

BY AUTHORITY.
LAWS OF THE UNITED STATES
Passed during the First Session of the Thirty-third Congress.
[Public Act—No. 56.]
AN ACT making appropriations for the service of the Post Office Department during the fiscal year ending the thirtieth of June, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, and for other purposes.
Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled: That the following sums be and the same are hereby appropriated for the service of the Post Office Department, for the year ending the thirtieth of June, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, out of any moneys in the treasury arising from the revenues of the said Department, in conformity to the act of the second of July, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, and for other purposes, to-wit:
For transportation of the mails, four million one hundred thousand dollars.
For compensation to postmasters, including the additional compensation authorized by the sixth section of the act of March 3, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, and for postage, approved the rates of postage, approved the third of March, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, two million two hundred and fifty thousand dollars.
For compensation to postmasters, being the difference between the sum of one million eight hundred and seventy-five thousand dollars, appropriated for the fiscal year ending the thirtieth of June one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, and the estimated amount of their compensation for the same year, including the additional allowances authorized by the sixth section of the act of March 3, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, reducing the rate of postage, one hundred and forty-seven thousand dollars.
For clerks in the offices of postmasters, four hundred and thirty thousand dollars.
For ship, steamboat, and way letters, forty thousand dollars.
For wrapping paper, forty thousand dollars.
For office furniture for the offices of postmasters, nine thousand dollars.
For advertising, seventy thousand dollars.
For mail bags, fifty thousand dollars.
For mail boxes, keys, and stamps, ten thousand dollars.
For mail depredations and special agents, forty-five thousand dollars: Also twenty-five hundred dollars, out of which the Postmaster General is directed to pay sixteen hundred and sixty-six dollars and sixty-six cents to the late Assistant Postmaster General, for his services performed by direction of the Postmaster General subsequent to the first of April, eighteen hundred and fifty-one, when his resignation took effect, in the organization of the mail service in California, approved by the joint resolution to legalize certain contracts for the transportation of the mails in California and Oregon, approved January the thirtieth, eighteen hundred and fifty-two, and the residue, or so much thereof as may be necessary to be applied to the discharge of the said services.
For miscellaneous items, ninety thousand dollars.
For postage stamps, twenty thousand dollars.
For the publication of twenty-five thousand copies of the laws and regulations of the Post Office Department, and for arrears on the table of the post offices, seven thousand dollars.
To enable the Postmaster General to contract for the transporting the mail by steamboat from the Lake Hills to New Orleans, on the route six thousand one hundred and sixteen, from Donaldsonville to Washington, in the State of Louisiana, seven thousand dollars.
Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That the Postmaster General be, and he is hereby authorized, whenever he shall deem it discreet, to dispense with the route agents now sent by the mails from New York to California, and in lieu thereof to appoint not more than two resident agents to take charge of the mail services across the Isthmus of Panama, and to allow said agents for salary and personal expenses not exceeding three thousand dollars per year for each of such agents, which shall be paid out of the amount annually appropriated for the transportation of the mails.
Sec. 3. And be it further enacted, That the salary of the route agents be, and the same is hereby increased to one thousand dollars per annum.
Sec. 4. And be it further enacted, That the Postmaster General be, and he is hereby authorized, if he shall deem it proper, to advertise for and establish service upon the regular mail routes between New Orleans and certain Gulf ports of Florida.
Sec. 5. And be it further enacted, That the Postmaster General be authorized to contract with the Ocean Steam Navigation Company for one additional trip on the Havre line, and one additional on the Bremen line, until the expiration of their existing contract, receiving and delivering mails at Southampton, Coves, or Plymouth, as the Postmaster General may direct, according to such schedule as shall be prescribed by the Postmaster General, in order thereby to maintain through such lines, and the Collins line, a regular weekly communication by American mail steamers to the United States from the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland; but the compensation for such additional trips shall not exceed the compensation allowed for each trip under the said existing contract: And provided, further, That the Postmaster General shall be, and he is hereby authorized, in his discretion, to negotiate with the contractors for changing the terminus of the Havre line from Havre to Antwerp, in Belgium, and to make an arrangement for such change, if he shall think proper; but the increased compensation to be allowed for such change shall be limited to a pro rata allowance for the increased distance.
Sec. 6. And be it further enacted, That the bridges across the Ohio river at Wheeling, in the State of Virginia, and at Newburgh, in the State of Ohio, abutting on Zane's Island, and on the United States, be and they are hereby declared to be lawful structures in their present position and location, and shall be so held and taken to be, any thing in law or laws of the United States to the contrary notwithstanding.
Sec. 7. And be it further enacted, That the said bridges be declared to be and are established post roads for the passage of the mails of the United States, and that the Wheeling and Belmont Bridge Company be authorized to have and maintain their said bridges and their present site and location, and the officers and crew of all vessels and boats navigating said river be required to regulate the use of their said vessels and boats, and of any pipes or chimneys belonging thereto, so as not to interfere with the elevation and construction of said bridges.

$25 REWARD.
RAN off from the subscriber on Monday night the 6th inst., my negro man FRANK. He is about 21 years old, and is about six feet high, of a copper complexion, large frame, and carries himself very erect when walking; and upon the whole, very likely. He is supposed to have worn off a Kentucky Jeans Sack Coat. I think he is making his way to some free state, and probably with some white man. I will pay the above reward to any person who will take him up and confine him in any jail so that I get him again. Any person who may take him up can give me information by writing to me at Lexington, Davidson county, North Carolina.

