distant skies, The stars ne'er speak to me, But their sweet images arise,

And blend with thoughts of thee.

I know not why, but oft I dresm Of the far-off land of bliss : And when I hear thy voice, I deem

That heaven is like to this, When my sad heart to thise is pressed, My follies all forgiven, Sweet pleasure warms my heating breast, And this, I say, is heaven.

O mother ! will the God above Forgive my faults like thee ? Will he bestow such care and love On a blind child like me ? Dear mother ! leave me not alone-

Go with me when I die ; Lead thy blind daughter to the throne, And stay in yonder sky.

A PASSAGE IN THE CAREER OF NA

On the 7th of July, 1798. as the dying day with golden spleador tipt the mosques bugle sounded from a large encampment beside the city walls, and at the same time wooden-legged General, and as he hobbled past the soldiers joked freely.

" He is sure of having one foot in France" said they, " let what will happen."

When their General was seen, as the colpleasantly said .-

" He promised us seven acres of land, the rogue ; how moderate ! he might have not have abused his good nature."

The learned commission did not escape ject. the satire of the light hearted soldiery, and the jack-asses that bore the philosophers' barning eword under his arm-with a compressed lip and thoughtful took, the leader firmly trod at the head of his staff. He looked not to the right or the left. The course was regularly laid down by the astronomer, and the amount of each day's time-defying tombs of the Pharosha flashed march was laid before the commander in chief, ere the order to rest thundered along the weary line.

