

Sec. 8. When the Division vote in favor of reinstatement, and the member neglects to come forward to sign the Constitution for one month thereafter, he may be declared expelled by a two-thirds vote.

9th. If a Division refuse to reinstate the member, he shall be declared expelled by the W. P., and the R. S. shall give the usual notice.

10th. A member convicted for the third time of having violated Article II, shall lose the privilege of reinstatement, and shall be declared expelled; and the R. S. shall give the usual notice.

11th. If a brother come forward and acknowledge that he has violated Article II, (except it be the third offense), the Division after the erasure of name, may, at their option, reinstate him on the same evening, if two-thirds of the members voting are in favor thereof.

12th. An officer or representative to fill any office vacating Article II, shall not be eligible to fill any office for a period of twelve months from the time he is reinstated.

13th. A member expelled under this Art. shall not be eligible for membership under six months thereafter.

ART. XI. No alteration or addition shall be made to the Constitution, unless by a two-thirds vote of the National Division.

BY-LAWS, RULES OF ORDER, AND RULES OF DEBATE.

ART. I. This Division shall hold stated meetings on every Thursday evening, at such time as the Division shall from time to time designate.

ART. II. In addition to the duty of officers as set forth in the Constitution, the following is enjoined upon them:

1st. It shall be the duty of the W. P. to enjoin upon the members of this Division, to treat each other during all sittings, with all due delicacy and respect; and that all ungentle remarks, personal allusions or sarcastic language, be carefully avoided, by which the feelings of any brother may be wounded, and the most prominent objects of the institution, "Temperance, Benevolence and Harmony," be diminished or interrupted; and that all discussions be conducted in that spirit of candor, moderation, and open generosity, which leads men to the altar of concord and good fellowship.

2d. The Books of the Treasurer shall be open at every regular meeting, for the inspection of members. He shall have no power to loan, or personally to use the funds of the Division.

3d. The Conductor shall serve all election and meeting notices.

ART. III. The acting W. P., the W. P., and the W. A., shall be a Committee of Trust for their respective quarterly terms; they shall receive all moneys in the hands of the Treasurer, and shall be held to the same subject to the order of the Division. When required by the Division, they shall loan or invest such moneys, and in the manner the Division may direct.

4th. Applications for loan of moneys shall be laid before the Society; and if the vouchers be considered good, by a majority of the members of the same, then the Committee of Trust shall be authorized to make such loans.

5th. The amount of $20 shall invariably remain in the Treasury; after such loans shall be made; and if that amount should be reduced by any contingency of the Constitution or By-Laws, then such loans shall forthwith be called in.

6th. Visiting Committee.—The W. P. shall, on the night of his installation, appoint no less than three members, whose duty it shall be to visit brothers who are regularly reported sick, within twenty-four hours after receiving such information; and if the member or members are entitled to benefits, to report the same to the Division. They shall continue, during the sickness of the members, to convey to them such benefits, and give them such attention, as the Constitution and By-Laws require.

7th. The Initiation Fee for members shall be Two Dollars.

8th. No brother shall be entitled to benefits until he shall have been a member for one year.

9th. No brother who is over three months in arrears, shall be eligible to office, or receive benefits of this Division, for three months after he has paid the same.

10th. The weekly benefit to every duly qualified member, in case of sickness or disability, shall be Three Dollars; subject to the exception stated in the Constitution, Art. VI, Sec. 2d.

11th. Any traveling brother who may apply for benefits or aid in distress, shall produce his traveling card and travelling pass-word to the W. P., or his absence, to the W. A., or any other committee, if the Division is in session, who shall convey the Division, and lay the case before the same; whereupon, said traveling brother shall receive such relief as the Division may feel authorized to grant him.

12th. No brother desirous of travelling, shall be beneficiary for a longer time than one year, and in all cases, he shall pay the regular dues of the Division in advance.

ART. VII. Any brother who withdraws from this Division and demands his card, by paying up his dues and all demands that may appear against him on the books, unless there are charges against him which are under investigation by the Division, at the time of his application to withdraw.

