

States—or would you regard it a doubtful matter, in consequence of the recognition of slavery not having been recognized in said territory by the Mexican authorities immediately preceding the acquisition of such territory, (supposing it should be acquired) ?

Your reply will enable the delegation to determine whether, under certain circumstances, they can, consistently with their instructions, cast the vote of Florida in your behalf as a candidate for the Presidency.

Yours, respectfully,
R. J. MOSES,
Del. from the State at large.

GEN. CASS' REPLY.
U. S. HOTEL, May 21, 1848.

Dear Sir: I did not receive your esteemed favor until yesterday, and I have been so much occupied that I could not answer it before.

I had supposed that my sentiments upon the subject to which you refer were fully understood by my southern friends; but as you seem to desire information, I enclose you my Nicholson letter, which contains all that I have to say upon the subject.

Respectfully yours,
LEWIS CASS.

To R. J. MOSES, Esq.
This shameful and insulting evasion induced Mr. Moses to oppose Cass in the Convention, and he now opposes him before the people of Florida.

The only wonder is, that any southern man should so far forget what is due to himself and his country, as to think for one moment of voting for Lewis Cass.

If it were not a systematic thing with Southern Locofocos, a trick regularly practised by them, to charge Abolitionism on the candidates brought forward by the Whigs for the Presidency and Vice Presidency, they might do some harm to the Whig cause by their ruthless assaults on Mr. Fillmore.—But the game is now so well understood, that little injury can result to us, however desperately it may be played, and that it is to be played with the energy of a frantic zeal is abundantly evident. The same course was pursued in 1840. They attempted to run General Harrison down with the cry of Abolitionism. Every manly cur that could yelp loud enough to be heard at the end of his tail, joined in the chorus—he is an Abolitionist!

So again in 1844 they asserted and re-asserted, they averred and re-averred, they swore up and they swore down that Mr. Frelinghuysen was an Abolitionist. They even charged that Mr. Clay was an unsafe man for the South, for that he was inclined to countenance the Abolition movements. Bearing in mind these instances, and it appears a matter of course that Mr. Fillmore, because he is a resident of a non-slaveholding State, and a Whig candidate for a national office, should be set upon in the same way. It would be more strange if he were not than that he is.

The Fall Term of our Superior Court, after a busy and laborious session of two weeks, was brought to a close on Saturday evening. Besides several highly-litigated civil suits and a number of State cases of minor importance, which were disposed of, the trial of David Hildreth, who was charged, as principal in the second degree, with the murder of William Taylor, came off. The trial occupied three days of patient and elaborate investigation; after which the jury retired for a short time, and brought in a verdict of "Guilty in manner and form as charged in the Bill of Indictment." After an ineffectual motion for a new trial—which was ably supported by Messrs. Strange, Little, and Dargan, as counsel for the accused, and opposed by the counsel for the State,—sentence of death was pronounced upon the prisoner: from which he prayed and obtained an appeal to the Supreme Court.

It would be improper for us to remark upon the testimony adduced by the State for the conviction, or that relied upon in the defence for the acquittal, of the prisoner—inasmuch as his case is not finally disposed of; and also inasmuch as his brother Robert, who is charged with having given the fatal thrust which caused the death, remains to be tried by a jury to be selected from a community in which our sheet is extensively circulated. We conceive it to be our duty to abstain, as far as possible, from any expression calculated to excite prejudice against, or sympathy for, these unfortunate men. Between them and the public, we, as a journalist, desire to stand indifferent, and let justice be done, though the heavens fall.

CAPE FEAR STEAM BOAT COMPANY. THE Proprietors of the CAPE FEAR STEAM BOAT COMPANY have put on the River the new Steamer

GOV. GRAHAM, to run regularly between Wilmington and Fayetteville, at the late reduced freights. She draws but 20 inches water, having two engines and locomotive boiler, with superior accommodations for Passengers. All Goods consigned to J. & W. L. MCGARY, Wilmington, will be forwarded up the river, free of commissions. All Produce from the country will be forwarded down the river and to its destination free of commissions. We are now building two Tow Boats which will be completed before the fall freights begin. Communications addressed to J. & W. L. McGary, Wilmington, and W. L. McGary, Fayetteville, will have attention. W. L. MCGARY, Agent. April 15, 1848. The undersigned is now building a large warehouse at the river entirely isolated from other buildings where he will receive and forward all goods sent to his address at the usual charge, saving half the up town loading. W. L. MCGARY.

Valuable Lands and Water POWER, FOR SALE. I WISH to sell that valuable place on the South Yadkin River, known as the SHOALS, containing 400 ACRES OF LAND, with its splendid WATER-POWER. The land is excellent, and as to water-power, it is one of the best in all the Southern country for Mills and Factories of all descriptions. Its location is in the centre of the best grain-growing region in all N. Carolina, and is convenient to inexhaustible supplies of superior iron ore. The power is sufficient to propel any number of Mills or other Factories. When the contemplated Rail Road through this part of the State shall be completed, this place must become a large manufacturing town, as it unites all the essentials for such a place. As it is probable any person wishing to purchase will first inspect the place, it is unnecessary here to give any further description of it. In my absence, call on Chas. F. Fisher, in Salisbury, or Col. Wm. F. Kelly, in Charlotte, who will show the premises, and give any further information required. CHARLES FISHER. Salisbury, August 17, 1848. 14w16

COACH AND CARRIAGE MAKING BUSINESS! SMITH & CO., WOULD return their most hearty thanks to the public for the very liberal patronage, which they have received, and would respectfully inform them that they are still carrying on in Salisbury, at the old stand nearly opposite the old jail on Main street, the COACH MAKING BUSINESS, and are prepared to make on short notice and in the most superb style any vehicles in that line, such as Coaches, Barouches, Buggies, Sulkeys, &c., which will be disposed of on the most reasonable terms. Every description of vehicles made to order, and warranted to be of the best selected material and workmanship. And as we have several first rate workmen in our employ can warrant our work to be as good as any done in our country. Repairing done neat, cheap and expeditiously. Salisbury, August 17, 1848. P. S. All kinds of produce taken in exchange for work. This is to make known to all whom it may concern, that the subscriber heretofore, is well acquainted with Mr. Wm. M. Barker, one of the partners in the firm of Smith, Barker & Jacobs: that he was brought up by me, to the coach-making business, from a child to mature age, and had the advantage not only of my instruction in the business, but also that of the most skillful and experienced Northern workmen as well as Southern, which I had frequently in my employment; and I take great pleasure in recommending him to the confidence and patronage of the public generally. THOMAS THOMPSON. Thompsonville, Rockingham County, June 30, 1848.

State of North Carolina—Iredell County George F. Davidson and Margaret Crosswell, vs. David Crosswell, Margaret Cummings and Isabella Cummings. Petition for sale of Real Estate.
