WORDS FOR MUSIC.

BY GEO. W. BETHUNE. I love to sing when I am glad ; ... Song is the echo of my gladness; I love to sing when I am sad, Till song makes sweet my very sadness. 'Tis pleasant time when voices chime, To some sweet rhyme in concert only; A song to me is company-

Good company, when I am lonely. Wheneler I greet the morning light, My song goes forth in thankful numbers, And 'mid the shadows of the night, I sing me to my welcome slumbers.

My heart is stirred by each glad bird Whose note is heard in summer bowers : And song gives birth to friendly mirth Around the hearth, in wintry hours.

Man first learned song in Paradise,

From the bright angels o'er him singing, And in our home above the skies, Glad anthems are forever ringing. God lends his ear, well-pleased to hear The songs that cheer His children's sorrow; Till day shall break and we shall wake

Where love will make unfading morrow. Then let me sing while yet I may, Like him God loved, the sweet-tongued Psalmist, Who found, in harp and holy lay,

For sadly here I need the cheer While sinful fear with pleasure blendeth; Oh! how I long to join the throng Who sing the song that never endeth.

The charm that keeps the spirit calmest.

MR. THOMPSON'S SPEECH-PEACE RUMORS-WHIG MEETING IN WASH.

* Potomac, the Washington correspondent of the Balimore Patriot, in his letter of the 28th ult., says;

Mr. Thompson's splendid speech, yesterday is the theme of general conversation and eulogy, on all hands. Thousands of copies will be subscribed for by the members of Congress who listened to its delivery, for circulation among their constituents. The whole people of this barren sand hills, about four miles from country ought to read it.

Some members were a little surprised that Mr. Thompson did not reply to his colleague, Mr. Henly, who spoke next before him on the message, instead of replying to Mr. McLane, whose speech was delivered several days previgusly. But there need be no surprise at all in the matter. Mr. Thompson could not descend so low as to make a speech like, or in answer to, that which Mr. Henly delivered. on the beautiful summit called Hay-He flew at rather higher game. He knew that by demolishing the young Representative from Baltimore he would get some credit-but none for demolishing Mr. Henly!

gains believers more and more every day. It is now quite probable that despatches have been received by our Government, informing it of the project of a treaty which Mr. Trist has made already, or which he represents he can make and that Mr. Polk and Secretary Marcy are very much worried about the matter. All the organs and echoes of the administration, who get there, we hear, are proclaiming to the country that Mr. Trist has not authority to make any treaty-that he has been recalled, &c. Nevertheless, it is quite probable that the project of a treaty of peace is already here in possession of Mr. Polk and Mr. Marcy.

The Whig members of Congress had a consultation meeting last night, and resolved that it would be expedient for the Whig party to hold a National Convention some time next Spring to agree upon candidates for President and Vice President of the United States. The place and 4ims of holding the Convention were not agreed

LOCOFOCO CAUCUS.

Correspondence of the Baltimore Patriot. WASHINGTON, Jan. 24, 1848.

The Locofoco members of Congress were in causus to night, -upon the subject of the nomination for the Presidency. There is some trouble among them about who shall be their candidate, but more apprehension about the Whig candidate. In regard to the nomination of the terest, if their words may be taken, than they do for their own! But this is understood—they fear that the Whigs will run a particular candidate-perhaps they may have no reason to rejoice if another should be run.

At the meeting to night, a committee of the members of the two houses, which had been appointed at a previous meeting, made a report and recommended that the Locoloco National Convention should be held in Baltimore on the fourth Monday of May, (being the 22d day,)

Motions were made to substitute Cincinnati as the place for holding the meeting, which meeting should be held on the 4th of July, and this was also rejected.

This decision, in favor of holding the meeting in Baltimore, is regarded as unfavorable to Mr. Cass. His friends were most anxious to hold the meeting in Cincinnati, where, it was hoped there would be such an evidence given of his popularity among the people, as to induce the Convention to nominate him.

The triends of Mr. Buchanan, Mr. Dallas and Judge Woodbury saw through the trick and defeated it-for the same reason that moved the friends of Mr. Cass. They hope that their particular candidate will be overwhelmingly strong with the masses that may gather on the day in Baltimore. Mr. Buchanan's friends were especially anxious for Baltimore, and they think they have accomplished all but the nomi- unanimously adopted : nation of their favorite, by their success in getting that city fixed upon.

The Locoficos are in higher hopes than they were a few weeks past. They think they see divisions and contentions in the Whig ranks which cannot be healed or reconciled. Are they not mistaken? From these seeming divisions and contentions, the offspring of zealous personal preferences, little is to be feared. We must expect to find these in every election. We will not be disappointed in believing that they will be only made, when the time arrives for giving them up, aids to the success of the candidate whom the Whigs will support,-Certainly we shall take care to give the Locofocos neither aid nor comformt' by the nomiamong ourselves.

