POETICAL. [From the New-York Evening Post.] THE MARCH OF MIND. BY WM. P. MULCHINOCK. Round the peasant's hearth. See the circle gather-Youth with eye of mirth By his hoary father; Matron's brow of care. With deep furrows laden, Next the beauty rare Of the blushing maiden-All are met to-night To make tyrants shiver, When with shafts they fight, Plucked from wisdom's quiver, CHORUS-Search your country's lore.

Ponder on its story-Thus did Greeks of yore Carve their way to glory ; Ere fierce Xerzes came-Brave, but still uufettered, Greece nursed Wisdom's flame, And remained unfettered By the lamp at night Be the darkness riven, That shuts minds of light Out from Rauson's heaven. Haste, then, and begin While the slave reposes ; To hearts pledged to win Truth her gate uncloses ; To the student's ken, Scrolls of thought unfurled, Show how tyrant men May from thrones be hurled. CHORUS-Search your country's lore, &c. Though the tyrant now

Our dear land assaileth ; Though her wasted brow Shows she sore travaileth By the " March of Mind." Though they've all beset her, She shall like the wind, Laugh at bolt and fetter. Stand ye, then, sublime, History's lessons read 'em : And in future time, Strike, strike home for Freedom. CHORUS-Search your country's lore, &c.

FORTUNE AND LOVE. BY ELIZA COOK. Let me live without Fortune, if Providence will it ; . For joy can be found where small treasure is shed : Those who hear a full cup are most fearful to spill it, And oftentimes walk with the narrowest tread.

LED ASTRAT-A good story was recently told at a emperance meeting in New Hampshire. A man came up to a Washingtonian, with the inquiry ; "Can you tell me where I can get anything to drink ?" "Oh, yes," said the other, "follow me." The man followed him through two or three streets till he began to be discouraged. "How much further must I go?" said he. "Only a few steps further," said the Washingtonian, there's the pump ! The man turned about and "moved his boots."

Beauties of European Tyranny .- Haynau the Austrian Butcher, has promulgated the following rules over all Magyar territories: 1st. No Hungarian shall wear his hair longer than one iach in length. 2d. No one shall wear any cravat or other article of clothing of a red color, or with red in it. 3d. No Hungarian shall wear his shirt collar doubled down a l'Americaine. 4th. No Hungarian shall wear a beard on his chin.

5th. No one shall wear a feather in his cap. 6th. No one shall wear a broad hat-band on his hat. but only a very narrow hat-band Such are the regulations. For the first offence the penalty is flogging ; for the second death.

An old lady said her husband was very fond of peaches, and that was his only fault. " Fault, madam," said one, " how can you call that a fault ?" "Why, because there are different ways of eating them, sir. My husband takes them in the form of brandy !"

A contemporary, announcing the marriage of an editor, says he was always of the opinion that editors had just as good a right to starve some man's daughter as any one else.

An observant editor "down south" says: "The march of civilization is onward-onward-like the slow but intrepid tread of a donkey towards a peck of oats.'

THE SOUTHERN CONVENTION.

Never was a scheme killed so dead as that famous project, which the Committee introduced two weeks ago, and which Messrs. Conway and Claiborne tried to rush through the House. We have not seen a man from the country, and we have made it our business to enquire, neither have we heard of one, who was in favor of that scheme On the contrary, it has been received every where with most decided marks of disapprobation. A meeting was called in Lynchburg-not a dozen could be got together. Another in Fluvanna-it shared the same fate. Another in Goochland, where resolutions being offered, they were postponed indefinitely !

The bare idea of a dissolution of the Union is abhorrent to the people of Virginia. They have no thought of abandoning their rights under the Constitution-neither have they any thought of entrusting their destinies to 19 men in Nashville. They have better remedies for all their grievances in the Union than they would have out of it, and they intend to exhaust them. They leave the game of Disunion to Garrison & Co. and their allies .- Rich. Whig.

