POETICAL.

SABBATH EVENING AT HOME. When Sabbath bells have ceased their sound, And the hours of day are passed, And twilight draws its curtain round, And the shadows gather fast-There is one spot, and one alone, Round which our hearts most cling, And the fondest memories, one by one, Their choicest treasures bring. That spot is Home ; its sacred walls Admit no discord then; Nor crowded marts, nor festive halls, Nor gayest haunts of mon, Can know a joy so sweet and pure-None such to them is given ; Might joy like these for age endure, This earth were quite a heaven. 've wandered far 'mong other bowers Than those my childhood knew, With hope of gathering fairer flowers Than in those garden's grew : Yet in the cold world's earnest throngs-'Mid its din and stormy strife, Affection turns to scenes and songs Of my young joyous life. Iome's well-loved group ! / Its Sabbath song ; Its tones I seem to hear; Though borne full many a league along, They come distinct and clear. O Sabbath night ! O treasured home ! Fond pride of memory's train-And thoughts of ye, where e'er I roam, Shall bring my youth again.

From Frases's Magazine. LONDON IN 1851.

We are on the eve of a decennial census: Twenty years ago the population of London was estimated at a million and a scription. The magnitude of the wretchhalf. Taking the average rate of increase edness baffles us. Individual suffering upon a period of sixty years, we may as- makes a direct appeal to our sympathies, sume, with a tolerable certainty of being while the sufferings of large masses are close upon the mark, that the next census somewhat vague. The mind can readily will exhibit a population not materially admit a family group stricken on their under two millioms and a half of human straw pallets by famine and disease, but beings, men, women, and children, living it cannot all at once take in a whole disfor pleasure or pain, pursuing their toils trict undergoing the slow agonies of defior cultivating their enjoyments, within cient food and a foctid atmosphere. As of the perfection to which we have brought the art of packing, illustrating to the last extremity the economical problem of the greatest possible number in the smallest possible space. Assuming the area of London to be nineteen square miles, it vields us a population on each mile of 130,000 human creatures, performing within that stinted compass all the operations of life and death, mixed up in fear ful MELEE of passions and interests, luxury and starvation, debauchery and criminality, hard work and idleness; besides an in- here-been vaccionated out." firmity of occupations-useful, ornamental and mischievous, making love, begging alms, picking pockets, juggling, grinding "happy families" in the streets, and returning at night in unspeakable misery at home. This population is taken on an average of the whole surface. If we descend into the more densely inhabited quarters of the town we may fairly double it; from which estimate the reader is requested to draw a faint picture in his thoughts of the condition of existence, respective of air, cleanliness, food, and space. people eat, drink, and die, in London, from a million of souls subsisting within the limits of a square mile is a spectacle of a stand-up fight against nature, such as cannot be rendered very intelligible by de-

After reading it over, he did not exactly like It did'nt say anything about rowdies and blackguards; so, to caution them particularly he added .--

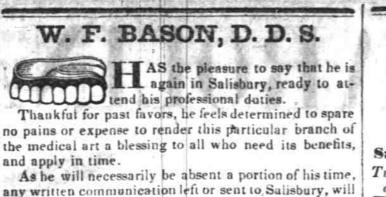

" Nota Bena, rowdies and blackguards will please not mix with the members, as it is hard to tell one from the other."

SMALL POX IN MONTGOMERY.

The Alabama Journal of the 25th instant, says : "The Board of Health reports that no new cases of Small Pox has occurred since the 9th instant, and no Varioloid for the last week. In fact, the epidemic, which was never of much importance from the first, has ceased

This is a very satisfactory demonstration of the advantages and importance of vaccination as a preventive against this loathsome disease. The facility and rapidity of transportation by organs, rolling in carriages, exhibiting means of steam from one extreme of the country to another, and especially from the seaports to the interior, render general vaccination a. mong the whole people much more necessary now than any former period of our history .--This fact is apparent from the appearance of the disease in so many, and such remote sections of the country during the past fall and winter, and should admonish all classes to provide against its incursions, by the only preventive known to science-vaccination. This is easily performed, and is attended with no danger or sickness when the matter is obtained from a healthy subject; and as to its efficacy. in which some hundreds of thousands of there is no doubt in every instance where it takes properly. It is true, it is very difficult one year's end to another. A quarter of to tell by observation, nay almost impossible even by the most practiced eye, whether the ulcer formed on the arm is a perfect one, and a sure preventive against the disease. It's efficacy may, however, be easily and effectually tested by re-vaccination, until it fails to have any effect, or produce an ulcer. When this occurs, the subject may be considered as in no danger of taking the disease, even though he may be in the same room with and nurse a patient with small pox.

