RALEIGH, SEPT. 10, 1849. Mesars. Editors : I see in the last "Watchman." an extract from a communication in the " Communicafor," signed an " Independent Son," which charges me with suppressing in the printed Proceedings of the Grand town. Division of the April Session, 1849, held at Salisbury. portion of the G. W. P.'s communication to that boy, which complimented that Paper, &c. I have on file among the Grand Scribe's Documents, the original communication as handed me by the G. W. P., and on reference to it, I find that there is not a line erased from i, and that every line, word, and syllable contained therein, are in the printed copy. I have shown this to that the document I now have is, as the G. W. P. will RANAWAY from Mr. R. R. Beagley, in the State everal members of the Order, and they are satisfied ne doubt attest, and to the truth of which I am willing gro men, to qualify, the original one given me by the G. W. P. for insertion in the minutes. This will clear me, therefore, of the foul charge, if true, of suppressing any thing over which I had no authority. You refer in some editorial remarks to " an attempt on the part of some of the members of the Order of the Sons of Temperance, to crush their present Organ, the Communicator." So far as I am concerned, I can, with a clear conscience, plead " not guilty " to the accusation. I am a Printer by profession-I earn my daily bread by working at that trade, as a journeyman .---had a desire to go into business for myself, and thought I had a right to do so. In taking the liberty to advocate the cause of Temperance, and that of the Sons of Temperance, I was of the opinion there was work enough for both my Paper and the "Communicator" tada. I hoped we would work harmoniously and in concert together, in suppressing intemperance and building up our beautiful Order. This I trust will yet be the ease ; and instead of there being any bickerings and jealousies between us, we will go hand in hand together in accomplishing these objects.

1.1849The Pantographic Method of Teaching, which originated in this Institution, is eminently calculated to make. learning a pleasant employment to young ladies. The great variety of interesting and amusing illustrations made use of, lends interest to many studies which are usually regarded by young persons as dry and insipid.

" Sounds which address the ear are lost, and die In one short hour ; but that which strikes the eye, Lives long upon the mind ; the faithful sight Engraves the knowledge with a beam of light." Young ladies are taught in small classes, and the whole attention of a teacher is given to one class,-the gradual development of the youthful mind is watched with much care, and throughout the course, the studies of the pupil are carefully adapted to her mental capacity and progress; but the peculiarity of this method of teaching is in the happy manner in which the different branches of study are illustrated.

Pupils will be received at a very early age; and the Course of Instruction will be far more thorough and

TANNERS' OIL.

This very superior and stupendous Exhibition, acknowledged with one accord to be the LEADING EQUESTRIAN ESTABLISHMENT on this continent, will exhibit at SALISBURY, on THURSDAY, the 27th day of September, 1849, for one day only.

It is necessary to add, in consequence of the immense amount of humbuggery of late resorted to by Itinerant Travelling Exhibitions, that the material of STONE & M'COLLL'M'S CIRCUS is entirely new. The extent and grandeur of the outfit this spring, is without a parallel in the annals of similar Establishments, and required the services of several Mechanics and Artisans to complete the tout ensemble of the vast travelling cavalecde daing the past Winter. The corps of Performers are of that superior cast not found in Circus Companies generally, numbering among them gentlemen who are alike respected for their estimable qualities in private life, as for their superior performances in public, and with satisfaction we refer to the following names : dl Sign'r Luigi Germani, T. M'Collum, E. Stone, John Smith, four men the world cannot produce their equals in their respective lines of business, with M. J. Lipman, D. W. Stone, J. R. Shay, A. Levi, W. Stuart, Le Sieur Edgar. T. H. Coleman, J. Brown, A. Gates, Masters Burt and Williams. The jesters to the entertainments are W. Worrell and Green Johnson, of that pure dye so-often enquired after by gentlemen visiting similar exhibitions, attended by ladies. In the representations, so far as the Clowns and other performers in the ring are concerned, no rude jest or improper action will be tolerated by the proprietors.

With this assurance, we trust the odium heaped upon Travelling Companies generally by a portion of the mass, will, in this instance, be recalled.

" Good actions crown themselves with lasting bays ;

Who well deserves, needs not another's praise."

The Grand Brass Band is another important feature in the annals of musical connoisseurs, placed as it is under the direction of its very eminent Leader, H. K. Gaul, forming during the entertainments in the Circle, the most efficient Spring Band-Leader, J. Bertrand. All tend to one grand point, viz : making Stone and McCollum's Circus complete in every department.

Every day, between the hours of 8 and 11, (weather permitting.) the superior Band will appear in procession, seated in their elegant Car, drawn by twenty Horses ! and driven by Mr. John Allen, one of the most expert reinsmen of modern days. Gentlemanly Ushers in attendance, to wait on families to their seats.

Prices of Adurissian -Box 50 Cents,-Children under 10 years of age half price. Pit, the Negro population, 25 Cents-no half price. Time of opening Doors .- Afternoon Representation, 11 P. M. Night 7 P. M.

Time of Commencing - Afternoon, at 2 P. M. Night, 71 P. M. G. L. EATON, Agent. This Company will perform at Nicholson's Store, Monday, Sept. 24; at Statesville, Tuesday, Sept. 25; at Mocksville, Wednesday, Sept. 26; and at Gold Hill, Friday, Sept. 28.

State of North Carolina,

Long had she intended to make a public profession of Christ, and had frequent interviews on the subject with her Pasior, but postponed it from time to time, from ill health, hoping to be able to go to the Church. Finally, despairing from the rapid advance of her disease, she re- to call and close them with cash or note. mested that the matter should be postponed no longer. This request being made known, the Pastor and Session of the Presbyterian Church met at her room and received her into full communion of the Church, after which, the dedicated her three little children to God in baptism. Not many weeks after, she left Salisbury for the resiener of her mother, at Catawba Springs, never expecing to return. Then she declined slowly but steadily, a physical strength,-but maintained the same steadiness of faith and hope and lore, to the last. And instead of mourning as those who have no hope, should we e saked is it well with her ? we should answer, " It is well." What heart is so cold, that will not be awakened to sympathy for those thus bereaved, and especially for the bereaved mother, who has had wave after wave, of affliction and bereavement ; tearing away in succession, three of her children in the short space of seventeen months. . Much does she need that grade, which southes the troubled spirit, to wipe her sorrows dry.