The third day came, and the General be-THE DESERT MARCH. gan to be aware that the river of Egypt was at hand. The stms of the careless wanderers were now insparted. Terrible as was the sun even here, still the iron law ment in his hand, 'pray you,' said he 'o give POLEON. of military despotism was enforced. The uniforms of the stragglers were now brushed up-the ranks closed their files. The and minarets of Alexandria, a spirit-stirring eagles waved in the centre, and the army in the order of battle drew near the river Nile. Noon came, and all at once the river, the other member of the commone to take charge of Several children in a highly respectable fam- the heavy boom of the evening gun from the ily in Broadway had worms to a frightful extent, Kalipsh's tower announced to the lazy Turk feet of the adventurers. At a little distance floated the flotille, with the flag of the republic waving proudly o'er it; and green fields and waving groves, spread in beauty around them. 'The Nile! the Nile!' thundered along the line, and then officers and men without due consideration rushed heedlong into its slimy waters. Not a soldier threw off his knapsack of stacked his ing up his courage, seated himself calmin in the "To found an empire upon the ruin of musket. "Water! Water! Oh God, a carriage beside his confessor, with two gendarmes drop of water ?"-cried the weary and the in the opposite side. During the passage to the sick ; nor did the cry cease, until the fore- place of execution, which occupied two hours, he " Soldiers of the Republic, advance !" most soldiers baving satisfied themselves, ministered to the wants of their fellows. The army soon reached Danhour, and encamped upon a field of grain ; Napoleon the guides. making his head quarters at the house of Soon the sentinel, looking toward Damthe old Sheik. Hearing that the Mamaloukes were at a large body of troops surrounded the cariiage; anmour, from the moss-decked tower of a-Chebreissa to dispute his progress, the lead- a double file of soldiers and National Guards, and ges, saw the glittering files fade into the dim shadows of evening. A faint strain of er gave the word, and the army moved up a formidable array of cannon, rendered hopeless martial music struck upon the ear -a hum the Nile, in Solid squares. A horseman any altempt at rescue. When the procession aras though a multitude had spoken, passed splendidly dressed, with his turban waving | rived at the place of execution, between the garupon the breeze- Napoleon entered the gally in the breeze, and his jeweled trap-Desert ! Who can tell the sufferings of pings flashed in the sunlight now hovered that weary march !- The night soon passed along the edge of the horizon, reigning in away, and the verticial sun, undimmed by his mettled steed. Another and another clouds, without a tree or shrub to offer a appeared until a respectable number had momentary shade looking down upon the mustered ; and then with a horrid yell rushserried ranks of the army of the East. The ed upon the advancing army. It was the leader and his Generals now dismounted, onset of Mamaloukes under Mourad Bey, and endured the soldier's sufferings. Onand dearly did the Frenchmen suffer .-wird they march, a band of fierce and in-Though near the Nile the soldiers were dydomitable spirits ; led by the conquerer of ling with thirst, and if one was adverturous enough to seek a draught from the swollen river, the next moment he was either piercing sand offered them no hindrance. Clouds led by the spear, or beheaded by a stroke of of tormenting insects wafted from the slimy the segmetar from the Areb horse nan. "Where is Cairo ?- it is but a city of mud look he imposed silence upon twenty drummers, huts,' cried the ignorant sufferers ; 'if we placed there to prevent his being heard, and said ward ! shouted the leader from the bound- are to thirst by the rivers, and starse by the with a loud voice, 'I die innocent of all the less highway of the desert, and onward green pastures let us die at once by the crimes laid to my charge; I pardon the authors rushed the tide of life. Around them what sword of the Mamaloukes.' 'The Mamaa prospect !- They were fresh from the loukes- Chebreissa' cried a thousand voi- never fall upon France. And you, unhappy peo plains of sunny lisly-from the orange ces, as the morning of the 13th dawned upbowers upon the hill sides, generated with fon the army of the French. temples hellowed by genus, and cottages Mourad Bey and his matchless cavalry redolent with life and love. How changed awatted the approach of the weary squares. Margaret Gaither and Casper Kinder, and wife the scene ! On every side, the desert, like and soon the war cry of the horsemen struck an ocean, waved in soiceless tide. The upon the General's ear. The hattle now chrystal fountain spring, fed from the gim- commenced in earnest. The Mamalookes, mering peak of Jura, flashed before their fresh and powerful, on the most splendid thirsty eyes no more. The chesnut of Lan horses of the East, glittering with gold and inhabitants of this State : It is therefore ordered, puedock and Provence wooed them no lon- server jewels, charged upon the squares of ger to its whispering shade. All was sad, French infanter. Dreadful was the onset, scorching, withering, searching sand, with terrible the meeting; death bung upon a here and there the mirage, looming ahead blow, and destruction upon a horse's hoof It was a battle of stern necessity on the Mocksville, on the 4th monday after the 4th their longing vision . Night came without part of the invaders The desert and shame monday in August next, and plead, answer or twilight cold and piercing, but brought no lay behind-Cairo and glory before-the demur to cumplainants bill, or the same will be relief. - Far in the distance, looming in gi- cymbals of Mourad Bey clashed-the bugles taken pro confesso and heard exparte, as to them ant proportions against the sounded shrill, and again the Mamaloukes she answered the interrogatives of the tribunal desert ship pursued its favorite course. And threw themselves upon the solid squares ; now the shivering soldier laid down by his but it was all in vain. toil-worn General to die Black bread, When stabbed, or wounded with a gonteeming with vermin, sickened the voracious shot, the wild horseman of the desert clung app tite; and the brackish water of the stag- to his steed, and he was dragged along the nant pool made the thirst still greater. ground, leaving a bloody trail behind ; he It is said that Lannes and Murat occa- gnashed his teeth is bitter hatred, and swept sionally lost command of themselves, and his flashing segmetar across the knees of once when boiling with rage they dashed the foremost ranks of the bristling squares. was on the place of the Revolution, where her their laced hats on the sands and trampled The Turkish fleet now attached the husiand had perished The people, roused by the upon them before the soldiers. Napoleon French flotilla. Heavy cannon thundered revolutionary emissaries, raised savage shouts of dashed amid the throng, with his mighty up the Nile, and waked the echoes of the sloy as she passed along; the Queen, with a sespirit flashing from his engle eyes - Gen Pyramids; but after several bours' hard rene look, indicating pity rather than suffering. ersis,' said be, 'traitors ! you have used fighting, Mourad Bay procounced the French mutinous language-take care that I do not to be invincible, leaving three hundred go+ | ded the scaffold with a firm step; her countefulfil my duty. It is not your being six feet ry dead upon the battle field. The Turk- nance was illuminated by the expression of high that should save your being shot in a ish fleet at the same time hauled off in great Christian hope ; and the daughter of the Casars couple of hours " The haughty Generals distress, and the cannon's roar melted into died with a firmness that did honor to ber race. trembled before the master spirit, and slunk the bugle's melodious apte upon the arid plains of Chebriessa away.ashamed. 'Ha, Murat,' said Napoleon, as he rode The soldiers, like all French soldiers, were light of heart. They soon forgot past over the field of the dead, and saw the wild sufferings. The present slone existed with dog feasing upon the turbaned corpses, - uncertainty of life will admit, to the limits of hathem, and if the guides saw evidences of an 'Give me the Mamalonke cavalry and the man felicity. She died, after years of suffering Arab well at sunset, all was right. The French infantry, and I will conquer the and acquish, broken by captivity, subdued by song and the merry tale awoke the sleepers | world." 'You will conquer. it without,' said Mufrom their dreams on the sands-and the rst with s smile . 'but see, the columns weil,' hope of glory banished gloomy forebodings Onward,' said the leaders with a wave removed to Mr. Cowan's brick build- from the ranks. Coffarelli, who it was supposed advised Napoleon to embark in this of his hand, ten days and I sup in Cairo." "For eight days the army continued to happy till the day of their death." wild crossde sgainst the Mamalouks, was a sdvaoce, now resting smid the roins of some ancient city, and now cooling their thirst from the sluggish tide of some muddy stream. The General, too, as he had done throughout the march, shared in all things with the meanest soldier. His head rested upon the sand stone of the maste-his mar-quee was the jewelled canopy of heavenhis full the howl of the Jackalls, and his reviells the yell of the skirmishing Mamalouke.