That vaccination is thus efficacious is abundantly established by the progress and history of small pox, from the time of the discovery, and especially vindicated by a case which oc. curred near Hamburg, South Carolina, last fall. A gentleman, the head of a family, who had been imperfectly varcinated, took small pox, which proved to be a very severe case, and al-

be attended the first opportunity. 43-12tpd March 6, 1851

Carriage Making Business at Gold Hill. TITHE subscriber begs leave to inform the citizens of L Rowan and adjacent counties, that he has taken the sh-p on the main street, two doors below W. A. McCorkle's store, and opposite J. M. Coffin & Co.'s steam engine, where he will continue to make to order on shortnotice, and on reasonable terms, all kinds of vehicles usually made in this part of the country. He has the advantages of procuring the very best of timber. He has also procured the assistance of his father, who has had experience in the business for the last thirty years. Repairing done on short notice and on reasonable terms He also begs leave to return his most sincere thanks to all customers for their heretofore very liberal patronage, and respectfully solicits a continuance of the ROBERT M. BROWN. Same Gold Hill, March 10, 1851 6:44

Copartnership Notice.

REY & SHEMWELL would take this method of informing the citizens of Favetteville and the public generally, that they have associated with them, in business, Mr. JAMES R. McDONALD, (late of Salisbury;) and the business hereafter will be conducted under the name and style of Arev. Shem well & Co. Arey & Shemwell return thanks for the very liberal patronage bestowed upon them, and intend, by strict attention to business, to merit a continuance. Mr. McDonald would respectfully solicit his friends and acquaintances to give him a call. 6:44 Fayetteville, Feb. 22, 1851

FEMALE SCHOOL. THE third session of the Lexington Female Seminary will commence on Monday, March 17th. Miss M. E. LANGSTROTH, Principal. TERMS.

Tuition in English, per session Music on the Piano, Vocal Music taught gratuitously. Pupils charged from the date of entrance. Board may be had at $6 ALFRED HARGRAVE, and $7 per month. ANDRAW HUNT. Lexington, N. C., March 10, 1851 4:46

LOOK OUT! LL persons indebted to Brown & James will please

Loome forward and settle immediately, or they will have to settle with an officer. BROWN & JAMES. March 27, 1851. tf-17

JOEL SULLIVAN.

Saddle and Harness Manufacturer.

Two doors above Summerell & Powe's Drug Store, and opposite W. Murphy & Co., Salisbury, N. C. H AVING permanently located myself in the Town of Salisbury, I now offer my services in the above business. Having worked in some of the best shops in the State and also in the Northern cities, I think I can please all who may favor me with a call. Repairing done at short notice. Prices moderate. Country produce taken in exchange for work JOEL SULLIVAN.

January 23, 1851. 1y37 REFERENCES-John I. Shaver, Samuel Reeves, D. A. Davis, James E. Kerr, A. Henderson, Jenkins & Roberts, W. Murphy & Co., J. M. Coffin, Gold Hill : V. C. Barringer, Concord ; Dr. John Foard, Rowan.

D ICARDS, FRISBY & Co., No. 6, St. Charles St. Bal-L timore, Domestic Warehousemen and Importers of British and French Dry Goods, direct from Europe, Have on hand a large stock of American Goods purchased previous to the recent advance which they offer by the piece or package, to the Inspection of Southern Merchants, in competition with the stocks of Northern cities. Their importations are now arriving. Let Southern merchants examine carefully Southern stocks. All purchasers are protected in prices against has attached to it a number of convenient offices for legal gentlemen and others. The undivided attention of the subscriber will be given to the interest of the house, and no trouble spared to render all comfortable who favor me with a call. The house has undergone some repairs, which adds to the comfort of families. 'The servants shall be faithful and honest. Drovers may find good lots and plenty of grain at reasonable prices. Call and give me a trial. Thankful for past favors, and hope for a continuance of the same. W. B. GRANT. Statesville, Sept. 30, 1850. Pd1v22

NEW FALL & WINTER GOODS.

