The Boston Courier, ever on the side of the Constitution, has a good article under a would be regarded by the Govern. the above head, which we wish we had room to copy. The object is to induce the British public to look at home, and not to be so deplorably afflicted at the fate of "Uncle Tom," the ideal hero of a wicked and mischiefous romance, while certain scenes are enacted in England under the of crimes reproved by morality, on noble nose of the Duchess of Sutherland and the other nobles noses of the Aristocracy, whose late doings in regard to the slavery question we noticed last week.

The Courier says: "It happens that at the very moment in which these high born ladies were telling the world how deeply scandalized they felt at the condition of the negroes in America, there took place a scene, -common enough in England, which we shall describe by the following extract from an English paper :-

Occurrences of this sort happen, as already remarknumber of the Chamber of Deputies ed, not unfrequently, and we do not find Bleach deputy to be appointed by that any indignation is felt, or any rebuke expressed, by spectators or neighbors, at such brutality. > " A Box."-The concord Democrat tells the following story:

Gen. Pierce, the President elect, a few days since, received a suspicious looking box, per Chensy's Express from the West. Supposing from his exalted position that the of October last, when about se some wicked Whig or fanatical abolition. mymiles from Tripoli, on her passage ist" might be plotting his destruction he very naturally regarded this as an infernal machine, intended to land him in glory before his time. Not feeling any great partiality for such an apotheosis, he ordered this new Pandora's box to be stowed away in the barn, "unsight, unseen," and forbade any one to go near it. Thus it remained some days, until one Sunday, when nobody was at home save Mr. W., the General's boarding master, who being exercised there to by courageous and laudable curiosity, determined to solve the "infernal mystery." Accordingly seizing a long handled axe and placing himself at a rational distance, he hurled the iron weapon with full fury into the box. After waiting in breathless expectation for the "machine" to explode, Mr. W. approached it and discovered (horrible dictu!) two brace of remarkably fat ducks and a haunch of venison, sent to the President elect by an admiring friend in Cincinnati, with a note accompanying, desiring to be remembered in the division of the spoils! We need only add, that the only thing "infernal" about the "machine" was an inodorous smell-for which the reverent disciple of his majesty was in no way responsible.

ACCIDENT TO THE PRESIDENT ELECT. It is with deep regret that we hear of a sad calamity which yesterday befell the Family of the President Elect of the United States. The particulars of this lamentable event, as communicated by Telegraph, are, that Mr. and Mrs. Pierce, accompanied by their only Son, from 10 to 12 years of age, were passengers in a trian of cars upon the Boston and Maine railroad, when, by the breaking of an axle near Andover, the car which they occupied was thrown off the track, and precipitated down an embankment some twenty teet, turning a complete summerset in its course, and falling upon a pile of rocks .-The car was smashed to pieces; the Son of Gen. Pierce was killed upon the spot; Mrs. Pierce was severely though not fatally injured and six or eight other persons who were more or less hurt. Gen. Pierce escaped with

This terrible visitation is the more deplorable, as the fine boy thus so suddenly snatched from life was the single remaining one of the only three children with which the afflicted parents have been blessed. The whole country, we are sure, will deeply sympathize in their bereavement, whilst it will rejoice that the parents themselves were preserved from the same terrible fate. Nat. The bands are stretched with powerful machines, made expressly for that purpose, and the difficulty of bands stretching and ripping under the common way of making them, is entirely removed by this process. Bands made in this way will hold their widsh evenly, run true, and have a uniform bearing on the drum or pulley, and will give from 15 to 20 per cent. more power than those made in the ordinary way .-They are made out of the best selected oak tanned Spanished Leather, and no pains will be spared to make them equal to the best Northern bands, and will be sold as low as they can be brought in New York.
