

A man calling himself W. S. Carr, recently visited Tallahassee, Florida, for the purpose of buying Cotton. He exhibited a very peculiar behaviour, prepossessing appearance, and several very artful manoeuvres, which enabled him to impose on some of the good folks of that city to the tune of several thousand, having bought their Cotton checks on New York, which were turned out to be of no value. Of course Carr was smart enough to have been called to call him away from Tallahassee before the fact was known, else the history of this affair would not stop here.

Mr. VAN BUREN.—The New York Herald says that this gentleman has been "enticing" in the city of New York for the last two months, and that he is polishing himself for the Baltimore Convention. The Herald says that nothing could induce him to quit his retirement at Kinderhook but some object connected with politics; and expresses the belief that his wanderings will endeavor to procure his nomination for the Presidency.

Mr. Webster's Speech on the subject of the Mexican War, delivered in the Senate on Thursday week, is spoken of by the press generally, as an effort extraordinarily great. We shall give an extract of it in our next.

Curious Prediction.—We quoted, a day or two since, from Lamartine's History of the Girondins, as cited in the Edinburgh Review, a very remarkable prophecy of the revolutionist, Lamartine, concerning Louis Philippe, and made in conversation with that personage, when a very young man. The N. Y. Courier des Etats Unis mentions a prediction quite as curious, in regard to the recent revolution. On the death of one of the marshals of the great procession, which marched through the streets of Paris in 1830, a sealed package was found among his papers, with this inscription: "To be opened on the occasion of the coming revolution in France." When the tidings announcing that event reached New York, this package was opened, and found to contain the badges worn by the deceased at the procession of 1830, with a detailed description of the ceremony. On the interior of the paper was written: "To serve on the occasion of the next revolution in France, which will take place about 1847."

The Philadelphia North American publishes the following telegraphic despatch:

WASHINGTON, March 24.
The Committee appointed to investigate into the publication of the Treaty and the accompanying documents, met and examined the correspondence which communicated them to the New York Herald. His testimony positively excluded the Senate, its officers and printer.—There was a protracted and excited debate, in Executive session, on this subject, and the Committee was enlarged to five. Mr. Badger withdrew. The Committee now consists of Messrs. Bradbury, Westcott, Davis, Underwood and Hannegan. The inquiry will be prosecuted until the fact is definitely fixed. Still I believe it will end in smoke. The suspicion now rests between the Secretary of State and the printer officer; but public opinion is not greatly divided as to the culpability of Mr. Buchanan.

WAR EXPENSES.

Daniel Webster, a year ago, declared in the United States Senate, that the expenses of the war would amount to one million and a half per week. The government press and its echoes everywhere ridiculed the estimate. But the Secretary of War has made a report to the Senate, at their call, in which it is stated, that the War Department alone, has expended during the first year forty one millions, seven hundred and eighty-one thousand, seven hundred dollars.

A SNUG FORTUNE.

Mr. Sevier, the newly appointed Commissioner to Mexico, goes out with the rank and pay of Ministers Plenipotentiary and Envoy Extraordinary, which will, perhaps, stand as follows:

Outfit,	9,000
Infy,	9,000
Pay for time in Mexico, say	3,000
	21,000

Remarkably snug. Mr. Sevier may be back in five next, but probably not before December.—Boston Atlas.

"PROGRESSIVE DEMOCRACY." Col. Benton compares "Progressive Democracy" to an engine driving at the rate of thirty miles an hour, of a dark night, without a lantern or a cow-catcher.

A NOVEL EXHIBITION.

The Sun yesterday exhibited two large circles, with faint lines of the colors of the Rainbow, from about 11 till 1 o'clock. As the prognostic of a storm, these circles are frequently seen round the moon. Those presented to us by the Sun were much larger than any the Moon has set forth, and attracted the attention of our citizens, and excited the wonder of man—the "old inhabitant" not having seen the like before. We do not look upon this as one of the prophetic "signs in the Sun," but rather a sign of the earth, produced by the action of the Sun's rays upon a dense atmosphere—a sign of a storm if any thing.—It is about time to look for the vernal equinox.—Wilmington Commercial.

Not having heard this phenomenon spoken of in this community, we presume it was not visible here.—[WATCHMAN.

WHIG MEETING IN DAVIE.