RE now receiving from N. York & Philadephia, a handsome assortment of Cloths, Cassimeres, Vest- ing good bargains to their custemers, to ment a liberal ings, and various other Good for gentlemen's wear, with a variety of colored, solid and figured alpaceas, cashmeres, delanes, poplins, lyonese cloths for ladies dresses, with

THE LARGEST AND CHEAPEST

STOCK OF GOODS IN ROWAN. CONSISTING in part of Clothing, Dry Goods Hardware, Cutlery, Boots, Shoes, and Trunks, to. gether with a large assprtment of Groceries of every description, China, Glassware, &c., &c., and in fact every other article suitable for country trade ; to all of which we respectfully invite the attention of the Citizens of Rowan and public generally, to call and see for them selves. Our stock is selected with the greatest care in the Northern cities for cash. We are therefore enabled to sell as cheap, if not cheaper, than can be bought in the State. A call will satisfy.

We are sole agents for Pecare and Smith's Ten Bar. rel REVOLVER PISTOL, with concealed trigger, a great invention.

Country merchants who want to buy by wholesale are especially invited to call. The subscribers pledge themselves to give them as good bargains as they can possibly get in New York.

| All kinds of country produ | ace bought at the highest pri- |
|----------------------------|--------------------------------|
| Les by                     | D. ELIAS & CO.                 |
| Gold Hill, Dec. 12.        | 1y31                           |

"LARGE SALES & SMALL PROFITS." The Subscribers

AKE this method of informing their friends and the public, that they continue to carry on the Boot and Shoe-making Business, in all its branches, at their old stand opposite Wm. Murphy & Co.'s store. They have on hand a large and fine assortment of Boots and Shoes, of all descriptions, which cannot be surpassed, if equalled, by any new or old firm in this part of the comtry, and which, after the " GREAT EXCITEMENT " is over, by their fine finish will enable you to see where to LEAP with safety

Their work is manufactured out of the best material and having in their employ first-rate workmen, and a well known and expensed BOOT MAKER, who can BEAT the BEST in this place, those who favor them with their custom may depend on being accommodated to their satisfaction. Prices to soit the times ; all orders thankfully received and promptly executed REPAIRING done with neatness and despatch ...... Thankful for the liberal patronage heretofore received, they hope to merit a continuance of the same

All are invited to call and examine our Stock, and if THEY NOT LIKE DON'T BUY.

N. B. Hules green and dry, taken in exchange for work, also country produce WARREN & RIMER

Salisbury. Jan. 9, 1851. 3m35.

NEW COPARNERSHIP.

THE undersigned have entered into a conartnership in the Mercantile Business, at Wood Grove, Rowan County. They intend to keep up a well assorted stock of Goods, and hope by close attention and by givshare of the patronage of the surrounding country --They request their friends to call and give them a trial, All kinds of country produce taken in exclange for velvet silk fringe and Jenny Lind binding, &c., for dress goods, and fair prices allowed. D. B. WOOD, this over growing hive-the metropolis of the numbers crowd upon us, the distinctthe world in other greater aspects of pow- ness of the misery diminishes. er than that of mere vital statistics.

88 to $12

BOGER & MAXWELL

The superfices covered by the close network of houses in which this vast multitude are pent up extends, in a straggling and irregular form, over eighteen or twenty square miles, equal to twelve or thirteen thousand acres. You may travel east and west in nearly a straight line, through an unbroken continuity of houses, to a distance of between nine and ten miles, and north and south between five and six miles. New streets, squares, crescents, and suberban villas, hardly to be distinguished, except by a gush of trees and flowers here and there, from the more compact and populous streets upon whose extremities they are grafted, grow up in thick clusters upon the frontiers with a rapidity so astounding that it is impossible at any particular moment of time to fix the actual limits of that brick and mortar chaos which comes under the general demaking the calculation, fields, gardens, and sleepy hamlets, are in process of obliteration by masonry and scaffolding on all sides. No man can define where the town ends and country begins. There is no country, in the true pastoral sense, within many miles of London. From cured to Mrs. Jones the sound and refreshwhatever point of the compass you approach the great metropolis you have shadows of its giant limbs, in the manufactories and residences that dot the surface long before you come within the breath of its loaded atmosphere. The foreigner who enters at the mouth of the river feels the influence of London nearly a hundred mile soff. He sails up to London Bridge through a panorama of towns seated on cliffs, or dipping their verandahs into the stream; mansions, warehouses, docks, and wharfs; a forest of masts, presenting a congress of the merchant flags of the whole civilized world; and a crush of Mr. Jones himself, from whom we re- near William Hill's forge, a beaver that and din of industry by land and water. such as no exaggeration of the imagination could have prefigured. If he will on-Is take the trouble to educate his wonder 'Jones, you néed'nt turn over, you're drunk tail measured one foot in length and six Jan. 25, 1851-13:44 Wilmington, N.C.

