oppose the Compromise—the one wants the Fugitive Slave Law repealed and the other wishes to blow the Union to atoms.

They meet on the Pierce platform and accept that distinguished General as their leader. The platform has incorporated in it the Kentucky resolutions of '98 and the Declara tion of Independence to tickle the Free soilers, and the Virginia resolutions to please the Secessionists. Verily! have two extremes met. Union Whigs! Whigs of North Carolina will you hesitate about opposing such a ticket and such a platform as the National Democracy offer you? Surely not, And Southern Democrats too should be chary of such company as that into which they are now thrown. Let them remember the specious guise under which Martin Van Buren, as a " Northern man with Southern principles" stole their affections .-Gen. Pierce is his counterpart. The Whigs warned them before, they now repeat that warning against another "wolf in sheep's clothing." If the Locofoco Ticket is the " creation and choice" of the Secessionists, as claimed by Mr. Forsythe, how can Southern Union

Have they not always contended that the difference between these two fanatic factions The Chairman appointed the following is inappreciable—that one is as dangerous and reckless as the other? All Secessionists in this part of the country are rallying under the banner of Piece and King. They have lately established a new organ in Charlotte to battle in the cause, and another, now in embryo, will soon come forth in Salisbury; -if they have not established these organs, the grinders of both are avowed Secessionists.

With such supporters Pierce is destined to get a taller full than he ever received in Mex.

In November Scott and Graham will reproduce Chippewa and Lundy's Lane. North Carolina will fire the first Whig gun next Thursday, and I predict the election of Kerr by 5.000 majority. UNION. July 28, 1852.

MORE EVIDENCE.

It is averred that in a speech delivered a Janchester, New Hampshire, in November last General PIERCE gave this emphatic answer to a question propounded by himself:

"Who did not deplore slavery? But what sound thinking man regarded that as the only evil that could rest upon the land. The men would dissolve the Union did not HATE and DE. pendent fortune. PLORE slavery more than he did."

The sentiment is attributed to Gen. PIERCE by the author of a highly laudatory biography. designed to advance his prospects during the campaign. The report comes from a source that is politically and personally tavorable to the General, and is therefore open to none of the objections that have been urged to the previous developments.

Having uttered such a sentiment in Novem ber, is there any thing unreasonable in supposing that he uttered that other memorable declaration in the following January? If in one month he deliberately avowed that slavery is "the only evil" resting upon the land, and that his hatred of slavery is as intense as that of the rankest Abolitionist, is it at all improbable that, two months afterwards, he should declare that he " loathed" slavery and the Fu. gitive Slave Law, and that he desired to extirpate both?

The Concord (N. H.) Independent Democrat of the 22d makes the following reply to the Union's attack upon as veracity in relation to this subject. For the italicizing we are re-

The Washington Union came out last week, with a terrible torrent of wrath and cabbage' upon our humble head, because somebody has furnished the Republic with a report, which we published, of Gen. Pierce's speech delivered at New Boston last fall. As many of our readers will recollect, the present Hunker candidate for the Presidency then professed to have a most intense hatred of slavery; and especially of the Fugitive Slave law. To use his own words, he 'loathed' it. The report we published was furnished by a correspondent, whose character is an abundant guaranty for the truthfulness of the report. Besides, it can be sustained to the letter by the testimony of hundreds who heard it. Nor, although the report was copied into several other papers at the time, was its general accuracy ever denied. We had no desire to do General Pierce injustice at the time of that speech, nor have we any such desire now. That he used substantially the language attributed to him, we have no more doubt than we have of our existence. As little doubt have we that a hundred affidavits of Democrats can be had sustaining the report in every essential particular. Indeed, we are assured, on what we deem good authority, that Ger.eral Pierce used stronger language to express his 'loathing' of the Fugitive law than is used by the repor-

THE PROOF-THE PROOF.

It is a little singular that the Democratic editors, instead of flying into a furious rage, tearing their hair and feaming at the mouth, do not go to work and obtain the proof that General Pierce's remarks at South Boston have been misrepresented. There can be no doubt that misrepresented. There can be no doubt a misrepresented a misr hose of us who fought so zealously against and it language has been attributed to him which he did not use, it would be very easy to obtain testimony to that effect. To brand a charge as "talse"-slanderous-"calumnious" -"toul," &c., &c., is a very easy matter; but to make good the charge of falsehood and slander by satisfactory proof is quite another thing. For one, we stand ready to exonerate Gen. Pierce from the serious offence imputed to him beap -if they supported either ticket—to on the instant that we are convinced that he is innocent of it. But we must have better evitiew? I certainly think so. They feel dence of his innocence than the angry paramed they can expect no favor from the Hero graphs of editors who know no more about the Chippewa, and therefore throw up their hats matter than ourself. At the time that General Pierce's remarks were reported by the Concord Convention incorporated the Compro and Manchester Democrats, he was not a canin their platform, but then they omitted didate for the Presidency, nor did any one dream that he ever would occupy such a position .-What motive then had these editors to misrep-And another circumstance favorable marks were misrepresented, did he or his friends the ries was the relusal of Mr. Pierce to not come forward with a correction or explana. thought not to be worth working-could not make any thing much on it myself when I first commenced. Diggins are so different from yours, and they vary so much, it would be impossible to describe them to you so you would understand. What think you of two or three men working for weeks or a month in one pit, not very large, say 8 to 12 feet square, 12 to 30 feet deep-it is sometimes good work for one hand to raise 4 to 5 feet square of gravel, two or three feet thick in a day-large rocks, hard and uneven ledge or bed stone, as it is often called here,-knives, spoons, brush. hoe, and some times rakes are used; knives to scratch about in the uneven places in the ledge to get the gold loose, and the spoon to take it up, (trowel is often better than a spoon) a brush to sweep it to the lowest place, a hoe to scrape the ledge where it is any ways smooth, a rake serves to draw the gravel down the tom-long toms are very common and the best machine to make gold with, where gravel (or dirt as it is called here) is easily come at and plenty of it, such too, that will pay 21 cts. to the bucket, a man can make 5 or 6 dollars per day-2 or 3 hands the best number at a tom. Some of my acquaintances from Burke and other counties are coming with more bands than they can manage well; to hire, it is rather a bad business, even at 80 or $100 per month-a man having negroes here should always be with them; the Yankees are ready at any time to poison the minds of negroes-but I have had no difficulty what ever with my boys. This a great place for negroes, they can make, allowing them every Saturday, from $5 to $10-at no expence mean, where diggin are good, and they work; vet they soon become careless about it and do