13th. Any brother making application to admit this Division, must send in his card, when a committee of investigation shall be appointed; and if they report favorably, he may be balloted for and elected; his time to date from said election, unless he comes under sec. 2d. of this Article.

14th. Any brother withdrawing from this Division may do so, by paying up his back dues, provided, application be made in writing, after his withdrawal.

ART. VIII. Any brother receiving benefits from this Division, who may be found imposing thereon, by forging sickness or disability, shall be fined, suspended or expelled, as a majority of the Division may determine at any regular meeting.

15th. Any brother claiming benefits on account of a disease which can be satisfactorily proven to have been contracted, and to have manifested itself previous to his admission, shall be deemed aid, or allowed such benefits as the Division may deem expedient and proper.

ART. IX. No brother shall divulge the name of any member of the Committee of Investigation, the name of any brother voting for or against any applicant for membership, the unanimity or non-unanimity of the ballot, or the circumstances of the trial, or reprimand of a brother.

16th. Any brother violating Art. ix, sec. 1st, shall be liable to a fine of one dollar, connected with reprimand; and if the Division so decide, to suspension or expulsion.

ART. X. If any brother be legally convicted of Felony, Fraud, or any other crime; or if he follow any wicked or morally offensive practices, or use any immoral means in procuring a livelihood, he shall be expelled.

17th. Any brother who may have the misfortune to acquire a general bad character, shall be liable to charges.

18th. Any member who shall use profane or indecent language in the Division, or refuse to obey the W. P., shall be called to order, or use disrespectful expressions towards the officers or members, shall be reprimanded, suspended or expelled, as the Division may determine.

THE CAROLINA WATCHMAN.

BRUNER & JAMES, Editors & Proprietors. "KEEP A CHECK UPON ALL YOUR RULERS." DO THIS, AND LIBERTY IS SAFE! Genl Harrison. NEW SERIES. VOLUME V—NUMBER 49.

SALISBURY, N. C., THURSDAY, APRIL 12, 1849.

CENTRAL RAIL ROAD.

THE NUMBERS OF CARLTON.

No. VI. THE RAIL ROAD IS ACCESSIBLE TO ALL.

Having explained some of the reasons for commencing and prosecuting a rail road through our State, it is now proposed to show more particularly the advantages to result to the people individually, whatever may be their situation, in different parts of the country. Were it to profit a few only, and not a large proportion of our population, this would be so serious an objection, that we might well be met with the inquiry, "What is this to me? Are all these pains to be taken, and this expenditure of funds incurred, and after all, is a particular part of the country only to be benefited, while I am to remain under the pressure of the same difficulties? If I am to pay my share into the Treasury for a public improvement, some of the advantages ought to be enjoyed by me in return. If it be not so, no matter how small a payment you ask, I shall feel myself oppressed for the benefit of another. Let us then examine the object proposed with our eye directed on this difficulty. It is one which has ever presented itself as insurmountable in the improvement of our rivers and the construction of canals. Our rivers are so numerous, that to provide by taxation for making them all navigable, must be left to some future period, when our population shall be more dense, their wealth increased, and their resources enlarged. To open any one of our larger rivers and dig the canals necessary to make it navigable to a seaport, the whole strength of the State must be concentrated upon it, not for one year only, but perhaps for three or four. In the mean time it is for one portion of the people only, that the expense falls upon the whole, and far the greater part must postpone indefinitely to future time their prospects of sharing in the benefits of such unwieldy plans. We all know that we shall never, as a people, consent to measures so partial and burdensome. And if the cost of a single river, even were we to direct our attempts upon it with united force, would be more than the people would be reconciled to endure, the expense of improvements upon numbers of them at the same time, would in reality, be oppressive in the extreme, amounting to a taxation, or else incurring a debt, to which it is visionary to suppose that we should ever submit.

