TEMPERANCE CELEBRATION AT

GOLD-HILL. The spirited Sons of Temperance of Gold. Hill Division, had a celebration on Saturday last, which far exceeded our expectations as it regards the number which turned out, the animation of the occasion, and the general interest excited in the surrounding country.

By the way, this is one of the finest Divisions in the State, and is in a most flourishing condition. They can boast the accomplishment of much good, and the influence which they exercise over the community, is most salmary. The forces of Bacchus are fast yielding before them, so that we are cheered with the hope that the day is not distant when Gold-Hill, through the efforts of the Sons and the labors of the Men of God, shall become as distinguished for good as it was once noted for its disorder and immorality.

The ceremonies of Saturday, commenced by the formation of the procession in front of the Division Hall. It then moved to the Methodist Church, some three fourths of a mile from town. Having arrared there, all the seats appropriated wisiters were found completely jammed with ladies and gentlemen. The audience was ad. the Town will be tolled. dressed first by J. H. Enniss, G. W. P., and then by Rev. T P. Ricaud. Both these addresses were excellent in character, and hapnily appropriate. The best compliment we can pay to the authors of these addresses, is to state the fact, that it is admitted they were productive of good; and to feel that their efforts were thus fruitfel, should be as it doubtless is, mournful occasion. more gratifying to them, than the empty praises of their admiring friends.

The ceremonies of the morning passed off most handsomely; and the large delegation from this place, humbering some forty gentlemen, Sons, of Temperance, who were accompanied by some fifteen ladies, were highly pleased with their visit, and delighted with the part they were permitted to take in the celebration. Gold Hill, and the Gold Hill people, are becoming more and more endeared to us.

We have been favored by a correspondent

At half past y o'clock, P. M., the Sons met an open field and a fair fight. brother Ricauda

Rev. brother Hank then arose and delivered in his pecular and happy manner an address hearing opon its every feature the impress of its sincerity. The Rev. Brother illustrated in a forcible manner the evils of intemperande, and closed his remarks with a cogent appeal to the foes of the Order to ground the weapons of their opposition, -to unite with us and resolve under our banner, to live and die. After he took his seat our esteemed brother Rev. John, H. Coffman being called on, arose, and in a very impressive manner, delivered an address abounding with passages of pure eloquence, and remarkable for its chaste. ness and sound reasoning, which seemed to carry conviction home to every heart.

Luke Blackmer, Esq., being next called on, arose, and in his usual and impressive manner, proceeded to address the audience, and we assure you, Messrs. Editors, that we are almost disposed to shrink from the task of describing the eloquent gentleman's effort on that occasion. We have had the pleasure of hearing Mr. Blackmen on former occasions, but this surpassed them all, although he spoke from the spur of the moment. Imagine to yourself an athletic smith, with sledge hammer in hand, surrounded by countless numbers of unfortunate inebriates, and he their avowed foe, authorized to drub them soundly into temperate men, and now in the execution of his mission he commences and deals his blows around until not one is left standing. So it was on this occasion, his arguments, were really of an herculean character. If Hercules himself had been there with his famous club of renowned potency, he egold not have done greater execution. Such was the happy effect of his speech, that at its close, it called to his feet our esteemed friend of Philas, John Jordan, Esq., who stated to the audience that such were his present convictions, that he thought he would have to join the Order when he reached home; and closed his remarks by relating in his inimitable manner an anecdote in which he was personally concerned, the effect of which was, the audience was convulsed with laughter.

The hour being late, the procession formed again, and after performing a variety of evolutions, with their beautifully variegated torch lights, marched back to the Division room, where they seperated and retired to their homes ; each one no doubt, cherishing in his heart, a warmer feeling of interest and devotion to the Order, and with the conviction that the celebration at Gold-Hill on that day and age in the future history of our Order. TEMPERANTIA.

Give them a Buena Vista !- The locofocos have labored hard and cunningly to beat the Whigs this year. Already have they raised the shout of victory, and are exclaiming -" the day is ours." Just so ! " A little more grape, Captain Whigs, and one more brave charge, and these locos will fly howling to their dens. Up! and at them.

R. W. Walker .- We notice an advertise. ment in Brownlow's Whig concerning a man of this name, who represented himself as from Salisbury, N. C. He hired a horse and buggy from a citizen of Knoxville, to go a short journey, but has never been heard of since .-He is described as being 5 feet 8 or 10 inches high-black whiskers-well dressed and of good address and rather more polite than is common, A Reward of $50 is offered for his apprehension

We know nothing of this man, and have no doubt he is a regular swindler.

WASHINGTON HOUSE, CHESNUT ST. ABOVE SEVENTH,

PHILADELPHIA. IS central, in the immediate vicinity of the most important public Institutions, the best and most fashionable places of business, and the attractive public Squares of the city. In the important requisites of light and ventilation, two principal objects aimed at in the recent enlargement and thorough improvement of this House, it is not exceeded, perhaps, by any establishment in America. To strangers, therefore, its position is peculiarly desirable. The subscriber returns thanks to his friends and the public for the liberal patronage they have extended to him, and assures them that he will endeavor to merit a continuance of their favors.
