

We invite the attention of the public to the Act Incorporating the Yadkin Navigation Company, which will be found in to-day's paper. This is a subject of great importance to all the counties whose borders are washed by this stream. Let gentlemen reflect for a moment on the immense benefit it would confer upon the counties particularly, and to the State generally, if this improvement of the River was now made. The facilities...

THE HORNET'S NEST. The Democratic organ at Charlotte, in publishing an account of the recent subscription of the Mecklenburg Company of Volunteers, head his article "Mecklenburg right side up." No doubt the actors in the scene to which allusion is made, persuaded themselves they were right. They cannot be convinced now, that they were wrong. "A man convinced against his will,"—if the whole Country were to unite in condemning their conduct, they would still cry out—"the spirit of 1775—Old Mecklenburg right side up!"

Whist on this subject we would notice a small circumstance as affording a striking example of forbearance in the history of the Democratic party as given by them at Charlotte. We allude to the escape of Maj. John W. Ellis, as touching the part he acted in the decision by the Legislature of the question of appointment of Field Officers for our Volunteer Regiment. It is not, gentlemen, a remarkable circumstance! The question of appointment had passed its third reading in the House, giving the power to the Field and Staff. This was just as Mecklenburg desired it.

ATTENTION—CAVALRY. We are requested to give notice to the members of the Light Horse Company now forming in this County, and as many as feel an interest in the same, that there will be a meeting held on Saturday the 20th instant, at the Court House in Salisbury, for the purpose of Organizing said Company, and to pass upon other matters thereunto pertaining. The members especially are requested to attend, and the public generally invited.

"A hint to the wise is sufficient."—The gentleman who ordered the printing of a number of "Phrenological and Physiological Charts," at this office, last Fall, is requested to come or send for them, and settle for the same, or he will be called out by name.

PIGS.—Col. Wm. F. Kelly, of Davie county, who is celebrated for raising fine hogs, killed three hogs this season of the following weights, to wit: No. 1, 812; No. 2, 737; No. 3, 687; neat, being an aggregate of 2,236 lbs. We presume that no other man in the United States has butchered, this season, three hogs weighing as much as these.

TOBACCO—NOT "HYCO." Ah! gentlemen, you are caught!—there is no escape, so just make a virtue of necessity and quite right down and receive your well merited castigation. No covering of faces unless you mean to do better hereafter. Now just think of those duck ponds you have made in the Church—made too, with bright eyes resting upon you! Perhaps you were not aware of that fact. Don't you feel streaked? "Cavandish," "James River Sweet Leaf" and "Virginia Sun Cured," have led you to your shame. Pernicious inventions! how long will they hold you in captivity, and into what snares will they not lead you! But you are willing dupes and deserve to be corrected in a manner that will bring you to a proper mind.

TO TOBACCO CHEWERS. The following homely but earnest and sensible appeal to Tobacco chewers, is from the Methodist Protestant, an influential religious paper published in Baltimore.—We unite heartily with the appeal. What would tobacco chewers say to see certain persons take their bottles to meeting, and give a good long swig, occasionally—or how would they like to see any individual munching apples or nuts in Church,—yet either of these would be cleanly and decent practices, compared to the everlasting squirting of tobacco juice that prevails during service, in some places.

Chewing Tobacco in the House of God. A word I would drop to the Church-going folk of country and town, and not in a joke. Now chewing tobacco and spitting the juice in the House of the Lord, can find no excuse but want of politeness, or rather of grace. Or want of respect for the hallowed place: Yet here it is practised by A, B, and C. And there it is followed by E, F, and G. You never need ask where these gentry sit. Just look on the wall and you'll see by the spit; in dark puddles it spreads on the floor. From the pulpit all round each way to the door. The scene is disgusting; and how must you feel if never so readily believe any more. Yet often it happens these men are so good. They bend on their knees while others have stood. This done, they return to their labor again. Still chewing their quid and spreading the stain. A scandal to men!—a scandal to grace! Here decency blushes and covers her face! Do throw out your chews ere you enter the door, And never so readily believe any more. But down with your cash for the snuff and the soap, And the horrible job of cleaning all up. E. H.

It is hard to forget that North and South were baptized as brethren with the same blood; and thank God it is so. Were it otherwise, the ties of political union would soon be severed. The fabric reared on the foundation of the Constitution would be tumbled into pieces, and we would be ready to run the risk of being able to build from its fragments another, more homogeneous, just, and enduring. But old recollections of common dangers and sufferings, of common struggles and triumphs, still hallow the Union—still cause it to be regarded as the Ark of our political Covenant, against which it is sacrilegious to raise an unfriendly hand. I hope, sir, that these recollections will continue to live, and that they will ultimately restore the feeling of fraternity and the sense of justice which it has been the object of demagogues to destroy.