In pursuance of public notice, the Whigs of Davie met in the Court House in Mocksville, on Tuesday, the 25th March, 1848, (it being Superior Court week.) for the purpose of ratifying the nomination of Charles Manly, Esq., as the Whig candidate for the office of Governor of the State: On motion of Dr. James F. Martin, the meeting was organized by calling Col. Samuel Taylor to the Chair, and appointing Enoch W. Lowry Secretary.—The object of the meeting was explained by the Chairman, after which Dr. Martin introduced the following Preamble and Resolutions which were unanimously adopted:

Whereas, inasmuch as the county of Davie had no representation in the Convention that assembled in Raleigh in February last to nominate a Candidate for Governor. Therefore, Resolved, That this meeting do now ratify the nomination of said Convention, and that the Whigs of Davie will use all proper means to secure the election of Charles Manly, the nominee of said Convention.

Resolved, That this meeting appoint five delegates to attend the District Convention that is to meet on the 4th of April next, in Statesville, to appoint a delegate to attend the National Convention in Philadelphia on the 7th of June next, to nominate Candidates for the Presidency and Vice Presidency.

Resolved, That in these delinquent and corrupt times it requires the genius, honesty and exalted patriotism of Henry Clay to restore the Government to its former purity.

Resolved, That Gen. Z. Taylor in the field of battle, from the inadequacy of the means furnished him, has been placed in many straits, and that his good sense and sound judgment have enabled him to triumph over his enemies.

Resolved, That Gen. Taylor's claims in the affections of the people point him out as a suitable candidate for the Presidency, and that the same be respectfully considered.

Resolved, That we recommend to the citizens of Davie that they appoint three delegates from each Captain's district to meet in Convention at Mocksville, on Saturday of May Court next, to select a suitable candidate to represent the County in the House of Commons in the next Legislature.

Resolved, That we appoint three delegates to meet delegates from the county of Rowan in Conference, to select a suitable Senatorial candidate to represent the District in the next Legislature.

On motion of Dr. F. Williams, Resolved, That the Chairman appoint the delegates under the 2nd and 7th Resolutions. The Chairman appointed the following delegates under the 2d resolution, to wit: Wm. J. McElroy, W. P. Cook, John C. Foard, Geo. N. Hanes and G. A. Miller.

And the following under the 7th resolution, to wit: Wilfred Turner, Joseph M. Houser, and Alexander M. Hanes.

On motion of Dr. F. Williams, Resolved, That the proceedings of this meeting be signed by the Chairman and Secretary and sent to the Carolina Watchman and Raleigh Register for publication.

On motion the meeting adjourned.

Albert Gallatin and Henry Clay.

A Beautiful Incident.

The Hon. Henry Clay, many years ago, during a warm debate in the Senate, used words which offended Mr. Gallatin, and the two have nearly ever since been separated. Mr. Clay, however, since his late arrival in New York, paid Mr. Gallatin a visit, having previously sent a friend to Mr. Gallatin, to know if a visit from him would be agreeable. The Express, noticing the visit, says:

Mr. Clay felt his duty thus to express a wish to renew his acquaintance with an ancient colleague in the public service, notwithstanding the alienation naturally created by some harsh remarks that Mr. Clay made concerning him in the Senate, many years since, during the heat of debate—and now to renew this acquaintance more than ever because from their respective ages, this was probably the last time that they should meet this side of the grave. A venerable age is admonishing both of them their time on earth is not for many years; Mr. Clay, with the generous enthusiasm inherent in his very nature, resolved, it seems, so soon as he arrived in the city, to discharge, as one of his earliest and most pleasing duties, that of an apology to Mr. Gallatin for the severity of the remarks provoked during the unguarded heat of a warm debate.

We have no right to speak of the interesting detail of this delightful reunion of friends who had for a while been unhappily estranged—but the imagination can easily draw the glorious picture of two sages and renowned statesmen thus coming together, the one frankly to confess and to ask pardon for an error. It was indeed a spectacle worthy of the gods—and no man can describe, even if imagination can picture it. The lesson it teaches us all is, never to hesitate to ask forgiveness, when we are convinced of an error—for if such a proud and lofty will as that of Henry Clay can thus bend itself in obedience to a duty, who ever should hesitate to follow so illustrious an example?

POLITICAL MEETINGS.

We see, from the Greensboro Patriot that the Whigs in the upper part of the State are preparing to organize and make their strength effective for the important campaigns of the summer and fall. Guilford, Randolph and Stokes have led the way, and Rockingham and Davidson are expected to move in due time.

The Patriot refers to a subject of much importance, in noticing this movement, and hopes that neither Whigs nor Democrats will overlook the proposed Convention at Salisbury, on the subject of State Improvements. This is right. Let us never lose sight of Internal Improvements. It is the lifeblood of our system and we must cherish it or die.—Wil. Com.

