STOP THE THIEF.

TOLEN from the Subscriber's stable in Salisbury. on Saturday night the 16th instant, a sorrel mare about medium size, with a small blaze in the face, running nearly to the nose, five years old next Spring, one white foot behind, thin mane and long tail, and paces nearly altogether. She is fresh shod before, hind feet bare, and has a very bad sore on the wethers. The thief also took away a double-reined blind-bridle, and a small saddle, and saddle-cloth. The cloth is made of an old

I believe the thief went in the direction of Statesville or Salem. The man I suspicion is named Ben, or Bennet Dosier. He had been about this place for a week or more previous to his disappearance. He was last seen about 10 o'clock, on Saturday night. He is about five feet 7 or 8 inches high, and wears large black whiskers, extending from ear to ear-has an impediment in speech, especially when drunk; and had on, when last seen, a black over-coat with side pockets, and velvet on the collar-boots and spurs. I will give the above reward for the apprehension of FREDRICK MOWERY Salisbury, Oct. 18, 1847.-25, tf.
