The Nat. Intelligencer of the 6th, says : The Senate Chamber was crowded on juesday to an excess rarely witnessed, s may be imagined by the fact that the par Sex filled all the floor of the Chamer not occupied by the Senators, fairly spelling the Members of the other House for the privileged places set apart to men by the Senate. The occasion was the known intention of Mr. Calhoun to defiver his expected Speech in support of Resolution, introduced some days ago, stainst the entire conquest and occupa-stainst the entire conquest and occupa-

The speech was as we are informed, Stalas. and as every one might anticipate, an efbrof great power. The particular potion taken by Mr. Calhoun we shall not ndertake to remark upon until we have apportunity of ascertaining it from the sepate's authorized report of it. Meanme, it may be satisfactory to know so shch of it as that he advocates the esablisment of a line, and the placing our roops within it to defend and maintain and considers that the only alternative whis course is to adopt the policy reommended by the President in his Anual Message to Congress.

In the Senate, yesterday, the Addition-Army Bill (for raising ten additional regiments of Regulars) was the main subect of the day's proceedings. An effort was made by Mr. Crittenden, by amendment, to substitute so many regiments of Volunteers for the regiments of Regulars. te supported his proposition by argument; and it was carnestly opposed by Mr. Dais the new Senator from Mississippi, inself distinguished by gallant service scommander of a Volunteer Regiment this war;) and was negatived, all the Whigs but two voting for it. and the maprity of the Senate of course against it. The bill was ordered to a third reading as reported, (with an amendment, noved by Mr. Johnson, of Maryland, browing upon the President the responsihility of determining the necessity of makng this addition of ten thousand men to the Regular Army.) and comes up, on its und reading, to day.

The arrest of several high officers of the army by Gen. Scott has excited much discussion in the public prints, some of them approving and some condemning the Institution, in the place of Mr. Senator act. Until the facts are more fully be- Cass, resigned. fore the public, it is impossible to decide how far they are to be justified. The pro- sentatives some days ago appointed the ceeding is probably as well calculated as following Members of the House Regents any thing else to show up the beauties of of the Institution, to serve until Decemthis Mexican war. | or any war of inva- ber, 1849, viz: Mr. Hilliard, of Alabama, ab sion,] and to teach the sober, staid, peace- (reappointment.) Presently we may expect hem home with their conquering legions at their heels, and then we shall have a taste of the benefits of a vast standing army, of disgraceful courts martial, of military despotism, and of the exercise of arbitrary authority. Each General will of course have his partisans, and each one will wish to prove his superiority .---The plain simplicity of a peaceful Republic will be exchanged for the pomp and display of monarchical and despotic Governments, and the means of the industrious yeomanry consumed in the payment of enormous salaries to new-fangled Generals, whose pride, vanity, and aristocracy is calculated almost to excite disgust. It is time that our Government should be brought back to the democratic simplicity of former years, and that the enormous expense and loss inflicted upon the nation by the present Administration should be looked upon by the people in the serious light that it merits.-Georgetown Adv.

General Taylor visited Natchez, Missippi, on the 22d ultimo, and was wel. omed by public honors, in which the cople joined with great enthusiasm. He as accompanied by Major Bliss and Capt. Garnett, To the address of welcome Gen. Taylor made the following modest response :

"Mr. MAYOR : The warm and affection. te welcome with which the people of atchez have honored me can be but feewacknowledged by any words of mine. few now remain who were on the active mene of life when I first became acquainkd here ; but I see their children around ne, and the open hands and hearts of their ons, and the bright eyes of their daughtis, render this greeting doubly welcome. "You have alluded to my services in he field in such flattering, though I fear, indeserved terms, that I must say a few words in reply. To the bravery of our mops, regulars and volunteers, are our uccesses in Mexico due; to their bold east and stout arms we must ascribe the williant victories which have shed so Manly, Alfred Jones .- Raleigh Register. much lustre upon our arms, and none among them have been more conspicious than the first regiment of Mississippi volinteers. For myself, I can only claim the best of my ability.

