Mrs. Taylor, widow of the late President Taylor, died at East Pascagoula, on Monday, the 14th instant.

The people of Alabama have voted, by a large majority, against a Convention to change the State Constitution.

During the last twelve months one hundred and fifty persons have died in New York of typhoid fever. Nine murders were caused by rum, and nearly ten suicides during the same time.

Monument to Aaron Burr.—The Prince-George monument erected over the grave of Aaron Burr, lately. The inscription is,
"Aaron Burr, born Feb. 6th, 1756, died 24th, 1836. A Colinel in the army of the United States from 1801 to 1805."

A machine for painting window-blinds has been invented by Samuel Fields, a resident of Worcester, by which one man can paint easily 80 pair of blinds in a day, and work over ten hours.

Extra Session of the Missouri Legislature.—An extra session of the Missouri Legislature has been called for the 30th of August, to enact the necessary laws relative to the recent grants of lands for the Pacific railroad.

Whigs of the West intend holding a large public meeting in Columbus, Ohio, on the 5th of September.

The Legislature of Indiana, at its last session, passed an act repealing all laws passed prior to the year 1852, with certain exceptions. The effect of this act is to place the colored population of the State on the same footing with the whites, in giving testimony, and in certain other respects. Some of the Indiana patriot think that the Legislature unintentionally committed this act of folly, and the old laws concerning the colored population will be re-enacted at the next session.

Dr. S. G. Goodrich, United States Minister at Paris, has arrived at New York in the Franklin. He has come on private business, and will speedily return to Paris.

John G. Garnet, residing in Green county, Virginia, met with his death recently from swallowing a leech drinking from a spring. A powerful emetic was administered and the leech was thrown up, having remained alive in the stomach for several days, but the man died a day or two afterwards from the effects which it had inflicted.

A long disputed question of the sovereignty of the Sandwich Islands has been settled in favor of the eldest son of King Pomare, as King of Huahina, and his daughter as Queen of Bolobolo. A military alliance was in contemplation between the latter and the Prince of the Sandwich Islands.

Wholesale and South Carolina Railroad.
The Legislature of South Carolina has authorized to state, says the Whig, that this work will certainly be finished by Charlotte by the first of October next. Western merchants, therefore, who do not get their goods before that time, may safely order them to arrive.

Editorial.—Will you please publish the extract taken from the "Richmond Locofoco" testimony against General Scott? It is a Roman Catholic.

Will you please catch the eye of a Minister of the Gospel, who has been circulating that charge,—"Union" is a willful lie, and he will promptly retract.

CHANGE ABOUT!
The Locofoco presses all over the country are charging General Scott with being a Catholic. But finding that not much capital can be made by that fabrication, they have now turned their fire upon him for having been a member of the Catholic Church.

From the Union of the 6th.
The Locofoco press is full of the following article, which is a political letter bearing date of October 10th, and signed Winfield Scott:

Yield to me now; I shall yield to you some day. I sometimes govern the CAR-OLINA in the choice of a POPE—many voters are now abusing him for having yielded to the Catholic Church.

NO INTOLERANT.

10TH OF SEPTEMBER. Mass Meeting in Iredell.

A large and respectable meeting of the Whigs of Iredell was held in the Court House in Statesville, on Tuesday, the 17th instant, and was organized by calling GEORGE F. DAVIDSON to the Chair, and appointing William H.
Haynes and George W. Chipley, Secretaries.

W. P. Caldwell explained the object of the meeting to be to ratify the Baltimore Whig nominations, and to organize for holding a Mass Meeting of the Whigs of this part of the State at this place, and after a few remarks, he introduced to the audience Gen. John A. Young, of Charlotte, a member of the late Baltimore Whig Convention. Gen. Young entertained his audience for more than an hour, in a most spirit-stirring and eloquent address, which was well calculated to arouse the Whigs of Iredell, and cause them to rally to the support of Scott and Graham.

After Gen. Young concluded, the Chair appointed a committee of three, consisting of W. P.
Caldwell, M. A. White and W. Turner, to report resolutions for the action of the meeting.

While the committee was out, the assemblage was addressed by Col. John A. Lillington in his usual eloquent and happy manner.— His speech was eloquently diversified with wit, pathos and anecdote.

The committee, through Mr. Caldwell, made a report of the following resolutions: Resolved, That we will cordially sustain the nominations of the Whig National Convention—Gen. Scott and Wm. A. Graham, for President and Vice President of the United States.

Resolved, That we will hold a District Mass Meeting of the Second Congressional District at Statesville, on Friday, the 10th September next, and that the Whigs of the 1st, 3d and 4th Congressional Districts generally are hereby invited to attend and be with us on that occasion.

Resolved, That a committee of thirteen be appointed to make the necessary arrangements for the Mass Meeting.

Resolved, That a committee of five be appointed to correspond and invite speakers.

Resolved, That this meeting recommend that the Counties composing this Congressional District, send delegates to this place on the 10th of September next, to nominate a Whig Elector for President and Vice President.

These resolutions were reported by Dr. Ramsay, of Rowan, in a few pertinent remarks, and by Wm. Johnston, Esq., of Mecklenburg, which last gentleman spoke with great force of the military character and of the civil capacities of Gen. Scott.

The resolutions were then unanimously adopted.

The Chair appointed on the committee of correspondence the following:— W. P. Caldwell, Esq., Dr. R. H. Parks, John Davidson, Esq., Milton Campbell.

