WHIG MEETING IN ROWAN.

he pursuance of notice heretofore given the Carolina Watchman, a large porin of the citizens of Rowan assembled The Court House.

On motion of J. Clarke, Esq., Dr. Plea-Henderson was called to the Chair, of on motion of A. H. Caldwell, Esq., Perace L. Robards and J. H. Enniss were Secretaries. The meeting thus gasized the Chairman in a felicitous peculiar to himself, explained the hect of the meeting.

H. C. Jones, Esq., addressed the meetg, and submitted the following resolu-

Resolved, That the Whigs of Rowan apare of the proposed State Convention, to be in Raleigh, on 22d instant, and also of a vilional Convention as recommended by the meives zealously to support whomsoever wigs at Washington City, and we pledge best Conventions shall nominate for the repective offices of Governor of the State and President and Vice President of the United

Resolved, That while we accord to General Taylor the meed of high qualities as soldier and as a man-and while we even weare that he will be our first choice for Preantof the United States, if, as we believe sound on the several leading traits of the Whig policy; nevertheless, we protest resolute. ragainst an attempt, which seems to be in orgress in some parts of the country, to force General Taylor forward as the Whig candidate without question or answer, avowal or explamion as to his opinions, and without the usual mity sanction and endorsement of a nomination That nothing could pare fully realize our idea of blind partizan deming of the spirit and manliness heretofore the caverns of the earth .- Ib. injested by the Whigs of the Union.

Resolved, In the words of Mr. Calhoun late. pronounced in the Senate of the U. States, we are "opposed to the war not only beuse it might have been easily avoided: not because the President had no authority to mer a part of the disputed Territory in posession of the Mexicans to be occupied by our mops: not only because we believe the allegations upon which Congress sanctioned the war untrue, but from high considerations of poland serious evils to the country, and greatly eninger its free institutions.

Resolved, That we believe with the venera. publican America on this earth, to conquer and estroy in whole or in part other nations, but realighten them by an example of wisdom, bearance and virtuous rule.

Resolved, That in our opinion the introducn of the question of disposing of the conered territory of Mexico, will inevitably open the councils of this nation, the dangerous estion of slavery, and for that reason, if for no her, we are opposed to the dismemberment of exico by our arms.

Before concluding, Mr. Jones apprised the meeting that Mr. Boyden, our able member of Congress, was in town on a sit to his family and friends, and hoped ome member would be selected by the Chairman to wait on Mr. Boyden and ask that he address our meeting.

report had reached Saltillo by express from Surce said to be entitled to credit, that Gen. ustamente, at the head of 10,000 Mexicans, marching from San Louis upon Saltillo. The Port even particularizes the points whence troops had been raised; but so frequent reports upon that line, that this one obtainbut little credit.

An officer of the Virginia Regiment writing Camp Buena Vista, in Mexico, says,-A military occupation of Mexico would be appensive operation to our Government, and bolly bootless for any just national ends and ceta; while its conquest and incorporation, with its mongrel, deprayed, and ignorant popstion, could not prove otherwise than ruinous our free institutions—and an unmitigated

LOUISIANA SENATOR.

Bribery and Corruption Case in the Legis. lature .- In the House of Representatives of Louisiana on Tuesday last, Mr. Jones, of Jefferson, rose and said, as it was certainly reported that a member of this House in absenting himself on Monday last, was influenced by corrupt motives, he felt it his duty to give a statement of a conversation he had with the member whose name is so freely used by the public, in order that the House might take what action on it it might deem proper. Mr. Jones then furnished the following written statement.

The Hon. Isaac A. Myles, in a conversation negroes had been offered him not to vote for a Whig United States Senator. The gentle. men in the conversation was speaking of the election by the Logislature of a Senator on the following Monday. He did not state by whom the offer was made. He further stated, in the same conversation, that he was old-that he had two negro boys and a woman, which was sufficient for him, and that he wished to preserve his conscience pure, as a good conscience was worth more than property.

the appointment of a committee to investigate

We see that the recusant Whigs in the Leg. iglature are writhing under the severe but righteous castigation administered to them by the Bulletin, and well they may. Three of them have attempted to make explanations, which, however, only tend to involve them deeper in guilt and shame. The Bulletin deserves the thanks of Whigs of the Union, for the fearless. ness with which it has exposed the shameful treachery by which the Whig party has been sacrificed in the Louisiana Legislature. The betrayers have achieved an infamous notoriety and their names should be preserved in letters of living, burning, and eternal shame .- Mobile

THE LOST ONE.

At last accounts from New Orleans, the miserable Myles-who was PAID to play TRAITOR to the Whig party in the election of United States Senator, by his absence-had not been tound. Dare the creature ever show his face again among honorable men? If so, shame has mion than such a course, and would be unbe- no blush. We advise him to hide himself in SENATORIAL FRACAS. Yesterday morning, before the Lieut. Governor took his seat as President of the Senate, two members of that body, Messrs. Parham and Martin, had some words with one another, from which they got to blows. A great deal of confusion ensued amongst the grave gentlemen assembled in the Senate chamber, and no small difficulty was overcome in keeping the combatants apart. Some one called the Senate to order ier, because we believe it will lead to many by proposing the Hon. Walter Brashear as President pro. tem. whereupon quiet was restored and the Senate proceeded to transact more appropriate business. It is supposed that le Gallatin, that it is not the mission of Re. the rencontre grew out of the election of U. S. Senator the day before.—Picayune, Jan. 27.