YORKVILLE, S. C., Jan. 30, 1847. Messrs. Editors: I wish to make known through the columns of your paper, that last evening the Captain of Company A, N. C. Volunteers, received from the Adjutant General of the State, the news that his excellency Wm. A. Graham, considered Camp A, as being disbanded, and existing no longer as a company. Upon the receipt of the above information, I immediately tendered my resignation as First Lieutenant of said company, and left for New Orleans. I also authorize you to have enrolled upon the list of the new company that is forming my name, as I consider myself a member of the same. I hope that you will use the influence of your press and exhort the influential citizens of the county to assist in raising a new company. I will meet the company in at Wilmington, Charleston, New Orleans, or any point in the United States, where they may embark from. Yours Respectfully, ROBT W. LONG.

Obituary. DIED, in Mocksville, on the 13th ultimo, Mrs. MARY MARCH, daughter of Mr. G. G. Gaither, and consort of Wm. B. March, High Sheriff of Davie county. This amiable lady was in the 24th year of her age. She lingered about ten months under a wasting consumption, six months of which time she was unable to walk. Her sickness, though painful and protracted, was borne with a high degree of christian patience. Mrs. March had been a regular member of the Methodist Church for eight years. In her last hours, and when scarcely able to speak, she expressed her strong confidence in Jesus as her Saviour. Resting on this sure foundation, her soul was at peace. But from this scene of suffering, amidst the tender watchings of an affectionate mother and friends, she was called to her rest, leaving a kind husband and two little daughters to mourn their loss. For she, the young, the bright, the gay, Here left us here to weep. While covered with her parent clay, And wrapt in death's long sleep. Then, timely warned, let us begin To follow Christ and flee from sin; Daily grow up in Him our head, Lord of the living and the dead. Communicated.

NOTICE. Administrator's Sale on the 25th February. HAVING obtained Letters of Administration on the estate of John W. Watson, dec'd., I will sell at his late residence, the following property, viz: three or four hundred bushels of Corn, a quantity of Oats, Wheat, and Rye; one Wagon, one Carriage and Harness; stock of Hogs, Cattle, Sheep, one set of Blacksmith tools, Household and Kitchen Furniture. Also, on the same day I will rent out said Farm to the highest bidder. JAMES WATSON, Adm'r. February 4th, 1847. 40-3t

DISORGANIZATION AT THE CHARLOTTE RENDEZVOUS. We announced two weeks ago, that the North Carolina Regiment was complete, and published a list of the Companies, who had reported themselves to the Adjutant, and applied for and obtained Commissions for their Officers. We regret now to hear that Capt. Loeb, of the Rowan Company, has reported, that after seventeen days encampment at Charlotte, without the arrival of an Officer of the U. States to muster them into service, his Company was reduced by desertions and his men leaving Camp in defiance of his authority, that he had not a Company to offer when the mustering Officer should arrive; and has tendered his resignation, which was accepted, and the Company ordered to be disbanded. It is proper, however, to state, that other accounts have reached us, very unfavorable to the Captain himself, and ascribing the dissolution of the Company, after they had drawn the bounty of the State, under the appropriation of the Legislature, to his own conduct, on hearing that he had not been appointed a Field Officer.

THE SUBTREASURY. A Boston correspondent of the Evening Post, exulting over the large arrival of specie by the Hibernia, says: "I am more afraid of money becoming too easy, and speculation too rife, than otherwise. But the good effect of the Independent Treasury in repressing such excitement, will be felt by every man." The Editor himself says, in another column: "It is fortunate that the Independent Treasury scheme is now in full effect, to check whatever is unhealthy and extravagant in the spirit of enterprise, and assist in keeping down values to the specie standard." To hear this of a Government Subtreasury where a dollar does not rest in peace from the clamor of the public creditors is ludicrous! To flood the country with $25,000,000 of Treasury rags, and so much to expand the currency is, indeed, an odd way of "keeping down values to the specie standard."

Hon. Henry A. Wise, United States Minister at Rio Janeiro, has written to the Patent Office a valuable letter, published in the Union, on topics of much agricultural interest. He recommends the transplanting of many Brazilian plants, especially of the Anglo grass. The cotton about Rio Janeiro is said to be high and of good quality; the cereal grains to have degenerated. Mr. Wise says that great service can be rendered to the agriculture of our own country by attention to the productions of Brazil.—Nat. Int.

Decency.—The "Standard" styles the late Legislature, "the Mexican Whig" Assembly—the meaning of which is, we presume, that the Whigs voted $10,000 to "give aid and comfort" to our noble Volunteers, who have marched against Mexico. [Register.]

