A steamer of the Culling line, A Kankee Doodle's notion, Has also quickest cut the brine Across the Atlantic Ocean. And British agents, noways slow Her merits to discover, Have been and bought her-just to tow The Cunard packets over.

Chorus-Yankee Doodle, &c. Your goldsmiths of their skill may crack, But that again don't mention; I guess that Colt's revolvers whack Their very first invention,

By Yankee Doodle, too, you're beat, Downright in agriculture, With his machine for reaping wheat, Chaw'd up as by a vulture. Chorus-Yankee Doodle, &c.

You also fancied, in your pride, Which truly is tarnation, Them British locks of yourn defied The rogues of all creation : But Chubb's and Braham's Hobbs has pick'd, And you must now be view'd all As having been completely licked By gloriow Yankee Doodle, Chorus-Yankee Doodle, &c.

WANT OF CONFIDENCE.

The following well told story by J. P. Morris was published several years since, but it is so apposite to the time, that the N. Y. papers again lay it before their readers. It is to be hoped that business men will profit by the moral it conveys:

were good." He called at the counting house a few years ago in a state of agitation not easily described.

"How do you do?" inquired the mer-"Sick-ver sick," replied monsieur,

" What's the matter?"

"De times is de matter?"

"De times ?-what disease is that?" "De Malaide dat break all de merchants, ver much.

"Is it bon ?' said the Frenchman, with amazement. · Certainly.

' Have you l'argent in de bank ?' And is it parfaitment convenient to pay de sum? "Undoubtedly. What astonishes you?" 'Yo, dat you have got him in dees

·Oh, yes, and I have got plenty more.-I owe nothing that I cannot pay at a moment's notice.'

The Frenchman was perplexed. ' Monsieur, you shall do me one leetle favor, eh?"

· With all my heart.' · Vell, Monsieur, you shall keep de l'argent for one leetle year longare.'

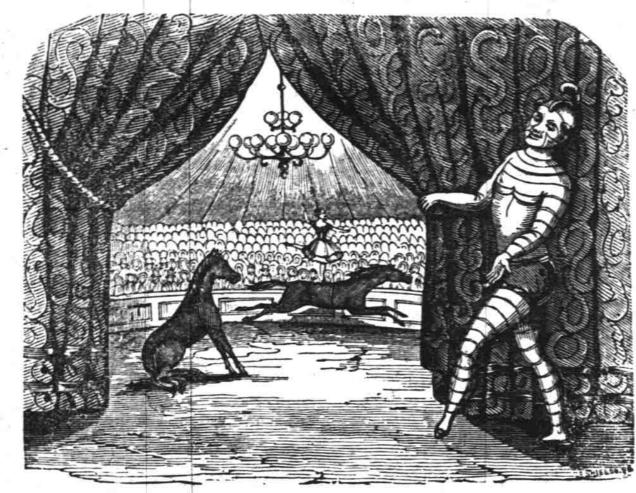

. Why, I thought you wanted it?" · Tout an contrarie. I no want de l'argent-I want de grand confidence. Suppose you no got the money; den I want him ver much-suppose you got him; den I no want him at all, Vous comprehenez, eh?" After some other conference, the little Frenchman prevailed upon the merchant to retain the money, and left the countinghouse with a light heart, and a countenance very different from the one he wore when he entered. His confidence was restored, and although he did not stand in need of the money, he wished to know

ROBINSON & ELDRED'S

Comprising the most numerous and talented Troupe of Equestrians in the World! This Company will perform at Salisbury on the 4th and 5th of November, at I o'clock, and at 7, P. M.

THIS Company comprises NINETY of the most superb Horses in the country, and upwards of FIFTY Persons, amongst whom are some of the first performers in the profession—both male and female. MASTER JAMES, better known in the circle as "Robinson's boy," is acknowledged to be superior to the famous HERNANDEZ, (also taught by Mr. John Robinson,) both in execution and style. The performances of this lad are truly wonderful; his feats are rapid and of the most novel and daring character. His horse runs with double the ordinary speed of ring-horses, and all his achievements are accomplished on the bare back of the animal during his most rapid flight.

to any. His Backwoods Stories and Stump Orations are inimitably droll. MADAME ROBINSON, in an act of Lady Equestrianism in the Saddle, will illustrate, with fearless grace, the various evolutions of that elegant and beautiful exercise. M'LLE HENRIETTA, the young and beautiful CREOLE RIDER, from New Orleans, will give an elegant display of single horsemanship in a Parisian performance.

MR. H. GARDNER, in his grand act of Transformations, called the FETE OF PROTEUS. Mr. GARDNER will also appear in the Gymnastic exercises of the Arena, and exhibit his wonderful skill in Tumbling and Somersetting. THE TROUPE OF PONIES, Ten in number, in all their curious feats and exercises.

ent, will also appear in the course of the performance. THE BAND of this trouge, led by Mr. NEAVE, is acknowledged to be the best in the country. THE MUSIC CHARIOT, drawn by twenty superb Horses raised in the South, will enter the town in procession, driven by Mr. D. BENHAM. IF Admittance, 50 Cents-Children and servants half price. Reserved places for families, with-THE Company will perform at Lexington, on Monday, November 3rd; Gold-Hill, Thursday, Nov. 6th, Concord, Friday, Nov. 7th, and Charlotte, Saturday, Nov. Sth.

FALSE ALARM.

AVING understood that a report was in circulation throughout the country that our firm were not going to receive any Fall and Winter Goods this Fall, we beg leave to inform the public, that we had about one third of our purchase destroyed by fire and water, and that the most of them were dry goods; and as soon as we heard of the loss we notified the Insurance Company in which they were insured, and they very promptly received the goods and paid the amount over to W. Murphy, who was still in Philadelphia, and he began immediately to buy another stock, and by A little Frenchman loaned a merchant so doing, bought them about 10 to 15 per cent lower five thousand dollars when the "times than the first purchase.