In squares six deep on each side, with the artillery at right angles, and the cavalry. baggage, and ammunition in the centre, the French army, drew near the plain of Cairo.

It was on the 19th of July at daybreak, when a shout from the vanguard broke upon the laggard eat, and a peaked clouds seemed to rise from the Nile, and caught his eager eye as he gazed around the horizon. Napoleon and his staff, mounted on umns wound round the hills of sand, they swift dromedaries, rode to the front of hiscolumns The night on its black wings passed swiftly along the mountains of Upper Egypt. The sun rose in Eastern splendor safely promised us a township ; we would from the desert and ht the sombre sands-a bright ray flashed upon the far distant ob-

It was a spectacle never equalled in sublimity. The whole army exclaimed as one camp kettles and the scientific instruments, man-"the Pyramids," and as the squares were called " demi Savens." Buttoned up advanced with mantial music-a train of to the throat in his gold-laced cost, with his camels came finkling round the base of the Sphynz-an Areb borsemen galloped out of sight behind the shade of the Girge, and the strain of the dying cymbels of the Mamalooke melted away in the rosy light.

Napoleon had passed the desert, and the to the clear sumosphere before him.

EXECUTION OF LOUIS XVI

At nine o'c ock Santerre presented himself at the Temple. 'You come to seek me,' said the King, 'allow me a minute' He went into his closet, and immediately came out with a testathis packet to the Queen my wile.' 'That is no concern of mine, said the worthy representative of the municipality; I am here only to conduct you to the scaffold ? The king then asked anthad been baid about five years-no more hair the top of my head than on the back of my and, and my head covered with a thick scorf. this situation about the 10th of Acgust last, began osiag the Balm of Columbia, from Comnet & Co. Since which, I have used two and shalf boules of the Balm, which has fully retored by hair, and freed my head entirely from gorf. My head is now covered with fine, flow ig long hair-which any one may see by calling mme, at Stamford, Connecticut.

D S SCOFIELD. Nov 12, 1840.2 Counterfeits are abroad - look always for the mme of Comstock & Co.

Fastle at the Watchman Office, and by C Weeler, Salisbury, Dr Suth, Raleigh ; D. Hant Hillsboro'; J & R. Sloan, Greensboro; J Nabry, Lexington, march 4, 1843-1y32

Dr. Brandeth's VEGETABLE UNIVERSAL PILLS for sale at this Office. Salisbury, N. C Oct. 1842-1114 Look at Dr. Sherman's adratisement, and if you wish relief for your ma y maladies, call and obtain a remedy of C.B. WHEELER, Agent. 1/20 Salisbury, Dec 10

To THE AFFLICTED .--- The moscriber has just received a large and fresh apply of Di Moffatt's Life Medicine, Call & owain relief. C B WHEELER, Agent. Salisbury, Dec 10-1120

PRIC	SALISBURY	June 24.	T
	Cents.		Cents.
Brandy, a		Cotton Yari Molasses,	n. 75 35 a 40
	,40 a 45 10 a 121		6 15 a 20
Beeswax.	20 1 22	Pork.	$3
Cotton, cl	$\begin{array}{c} \mathbf{an} 5\frac{1}{2} \mathbf{a} \\ 8 \mathbf{a} \mathbf{i} \mathbf{l} \end{array}$	Sugar, br.	5 a 10 15 a 18
Corn,	35 40	Salt, sack,	2 75 $3
Flour,	841 a 5	Tallow Tobacco,	8 a 20
Flaxseed,	50 a 55	Tow-Linea	12 a 16
Linseed	Dil. pr.	Wheat, bus	n 75 25 a 30

Cough, Asthma, Tightness of the Lungs or Chesi, &c.