MISPLACED CONFIDENCE. Jones is in general a good husband and a domestic man. Occasionally, however, his convivial tastes betray him into excesses which have subjected him more than once to the discipline of Mrs. Jones. A few nights since he was invited to "participate" with a lew friends at Florence's by way of celebrating a piece of good luck which had befallen one of his neighbors. He did "participate" and to his utter astonishment, when he rose to take his twal," he found the largest brick in his hat he ever saw. Indeed, he was heard to remark soliliquently. "I think, Mr. Jones, you were never quite so tight before."

He reached his home finally, but by a route which was anything but the shortest distance between two points, not, how-barring always his primal transgression; he got into his house, found his way into his chamber without "waking a creature, not even a mouse." After closing his door, he cautiously paused to give thanks for the "conscience undefiled" which seing sleep which had prevented her taking notice of his arrival. Being satisfied that all was right, he proceeded to remove his integuments with as much despatch and quiet as circumstances would permit, and in the course of time sought the vacant place beside his slumbering consort. After resting a moment, and congratulating himself that he was in bed, and that his there, it occurred to him that if he did not change his position Mrs. Jones might de- charged with crime from punishment. tect from his breath that he had been indulging. To prevent such a catastrophe, he resolved to turn over. He had about though his wife and a family of several children, with servants (all of whom had been vaccinated) remained in the same house and lot, and nursed him during his illness, not one of them took the disease, notwithstanding all were exposed to it. We mention this fact to remove the doubts which many feel as to the efficacy of vaccination as a preventive, and the preju dices indulged by others .- Augusta Sentinel.

The Artesian Well .- Mr. Welton, the superintendant of this work is still daily engaged in the prosecution of his arduous labors. He has now reached the depth of 1020 feet, and is slowly penetrating a mass of rock, beyond which there is a hope that a supply of pure water will be obtained. He unites an indom itable spirit, of perseverance with a happy e. quanimity of temperament which enables him leave, at the "wee short hour ayont the to put up with the vexatious freaks of what may be regarded in the most aggravated sense of the term-a bore. The well has progressed, however, without further accident or break. age-a result which augurs favorably for the future.-Charleston Courier.

The Boston Post very pithily remarks : It is stated that Shadrach fled to Canada, ever, without having experienced very and has arrived upon that soil where a considerable anxiety about the reception slave cannot breathe-as it is reported esignation of London. Even while we are which awaited him from Mrs. Jones. He that the fugitives in that province are starwas in luck that night, was Mr. Jones, ving and freezing to death.

> OF An old lady of Jersey had an unac. countable aversion to rye, and never could eat it in any form, till of late they got, she saidto making it into whiskey, and I find I can, now and then, worry down a little.'-Ex. This reminds us of the speech of a member in a Western Legislature- Mr. Speaker, my county beats all creation : last year we made 50.000 harrels of whiskey, besides wasting thousands of bushels for bread !'

The Whigs of Tennessee have nominated Wm. B. Campbell as their candidate for Governor.

Chaplain is to be Demanded by the authorwife did not know how long he had been ities of Maryland. The forfeiture of the bail does not it is contended, release a person

From the Greensboro' Patriot.

A Monster Caught. .- On the night o half accomplished his purpose-we are the 1st inst., Mr. Charles Hill, of this connow obliged to use the idiomatic language ty, caught in a steel trap in Tom's Creek, ceive this chapter of his domestic trials- weighed forty-seven pounds, and measur-"when Mrs. Jones riz right up in the bed, ed three feet seven inches from the tip of and, said she, in tones that scraped the the nose to the end of the tail. Its hind foot marrow all out of my bones, said she .- measured seven inches across the toes, its J. & D. McRae, Agents,

State of North Carolina, ALEXANDER COUNTY.