Far different from such a system is the provision of a single rail road for the accommodation of all the people, within a reasonable time. Such a structure calls for not more than one-fourth of the whole sum necessary for the improvement of any one of our important rivers with the requisite canals, especially if we would avoid the result of having our commerce terminate in the neighboring States. We shall be required then to show it to be a real and unquestionable truth, that the plan recommended, is for the personal interest of each. That it is so to all perfectly alike, it would probably be admitted hardly reasonable to expect, but if all material difficulties shall be removed out of each man's way to a certain and easy market, it is not believed that he will be disposed to swell trivial differences of opportunity into causes of serious objection against that by which his great purpose shall be effected, and his essential interests evidently and completely secured. The following list of places and distances is to put it into the power of every inhabitant of our interior country to determine for himself and his neighbors how nearly they are interested in such a rail road as is proposed, by showing him the distance of it from his own house in a direct line. The list is alphabetical, rendering it easy to find the name of the Courthouse, and several other places in the county in which he lives. From the distances of these in miles, as given in the numbers, he can form a judgment of his own. The letters N and S will show that the place he finds is north or south of the rail road.

ART. I. The presiding officer shall take his seat precisely at the time appointed for meeting; and at the sound of the mallet, the officers and members shall take their places, and come to order.

ART. II. The Recording Scribe shall call the roll of officers, and note absentees in the minutes.

ART. III. The W. P. will fill vacancies.

ART. IV. The Division shall open in due form.

ART. V. Reading minutes of preceding meetings, and if not objected to, they shall stand approved. If their correctness is doubted, they may be altered or amended by a majority vote.

ART. VI. New members admitted.

ART. VII. The R. S. shall furnish the presiding officer with a list of all unfinished business, arranged under proper heads.

ART. VIII. New business.

ART. IX. Are any of the brethren sick?

ART. X. Has any brother violated his Pledge?

ART. XI. Has any brother a friend to propose as a proper person to become a Son of Temperance?

ART. XII. Has any brother anything to offer for the good of the Division?

Initiation of candidates in waiting, may take precedence of other business, unless otherwise ordered.

ART. XIII. No brother shall be permitted to take part in the proceedings, unless clothed in suitable regard.

ART. XIV. No part of these By-Laws, Rules of Order and Debates, shall be repealed, amended, altered or suspended, unless after a proposal in writing shall have been presented to the Division, at least two regular meetings previous to the discussion, when, if two-thirds of the members present vote in favor of such proposal, it shall be adopted.

FINE GREEN HOUSE FRUITS.

We were presented, on Monday last, by W. D. Haywood, Esq., with a fine orange, and two or three very large lemons, the latter of which were taken from a tree in his green house, which has borne during the last year between three and four hundred. The lemons excel in size and beauty, and the orange in flavor, most of the West India fruits we have seen in this market.

Pour cote present delieieuse, nous fraire a son honneur le maire notre plus profond salter. Raleigh Star.

Some of the down-east ladies, at a donation party, recently, actually allowed their sweet lips to be tasted at the rate of fifty cents a kiss, this being considered a suitable price for the privilege. One gentleman took five dollar's worth.

FINE BOOTS AND SHOES.

For sale by J. H. ENYSS, Dec 21, 33

Guilford, North line of N. 32 The wear and tear of his team, his wagon, and his gear, are no small items in the account of expenses, by which his profits are reduced. His shoes, which are worn out, or spoiled, cost him more than thirty-seven cents, all things considered.

Haywood, C. H. S. 50 The account of expenses, by which his profits are reduced. His shoes, which are worn out, or spoiled, cost him more than thirty-seven cents, all things considered.

Henderson, Montgomery, S. 28 Yet this is the man, you will say, who will forbid, on pain of his displeasure and the loss of his vote, his Representative in the Assembly, to say for him that he will pay thirty seven cents a year for five years, to put an end for ever, for himself, his children, and the whole country, to this wretched system of marketing. No, I shall reply this cannot be. Let the remedy for such evils and disadvantages be fully understood; let its efficacy be completely ascertained, and let it appear to be attended with such an expense only as has been stated, so that it shall not be oppressive, and the people in their wisdom and fidelity to themselves, will resort to it, and persevere in its application.

