METHODIST CONVENTION.

A Convention of the clergy of the South and Southwestern M. E. Church, to consider the subject of a division of the Church, assembled in Louisville on the 1st instant. We have seen the proceedings of the first three days.

In a temporary organization, Dr. Pierce, of Georgia, in the chair, it was ascertained that of 102 delegates elected 82 were present. The Bishops in attendance were formally requested to preside from day to day; upon which Bishop Soule arose and wished to postpone a definite reply till to-

Friday, May 2. Bishops Soule, Andrew and Morris appeared in the convention .-The former arose and addressed the convention in a solemn and impressive manner, expressing himself fully confident that a division of the church was inevitable. Himself and Bishop Andrew accepted the invitation to preside; but Bishop Morris, for reasons perfectly satisfactory, declined participating in the duties of the chair.

The Rev. Mr. Early offered the following resolution which was adopted:

" Resolved, That a Committee of two members from each annual conference represented in this Convention be appointsideration the propriety and necessity of a Southern Organization according to the plan of separation adopted by the late General Conference; together with the acts of the several Annual Conferences on this subject; and report the best method of securing the objects contemplated in the appointment of this Convention."

OREGON.

The distance of Oregon from the U. States is not generally known to half the persons who talk of settling beyond the Rocky Mountains. For the information of this class, we give the following on the authority of Mr. Greenhow's late publication :

The journey is generally commenced at Indepence, on the Missouri river: thence-

To Laramer Fork, is 750 miles. The sources of the Plate, 250 miles. To Fort Hall, 250 miles.

The travellers go the greater part of the way on foot, through a dreary barren country, crossing mountains that are 10,000 feet high, and destitute of vegetation and water. They are liable to be attacked by Indians, and suffer all kinds of annoyance and privation. If the President had the power to offer ten ing." thousand acres to every emigrant, we question whether one hundred persons in New York are so courageous and destitute as to accept the

If a man with a family of five persons, residing in the State of New York, were disposed to go to Oregon, he could not take his family there for less than $1,500 by the usual route.

The route usually taken from Canada to Oregon by the employees of the Hudson's Bay Company is about three thousand miles, and is traversed on horseback, there being no roads for wagons. What object emigrants can have in going to Oregon is a mystery to those acquainted with the country. The cost of the journey would buy a small farm in the middle counties of the State of New York .- N. York Evening Gazette.

> Marion, (Miss.) April 19th. We have had two dreadful murders here. One was Mr. Q. S. McElroy, a planter. In some trivial misunderstanding which occurred at the race-track, with Christopher Davis, the latter struck him over the head with a loaded whip. He afterwards mounted his horse, rode to the race-track, and looked on a few moments, without saying a word. He turned and had not gone more than a hundred yards before he fell dead from his horse.

The other was a young man, named T. Fisher. He was killed by B. M. Mayfield in a rencontre in the streets of this place. This dreadful act occurred immediately after church last Sunday.

Fashion and Peytona .- It is stated in the New York papers that 'another match between Fashion and Peytona will come off, over the Camden course, on or about the 27th of next month. Here it will be really seen which animal has the superi- And ority of powers. Although there will be doubtless great numbers present, there will be no New York mob of some 100 .-000 to impede their progress. This will be looked to, by the admirers of good sport, with more interest than even the great affair of Tuesday last.'

From the New York Courier and Enquirer.

The Toronto (Canada) Patriot rebukes very earnestly the warlike tone which has been assumed by many papers both in the United States and in England, and expresses its firm belief that the interests of both countries and of the world demand the continuance of peace. To Canada, it says, a war would be a fearful drawback and stumbling-block in her path to national greatness. Depending, as that Province does, so materially on the regular influx of British capital and population, a war with the United States, says the Patriot, would throw us back a dozen years in progressive civilization. "We know that our neighbors south of the Great Lakes are bold, active, and determined-that no people in the world will fight more pertinaciously in defence of their soil, but we are equally satisfied of their utter inability to maintain either an aggressive war or a protracted war on the ocean with a Power like that of Great Britain." It expresses, thus ardently and forcibly, its preference for the bloodless victories of enterprise and peace :

