"THE SPIRIT WORLD." The above is the name of a newspaper published at St. Louis, Mo., the first num-ber of which we have received. It professes to be devoted to the dissemination of light on spiritual intercourse, and contains many articles purporting to come from spirits. Now we will not deny that spirits somestimes have a good deal to do with newspaper articles, as well as other liferary effusions, but these are classed by the distinctive epithet of ardent. We believe that Lord Byron-wrote some of his. best poetry under the influence of the bot. Are now receiving their Fall and Winter tle. We have never heard that he had a small Asmodeus corked up, from whom he drew his inspirations, and are therefore bound to believe that he had recourse to quite another source. But the "Spirit World" claims a communion with the ghosts of the departed, and professes to convey to the world their revelations .-We find in the number under considera tion a long communication purporting to come from the spirit of Thomas Jefferson. The buiden of this and other articles seems to be an open attack upon the Chris tian Religion. Slavery also comes in for a share of their hostility. If lofidelity can find no better way of attacking the Christian Religion than through such transparent subterfuges as these wretched at tempts reveal, then we need have no lears but the latter will ever be overcome by the former. The mischief is that though the tricks of these spiritual media fail to have any effect on people of sense, there is nevertheless a class of weak persons who are liable to be influenced by them. By this class we suppose that the "Spirit World" is supported. It is a little remarkable that the spirit of Thomas Jefferson. in an article of three columns length, should be unable to advance anything Susy is "my young love's dream." - new or useful, notwithstanding his expe-Her daddy lives twenty miles. The following is from the pen of Win. H Levison. Esq., the distinguished editor of the U.S. Military and Naval Argus, under date New York, January 26, 1850. What could be more conclusive !

" It is seldom we permit ourselves to occupy a space patent medicine way; but when we see the life of a fellow creature saved by the use of any medicine whatever, we consider as our right, if not our duty, to give a simple statement of facts, that others may, in like only. manner, be benefitted. The case which has induced us to pen this atticle was that of a young lady of our acquainfance, who by frequent exposure to the night ar contracted a Cold which settled on the Lungs before its ravages could be stayed. This occurred two years ago this winter) Various remedies were used, but with very little effect or benefit. The Cough grew worse, with copious expectoration, and the sunken eye, and pale, hollow cheek, told plainly that pulmonary disease was doing its worst on her delicate frame. The family physician was consulted, and although he would not was perfectly cured in less than three months by this medicine alone, after even hope was destroyed. useless to comment on such a case as this, for the simple truth will reach where polished fiction never can. -If any doubt the authenticity of this statement, let them call at this office .- U. LEATHER BANDS.

THE subscriber has put up machinery for stretch hig, cementing and riveting bands with copper rivers. The bands are stretched with powerful machines, made expressly for that purpose, and the difficuity of bands stretching and ripping under the common way of making them, is entirely removed by this process. Bands made in this way will hold their width evenly, run true, and have a uniform bearing on the drum of polley, and will give from 15 to 90 per cent. nore power than those made in the ordinary way -They are made out of the best selected oak tanned Spanished Leather, and no pains will be spared to make them equal to the best Northern bands, and will be sold as low as they can be brought in New York.
