EXPOSITION OF GEN. TAYLOR'S POLITICS.

The New York " Courier" speaks of a letter of Gen. Taylor to the Hon. J. R. Ingersoll, of Philadelphia, which it has hoped for some time past, to obtain a copy of, but has been disappointed, " and for reasons which may be hereafter stated." The general tenor and substance, however, it is permitted to impart to its readers :

SONS OF TEMPERANCE.

FROM THE RALEIGH REGISTER OF OCTOBER 27.

Mr. Editor : At the Annual Session of the Grand Division of the Sons of Temperance of North Carolina, a Resolution was passed, to the effect, that such action as had been taken by that body upon matters affecting the public and the cause of Temperance generally, should be drawn up, and enclosed to the Editors in our City, be read in the sentences of Gen. Scott. with the request that they, and the conductors of the Press throughout the State, would oblige us by laying the same before their readers, in their respective Jour-