Court of Pleasand Quarter Sessions, March Term, 1851 C. W. Clarke, ] Original Attachment levied

John J. Adams. him by Will from the estate of of Willie J. Templeton and others, on the waters of South Yadkin, containing 260 acres more or less; the other adjoining the lands of Wm. Cowin and others, on the waters of Jumping Run, containing 300 acres more or less. It appearing to the satisfaction of the Court, that John J. Adams is not an inhabitants of this State It is ordered that advertisement be made for six weeks in the Carolina Watchman for him to be and appear at the next Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions to be held for the County of Alexander, on the first Monday in June next, and plead or replevy in the above case, or adgment will be final, and the land levied on, conlemned to pay plaintiffs claim and cost. Witness, A. Carson, Clerk of our said Court, at Office, the 1st Monday in March, A. D. 1851, and the 75th year of our independence. A. CARSON, Cl'k.

Printer's Fee $5 50

Dr. J. SUMMERELL H AVING returned from the city of New York, re-spectfully announces to his friends and the public

Store, at all hours. [Salisbury, Feb. 27, 1851 BOGER & WILSON EEP constantly on hand an extensive assortment IN of Watches, Clocks, Jewelry, Silverware, Musical Instruments, Revolving Pistols, Perfumery, Soaps, and Fancy Articles of every description. Persons wishing to purchase articles in the above line will do well to call and examine their line selection, one door above J. & W. Murphy's store manner, and warranted for twelve months. Lepine and plain Watches altered to Patent Levers | and experienced workmen - Our stock of and warranted to perform well. tf 12 Salisbury, July 20, 1850

Five Dollars Reward.

RUNAWAY from the subscriber on the 10th Feb-ruary last, a negro man named DAVE. Said negro is about 5 feet 10 inches high, and has a spot in his right eye, large front teeth, out-mouthed, high cheek bones, and course featured ; aged about forty years. will give the above reward to any person who will apprehend said negro, and deliver him to me, or secure him in any jail, so that I get him again. WWM WOODS Rowan co., N. C., March, 12, 1851. 44(f

TUTORESS.

YOUNG Lady of good education and with satis-A factory recommendations; desires a situation as a Teacher, at a reasonable salary. Address B C., Insti- fact.

Cannon's Line of Baltimore Packets. TINHE subscriber intends running a regular weekiv I line of Packets between Wilmington and Balti imore, consisting of six A. I. fast sailing schooners, Virginia Griffith, Susan Cannon, Corinthian, Geo. W. Robinson Gazelle. Palestine, JOHN W. CANNON, Agent, Baltimore, Md.

trimmings; shawls of various qualities, some very fine bonnets, bats, caps, some fine quality; shoes and boots, a large assortment ; children's shoes and boots, suitable for winter wear; Crockery, Delf, China and Glassware,a FT HE Copartnership heretofore existing between Ro-Few Setts Jenny Lind Tea Ware. on defendants interest in two mill and a cut, Rowland's best; Smith's vices and tracts of Land descended to from 4 to 20 penny nails, saws from 6 inches to 6 feet July, 1850. The books remain in the hands of Rober

James Thompson, dec'd ; one tract adjoining the lands | er and carving knife and fork, indigo, blue cotton yarn, made with him. All persons are requested to come forweavers reeds, Dundee 45 inch bagging, rope and twine. | ward and make settlement, either by cash or note. sole and upper leather, good.

SEGAR, COFFEE, YOUNG HYSON, IMPERIAL AND BLACK TEA, CHOCOLATE, MOLASSES, &c. &c. Salem and Philadelphia Almanacs for 1851, Moffatt's pills and bitters and different other patent medicines Dyestuffs, &c. with numerous other articles. All of which were purchased for cash and we intend dispose of them on the most reasonable and accomnodating terms to punctual dealers. Our customers, friends and the public generally, are respectfully invited to give us a call, examine our stock and judge for themelves. Our whole aim and study will be to please and oblige.

Salisbury, Oct. 14, 1850. S. R. FORD, WILMINGTON, N. C.

DEALER IN MARBLE MONUMENTS ; HEAD AND Foot Stones ; Paint Stones ; Imposing do., and in short, any article called for of either

Italian, Egyptian or American Marble : and work warranted to please or no sale; and if damaged before delivery, it is at his expense that he may be found at his office, in the new Drug Orders for any of the above enumerated articles left with the Editors of the Watchman, will be attended to Rhode Island, Connecticut, Lower Canada, New York Nov. 9, 1849-291f with dispatch

LOCK BEFORE YOU LEAP !