The Washington Union of Tuesday night contains the official proceedings of the Locofoco caucus, over which Gen. Sam Houston, of Tex- April next.

presided, and Mr. Brodhead, of Pennsylvania, acted as Secretary. The following resolution, offered by Mr. Sevier, of Arkansas, was adopted-ineffectual motions having been made to strike out 'Baltimore,' and to substitute the 4th of July for the 4th Manday in May :

Resolved, That it be respectfully recommended to our Democratic friends throughout the Union, to hold the proposed National Convention, for the purpose of nominating candi-dates for President and Vice President of the United States, at the usual time and place, to

The Senate of Louisiana have adopted resolutions by a vote of 21 to 8 approbatory of the war with Mexico, and expressive of the necessity of sustaining the Administration in its further prosecution for obtaining indemnity by territory. These resolutions were under discussion in the House of Representatives. A sword valed at $500 had been voted to Gen. P. F. Smith. The election of U.S. Senator was to have taken place on the 24th ult. A very large Taylor meeting took place in New Orleans on the 23d ult., at which, resolutions were adopted recommending a convention to be held on the 22d of February for the purpose of nominating Gen. Taylor for the Preeidency .- Chas. News.

A letter from Washington to the N. Y. Courier and Enquirer says :

I see it stated with great explicitness in some of the New York papers, that J. Q. Adams has declared himself in favor of annexing the whole of Mexico, as certain to hasten the emancipation of slavery. I know this rumor to be untrue; Mr. Adams has said, emphatically and repeatedly, that he believed the absorption of all Mexico to be inevitable, but never that it was in his view desirable. The use that has been made of his rumored declaration renders its correction proper.

OUR TRIP TO FAYETTEVILLE. We arrived at Fayetteville on Friday ast, after an unpleasant journey of a day and a half. As we took our leave of the town, the first thing that attracted our attention was the telegraphic wire, extended from pole to pole, awaiting the application of electricity for the conveyance of speedy intelligence. Approaching nearer to old Cross Creeks, we espied the starspangled banner floating in the breeze up-Mount. As we drew nearer, we beheld the splendid Arsenal, upon the top of which was planted the flag-staff of the The rumor respecting Mr. Trist's treaty distant banner. A few minutes more brought us in full view of the town, in which we perceived with gratification and ligious opinions. delight a wonderful improvement since the late fire; every thing wearing the appearance of returning prosperity.

The Grand Division of the Sons of Temperance (to which we were appointed a Delegate) we found in session at the Fayetteville Divsion Room, G. W. A. White in the Chair, the G. W. P. being compelled to return home on account of the sudden illness of the W. P. of Salem Division. Our proceedings were conducted in harmony and good order, and at night we adjourned sine die. All the Divisions in the State, with the exception of three, were represented. We will not attempt even a sketch of the proceedings; that will be done, no doubt, by our G. R. S. On the evening previous, the Grand Divison, accompanied by the Lafayette Division, met a large assemblage of ladies and gentlemen in the Presbyterian Church, where they were entertained for the space of an hour, by an able address from Brother Wm. K. Blake of Lafayette Whigs, the Locofocos seem to feel a deeper in- Division. It affords us pleasure to state

On Saturday and Monday evenings we attended meetings of the Lafayette Division, where we enjoyed ourself remarkably well, and received the names of several additional subscribers. This Division numbers 76 members, and is in a thriving condition. "Love, purity and fidelity" were rejected. It was then proposed that the saying as much as can be said of any other Division in the State.

While in Fayetteville, a telegraphic communication was opened between that place and Charleston.

While there, we enjoyed ourself much in our social intercourse, and regret that we were compelled, so soon, to take a parting leave of our numerous friends of that delightful community.

During the recent Quarterly Session of the Grand Division at Fayetteville, the following among other Resolutions, were Resolved. That the thanks of the Grand Division be tendered to the Lafayette Division for the kind and hospitable manner nation we may make, or the want of concert in which they have entertained said Grand House. Division.

The Grand Division adjourned to meet at Greensborough on the 4th Thursday in THE FIRST MARRIAGE.

