One mile and a half from Salisbury!

HE Subscriber offers for sale a small lot of Land situated on the Road to Locke's Bridge, one mile and a half from Salisbury. It consists of 20 or 22 Acres, uncleared. There is some good timber on it, and a large quantity of fire wood; and its nearness to Town, where there is a never failing demand for wood, makes it much more valuable, than richer land situated at a greater distance off. The soil is not of the first quality. But the location compensates for its deficiency in this respect; and the hand of industry could soon make it one of the most desirable places for a residence. The subscriber would also remind the public that as the great Central Rail Road project is now looked upon as successful beyond a doubt, every inch of land, especially near this Town, must soon be greatly enhanced in value; and those who wish to obtain such property there, should