TANHE subscribers would respectfully inform the citizens of Salisbury and vicinity, that we have open-BOOT AND SHOE SHOP at the stand occupied last year by Barringer & Co., an Watches, Clocks, and Jewelry repaired in the best | one door below the Book Store. We intend to sell as low as any shop in the place, and employ none but good

> LEATHER & MATERIALS will be purchased in New York by one of the firm, which will enable us to get a good article, and to se work at a low price The best BOOT MAKER in Salisbury, is to be found at this shop. All work warranted. Dry and green hides and all kinds of country produce taken in exchange for work. H. B. CASPER & CO.

Salisbury, January 1, 1851 -34"CLOTHING," "CLOTHING,

BY TELEGRAPH.

UST received a large lot of Ready Made Clothing. among which we have some of the finest and cheapest Over Coats, ever brought into this market Give us a call and we will convince you that such is the M. BROWN & SON.

December 11, 1850. 31 Rock Island Jeans and Kerseys. BOGER & MAXWELL are agents for the sale of the celebrated Rock Is and Jeans and Kerseys -Orders from a distance promptly attended to. 23 BRICKLAYING AND PLASTERING faithfully done, in good time, and on reasonable terms by the subscriber who has been engaged in that business

ROBT. HARRIS Aug. 22, 1850.

Dissolution of Copartnership.

bert Harris and R. R. Crump, in the Mercantile Business, was dissolved by mutual consent on the 22d hammers, cutlery, from a very hie pen to 12 inch butch- Harris, and all settlements of accounts or notes, will be

ROB'T. HARRIS. Aug. 22, 1850-15] R. R. CRUMP FRESH GOODS

TUST received by Express to day, the following articles, to which we respectfully call the attention of the public

No. 2 and 3 Mackerel, Fresh Salmon

30 hoxes Chrise,

1000 lbs pure white lead. $1000 will be paid for a better attice

1000 lbs. Fire Proof Paint, in ed., chenp for cash. M. BROWN & SON. December 11, 1430. 31

STIMSON & CO'S New-York, New-Orleans and Mublie Express,

MOXNECTING with the swallest and most respon-Suble Expresses, between the principal Towns in Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Massachusetts, State, Delaware, Pennsylvama, Maryland, District of Columbea, Induna, Ohio, I linnis, the Western States generally, the Missessupprumb A'abanna river towns, and the prominent places in Georgia and the Carolinas, Our the safe and scendy parsportation of freight, trutiks points - From our many years experience in the express business while connected with Messis Adams & Co., and our numerous advantages in other respects, (not the least of which is the confidence and patronage of the N. York community, we leel assured that we shall never the reweilers, bankers and merchants generally

We beg leave meal attention to our Cabiornia Express from New-Officatis, and our Express between N Orleans and Melore,

Office - Comp Street, New Orleans, and 19 Wa street New York

HENRIETTA LINE OF #### Steam and Freight Boats.

A REall in excellent order for business. Our Tow Boats have been recently repaired and made good as new We have a soludided a new Flat for low water, and we adapted to the service. She will carry 700 bhis merchandize, and draw only 20 inches water These tayoning as with their partimage, may expect as prompt and cheap service in every particular as any other Line can offer.

G. DEMING, Pres't. R M ORRELL, Ag'nt

A. D. CAZAUX, Agent at Wilmington. Favetheville, Dec. 21, 1850.

KUHN'S PIANO FACTORY No. 75 Baltimore St., Baltimore, Md. A LL persons in want of good and durable instru-In ments will find them in this Establishment, of for the last twenty years. Address, Lexington, N. C. beautiful tone and finish. All Piano's are warranted, and strument that does not come up to expectation.

March 20, 1851-2m46 tute, N. C.