FOR THE WATCHMAN. STATESVILLE,

The seat of justice for Iredell County was laid out in 1790; the year that the County was taken from the Western part of Rowan. The Town limits contain fifty acres of land, deed. ed by Fergus Sloan to George Davidson, Jeremiah Nelson, Joseph Sharpe, John Nisbet, and Christopher Houston, the original Town Commissioners. A large part of the tract, however, is unsuitable for buildings, and unoccupied for that purpose. A better location might have been found, either East or West: it was probably located here for one reason, on account of Fourth Creek Church, which had then been Col Austin waited on Mr. Boyden and built near forty years. Why the name, States. ville, was given it, is difficult to say. We may, udressed the meeting in an able Speech, however, mention some facts about its location. eathingly reviewing the course of the If we take the parallel of Raleigh, and follow it here, we shall find this place very nearly in a line West of the Capital, and about 150 miles distant; if we follow on the same parallel, to the West line of the State, we shall find about the same distance. If we look to the S. E. the manner in which his Excellency, Governor line to Fayetteville is not far from 150 miles. Suham, has discharged the various duties of If we take the meridian and go South 150 miles, we come to Columbia, S. C. Not only so; but it stands on that line about equidistant from the North and the South boundaries of the State. Resolved, That the Chairman of this meet. The South Yadkin runs about as far off in one direction as the Catawba in the other; each is eight or nine miles. Fourth Creek is also two miles East, and Third Creek two miles West. The site of the Town is high, dry, and healthy: having no ponds of water nearer than the two streams last mentioned. It is in view of the Brushy Mountains; and receives in summer fresh breezes from them, and from the Blue

There can be no local cause of disease in the spotless reputation,-[Com. Burke, A. J. Fleming, Paul Seaford, vicinity. It may be regarded too as on the dividing line between the Mountains and the low country. Here is the limit of the Cotton growing region. Very little of that staple is made, North or North East, while S. S. E. and S. W. it grows very well. There is a great differ-Neely, J. H. Enniss, M. Brandon, Rufus ence between the upper end of the County: the hard granite of Rocky Face, from which formerly mill stones were wrought, and the region about that; and the lower end of the County bordering on Cabarrus, Rowan, and Mecklenburg. There is a great difference in the rocks, the soil and the timber; and some say in the climate. The Town, though almost sixty years old, contains a population of only about three hundred. It is perhaps, in this respect, the most changeable of any Town in the State. Scarce. ly an individual is now here, who resided here twenty years ago. Some of the earliest settlers in the Town, were George Robison, on Lot No. one, where Mr. McRorie's store is; Wm. Young on the next Lot East; Mrs. Henry on the next where Mr. Rickard's shop is : Wm. Simonton near where Mr. Stockton lives, the house removed. Beeswax, James Ferguson on Mrs. Lowrance's corner. West of the Court House, Archibald Young occupied the "McKnight House." South of the C. H. Mr. Hooe had the Lot lately owned by Mr. J. Rickard. And John Steele lived about Flour, where Mr. Harbin's Hotel is. Jas. Erwin had a Hides, (dry) store where Mr. Stockton's is now; and John Iron, Nisbet where is now Mr. Murphy's corner .-The first Court House was a small wooden building that was removed, when the present one was built, in 1816 or '18. The first Sheriff in the County was Hugh Torrence, and Abner Sharpe, was first Clerk of the Court. The first Court was opened about four miles of the Town, at the "Duffie place"; but as the man says, who officiated as crier on the occasion, "They rejourned" to the house of A. R. Simonton, where the Court was held several years. The business of the place has increased very with me last Saturday evening, stated that four | much within the last few years : there are now four large stores doing business to the amount of about $80,000 a year. They sell at wholesale in the small way to the Country Merchants in the Counties North and West, and so intercept much of this kind of trade that formerly went to Salisbury. There are also various branches of manufactures carried on to a considerable amount annually.

Statesville is distinguished for its quietness Mr. Pilie then introduced the resolutian for and good order. In the midst of a population noted by men from abroad for their morality and general intelligence. The Judges have long commended the Juries of this County; and Booksellers infer that they must be a reading people, because they purchase more books than any other County in the West part of the State.

> It is well known that a large and flourishing Academy was taught here for several years, commencing as far back as 1815, under the charge of Rev. John Mushat.

> Many men of high standing in other States, as well as in this, received their early education; and laid the formation of their eminence, in the grove adjacent to the Town, sacred to Science, and Religion. Among others, the present Executive of the State. There are now two Academies in the vicinity of the Town and another of long standing six miles East of it.

Being in the line between Wilkesborough and Charlotte: and in the line of the new Turnpike from Lenoir, into Tennessee, if continued on to Salisbury; this place may increase in business, especially if the time ever comes that the streams that tumble from our mountains shall be made in their course to turn machinery; and the the Cotton that grows below shall there be converted into various fabrics. But till our valleys are made to resound with the noise of machinery; and are filled with a population otherwise employed than tilling the soil, States. ville will hardly become a large town. There are two Cotton Factories now in the progress of erection in this County, and one has been in active operation some years in Surry, near the ine of Iredell.

Mr Cass, it is said, has been tree'd by Mr Crittenden, and he looks down a la mode coon and Scott, and says "is that you Mr. Critten. den ?"-Cor. Phil. Bul.