A New Question .- The "Bitter Enders" of the South are trying industriously to raise a n w issue with the Administration ; and, in their

of certificated instances, they have even reached sufferers from the very verge of an untimely grave, after all the deceptive nostrums of the day had ut terly failed; and to many thousands they have permanently secured that uniform enjoyment of health, without which life itself is but a partial blessing. So great, indeed, has their efficacy inva. riably and infallibly proved, that it has appeared scarcely less than miraculous to those who were acquainted with the beautifully philosophical principles upon which they are compounded, and upon which they consequently act. It was to their manifest and sensible action in purifying the springs and channels of life, and enduing them with renewed tone and vigor, that they were indebted for their name. Unlike the host of pernicious quackeries which boast of vegetable ingredients, the LIFE MEDI. CINES are purely and solely vegetable ; and con. tain neither Mercury, nor Antimony, nor Are-nic, nor any other mineral, in any form whatever. They are entirely composed of extracts from rare and powerful plants, the virtues of which, though long known to several Indian tribes, and recently to some eminent pharmaceutical chemists, are altogether unknown to the ignorant pretenders to medical science ; and were never before administered in so happily efficacious a combination.

The first operation is to loosen from the coats of the stomach and bowels the various impunties and crudities constantly settling round them; and the remove the hardened faces which collect in the convolutions of the small intestines. Other medicines only partially cleanse these, and leave such collected masses behind to produce habitual Costiveness, with all its train of evils, or sudden Diarrhos with its imminent dangers. This fact is well known to all regular anatomists who examine the human bowels after death ; and hence the prejadice of these well-informed men against the quack medicines of the age. The second effect of the VEGETABLE LIFE MEDICINES is to cleanse the kidneys and the bladder ; and, by this means, the liver and lungs, the healthful action of which entirely depends upon the regularity of the urinary organs. The blood, which takes its red color from the agency of the liver and lungs, before it passes into the heart, being thus purified by them, and nourished by food coming from a clean stomach courses freely through the veins, renews every part of the system, and triumphantly mounts the banner of health in the blooming cheek.

The following are among the distressing variety of human diseases in which the VEGETABLE LIFE MEDICINES are well known to be infal

DYSPEPSIA, by thoroughly cleansing the first and second stomachs, and creating a flow of pure healthy bile, instead of the stale and acrid kind; the FLATULENCY, Loss of Appetite, Heartburn, Headache, Restlessness, Ill-temper, Anxiety, Languor, and Melancholy, which are the general symptoms of Dyspepsia, will vanish, as a natura consequence of its cure. Costiveness, by cleansing the whole length of the intestines with a solvent process, and without violence : all violent purges leave the bowels costive within two days. Diarrhosa and Cholera, by removing the sharp acrid fluids by which these complaints are occasioned, and by promoting the lubricative secretion of the mucous membrane. Fevers of all kinds. by restoring the blood to a regular circulation, through the process of perspiration in such cases, and the thorough solution of all intestinal obstruction in others. The LIFE MEDICINES have been known to cure RHEUMATISM permanently in three weeks, and GOUT in half that time, by removing local inflammation from the muscles and ligaments of the joints. Dropsies of all kinds, by freeing and strengthening the kidneys and bladder : they operate most delightfully on these important organs, and hence have ever been found a certain remedy for the worst cases of GRAVEL Also Worms, by dislodging from the turnings of the bowels the slimy matter to which these creatures adhere. Asthma and Consumption, by relieving the air-vessels of the luugs from the mucous which even slight colds will occasion, and which, if not removed, becomes hardened, and produces these dreadful diseases. Scurvy, Ulcers, and Inveterate Sores, by the perfect purity which these LIFE MEDI-CINES give to the blood, and all the humors. Scorbutic Eruptions and Bad Complexions, by their alterative effect upon the fluids that feed the skin, and the morbid state of which occasions all eruptive complaints, sallow, cloudy, and other disagreeable complexions. The use of these Pills for a very short time will effect an entire cure of SALT RHEUM, and a striking improvement in the clearness of the skin. COMMON COLDS and INFLUENZA will always be cured by one dose, or by two even in the worst cases PILES. As a remedy for this most distressing and obstinate malady, the VEGETABLE LIFE MEDICINES deserve a distinct and emphatic recommendation. It is well known to hundreds in this city, that the former proprietor of these valuable Medicines was himself afflicted with this complaint for upwards of THIRTY FIVE YEARS ; and that he tried in vain every remedy prescribed within the whole compass of the Materia Medica. He however at length tried the Medicine which is now offered to the public, and he was cured in a very short time, after his recovery had been pronounced not only improbable, but absolutely impossible, by any human means-

I care not though Fate should deny me profusion, If earth will but show me some rays from above; Tell me not that God's light is a dreamy illusion-. I could live without Fortune, but not without Love

Oh ! 'tis pleasant to know there are beings about us Who tune the most exquisite strings in our heart. To feel that they would not be happy without us, And that we, in our loneliness, sigh when we part. Oh ! there's something divine in the thoughts that we cherish

A star beam within us, that shines from above-To know, that if all the world gives us should perish, The greatest of Fortune still dwells in our Love !