AARON WOOLWORTH.

Dr. Sherman's

Medicated Lozenges

SHERMANS WORM LOZENGES

REPAIRING.

THE Subscriber respectfully informs his old

Are the only infallible worm destroying medicine ever discovered. They have been used in over 1,400,000 cases and never known to fail.

SHERMAN'S CAMPHOR LOZENGES Give immediate relief in nervous or sick Headache, palpitation of the Heart, Lowness of Snirits, Despondency, Fainting, Oppression or a sense of Sinking of the Chest, Diarrbea, Las-

Sherman's Fever and Ague Lozenges

Are the most certain remedy for this distressing complaint, ever offered to the American public .-In the immense number of cases in which they have been used, they have never been known to Sherman's Restorative Lozenges.

Diarthea or looseness of the bowels, so sommon and troublesome during the summer months, may now be entirely prevented by a proper use of these Lozenges: They are prepared express ly for that purpose, and can be relied on with perfect confidence. Persons subject to a derangement of the bowels should never be without them. They afford immediate relief from all the attendant gripings, faintness, depression, &c.

Sherman's Cathartic Lozenges

Are as pleasant and easily taken as the common pepperminis: and are an active and efficient medicine. They cleanse the stomach and howels, and are the best cathartic ever used for bilious persons. Where an active medicine is required. they are not only the best, but the safest that can be administered Sherman's Strengthening PLASTER, The best of all plasters for Rheumatism, Lumbago, Pain or Weakness in the Back. Loins. Side or Breast.

The above medicine is for sale, wholesale of retail, at the Salisbury Medical Drng Store, by

C. B. WHEELER, Agent, Salisbury, N. C. Sept 3, 1842-1v6

Dr. Moffat's Vegetable Life Medicines.

DOSSESS goalities of the most mild and beneficial natione. They are composed of articles the most anti-patrescent, combined with ingredients known as the only certain antidote for fevers of every description. When the dis ease is produced either from cold, obstruction, bad air, swampy and damp situations, or putrid missmi, whether malignant or epidemic, or by other causes, these medicines are certain in their operations or effects. They are possessed of pecaliar qualities, which not only expel all disease. but at the same time restore and invigorate the system. When first taken into the stomach. they immediately diffuse themselves like vapor through every pore, producing effects at once delightful, salutary, and permanent. When the spark of life begins to grow dim, the circulation languid, and the faculties paralized, these mediare found to give a tone to the nerves, ex-

In some of the best families in the neighborhood of St. John's Park, it has been extensively used, from the circumstance of baving eradicated a large quantity of worms, after all other remedies had failed, which was very extensively known in that part of the city. A family in New Jersey saved several children by the use of it. One, a girl of eight years of age, had become exceedingly emaciated before the Vermifage was given. The next day three large worms were dislodged, and she left off the Vermifuge, when she became again worse, and had resort to the Vermifuge that, finally brought away an incredible quantity of worms, and the cure was complete, and she gained her health rapidly

A Physician of standing, had doctored a family of children some weeks, without being able restore but one ont of the seven to health had the liberality to send for Kolmstock's Vermifage, and cured the rest with it in less than a week. Nomerous cases of other complaints were sup posed to exist, and the persons treated for fever &c., but finally a trial of this Vermifuge discov. ered the true cause of the sickness, by bringing away almost an innumerable quantity of worms large and small, and the persons recovered with great despatch. Instances of this kind might be cited to an immense extent, but it is useless, one trial for 25 cents will show any one with estonishment the certain effects of this Vermiloge. Coution - Never buy this article unless it have Dr Kolmstock's Vermilige" handsomely engraved on the outside label, and the fac simile of Comstock & Co. agents-C B Wheeler, Salisbury; J & R n, Greensboro'; D Heartt, Hillsboro'; J P the Alps. Mabry, Lexington ; Dr Stith, Raleigh.

March 4, 1843-1932 State of North Carolina.

DAVIE COUNTY.

IN EQUITY-SPRING TERM, 1843.

Robert Carson, Fxecutor of John Taylor, Dec'd.

William Taylor, James Taylor, Rebecca Taylor, Zachariah Gatther and wife Sally, Milton Gaither, Elijah Gaither, Noah Gaither, Asbury Gaither, Willie Gaither, Alexander G. Gaither, T'emperance.

