THE CELEBRATION. Thursday, March 11, 1852, was the day set apart for the celebration of the second anniversary of the Sons of Temperance of Taylorsville Division, No. 121, in Taylorsville. We met in the Division room at 12 o'clock, with a goodly number of our brethren from neighboring Divisions, who joined in the procession. We marched to the Court Yard, entering the Court House in reversed order, where we found a large concourse of citizens assembled, both ladies and gentlemen. After the house was called to order by the W. P. prayer was made by the Chaplain, Rev. Wm. N. Nesbit, who made a solemn and fervent appeal to kind Heaven, that his blessings might rest upon our Order. Then James A. Baker, Esq., marshal of the day, rose and introduced Dr. D. W. Krider, who delivered an anniversary address, entertain. ing the audience for twenty minutes with a most happy and affective speech. After which, the Rev. A. C. Allen was introduced and delivered eloquent and touching appeals to the hearts of his delighted auditors, which we trust to a great extent had the desired effect in kindling the flame of Temperance in many a sad and desponding heart. After which Hugh M. Stokes Esq., was introduced, who commenced in his usual mild way, gradually stealing away from the hearts of his auditors, that rancor and hatred they bore to our Order, and instilled into their minds the great principles upon which we rest. We dislike the habit of high wrought adulation upon orators of every character, but we feel sure we express the sentiments of those who heard the three temperance speeches on Thursday the 11th inst., when we say that they acquitted themselves in a manner giving the highest satistaction to the most of them who heard them. But that some would object to their wholesome truths and bold denunciations of evil, and wrong, was of course to have been looked for, and if there is any such we have only to say it is noth. ing more than could be expected from them, well knowing that . the temperance flame has never been kindled in their benighted minds,

After speaking there was an opportunity giv. en for any one wishing to join our Order, when two gentlemen stepped forward and gave their tained the names of two more venerable old

We then repaired to the Division room and initiated four, and then adjourned, to meet in the Division room at early candle-light; but the good effects of the exercises of the day were such, and with the assistance of some of the most zealous Sons, that when we met at night, there was (we are happy to say) eleven more new names proposed of which nine were initiated, and heartily engaged in the torch-light procession. We marched in double file to the × Roads, east of the jail, and thence back the South Street to the Public Square, and there formed the Temperance Ball; after which, we marched into the Court House, where we were welcomed again by at least by two or three hundred persons. There were many ladies in attendance, of the fairest and most beautiful of God's creation, welcoming us on to the glorious task of man's redemption from the dominion of king alcohol, with their smiles and kind approbations. God grant that not one of them should ever feel by sad experience the effects of that cruel despot. We were again entertained, first, by Hugh M. Stokes, Esq; secondly, by the Rev. A. C. Allen; thirdly by the Rev. Mr. Hopkin, from Catawba county, in a most gratifying and heart cheering manner to the Sons, and we trust to all. And we believe that there was Temperance seed sown on that occasion, that will be the cause of joy to many a heart in coming time. And in conclusion, we believe that it was one of the most pleasant celebrations that we ever experienced .-Hold up your heads, we friends of Temperance. The Temperance trumpet is calling us to bat. tle and victory over the enemy of all mankind. Never mind the foes' vain rattle; the dark mist of intemperance is fast receding. Oh; may the happy day soon come when our beloved land and country shall be redeemed and made free. We are in good spirits. Taylorsville Division numbers something like one hundred, and they are still coming. We expect to initiate some four or five at our next meeting .-We have the good of mankind at heart.

By order of the Division. March 19, 1852.

Horrible Tragedy in Virginia-Six Persons Killed.

The Fairmount Banner announces the murder of six men and one woman, who were emigrating westward, at a house where they had stopped to spend the night in Dodridge county, Va., on the night of the 17th instant. The horrible miscreants who committed this wholesale murder are supposed to have stolen $22,000 from the party murdered. The names of the vicreperally to say that without engines or apparatus tims are not ascertained. The murderers left Clarksburg on the morning of the 17th, and the same night stopped at a house at West Union, where the murdered party had also put up. During the night they rose and indiscriminately massacred every made for six weeks, in the Carolina Watchman, for the single inmate, robbed them of their all, and escaped. The same party, it is believed. rescused John Owens from the jail at Clarksburg on the Sunday night preceding, who was charged with having set fire to several buildings in that town in November last.

It has been suggested that a national vessel be sent to bring back those persons who have been the victims of swindling agents for California steam ship companies, and who are now in a state of utter destitution on the Isthmus, without means Property of the widow Cobb, residing on to proceed either on their journey or to return home. This idea is a good one, and humanity requires that it should be carried out .- [Boston Times.