Hillsborough, N. 20 Hopewell Church, Mecklenburg, S. 30 Yet this is the man, you will say, who will forbid, on pain of his displeasure and the loss of his vote, his Representative in the Assembly, to say for him that he will pay thirty seven cents a year for five years, to put an end for ever, for himself, his children, and the whole country, to this wretched system of marketing. No, I shall reply this cannot be. Let the remedy for such evils and disadvantages be fully understood; let its efficacy be completely ascertained, and let it appear to be attended with such an expense only as has been stated, so that it shall not be oppressive, and the people in their wisdom and fidelity to themselves, will resort to it, and persevere in its application.

Island Ford, over Catawba, S. 0 Yet this is the man, you will say, who will forbid, on pain of his displeasure and the loss of his vote, his Representative in the Assembly, to say for him that he will pay thirty seven cents a year for five years, to put an end for ever, for himself, his children, and the whole country, to this wretched system of marketing. No, I shall reply this cannot be. Let the remedy for such evils and disadvantages be fully understood; let its efficacy be completely ascertained, and let it appear to be attended with such an expense only as has been stated, so that it shall not be oppressive, and the people in their wisdom and fidelity to themselves, will resort to it, and persevere in its application.

Jones' Ferry, Edw. Haw River, 0 Yet this is the man, you will say, who will forbid, on pain of his displeasure and the loss of his vote, his Representative in the Assembly, to say for him that he will pay thirty seven cents a year for five years, to put an end for ever, for himself, his children, and the whole country, to this wretched system of marketing. No, I shall reply this cannot be. Let the remedy for such evils and disadvantages be fully understood; let its efficacy be completely ascertained, and let it appear to be attended with such an expense only as has been stated, so that it shall not be oppressive, and the people in their wisdom and fidelity to themselves, will resort to it, and persevere in its application.

Kinston, Lenoir, S. W. 0 Yet this is the man, you will say, who will forbid, on pain of his displeasure and the loss of his vote, his Representative in the Assembly, to say for him that he will pay thirty seven cents a year for five years, to put an end for ever, for himself, his children, and the whole country, to this wretched system of marketing. No, I shall reply this cannot be. Let the remedy for such evils and disadvantages be fully understood; let its efficacy be completely ascertained, and let it appear to be attended with such an expense only as has been stated, so that it shall not be oppressive, and the people in their wisdom and fidelity to themselves, will resort to it, and persevere in its application.

Lexington, 0 Yet this is the man, you will say, who will forbid, on pain of his displeasure and the loss of his vote, his Representative in the Assembly, to say for him that he will pay thirty seven cents a year for five years, to put an end for ever, for himself, his children, and the whole country, to this wretched system of marketing. No, I shall reply this cannot be. Let the remedy for such evils and disadvantages be fully understood; let its efficacy be completely ascertained, and let it appear to be attended with such an expense only as has been stated, so that it shall not be oppressive, and the people in their wisdom and fidelity to themselves, will resort to it, and persevere in its application.

Lincolnton, S. 25 Yet this is the man, you will say, who will forbid, on pain of his displeasure and the loss of his vote, his Representative in the Assembly, to say for him that he will pay thirty seven cents a year for five years, to put an end for ever, for himself, his children, and the whole country, to this wretched system of marketing. No, I shall reply this cannot be. Let the remedy for such evils and disadvantages be fully understood; let its efficacy be completely ascertained, and let it appear to be attended with such an expense only as has been stated, so that it shall not be oppressive, and the people in their wisdom and fidelity to themselves, will resort to it, and persevere in its application.

Louisburg, N. 30 Yet this is the man, you will say, who will forbid, on pain of his displeasure and the loss of his vote, his Representative in the Assembly, to say for him that he will pay thirty seven cents a year for five years, to put an end for ever, for himself, his children, and the whole country, to this wretched system of marketing. No, I shall reply this cannot be. Let the remedy for such evils and disadvantages be fully understood; let its efficacy be completely ascertained, and let it appear to be attended with such an expense only as has been stated, so that it shall not be oppressive, and the people in their wisdom and fidelity to themselves, will resort to it, and persevere in its application.

