Autumn .- BY A LADY. Its sunsets and its gorgeous forests, how beautiful! But it is brief. . There is a pensive beauty in these days ; nature has not yet put on her frigid aspects' but the sighing of the breeze, and the falling leaf is nature's knell for her fallen glories; for this beauty will soon loose its brightness; her changeful though lovely scenery lends a touching spell to Autumn days. - Go into the thick, dark woods; listen to the hushed deep murmur of the quent is nature? Who is not purer and better when he listens to her voices?

How impressive does God speak to us, at this sweet sad season: How He lets his goodness and glory pass before us. He makes all nature beautiful and gives faculties to enjoy its beauties. It is the same with us .-The Autumn of our days is coming, but if we are ready like the glorious forests and beautiful flowers, we may wrap our garments about us, wait in holy peace, till we are all called to bloom in "beauty immortal" in the garden of God. Therefore nature should teach us a lesson; we should prepare for the Autumn of our days; for we know not when we may be called to give an account of ourselves, and we should not delay, but now is the accepted time, now is the day of salvation.