"Again, Mr. Mayor, I convey to you March following. Now we venture the predicin through you to the people of Natchez, tion that the gentlemen elected will be w most heartfelt thanks for the high honwhey have shown me.'

At the conclusion of the Judge's speech, five hundred pupils sung a triumphal with great good taste and spirit. The following Resolution on this point was unanimously adopted by the Stockholders, viz :

" Resolved, That the thanks of the Stock. holders are due to the board of Directors, and especially to the President of this Bank, for the very able, faithful, and satisfactory manner, in which its affairs are and have been administered.'

We have no room for details, which are seldom interesting, but one single fact will at once illustrate the sound condition of this bank, and the propriety of the foregoing Resolution. It is this : That although the Bank has declared for the past year, a Dividend of eight per cent, to the Stockholders on their investment, exclusive of the Tax of one fourth of one per cent, on the shares of individual Stockholders, paid by it to the State, it has now on hand a surplus of net undivided profits of Two Hundred Thousand Dollars, in round numbers, being a fraction over 13 pear cent. upon the Capital Stock of the Bank, viz : $1,500,000.

The following gentlemen were appointed Directors of the Principal Bank for the ensuing year, viz : Duncan Cameron, William Peace, John H. Bryan, Geo. W. Mordecai, Charles

If this prediction should be verified-and we would not make it if we had much doubt on the subject- what unprecedented causes for congratulation will exist on the 1st January 1849? To-day, we tender our annual respects to our bung lady, at the conclusion of the ode, readers in the spirit of hope but surrounded by gloom; and while we are grateful for all the blessings we still enjoy-we cannot but feel an abiding confidence that on the return of the anniversary of this day, all will be bright and hopeful. The election of TAYLOR and WEB. STER would not only insure us a wise and successful administration of the Government during the next four years ;- but it will contain a promise likewise for the next four yours ;- for no body can doubt but that in such an event, DANIEL WEBSTER if living would succeed Gen. Edited by Mrs. C. M. Kirkland, Author of "A New Home," "Forest Life," &c., and filled with Contributions from the most eminent writers of the Country 'he second volume commences with the January Number, 1848.

AT the conclusion of the first half-year of the UNION MAGAZINE, the publisher feels impelled to make some acknowledgement of his sense of the favorable reception accorded to it by the public. Its success has certainly been unprecedented; and while it may be pardonable to ascribe this in part to the merits of the work, it must not be denied that public good-will and kindness have been abundantly demonstrated. The press, in all parts of the country' have given its voice liberally and heartily in favor of the new aspirant.

To flag after this, would be dishonorable indeed. It is the hope of the publisher that the courage and enterprise which belong to success will be found rather to have stimulated than slackened his exertious. If there be talent of a suitable kind in the country, he is determined to make it available to the Union Magazine in the various departments. He will continue to give superior engravings in Mezzotint, Line and Wood by H. S. Sadd, Thomas Doney, M. Osborne, Rob't Henshelwood, W. S. Barnard, B. F. Childs, P. Loomis, &c., from original designs by T. Matteson, who has the sole direction of all the designs for the engravings.

The Literary matter will continue to be under the exclusive control of the Editor, Mrs. C. M. Kirkland, assisted by a corps of contributors who are either established favorites of the reading public or worthy to become so. Such as Mrs. L. Maria Child, Mrs. L. H. Sigourney, Mrs. F. S. Twenty Dollars Reward. RANAWAY from the subscriber on the night of the 2d ultimo, my negro 'man Anderson, a mulatto, about thirty-five years of age, a little above the common height, very strong and stout built, large frame. coarse features, with distended nostrils. No other particular marks about him recollected. He took with him a considerable quantity of clothing of a pretty good quality, which I cannot accurately describe, none or few of which were of common homespin. It is supposed he is trying to make his escape to a free State ; and it's probable he may have in his possession forged papers, and certificates of his freedom, and may pass as a free man. Any information concerning him will be thankfully received ; and the above reward given for his apprehension and delivery to me, or for his confinement in some Jail, so that I can get him. THO. L. COWAN.