T appearing to the satisfaction of the Court that William Taylor. James Taylor and Rebecca Taylor. Defendants in this case, are not that publication be made for six weeks, in the Carolina Watchman, for the said William Taylor. James Taylor and Rebecca Taylor, to appear at the next Term of this Court, to be held for the county of Davie, at the Court-House in like the breast of an inland lake, to tantalize Witness, L. Bingham, Clerk and Master of said Courf, at Office, the 4th monday after the 4th monday in February, A. D. 1843, and in the 67th year of American Independence. L BINGHAM, CME.

that the eagles of France had folded their silken wings upon the shores of Egypt. The droms of the French now best to arms The army of the East started to its feet. "To Cairo and the Pyramids !" cried he Savan.

"To beard the Bays of Mamalouke !" cried the impatient Murat.

centuries," cried Napoleon as he mounted his wer steed.

" Long live the Republic !" thundered slong the mortal line, as it broke into open columns, and moved onward, preceded by Thirst could not tsme them-the scorch-Nile deterred them not. The Arab's yell at midnight was music to their ear." On - the document, and said, 'Let us set off.' The next day the monicipality published the testament 'as a proof of the fanalicism and crimes of the king :' without intending it, they thereby raised the noblest monument to his memory.

In passing through the Court of the Temple, Louis cast a look to the tower, which was dead to him in the world ; and immediately summonnever ceased reciting the psalms which were pointed out by the venerable priest. Even the soldiers were astonished at his composure. The streets were filled with an immense crowd, who beheld in silent dismay the monroful procession ; dens of the Tuileries and the Champs Elysees, he descended from the carriage, and undressed himself without the aid of the executioners, but testified a momentary look of indignation when they began to bend his hands. M. Edgeworth exclaimed, with almost inspired felicity, 'Submit to that outrage as the last resemblance to the Savior, who is about to recompense your sufferings.' At these words he resigned himself and walked to the foot of the scaffold. He then received the sublime benediction from his confessor, 'son of St. Louis ascend to Heaven.' No sooner had he mounted, than, advancing with a firm step, to the front of the scaffold, with one of my death, and pray God that my blood may ple-' Amilhese words Santerre ordered the drums to beat; the executioners seized the kidy. and the descending axe terminated his existence One of the assistants seized the head and waved it in the air ; the blood fell on the confersor, when was still or his knees beside the lifeless budy of his sovereign.

EXECUTION OF THE QUEEN.

The King was executed on the 21st January. 1793, and the Queen was brought to trial on the 5th October following ; after the death of the King she was confined to the prison of the Conciergeric, and denied every comfort. Her fare was of the humblest kind, and her dress the coarsest habiliments. When she appeared before the "Revolutionary Tribunal, her checks were nale and emaciated, and sorrow and confinement had whitened her once beautiful hair ; her figure and atr were still commanding, and with firmpess in a clear and distinct voice. Being brought before the tribunal for condemnation rather than for trial, her sentence was soon proponnced. When led out for execution, (says Allison) the was dressed in white; she had out off her hair with her own hands. Placed in a hurdle, with her arms lied behind her back she was conducted by a long circuit to the place of execution, which the procession reached the tatal place she ascen-Thus perished, at the .ge of thirty-nine Marie Antoinette, Queen of France. Called in early life to the first throne in Europe, surround ed by a splendid cuert and a flattering nobility. she seemed to have approached as nearly as the misfortune, bereft of her children, degraded from ber throne, on the scaffold, where she had recently seen her husband perish. History has not recorded a more terrible instance of reverse of fortone or more illustrative of the wisdom of the ancient saying 'that none should be pronounced

6w45-Printers fee $5 50

CABINET MAKING!

THE Subscriber respectfully returns his I thanks for past favors, and informs his old friends and the public that he still continues to carry on the above business in all its various branches, and at the old stand on main street, two doors betwee I. & W. Murphy's store and op posite the Watchman Printing Office, where he may atways be found. He keeps constantly on TETAKES this method of hand a variety of well finished work, and at priinforming his friends, ces to suit the times, Also a supply of ready made Coffins constantly kept on hand to suit any measure; and at, lower prices than ever they

N. B. All kinds of Lumber and Country Pro duce taken in exchange for work. K. ELLIOTT. April 29, 1845-1v40

DR. L. RILLIAN;

AS reformed to Salisbury, and I now prepared to resome the practice of his profession. His Office is Bing, 2d door. April 29, 1843-1/40