McDowell, Gen. Burke, 0 Yet this is the man, you will say, who will forbid, on pain of his displeasure and the loss of his vote, his Representative in the Assembly, to say for him that he will pay thirty seven cents a year for five years, to put an end for ever, for himself, his children, and the whole country, to this wretched system of marketing. No, I shall reply this cannot be. Let the remedy for such evils and disadvantages be fully understood; let its efficacy be completely ascertained, and let it appear to be attended with such an expense only as has been stated, so that it shall not be oppressive, and the people in their wisdom and fidelity to themselves, will resort to it, and persevere in its application.

Montgomery, C. H. S. 26 Yet this is the man, you will say, who will forbid, on pain of his displeasure and the loss of his vote, his Representative in the Assembly, to say for him that he will pay thirty seven cents a year for five years, to put an end for ever, for himself, his children, and the whole country, to this wretched system of marketing. No, I shall reply this cannot be. Let the remedy for such evils and disadvantages be fully understood; let its efficacy be completely ascertained, and let it appear to be attended with such an expense only as has been stated, so that it shall not be oppressive, and the people in their wisdom and fidelity to themselves, will resort to it, and persevere in its application.

Moore, C. H. S. 30 Yet this is the man, you will say, who will forbid, on pain of his displeasure and the loss of his vote, his Representative in the Assembly, to say for him that he will pay thirty seven cents a year for five years, to put an end for ever, for himself, his children, and the whole country, to this wretched system of marketing. No, I shall reply this cannot be. Let the remedy for such evils and disadvantages be fully understood; let its efficacy be completely ascertained, and let it appear to be attended with such an expense only as has been stated, so that it shall not be oppressive, and the people in their wisdom and fidelity to themselves, will resort to it, and persevere in its application.

Morganton, S. 7 Yet this is the man, you will say, who will forbid, on pain of his displeasure and the loss of his vote, his Representative in the Assembly, to say for him that he will pay thirty seven cents a year for five years, to put an end for ever, for himself, his children, and the whole country, to this wretched system of marketing. No, I shall reply this cannot be. Let the remedy for such evils and disadvantages be fully understood; let its efficacy be completely ascertained, and let it appear to be attended with such an expense only as has been stated, so that it shall not be oppressive, and the people in their wisdom and fidelity to themselves, will resort to it, and persevere in its application.

Narrows of Yadkin, S. 22 Yet this is the man, you will say, who will forbid, on pain of his displeasure and the loss of his vote, his Representative in the Assembly, to say for him that he will pay thirty seven cents a year for five years, to put an end for ever, for himself, his children, and the whole country, to this wretched system of marketing. No, I shall reply this cannot be. Let the remedy for such evils and disadvantages be fully understood; let its efficacy be completely ascertained, and let it appear to be attended with such an expense only as has been stated, so that it shall not be oppressive, and the people in their wisdom and fidelity to themselves, will resort to it, and persevere in its application.

Nash, C. H. E. 27 Yet this is the man, you will say, who will forbid, on pain of his displeasure and the loss of his vote, his Representative in the Assembly, to say for him that he will pay thirty seven cents a year for five years, to put an end for ever, for himself, his children, and the whole country, to this wretched system of marketing. No, I shall reply this cannot be. Let the remedy for such evils and disadvantages be fully understood; let its efficacy be completely ascertained, and let it appear to be attended with such an expense only as has been stated, so that it shall not be oppressive, and the people in their wisdom and fidelity to themselves, will resort to it, and persevere in its application.

Newbern, 0 Yet this is the man, you will say, who will forbid, on pain of his displeasure and the loss of his vote, his Representative in the Assembly, to say for him that he will pay thirty seven cents a year for five years, to put an end for ever, for himself, his children, and the whole country, to this wretched system of marketing. No, I shall reply this cannot be. Let the remedy for such evils and disadvantages be fully understood; let its efficacy be completely ascertained, and let it appear to be attended with such an expense only as has been stated, so that it shall not be oppressive, and the people in their wisdom and fidelity to themselves, will resort to it, and persevere in its application.