$20 REWARD.
STOLEN from me in Salisbury, on the 1st September, a fine large Gold Watch, Liverpool lever, Jos. Johnston maker, No. 2945 or 1440, I think the former. The face was gold with green hands, and had a gold fold chain with long links joined by very short broad links, terminating in a large opening. Any one returning or giving information so that I get it, shall receive the above reward, it being an old family piece.

MR. ADAM HARRIS, Assistant Surgeon U. S. Navy Hospital, New York, says:—Dr. Rogers' Liverwort and Tar cured a case of the most distressing Asthma of twenty-six years standing [Signed] ADAM HARRIS.
GABRIEL WHITEHEAD, Esq., of Cincinnati, says:—I had the Consumption! attended with the most distressing Cough, and discharged several quarts of blood from the Lungs, and all my friends and physicians gave me up; yet a few bottles of Dr. Rogers' Liverwort and Tar restored me to perfect health!
[Signed] GABRIEL WHITEHEAD.
Sworn to and subscribed this 28th day of November, 1846.
HENRY E. SPENCER, Mayor of Cincinnati.
Mrs. CHILD (resides on Sixth street, two doors west of Smith, Cincinnati) says: I had the pulmonary Consumption, attended with a most distressing cough, which reduced me to a mere skeleton, and although under the care of an able physician (Prof. Harrison) I continued to grow worse, and gave up all hopes of recovery! At this crisis I was persuaded to try Dr. Rogers' Liverwort and Tar, which entirely healed my lungs and restored me to perfect health!
[Signed] ANN CHILD.
Dr. WILLIAM RICHARDS, of Cincinnati, says:—Although it may seem unprofessional, I feel constrained to state that I used Dr. Rogers' Liverwort and Tar in the case of Charles Wade, who was quite low with Pulmonary Consumption, with the happiest effect, after the usual remedies had failed.
[Signed] WM. RICHARDS, M. D.

BARGAINS!! BARGAINS!!!
THE subscriber offers for sale his BRICK HOUSE and LOT in the town of Salisbury, on Main street, one door above the Watchman Office. The house is large and convenient for a Boarding House; it contains seven rooms and a pass-way above and below, with a fire place in each room, and two large cellars with a fire place in one of them. The lot is large and runs back the whole depth of the square, which makes it convenient for building purposes.
The subscriber also offers for sale two valuable small Plantations, one of them contains 100 Acres, lying on the road leading from Salisbury to Hick's Ferry, (formerly Chamber's Ferry) four miles from Salisbury, on which there is a first rate orchard, very large and of choice fruit, and a beautiful situation, and one of the healthiest places in the country; the land is well tilled, and is well adapted to Cotton and all the grains, and is within a quarter of a mile of the Rail Road; there is about forty acres cleared land on this place. The other plantation, 140 Acres, lies within 3 1/2 miles of the town of Salisbury, and is one of the most convenient places in the county—the land is very free and productive, and is well watered; the land is all fresh, and so arranged that every field can be pastured, and it can't be beat for that purpose: it has a most excellent Meadow on it, well set with herd grass, and is well adapted for tobacco and cotton, and can't be beat for all the various grains, &c. Both of these places can be had with the crops on them, together with a handsome stock of young Cattle, Hogs, and Farming Tools. Those wishing to buy will please to call on the subscriber at his residence four miles from Salisbury, on the road leading to Hick's Ferry. Persons wishing to buy would do well to call soon, as the only object he has in offering his property for sale is to go to the South on account of his health. Both of these places are in one mile of each other, and the Central Rail Road runs near midway between them. Good Mills and Market for timber handy.
P. S. In the last mentioned tract, there is about forty-five acres cleared.

Grand Master's Office of the Grand Lodge of the State of N. Carolina.
NEWBURN, April 19, 1852.
TO the MASONIC FRATERNITY in North Carolina:—At the last communication of the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge it was Resolved, That each Mason in the State, both resident and active, be, and he is hereby most earnestly requested by the Grand Lodge of North Carolina to transmit, as soon as possible, to Brother A. T. Jenkins of Newburn, C. W. D. Hutchins, of Raleigh, William Swain, of Greensboro, or E. Myers, of Salisbury, as may be most convenient, the sum of $5, more or less, for the speedy erection of St. John's College, the receipt whereof will be weekly announced in the papers published in the aforementioned places.
Brethren, with confidence of success, I appeal to your liberality in behalf of this enterprise, the importance of which has been fully established by the Grand Lodge, and the general concurrence of the Brethren throughout the State. While enough has already been done to encourage the hope of success, and evince its entire practicability, much yet remains to be done to render this success certain, and even to prosecute unremittingly the measures already commenced. And yet it is confidently believed, that the aid which you are able to render will be amply sufficient to accomplish all this, and that speedily. Upon your action then, as Masons, depends the success of an enterprise which promises the richest benefits to the cause of Masonry and of humanity in general. Some of our Lodges have contributed promptly and nobly to this work, and we only ask your careful consideration of the subject, convinced as we are, that nothing more is needed to secure your cordial co-operation in a favorable and early response to this appeal. Remember that in this as in every other social movement, harmony is its strength and support. I am Respectfully and Fraternalty yours,

LEATHER BANDS.
THE subscriber has put up machinery for stretch rivets. The bands are stretched with powerful machines, made expressly for that purpose, and the difficulty of bands stretching and ripping under the common way of making them, is entirely removed by this process. Bands made in this way will hold their width evenly, run true, and have a uniform bearing on the drum or pulley, and will give from 15 to 20 per cent. more power than those made in the ordinary way.—They are made out of the best selected oak tanned Spanish Leather, and no pains will be spared to make them equal to the best Northern bands, and will be sold as low as they can be brought in New York.
Bands will be kept for sale by J. G. Cairns, at the Salisbury Factory.