| y dipping into a few of the marvellous clea      | an through.' N. Y. Post.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | inches in breadth. Hurra ! for old Surry !!                                                                         |                                                                                                                    | Janua, 1851ry 16 A. L. WATSON.6m36                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | any instrument that does not come up to expectation,will be removed without any charge, and another put in |
|--------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| ats that are daily accomplished on this          | -                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | I challenge the State to beat that if she                                                                           | COTION YARN                                                                                                        | and the second states of the s | its place without charges. Address,                                                                            |
| iscalled Silent Highway-the trade it             | The state of the s | can. A. D.                                                                                                          | AY be had at the Rowan Facto-                                                                                      | Just Received this Day                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | A KUHN,No. 75, Baltimore st., Baltimore, Md.                                                               |
| arries up and down, the myriads of men T         | The following laughable notice was pasted                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | Mt. Airy, N., C. April 6th, 1851.                                                                                   | bunch. It is warranted to be as good as                                                                            | OA BAGS RIO COFFEE,                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | June 20, 5                                                                                                     |
| mployed in it, the quantity of money paid up i   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | We heard the capture of this animal                                                                                 | any that is made at any other Factory.                                                                             | OV 20 Kits No. 1 Mackerel, brand of 1850.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | LIST OF PRICES.                                                                                                |
| nd spent in labor and revelry on Gen             | neral Assembly held it sessions in that town                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | mentioned at Forsyth C. House this week;                                                                            | J. G. CAIRNES, Agent.Salisbury, March 10, 1851 44                                                              | For sale byM. BROWN & SON.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | 6 octave from $1=0 to $300 : 61 do from $250 to$350 ; 7 do from $300 to $200. Grand Planos from      |
| e river and its banks between sunrise man        | DV Vears ago                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | and it was said that there are some other                                                                           |                                                                                                                    | Salisbury, Jan. 1, 1850. 34                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | $500 to $1500.                                                                                               |
|                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | beavers in the neighborhood engaged in                                                                              | STILLS AND TIN-WARE.                                                                                               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | JAMES HORAH,                                                                                                   |
|                                                  | patroniand has the second state of the                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | the construction of a dam. If this be the                                                                           | BROWN & BAKER                                                                                                      | RAGS! RAGS!!                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | WATCH AND CLOCK-MAKER                                                                                          |
| ne he will discover ample reasons for one        | e idea class of individuals, had imbibed the                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | case, we trust the creatures will be let a-lone and not exterminated It were pleas-                             | HAVE on hand a supply of STILLS AND TIN-WARE which they will sellcheaper for cash or                           | 3,000 LBS, clean cotton rage wanted by the 5th of February, for which a fair price                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             | Opposite the Watchman Office,                                                                                  |
|                                                  | tion that members of the Assembly were a                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |                                                                                                                     | any kind of Produce which the merchants buy. Alse,                                                                 | will be paid. M. BRQWN & SON.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | Salisbury, N. C.                                                                                               |
|                                                  | benor class of mortais, a sort of majestic                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |                                                                                                                     | old copper and pewter. Guttering and Roofing at all                                                                | Salisbury, Jan. 30/h. 1551. 35/f.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | Negroes Wanted! Cash for Negroes                                                                               |
|                                                  | rsonages, entitled to far more respect andnor than private individuals. He was all                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | race of animals hitherto believed to be ex-                                                                         | times attended to.                                                                                                 | TR. A. C. M'REE having permanently loca-                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | Salisbury, June 13, 1850.                                                                                      |
|                                                  | sequiousness in obedience to their wishes,                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | tinct among us Greensboro' Patriot.                                                                                 | They will sell stills at fifty cents per pound-put uputtering at fifteen cents per foot, and sell tinwarechea; | Led in the Town of Concord, offers his professional services to the citizens and surrounding country.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | HE subscriber is now in market and wrshes to par-                                                              |
| the populousness it exceeds some of the to t     | the neglect frequently, perhaps, of other                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                                                                                                                     | n proportion.                                                                                                      | Office, No. 3, Harris' Brick Row.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | chase a number of Negroes, for which he is offer-ing the Highest MARKET PRICES IN CASH,                    |
| equiper respectable provinces of Europe, and equ | ually respectable customers. As there were                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | A SAD CONFESSION.Not long since a wealthy merchant of one of our cit-                                           | Salisbury, April 12, 1850                                                                                          | Concord, Sept. 23. 20                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | Persons wishing to dispose of any of the above nam-                                                            |
|                                                  | me, however, who would occasionally get                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | iespoured into the ear of a valued firend his bitter com-                                                           | MEDICINES ! MEDICINES !                                                                                            | DR. M. WHITEHEAD                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | ed property would do well to call on the subscribet.MYER MYERS.                                            |