New Garden M. House, Guilford, N. 18 Yet this is the man, you will say, who will forbid, on pain of his displeasure and the loss of his vote, his Representative in the Assembly, to say for him that he will pay thirty seven cents a year for five years, to put an end for ever, for himself, his children, and the whole country, to this wretched system of marketing. No, I shall reply this cannot be. Let the remedy for such evils and disadvantages be fully understood; let its efficacy be completely ascertained, and let it appear to be attended with such an expense only as has been stated, so that it shall not be oppressive, and the people in their wisdom and fidelity to themselves, will resort to it, and persevere in its application.

Old National Ford, S. 0 Yet this is the man, you will say, who will forbid, on pain of his displeasure and the loss of his vote, his Representative in the Assembly, to say for him that he will pay thirty seven cents a year for five years, to put an end for ever, for himself, his children, and the whole country, to this wretched system of marketing. No, I shall reply this cannot be. Let the remedy for such evils and disadvantages be fully understood; let its efficacy be completely ascertained, and let it appear to be attended with such an expense only as has been stated, so that it shall not be oppressive, and the people in their wisdom and fidelity to themselves, will resort to it, and persevere in its application.

Orange, North line of N. 32 Yet this is the man, you will say, who will forbid, on pain of his displeasure and the loss of his vote, his Representative in the Assembly, to say for him that he will pay thirty seven cents a year for five years, to put an end for ever, for himself, his children, and the whole country, to this wretched system of marketing. No, I shall reply this cannot be. Let the remedy for such evils and disadvantages be fully understood; let its efficacy be completely ascertained, and let it appear to be attended with such an expense only as has been stated, so that it shall not be oppressive, and the people in their wisdom and fidelity to themselves, will resort to it, and persevere in its application.

Oxford, Granville, N. 32 Yet this is the man, you will say, who will forbid, on pain of his displeasure and the loss of his vote, his Representative in the Assembly, to say for him that he will pay thirty seven cents a year for five years, to put an end for ever, for himself, his children, and the whole country, to this wretched system of marketing. No, I shall reply this cannot be. Let the remedy for such evils and disadvantages be fully understood; let its efficacy be completely ascertained, and let it appear to be attended with such an expense only as has been stated, so that it shall not be oppressive, and the people in their wisdom and fidelity to themselves, will resort to it, and persevere in its application.

Perkins' Iron Works, Stokes, N. 27 Yet this is the man, you will say, who will forbid, on pain of his displeasure and the loss of his vote, his Representative in the Assembly, to say for him that he will pay thirty seven cents a year for five years, to put an end for ever, for himself, his children, and the whole country, to this wretched system of marketing. No, I shall reply this cannot be. Let the remedy for such evils and disadvantages be fully understood; let its efficacy be completely ascertained, and let it appear to be attended with such an expense only as has been stated, so that it shall not be oppressive, and the people in their wisdom and fidelity to themselves, will resort to it, and persevere in its application.

Person, C. H. N. 42 Yet this is the man, you will say, who will forbid, on pain of his displeasure and the loss of his vote, his Representative in the Assembly, to say for him that he will pay thirty seven cents a year for five years, to put an end for ever, for himself, his children, and the whole country, to this wretched system of marketing. No, I shall reply this cannot be. Let the remedy for such evils and disadvantages be fully understood; let its efficacy be completely ascertained, and let it appear to be attended with such an expense only as has been stated, so that it shall not be oppressive, and the people in their wisdom and fidelity to themselves, will resort to it, and persevere in its application.

Pittsborough, Chatham, S. 5 Yet this is the man, you will say, who will forbid, on pain of his displeasure and the loss of his vote, his Representative in the Assembly, to say for him that he will pay thirty seven cents a year for five years, to put an end for ever, for himself, his children, and the whole country, to this wretched system of marketing. No, I shall reply this cannot be. Let the remedy for such evils and disadvantages be fully understood; let its efficacy be completely ascertained, and let it appear to be attended with such an expense only as has been stated, so that it shall not be oppressive, and the people in their wisdom and fidelity to themselves, will resort to it, and persevere in its application.

