DEMOCRACY IN A "BAD BOX." From the correspondence between the Locofoco Central Committee, and JAMES B. SHEPARD and the Circular of WALTER F. LEAK, Esq., published in this paper, it will be seen that the harmonious democracy have got themselves in a complete snart by having two candidates for Govemor in the field. Mr. Shepard has pubtished his appointments and so has Mr. Leak for meeting and addressing the good neople of North Carolina. It seems that Mr. Shepard has the advantage of his broher Locofoco, inasmuch as those papers which were disposed to support Mr. Leak when he was first nominated by the Anson Democracy, have hauled down his name and run up that of Mr. Shepard .-It really appears to us, that Mr. Leak has been rather badly treated by his friends. and well may be denounce those engaged in the plot to put him down and raise up another as the Democratic Candidate, as an responsible "clique" in and about Raleigh have done. No man of independence can long remain in the party, for as soon as be begins to think and act for himself, he s frowned down by those who arrogate to nemselves to say who shall be the reciient of all the honors and emoluments of he party. This is manifest in this case. Walter F. Leak was brought forward as he Locofoco candidate for Governor long Flore the "clique" at Raleigh acted on the subject, after Mr. Caldwell's declining to run, by meetings in Anson, Mecklenborg. Lincoln and Catawba counties; and after he got fairly in the field, Mr. Sheped is proclaimed from head quarters as thereal candidate of the Democracy. Nohing could have been more unjust to Mr. Leak, and no right minded man of the

But we may be asked, what is it to us We answer nothing, more than that we like to see justice done to a political opponent at all times; and if we are not more deceived than we ever have been, Mr. Leak will make himself felt to a greater extent than the Democratic "clique" at Raleigh is aware of, particularly in this

One word, to the Whigs, let not one of wa be led to believe that your vote is not meded because there are two Locos in the field, every vote ought to be polled for Gov. Graham, to give to Locofocoism in North Carolina its final death-blow.

A Promising Youth.—We have heard of a "customer" whose prospect in life. if he should continue his career, looks into the gutters, mud-holes, dungeons, and through the rings of whipping posts-at least such is the sober apprehensions of many. His distinguishing traits at present, are liquor-drinking, swearing and borrowing small sums of money from every white man or negro whom he can make believe hispromises of almost instant payment.-Of course he is not to blame if any one is imple enough to loan him cash—cash to teexpended at the first grog-shop he can reach. Take an example of his manner: Mr. C will you do the favor to loan me 75 cts. - Mr. C just to one side a minute, and I'll tell you all about it : you see this is my fix-"I'm to be married toperrow evening to Miss ---. you know her-her daddy has some of them-and to ave me I have not got the money to pay for the license—it is only seventy-five ets. -l expect in a few days to receive asum, and of course I'll immediately replace the money—it will be a great favor, sir, and I would not have thus exposed my condition to any other, man living. "Certainly" said Mr. C., "here is the change" and "I wish you much happiness." The morrow came and went, and another succeeded that, another, and another, until weeks were added, and Mr. C. will probably go to his grave leaving his estate minus 75 cts, as above, and his promising friend without a wife.

Editor. - Devil. do you leave - a paper! "Yes sir." Well stop it.

Shoot Higher! A!—Those little boys and rather inconsiderate men, who are in the practice of shooting so much in the back streets of the Great Western square of the Town, are requested to shoot a little higher. There is no telling what misthief might be done to-poultry in the Jards, or to glass windows and the like even in the dwellings of some of the citi-Zens in that quarter. One gentleman in said square has had his yard fired into lwice, recently, and another his garden fence and smoke-house well sprinkled with shot. Now, if care be taken to hold the barrel of the gun at an angle of about 45 degrees with the earth, there will be but little danger of mischief from the shot; and when there are no horses within a balf mile of the sportsmen, no more danger from the report-provided the Town Commissioners (?) should not hear it.

The second day of April set in with rain, bail and snow. At about twelve o'clock, the thermometer stood at 45, and at four down to 41. This morning clear—thermometer at 48.

BENJAMIN DUNCAN.

This individual, convicted about twelve months ago at Iredell County Superior Court as an accessary in the murder of Mai. William Peden, of Wilkes county, and appealed to the Supreme Court, where he obtained a new trial, was again put upon his trial last Friday at Mocksville, After a patient hearing of the evidence in behalf of the State, (for the Defendant introduced none,) and the argument on both sides, the jury retired about 9 o'clock P. M .. and remained out till about 2 o'clock next morning, when they returned a verdict of guilty .-On Saturday at 9 A. M., Duncan was brought into Court, and in the presence of a large number of spectators, ladies and gentlemen, sentenced to be hanged on the 24th instant, (the same day on which Underwood is to be executed at Statesville.)

After sentence was pronounced, the prisoner's Counsel moved for a new trial, but was refused, when they appealed to the Supreme Court once more in behalf of the unfortunate Reid, Wm. Rowles, George Rendleman.'

Died

In this county on the 20th ult., SARAH AGNES. daughter of W. B. and M. D. Wood, aged 2 years .-This affliction, so distressing in itself, was rendered the more painful to the bereaved parents, as it came in an hour when they looked not for it. Up to 10 o'clock on Thursday morning, this child was in ordinary health; pefore day light on Friday her spirit was in eternity.-May all, and especially the young, with their bright hopes of a long and happy future, be hereby admonished-

"That death stands ready at the door, To snatch our lives away."

And while we bow with resignation to this stroke of our Father's rod, we feel that we are but yielding our assent to the call of Israel's gentle Shepherd-" Suffer little children to come unto me, and forbid them not; for of such is the kingdom of God."

Rev. B. CRAYEN, Principal. THIS INSTITUTION is located in the North-West corner of Randolph county, N. C. Its healthy situation shields it, from the prominent evils of a city of village Institution. The Institute is not denominational, but it has been well said that " the Bible has a prominent place in the UNION INSTITUTE."-When we say our students must act honorably, we mean what we say. The students attend daily lectures on the historical and practical parts of the Bible, also regular Sabbath School. The course of instruction is inferior only to the University. The object of the Institute is to discipline the mind for the duty of life, to cultivate the moral powers, to instruct the young men of this country sufficiently for any profession, to give them a thorough THE EXECUTORS OF DANIEL H. Classical Education or to prepare them for any class in College." Occasional lectures are delivered by the Principal on Natural History, Geology, Chemistry and Natural Philosophy-also explanatory lectures on the particular studies of the classes. The sessions commence on the last Thursday of March and September, and continue five months. The number of Students during the past year was 95, for which patronage the Directors return their grateful acknowledgements to the public .-There has been some difficulty in procuring board owing to the increased number of students, but arrangements are now made to accommodate any number. The literary character of the PRINCIPAL is well known, haying had charge of the Institute four years, during which time it has arisen to its present prosperous condition .-The Assistants are well prepared for their station. The exceeding lowness of terms is not intended to disparage any other Institution, but to place the opportunity of acquiring a good education in reach of every young man in the country.