Oh ! 'tis glory to feel that we live for some others, That self is not all that we depend on below. That affection yet links us to sisters and brothers, Whose faith will be constant, come weal or come woe Though the vulture of trouble may harass our bosom, Ne'er fear while our spirit is fed by the dove ; Let the desert of Life give Eternity's blossom, And we'll live without Fortune, while favored by Love.

> EARLY WOO'D AND WON. BY MRS. ABDY. Oh ! sigh not for the fair young bride, Gone in her opening bloom, Far from her kindred, loved and tried, To glad another home : Already are the gay brief days Of girlish triamph done. And tranquil happiness repays, The early woo'd and won.

Fear shall invade her peace no more, Nor sorrow wound the breast : Her passing rivalries are o'er, Her passing doubts at rest The glittering haunts of worldly state, Love whispers her to shun, Since scenes of purer bliss await The early woo'd and won.

Here is a young and guiless heart. Confiding, fend, and warm ; Unsullied by the world's vain mart. Unscathed by passion's storm : In "hope deferred" she had not pined Till hope's sweet course was run : No chains of sad remembrance bind The early woo'd and won.

Her smiles and songs have ceased to grace The hall of festive mirth. But womah's safest dwelling place Is by the true one's hearth ; Her hours of duty, joy, and love, In brightness have begun, Peace be her portion from above, The early woo'd and won.

BE CAREFUL OF THE CORNERS --- Several anecdotes turn on that inexhaustible theme for merriment-the sofrows of matrimony. In passing through the street, a bier was struck against the corner of a house and the when the woman died in good earnest, her husband call-attempt to do so, they show either a great deal of boldness or an amazing lack of sense. For statements of this issue, at full length, we refer to the editorials in all the Locofoco papers. the burden of which is that Gen. Taylor is go ing to commit the awful heresy of "approving the Wilmot proviso in the California Constitution !" This would be exceedingly terrible if we did not know it to be false. The old Gen. eral cannot approve the Wilmot proviso in the California Constitution for the grand reason that there is no such thing in that interesting docu ment. The Wilmot proviso is nothing more nor less than an assertion of the principle that Congress has right to exclude slavery from the Territories. The Californians had nothing to do with this principle; they have excluded slavery themselves without waiting for Congress to interfere in the matter; and in so doing they have met the approval of the most recent embodiment of modern Democrary, as will be seen by the following paragraph from an opposition paper published in Illinois :

"We had it from the lips of Gen. Cass himself, but a few months ago, that he should ' certainly vote for the admission of California as a State, with a Constitution prohibiting slave. ry,' as he considered that the only legitimate way to settle the question in the Territories .--We understand this to be Gen. Cass's position, without any hearsay or conjecture about it."-

If Congress had passed a law excluding slavery from California and Gen. Taylor had approved it, he might justly stand accused of favoring the Wilmot provise; but if he sign a bill admitting California with her present constitution, he will merely give his adhesion to the doctrine that the people of a Territory have a right, in the formation of a State constitution, to admit or exclude the slave institution. No man in the South can utter an argument in support of Southern rights without giv. ing affirmative prominence to this doctrine; and no man who has any sense at all, can innocently confound it with the principle of the Wil. mot proviso .- Vicksburg Whig.

The New Orleans "Bee," in some late speciations as to the probable action of Congress on the slavery question, alter expressing the opinion that the Wilmot proviso, even in the event of its passage by the House, would be killed in the Senate, says : "We believe that California will be admitted as a State with her present Constitution, and that Congress, by refraining from the exercise of a power deemed by the South wholly unconstitutional, and by leaving it where it rightfully belongs in the hands of the people of the new State, will remove from both North and South just ground for further contention.