Porter, Col. Rutherford, S. 26 Yet this is the man, you will say, who will forbid, on pain of his displeasure and the loss of his vote, his Representative in the Assembly, to say for him that he will pay thirty seven cents a year for five years, to put an end for ever, for himself, his children, and the whole country, to this wretched system of marketing. No, I shall reply this cannot be. Let the remedy for such evils and disadvantages be fully understood; let its efficacy be completely ascertained, and let it appear to be attended with such an expense only as has been stated, so that it shall not be oppressive, and the people in their wisdom and fidelity to themselves, will resort to it, and persevere in its application.

Quaker M. H. Cane Creek, Orange, N. 8 Yet this is the man, you will say, who will forbid, on pain of his displeasure and the loss of his vote, his Representative in the Assembly, to say for him that he will pay thirty seven cents a year for five years, to put an end for ever, for himself, his children, and the whole country, to this wretched system of marketing. No, I shall reply this cannot be. Let the remedy for such evils and disadvantages be fully understood; let its efficacy be completely ascertained, and let it appear to be attended with such an expense only as has been stated, so that it shall not be oppressive, and the people in their wisdom and fidelity to themselves, will resort to it, and persevere in its application.

Raleigh, 0 Yet this is the man, you will say, who will forbid, on pain of his displeasure and the loss of his vote, his Representative in the Assembly, to say for him that he will pay thirty seven cents a year for five years, to put an end for ever, for himself, his children, and the whole country, to this wretched system of marketing. No, I shall reply this cannot be. Let the remedy for such evils and disadvantages be fully understood; let its efficacy be completely ascertained, and let it appear to be attended with such an expense only as has been stated, so that it shall not be oppressive, and the people in their wisdom and fidelity to themselves, will resort to it, and persevere in its application.

Randolph, C. H. S. 0 Yet this is the man, you will say, who will forbid, on pain of his displeasure and the loss of his vote, his Representative in the Assembly, to say for him that he will pay thirty seven cents a year for five years, to put an end for ever, for himself, his children, and the whole country, to this wretched system of marketing. No, I shall reply this cannot be. Let the remedy for such evils and disadvantages be fully understood; let its efficacy be completely ascertained, and let it appear to be attended with such an expense only as has been stated, so that it shall not be oppressive, and the people in their wisdom and fidelity to themselves, will resort to it, and persevere in its application.

Redfield Ford, Chatham, S. 46 Yet this is the man, you will say, who will forbid, on pain of his displeasure and the loss of his vote, his Representative in the Assembly, to say for him that he will pay thirty seven cents a year for five years, to put an end for ever, for himself, his children, and the whole country, to this wretched system of marketing. No, I shall reply this cannot be. Let the remedy for such evils and disadvantages be fully understood; let its efficacy be completely ascertained, and let it appear to be attended with such an expense only as has been stated, so that it shall not be oppressive, and the people in their wisdom and fidelity to themselves, will resort to it, and persevere in its application.

Red House, Caswell, N. 30 Yet this is the man, you will say, who will forbid, on pain of his displeasure and the loss of his vote, his Representative in the Assembly, to say for him that he will pay thirty seven cents a year for five years, to put an end for ever, for himself, his children, and the whole country, to this wretched system of marketing. No, I shall reply this cannot be. Let the remedy for such evils and disadvantages be fully understood; let its efficacy be completely ascertained, and let it appear to be attended with such an expense only as has been stated, so that it shall not be oppressive, and the people in their wisdom and fidelity to themselves, will resort to it, and persevere in its application.

Rockford, Surry, N. 40 Yet this is the man, you will say, who will forbid, on pain of his displeasure and the loss of his vote, his Representative in the Assembly, to say for him that he will pay thirty seven cents a year for five years, to put an end for ever, for himself, his children, and the whole country, to this wretched system of marketing. No, I shall reply this cannot be. Let the remedy for such evils and disadvantages be fully understood; let its efficacy be completely ascertained, and let it appear to be attended with such an expense only as has been stated, so that it shall not be oppressive, and the people in their wisdom and fidelity to themselves, will resort to it, and persevere in its application.