MERCHANTS' CHANTS' STEAM BOAT COMPANY, Of Fayetteville and Wilmington. GREAT REDUCTION IN FREIGHT, Averaging about 20 Per Cent! New Steamer BOWAN, 17 inches. Steamer WILLIAM B. MEARES. Steamer COTTON PLANT. Flat Boats—BEN BERRY. ODD FELLOWS. MIKE CROWLEY. WASHINGTON. T. J. CURTIS. READY MONEY. MARY ELIZA.

THE Proprietors of the Merchants' Steam Boat Company of Fayetteville and Wilmington, N. C., offer the above Line of Boats, on the Cape Fear River, to the shipping public, under the late revision and reduction of Freight. Their new steamer Rowan now draws only 17 inches water. When she undergoes some alteration in machinery, her draft is calculated at fourteen to sixteen inches, which will make her the lightest boat navigating the waters of any river in the southern country. This company flatters themselves that they have it now in their power to offer the most complete line of boats that has ever been on the Cape Fear, and one that will do the freighting business with regularity and dispatch on all stages of the water. They have, in connection with the Henrietta company of this place, reduced the freight to the tariff as in printed rates. Neither of the Boating concerns deemed themselves able to reduce the freight and still do the forwarding business in this place free of charge, and consequently this company have given it up, with the conviction, that the Forwarding Merchants of our town can do it more justice than a boating concern.

GENERAL RECEIVING and Forwarding Agency! THE subscriber observing from the advertisement of the Merchants' Steam Boat Company, of their intention of giving up the forwarding of Goods, offers his services. From long experience in that line, he hopes to give satisfaction. Refer to Messrs. J. W. Murphy, and Michael Brown, Esq. EDWARD W. WILLKINGS. Fayetteville, N. C., January 20, 1847—3m-3d

Negroes to Hire! FOUR or five Negro Girls from 17 to 20 years of age, for hire. A HENDERSON. Salisbury, January 29, 1847—1f-3p

GREAT REDUCTION IN FREIGHT! On the Cape Fear River! Comparison in a few articles of the former and present rates:

Box Goods, cubic foot, Former 8 Present 7; Salt, sack, 30 25; Salt, coarse Lit., bushel, 10 8; Iron, ton, 3 00 2 50; Coffee, per sack, 30 25; Sugars, per 100, 17 1/2 15; Castings, per 2000 lbs, 5 00 4 00

WE continue to run our usual number of Boats. The Evergreen lost but one trip during all the last dry season. It is unquestionably the lightest draught of water (7 inches) running on the river. Our present terms for receiving and forwarding goods, as follows: Receiving and forwarding in Wilmington free of commission for the same! All goods consigned to us in Fayetteville, on freight up the river, 15 per cent. We have five safe Warehouses at the river, where they may be stored, so as to save one-half the hauling. Produce down the river shipped free of commissions. Passage, three dollars up an down. This arrangement to take effect after 20th instant. Thankful for past favors, we solicit a continuance of public patronage. JOHN HALL, Agent Henrietta Steam Boat Company. Fayetteville, January 18, 1847—3w-3p

GENERAL ORDERS, WAR DEPARTMENT. No. 2. The following Act of Congress, changing the date of enlistments, and providing a bounty for recruits of the information and guidance of the army. AN ACT to encourage enlistments in the Army. "Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That, during the continuance of the Mexican war, the term of the enlistment of the men of the regiments of dragoons, artillery, and riflemen of the present military establishments, shall be 'during the war' or five years, at the option of the recruit, unless sooner discharged. "Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That no man shall be allowed and paid to every able-bodied man who is enlisted to serve in the artillery or dragoons, or riflemen, for the term of five years or during the war, a bounty of twelve dollars; but the payment of six dollars of said bounty shall be deferred until the recruit shall be discharged for duty the regiment in which he was recruited. "III.—The general superintendents of the recruiting office will prompt and all necessary means for the recruiting officers, who will immediately upon the general order, with the table of established bounties, and they will also suffice for the new term of enlistment, by the war, in the handwriting of the recruit, for the words 'five years,' as printed in the oath of allegiance. "IV.—Company commanders will add two dollars to the muster rolls, and must pay the same to the recruit, and show the payments on account of 'bounty' in the column will be changed from advanced bounty to bounty at the time of his enlistment; in the case of recruits retained bounty due him, and which is to be paid upon joining for duty the regiment in which he was recruited. Recruiting officers will add similar columns to their muster rolls, must, and pay rolls, and must subscribe rolls, &c., respectively, furnished by the recruiting service. "V.—The term of service having been changed from five years to during the war with Mexico, and twelve dollars allowed, it is expected that the term of the army will be filled in a short time, and the exertion and activity on the part of the recruiting officers who will explain fully to the recruit the conditions upon which he enters the service. "VI.—Whenever recruiting stations prove unsuccessful, they must be abandoned and new ones established, and if any officer fail to get recruits at more than one station, he shall be relieved and ordered by the recruiting officer to join his regiment. "VII.—More than ordinary attention must be given to the tactical instruction of recruits by all company commanders from the moment of enlistment to the departure of the company. To the attention of commanding officers and recruiting officers is directed.—See No. 378, Army Regulations. "VIII.—The garrison of Fort Columbus, which has been withdrawn for service in the field, but which has not been turned over exclusively for the recruiting service, is to be put under the instruction of Colonel CRANE, of the 1st Artillery, the general superintendent, who will give attention to this subject, and see that the recruits are comfortably quartered and well instructed during the time they may be retained on Governor's Island. By ORDER: R. JONES, Adj. Gen. UNITED STATES ARMY.