|                                                  | icks in their hats, as people were wont to dothose days of ignorance; the members were                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | plaints of the conduct of his two and only sons. 'My life is rendered perfectly miserable by their reckless dis-    | WE are receiving at Dr. C. B. Wheeler's old stand                                                                  | FFERS his professional services to the public                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | Communications from a distance attended to.                                                                    |
| free out of our dense inoroughtares, with free   | quently annoyed by these, and remonstrated                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | sipation and shameless profligacy,' said he. That friend                                                            | whe largest and best stock of Medicines, Instru-ments, Paints and Dye Stuffs, Spices, and Perfumery,           | UHe can at present be found at his residence, unlessprofessionally engaged.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | Salisbury June 13th, 1850, 5tf.                                                                                |
| ut missing them; streets, lanes, and al- will    | th the landlord on the subject, telling him it                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | inquired of the merchant if he could bear plain dealing.'Yes,' was the rebly. 'After what I have been made to   | Fancy and useful. Articles, ever brought into this coun                                                            | OfficeIn Johnston's White Row.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | J. H. COFFMAN keeps constantly on hand at                                                                      |
|                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | suffer by those of my own household, I feel that I can                                                              | try. (See our large hand-bills and Catalogue.] We will sell very low for each.                                     | Salisbury, July 21, 1850, tf.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | unble assortment of Books and Stationery.                                                                      |
| a fing of our reters.                            |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | bear anything from others.' The friend laid his hand                                                                | LOCKE & CHAFFIN.                                                                                                   | FOR SALE.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | Salisbury, Sept. 12, '50 180                                                                                   |
| arg, the Fatals hoyal, the Louvre, and abo       | out remedying the annovance, by writing                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | kindly upon the merchant's shoulder, and inquired,'Where did your children learn to drink intoxicating          | Salisbury, May 11, 1848 2                                                                                          | SEVERAL light Rockaways, four or five good Bug-                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | 2000 LBS Pure White Lead, warranted to besuperior to any other, by a guarantee of                          |
| he Tuileries. The population of Paris and        | d posting up in the most conspicuous places                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | stimulants ?' In the most impassioned manner conceiv-                                                               |                                                                                                                    | S gies, built of the best timber, and by good work-men, which will positively be sold cheaper than can be                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | $ 1000.                                                                                                |
| anges not very considerably above half in t      | the house, the following rules of order, with                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | able, the wretched man exclaimed, 'At my own table !and, O, sir, 'said he, that reflection is the most bitter ! | To Officers and Soldiers of the War                                                                                | bought at any shop in this part of the country.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | 500 lbs No. 1.160 Galions Linseed Oil,                                                                     |
| he population of London; St. Petersburgh         | e most perfect innocence on his part of any.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | drop in the draught I am compelled to drain.' Where                                                                 | of 1812 !                                                                                                          | J. S. JOHNSTON.Salisbury, Feb. 13, 1851. 40tf                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | 1000 ibs Blake's patent fire and water proof                                                                   |
| less than a third; and. in gross numbers, pat    | ing in the world, save pleasing his honorable                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | on earth, with all his wealth, can that wretched fathernow find happiness ? He has thoughtlessly made his       | will attend to the prosecution of claims arising un-                                                               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | Paint, just received.M. BROWN & SON.                                                                       |
| he population of London will probably, and       | moyed :                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | sons pass inrough the fire to our American Molock,                                                                  | der the "Bounty Land Bill" passed at the last ses-sion of Congress. JAMES E. KERR.                             | NOTICE.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | Feb 27 tf42                                                                                                    |
| inder the next census, be found to be equal      | HIOOV HEDEL                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | and the scorched and blasted victims will, in all proba-bility, torment his vision and wring his heart with an- | Salisbury, Oct. 10 $50. 22tf                                                                                      | A LL persons indebted to the late firm of Brown &Elliott, by note or account, are requested to make                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |                                                                                                                |
| othat of Paris Vienna Madrid and Brus-           | The following rules of order will be hereaf.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | guish while he lives, or go before him to dishonored                                                                | R. M. ORRELL,                                                                                                      | immediate payment, as longer indulgence will not be                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | J. D. WILLIAMS,FORWARDING AND COMMISSION MERCHANT,                                                         |
| ier it to a liter                                | r observed in this Hotel; Members of the                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | graves, dragging him with his load of sorrows after them.                                                           | Forwarding and Commission Merchant,                                                                                | given. JOHN D. BROWN,                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | Feb 13, 1851:1640 Fayetterille, N.C.                                                                           |
| These dry details suggest a lively idea the      | ssembly will go the table first and the gen-                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                     | Fayetteville, N. C.                                                                                                | Surviving Partner.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             | Blank Warrants for sale here.                                                                                  |
| amore dil detano politico a troil idea (in       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | Keep thy shop and thy shop will keep thee.                                                                          | January 30, 1851. if 38                                                                                            | February, 13 1851. tf. 40.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | APREASE IT HALF HALF AVE DELC AND                                                                              |
|                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                     |                                                                                                                    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                |