"Our voice, then, is for the bloodless victories of onward civilization-the unsullied triumphs of peace. There may be hearts burning with the fever heat of military ambitioneager to measure swords with the Democracy of the Western World: our quiet spirit wil look on the glorious day that sees the opening of the Toronto and Lake Huron Railroad as one of more enduring glory than that which witnessed the proudest flutter of the 'meteor flag' over the most tremendous scene of blood and brains-of testering dead and agonized wounded, which has ever been announced in a 'Gazette Extraordinary' as a 'glorious victory to the British arms-defeat of the enemy with

THE BAPTIST CONVENTION.

This body closed its deliberations, which have been marked for their harmony and christian forbearance and fraternization, yesterday, after a laborious session of three days and a half. Having been unable to attend the session of the Convention either of Saturday afternoon or night or yesterday, we are indebted to the courtesy of Mr. Secretary Crane, for the report of the proceedings which will be found in another column and which we have been permitted to copy from his Journal of the Convention. Of the debates during this period, which were sometimes protracted, we have no report .- Augusta Sentinel.

UNEQUAL JUSTICE.

Some three weeks since it was officially announced that President Polk had dismissed Lieut. Hurst from the Navy for having been engaged in a duel. The notice was copied very generally by the press and in the locofoco papers especially made the theme of many labored panegyrics upon Mr. Polk's prompt justice."-But before these praises have grown cold comes and over the receipts of 1842-43, 54,654 the intelligence that the same President Polk has appointed Alcee Labranche, late member of Congress from Louisiana, to the lucrative post of Surveyor of the port of New Orleans. Iron, Mr. Labranche, it will be remembered, killed his man in a duel some two years ago. Lieut. Hurst's antagonist escaped uninjured, though he himself was wounded. The question will be asked why was not the same measure of justice extended to the wealthy and influential | Corron, member of Congress that was meted out to the Corn, poor and comparatively friendless Lieutenant? Flour, Why dismiss the one from the public service for | Feathers, fighting a duel and appoint the other, who has Iron, committed the same offence [aggravated by the fact that he killed his antagonist] to a lucrative and responsible office? Let those papers, which have so liberally bepraised Mr. Polk for striking Lieut. Hurst's name from the Navy rolls, extenuate, if they can, the gross inconsistency of which he has been guilty in bestowing an appointment upon Alcee Labranche. Justice is no respecter of persons, but Mr. Polk, it seems, knows how to discriminate between a member of Congress and a Lieutenant of the Navy. In his estimation,

"Great men may jest with saints; 'tis wit in them " But in the less foul profanation"-

"That in the Captain's but a cholerick word, "Which in the Soldier is rank blasphemy."

Out upon such "Justice !"-Albany Erening

Oregon Wheat .- There was left with us, says the Frederick Herald, a few heads of Ore. gon Wheat, which was taken from Bloomfield farm, belonging to Henry R. Smeltzer, Esq., near Middletown, Maryland. Said wheat was in head on the 28th of April. The gentleman who left it stated that was the natural wheat of Oregon Territory, brought in by a missionary, and presented to Gen. J. Hite, of Pennsylvania; he stated that the natives told him that it had been growing there spontaneously for a great many years.

Fires-Omens.-If Mr. CLAY had been elected, and the Fires, deaths and calamities, which have taken place since the 4th of March, had ensued, Amos Kendal, Col. Wheeler et id omne genus, would have paraded them as omens, and as evidence of the "wrath of Heaven." They did this when Gen. HARRISON died, and would undoubtedly do it now, were Mr. CLAY in the Presidential Chair .- Ral. Reg.

Home Manufactures .- A Company has been formed in the city of Richmond, to manufacture Woolen Goods on a large scale. This is the true course for the South to pursue, and the sooner they commence it the better.

The Charleston Courier states that Mr. Pickens, of S. C., declines the mission to England recently offered him by President James K. Polk.

Virginia.-In Congress, 14 Locofocos to 1 Whig. In the Legislature, a Locofoco majority of 34 on joint ballot.