MARRIED.

In Cabarrus county, the 23d of March, by the Rev. Samuel Rothrock, Mr. Jesse Barrier, of Rowan, to Miss Elizabeth C., daughter of Mr. John Fooks, of Cabarrus.

In this Town, on yesterday at 1 o'clock, by the Rev. J. A. Linn, of the Evangelical Lutheran Church, Mr. W. C. Randolph, of God-Hill, to Miss Louisa, daughter of George Vogler, Esq., of this place.

Died.

In this Town on the 30th of March last, Mrs. Sarah Harris, consort of Mr. George M. Harris, aged about 35 years.

PRESBYTERY OF CONCORD.

The Presbytery of Concord will hold its next regular sessions at Rocky River Church, commencing on Friday the 14th day of April next, at 11 o'clock, A. M.

The following Resolutions passed by the Presbytery at its last meeting, should be remembered by the Sessions of our Churches, viz:

1. Resolved, That Presbytery will hereafter require an Annual Report from the Sessions of its several Churches, respecting the fidelity and punctuality with which they discharge the duties which they owe their pastors, including a statement of the amount which they contribute for his temporal support.

2. Resolved, That the Sessions which have failed to present their reports for the year, be required to bring up their several Session Books at the next Spring Meeting, and that they be called out to show cause why they should not be censured for their present delinquency.

EDGEWORTH FEMALE SEMINARY!

REV. PROFESSOR G. MORGAN, Principal. GOV. J. M. MOREHEAD, Proprietor.

THE year begins with July, and closes on the first Thursday in May, an unbroken term of ten months. The course of instruction which forms a comprehensive and ornamental Education, as Music, Drawing, Painting, French, Latin, and English Languages and Literature, Mathematics and the experimental Sciences; Mental and Moral Philosophy, the Bible and its Literature, are conducted by Professional Teachers, of much experience.

EDGEWORTH is organized on a well defined plan, to impart to a moderate number of pupils, the highest order of Education, and to do this in less than in Institutions of like grade, in the large Cities.

The greatest parental care and oversight, exemption from improper associations, good society, a well arranged course of study; valuable Libraries and Apparatus, approved methods of instruction, religious culture, love of study; great improvement, and whatever qualifies a Lady to perform with dignity and wisdom, will be secured, which Providence secures to Edgeworth pupils, to an extent seldom attained in the most favored Institutions.

The expenses for each of the five months are, Board, &c., and the instruction in all, Studies not extra, $75. Music on the Piano or Guitar, $20, Oil Painting $20, either of the Ancient or Modern Languages, $10, Drawing and Water Colouring $10.

Fifty Dollars are paid on entering, and the bills paid on the 1st of January and May.

Pupils should enter at the opening of the year when the classes are formed. They can enter at any time, but not to be withdrawn before the close in May; when they are examined on the studies of the year, advanced to higher grades—and the Senior Class having completed the course, receive Diplomas, as a permanent memorial of a finished Education.

Pupils, who are allowed insufficient time to graduate, are permitted to join the classes for which they may be qualified, and all receive the full benefit of their former studies.

Parents and Guardians are expected to write, for more particular information, especially for the course of studies, when preparations can be made at home.

Greensboro', N. C., March, 1848.—4w48.

$25 REWARD.

AN AWAY from the subscriber, residing near Concord, North Carolina, about the 1st of December last, a negro boy by the name of JOHN. John is a very bright colored mulatto, is about five feet 10 inches in height, straight and well built—has long dark hair and wears it combed over in front and straight down over his ears and the back part of his head—and when excited or heated by exercise his face assumes a flush and ruddy complexion. He has a scar on his left hand and one upon his right wrist—He has an axe scar on his left foot, as well as recollect-ed, extending from the end of his big toe near to the middle of the foot. He took with him when he left me a good pair of cassinette pantaloons, and a good brown overcoat and a pair of boots. He may have procured a brass and attempted to make his way to a free State, as a free man of color, or he may have attempted to pass for a white man, which his color would well justify. But I am rather inclined to believe he is lurking about Charlotte, as he was raised in that town and has numerous relations and acquaintances in and around that place—or he may be about Asheville, N. C., having a brother living in that city. Any person who informs him, given to me at Concord, N. C., will be thankfully received. And the above reward will be given to any person who will deliver him to me, or confine him in any jail so that I get him.