And the following are the committee of arrangements:—
Wilfred Turner, Col. A. M. Walker, John Dalton, Abner Feinster, Moses A. White, L.
Q. Sharpe, Esq., Edwin Falls, Col. David Ramsay, Robert White, Esq., Maj. Wm. M. Allison, P. B. Chambers, Dr. John McLellan, Dr.
James K. Nesbit.

Upon motion,
Resolved, That the proceedings of this meeting be published in the Carolina Watchman and the North Carolina Whig.

On motion the meeting adjourned, GEORGE F. DAVIDSON, Chm'n.
WM. H. HAYNES, Secretary.
GEO. W. CHIPLEY, Secretary.

According to previous notice, a meeting of a portion of the Whigs of Cabarrus County, was held in the Court House in Concord, on Saturday, the 21st instant. On motion, R. W. AL-LISON, Esq., was appointed Chairman, and Dr.
L. S. BINGHAM, Secretary. At the request of the Chairman, Maj. R. Barringer explained the object of the meeting to be to appoint delegates to a convention, to be held in Albemarle, on the 6th of September, for the purpose of electing an Elector on the Scott and Graham ticket, for the electoral district; and also to make arrangements for attending the "MASS MEET-ING" of the friends of Scott and Graham, in Statesville, on the 9th and 10th of next month.

On motion of E. F. D. McKee, Esq., the Chairman appointed the following Committee of arrangements:—
R. Barringer, Esq., H. C. Uley, Wm. Coleman, Maj. J. M. Kestler, and Dr. L. S. Bingham.

The following delegates, to the district convention, were also appointed by the Chairman:
C. Melchor, Paul Miller, Daniel Miller, R.
Barringer, Col. J. M. Long, E. F. D. McKee, Dr. K. P. Harris, E. R. Harris, Dr. Samuel J.
Gilmer and L. S. Bingham.

On motion of Allison Voils, the meeting was adjourned to meet in this place on next Saturday, the 29th, at three o'clock, in order to organize a Scott and Graham Club.

Moved and carried that the proceedings of this meeting be published in the Carolina Watchman with the request that the "Argus" and "N. C. Whig" please copy.
R. W. ALLISON, Ch'n.
L. S. BINGHAM, Secretary.

POWERS, THE SCULPTOR, in a letter to the Secretary of State of Louisiana, gives the following description of the statue of Washington, which he is cutting for that State, and which he expects to complete within the ensuing year:—"I am representing Washington in the citizen dress of his time—standing six feet five inches high, larger than life, in order that the statue may have the appearance of life-size in the place where it is to stand on its pedestal in a large room. He seems as meditating, holding the Farewell Address in one hand, while he leans with his right arm upon a column composed of rods banded together, at the foot of which I have placed two emblems of husbandry, the sickle and the pruning hook, and they signify even more than does the plough, a very clumsy emblem in sculpture."

MARRIED.
In this County, on the 18th instant, by David Barringer, Esq., Mr. DANIEL W. SMITH to Miss JUL-LIA ANN, daughter of the late Mr. Richard Walton.
In this County, on the 19th instant, by Rev. Samuel Rothrock, Mr. RUBEN J. HOLMES, Merchant of Gold Hill, to Miss K. S. CAROLINE, daughter of the late George Heilig, dec'd.

DIED.
In this Town, on the 21st instant, Mr. WILLIAM TRAVIS SHERWELL, in the 33d year of his age.
He exhibited the power and excellence of those religious principles which governed his life, by the exemplary patience with which he bore his last sickness, and the child-like resignation with which he committed himself into the hands of his Heavenly Father as into those of a faithful Creator and most merciful Savior.— And the lengthened procession which attended his body to the grave, attested the kindly impression which his gentle and retiring virtues had made upon the com-

In this place, on the 16th instant, after a lingering illness, the effect of Measles, HENRY TOOMER, infant son of Mrs. John B. Lord, aged 22 months and 14 days.

"God took his in his mercy—A lamb, untaught, untired; He fought the fight for thee—He won the victory—
And thou art sanctified!" [Cont.]

At his residence, near Wilkesboro', N. C., on the evening of the 14th instant, Col. WILLIAM PITT MAY, in the 77th year of his age.

Col. May was a native of York, now Adams county, Pennsylvania, and emigrated to Wilkesboro', N. C., in December, 1803, where he established himself as a Merchant and trader—which profession he continued to pursue until his death. For many years in connection with his partner Maj. John Finley, he was engaged in a most extensive mercantile and trading business, by which he amassed a large fortune, and his will to numerous relatives in various parts of the United States. He was a man remarkable for sagacity and sound sense, and possessed an intuitive knowledge of men and motives which rarely deceived him in the multitudes transacting with the world, in which it was his fortune to engage. During the war of 1812, he raised a company of Volunteer Cavalry, and served the perfect frontier in the Indian country, the Cavalry Regiment was discharged and returned to his home.
Col. May possessed many excellent traits of character, and although he never made a profession of religion or became a member of any church, he was nevertheless a most hospitable and generous host, kind and to all denominated as Christians. His remains were interred in the burying ground in Wilkesboro', and were followed to the grave by a very large concourse of citizens—the funeral services on the occasion being performed by the Rev. Messrs. Bell and Barber of the Presbyterian and Episcopal churches.—[Cont.]

THE SCOTT CLUB Will meet at the Temperance Hall, on