Rockingham, C. H. N. 32 Yet this is the man, you will say, who will forbid, on pain of his displeasure and the loss of his vote, his Representative in the Assembly, to say for him that he will pay thirty seven cents a year for five years, to put an end for ever, for himself, his children, and the whole country, to this wretched system of marketing. No, I shall reply this cannot be. Let the remedy for such evils and disadvantages be fully understood; let its efficacy be completely ascertained, and let it appear to be attended with such an expense only as has been stated, so that it shall not be oppressive, and the people in their wisdom and fidelity to themselves, will resort to it, and persevere in its application.

Rockingham, Richmond, S. 51 Yet this is the man, you will say, who will forbid, on pain of his displeasure and the loss of his vote, his Representative in the Assembly, to say for him that he will pay thirty seven cents a year for five years, to put an end for ever, for himself, his children, and the whole country, to this wretched system of marketing. No, I shall reply this cannot be. Let the remedy for such evils and disadvantages be fully understood; let its efficacy be completely ascertained, and let it appear to be attended with such an expense only as has been stated, so that it shall not be oppressive, and the people in their wisdom and fidelity to themselves, will resort to it, and persevere in its application.

Rutherford, S. 24 Yet this is the man, you will say, who will forbid, on pain of his displeasure and the loss of his vote, his Representative in the Assembly, to say for him that he will pay thirty seven cents a year for five years, to put an end for ever, for himself, his children, and the whole country, to this wretched system of marketing. No, I shall reply this cannot be. Let the remedy for such evils and disadvantages be fully understood; let its efficacy be completely ascertained, and let it appear to be attended with such an expense only as has been stated, so that it shall not be oppressive, and the people in their wisdom and fidelity to themselves, will resort to it, and persevere in its application.

Rutherford, S. 31 Yet this is the man, you will say, who will forbid, on pain of his displeasure and the loss of his vote, his Representative in the Assembly, to say for him that he will pay thirty seven cents a year for five years, to put an end for ever, for himself, his children, and the whole country, to this wretched system of marketing. No, I shall reply this cannot be. Let the remedy for such evils and disadvantages be fully understood; let its efficacy be completely ascertained, and let it appear to be attended with such an expense only as has been stated, so that it shall not be oppressive, and the people in their wisdom and fidelity to themselves, will resort to it, and persevere in its application.

Salem, N. 10 Yet this is the man, you will say, who will forbid, on pain of his displeasure and the loss of his vote, his Representative in the Assembly, to say for him that he will pay thirty seven cents a year for five years, to put an end for ever, for himself, his children, and the whole country, to this wretched system of marketing. No, I shall reply this cannot be. Let the remedy for such evils and disadvantages be fully understood; let its efficacy be completely ascertained, and let it appear to be attended with such an expense only as has been stated, so that it shall not be oppressive, and the people in their wisdom and fidelity to themselves, will resort to it, and persevere in its application.

Salisbury, S. 37 Yet this is the man, you will say, who will forbid, on pain of his displeasure and the loss of his vote, his Representative in the Assembly, to say for him that he will pay thirty seven cents a year for five years, to put an end for ever, for himself, his children, and the whole country, to this wretched system of marketing. No, I shall reply this cannot be. Let the remedy for such evils and disadvantages be fully understood; let its efficacy be completely ascertained, and let it appear to be attended with such an expense only as has been stated, so that it shall not be oppressive, and the people in their wisdom and fidelity to themselves, will resort to it, and persevere in its application.

Sampson, C. H. S. W. 10 Yet this is the man, you will say, who will forbid, on pain of his displeasure and the loss of his vote, his Representative in the Assembly, to say for him that he will pay thirty seven cents a year for five years, to put an end for ever, for himself, his children, and the whole country, to this wretched system of marketing. No, I shall reply this cannot be. Let the remedy for such evils and disadvantages be fully understood; let its efficacy be completely as