RECRUITING SERVICE.—Wanted for the United Army, able-bodied men, between the ages of 18 and 30 years, being of good stature, of good complexion, and of respectable standing among their countrymen. None need apply to enter the service, who are determined to serve the period of the term, honestly and faithfully, during the war with Mexico, or for the term of five years.

GRADE. To the Serg't. Maj. Quartermaster Sergeant, Chief Musician, and Chief Bugler, each $317 1/2; To the 1st Serg't of a Company, Ordnance Sergeant, All other Sergeants, each $13 1/2; Corporals, Buglers, Musicians, Farriers and Blacksmiths, Artificers, Privates, each $11 1/2.

A bounty of twelve dollars will be paid to recruits enlisted for the Artillery or Infantry army. Besides the monthly pay, as above stated, each recruit is allowed every soldier, which is supplied for his subsistence; also a large supply of blankets and general clothing. Good quarters and fuel are furnished, and every attention will be given to making those men who may enlist, and are determined to serve their country in good faith, comfortable and contented with their situation. The best medical assistance is always provided for the sick soldier; and reduction of pay is made during the period he is unable to perform his duty. Should the soldier be discharged from the line of service, he is allowed a pension for the balance of his life. By the above it is seen that the pay and allowances are respectable, and that, with prudence and industry, the monthly pay of the soldier may be laid up, and the thing requisite for his comfort and convenience secured by the Government, including his sugar and salt. The present soldier, therefore, may readily see that $120 to $1200 during his enlistment of five years, is the expansion of the money he can, by the purchase a small farm in any of the western States, there settle himself comfortably, on his own land, and rest of his life.

The sum of two dollars will be paid to any non-commissioned officer or soldier, who shall be honorably enlisted, who shall be honorably discharged, or who shall be honorably promoted to the rank of Lieutenant or Captain, and not to the rank of Sergeant.

MARTIN BURKE, (Capt. 3d U. S. Art.) RECRUITING RENDEZVOUS, Salisbury, N. C. Jan. 15, 1847. Charlotte Journal: copy 3 times and forward to this office.

EXECUTORS' SALE. IN obedience to the last will and testament of John Neely, dec'd., I will sell on Tuesday the 20th of February next, all the real and personal property of said deceased, consisting of 14 LIKELY NEGRO chiefly young of both sexes, and size. Also 100 or more acres of very valuable land on Third Creek, adjoining the land of William Barber, Samuel Kirk, Joseph Barber, &c. There is a moderate quantity of fruit about some buildings upon the farm. Any person who wish to purchase a good little farm would do well to examine the premises previous to the day of sale, as the land is excellent and the water good, and the soil is fertile. There will be cash in hand for the purchase of Corn, Wheat, Bacon, Oats, Hay, Fodder, head of Horses, Cattle, Hogs, and Sheep; 1 Wagon, Gear, all the Farm Implements, Household and Kitchen Furniture, and various other articles not here enumerated. The plantation belonging to Julius A. Neely, will be rented for one or two years. The credit will be 12 months, but the terms may be further made known on the day of sale. THOMAS BARBER, Executor. Rowan county, January 18, 1847—3w-3p

ALL PERSONS INDEBTED TO THE Estate of Henry Kistler, dec'd., will please meet me on Monday of February 20th, in Salisbury, or at the late residence of the dec'd., on Saturday the 13th of February next, and make payment. Those who may wish to find their papers in the hands of any person, or who may have claims against the estate are also requested to present them on the above day for collection. Those having claims against the estate are also requested to present them on the above day for payment. D. BARRINGER, Adm'r. January 19, 1847—3w-3p