Marriage is of a date prior to sin itself-the only relic of a paradise that is left us-one smile that God let fall on the world's innocence, lingering and playing still upon its seared visage. The first marriage was celebrated before God himself, who filled in his own person, the office of Guest, Witness, and Priest. There stood the two god like forms of innocence, fresh in the beauty of their unstained nature—the halwit: on the 4th Monday of May next, in Bal- lowed shades of the garden, and green carpeted earth, smiled to look on so divine a pair. The chrystal waters flowed by, pure and transparent as they. The unblemished flowers breathed ncense on the sacred air, answering to their upright love. An artless round of joy from all vocal nature was the hymn-a spontaneous nuptial harmony, such as a world in tune might yield ere discord was invented. Religion blest he two children thus, and led them forth into life to begin her wondrous history. The first religious scene they knew was their own marriage before the Lord God. They learned to love him as the Interpreter and Sealer of their love to each other: and if they had continued in their uprightness, life would have been a form of wedded worship-a sacred mystery of spiritual oneness and communion.

They did not continue. Curiosity triumphed over innocence. They tasted sin, and knew it n their fall. Man is changed; man's heart and woman's heart are no longer what their first hearts were. Beauty is blemished. Love is debased. Sorrow and tears are in the world's cup. Sin has swept away all paradisean matter and the world is bowed under its curse .-Still one thing remains as it was. God mercitully spared one token of the innocent world, and that the dearest, to be a cymbol forever of the primal love. And this is marriage—the religious estate of marriage. This one flower of Paradise is blooming yet in the desert of sin .-Dr. Bushnell.

DR. LE ROY'S

VEGETABLE UNIVERSAL PILLS.

The startling draw back on nearly all Medicinal Afients has ever been that in their process of purgation and purification, they have also debilitated the system .-Hence purgative medicines have always been regarded that the Grand Divsion were comfortably as at best but a necessary evil, patients resorting to them for the relief of one disease at the expense of another .-To obviate this, physicians have long sought for an agent that would at the same time purge, purify and strengthen, but their efforts were nearly fruitless, and they had almost despaired of success when the labors of science and research were rewarded by a discovery which fully realized the fondest desires of the Medical Faculty, and which is justly regarded as one of the most important triumphs that Pharmacy has ever achieved. This important desideratum is named Dr. Le Roy's Vegetable Universal Pills, which purify the blood, and remove all corrupt and vitiated humours, and unhealthy accumulations from the body in a manner never before rivalled, and which yet produce no weakness or lassitude whatever, mark their mutual intercourse. This is but on the contrary tone the stomach, and invigorate the constitution during the progress of their operations! Dr. ble, but most desirable qualities, evacuation and invigoration for they are at the same time a strengthening purgative, and a purifying tonic.

The two principal ingredients in Dr. Le Roy's Pills are Wild Cherry and Sarsaparilla. So prepared that each promotes the beneficial effect of the other, the former strengthening, while the latter, through its union with various vegetable ingredients, evacuates and purifies; thus they superinduce no torpidity of lassitude of the digestive functions, and hence their operations are atten-

RANAWAY from the subscriber on the night of the 2d ultimo, my negro man Anderson, a mulatto, about thirty-five years of age, a little above the common height, very strong and stout built, large frame, coarse features, with distended nostrils. No other particular marks about him recollected. He took with him a considerable quantity of clothing of a pretty good quality, which I cannot accurately describe, none or few of which were of common homespun. It is supposed he is trying to make his escape to a free State; and it is probable he may have in his possession forged papers, and certificates of his freedom, and may pass as a free man. Fayetteville, Dec. 20, 1847-5w35 Brandreth's Pills.

This medicine is acknowledged to be one of the most valuable ever discovered, as a purifier of the blood and fluids. It is superior to Sarsaparilla, whether as a sodorific or alternative. It stands infinitely before all the preparations or combinations of Mercury. Its purgative properties are alone of incalculable value-for these pills may be taken daily for any period, and instead of a weakening by the cathartic effect, they add strength by taking away the cause of weakness. There is no good Mercury does, which these pills do not likewise. But they have none of the miserable effects of that deadly specific. The teeth are not injured—the bones and limbs are paralvzed-no-but in the stead of these distressing symptoms, new life and consequent animation is evident in every movement of the body. Brandreth's pills are indeed a Universal Remedy, for they cure opposite diseases :they cure Inflamation and Chronic Rheumatism! They cure Diabetts of Urine. They cure Dysentery and Constitutional Costiveness. They will cure these apparently opposite diseases, because they cleanse and purify the

In all cases they will be found a safe and simple remedy, yet all powerful for the removal of diseases, whether chronic or recent, infections or otherwise. They do not render the system liable to be affected by any changes of temperature. The very cause, or occasion of the human frame being affected by colds and coughs is removed by their use. Therefore, they may be used at all times and seasons without damage, and change of diet, and any extra care is unnecessary.
