For the Watchman.

Mr. Enquirer:—In our happy land of freedom and equal rights, I hope it will not be thought presuming in a plain citizen and hard laborer, to ask a place in your columns.

As the course of my business has thrown me sometimes in the walks of high life, and a great deal among the hard working classes like myself, I have thought some about the advantages and necessities of each, and of the waste of the community in general.

Being a Republican of the old school, I have every confidence in the ability of the sovereign people for self-government; Provided they are virtuous and intelligent. Such a people will conduct a government, with the calmness, moderation, self-restraint and dignity, befitting a sovereign; yet, Mr. Editor, in the same spirit of freedom, which is the pride and boast of every patriotic American, I am ready as one of the sovereignty of millions, to confess and proclaim that we may do wrong. We may in the pride of our strength and glory, forget the fate of other great Republics that have done wrong!

It is even possible that "E Pluebus Unum," may be leveled to the dust; and we are ready to exclaim, can it be possible that disheartened Patriots, will at last, in bitterness of soul, lament our fall! and Monarchs in derision, say—

"Oh! who would wish to rule
This changeling crowd, this common fool!
* * * * * *
Thou many-headed monster thing,
Oh, who would wish to be thy King!"

My heart says it will not be so; and yet our fathers have said, that Eternal Vigilance is the price of Liberty. This, as I understand it, means that we, the sovereign people, must keep a close watch over ourselves and our rulers.

With the view, Mr. Editor, of bringing to the notice of our people, and our rulers, and especially of our Governor, some of the faults, and some of the wants of the community; I will be obliged to you for an introduction to Governor Reid, and also to the next Governor elect, (Whig or Democrat it matters not,) as I intend, if you are willing, to write them a short letter by you now and then, as I may get time from other engagements.

I am "Jonathan Upping," distantly related to Jack Downing, and possessing upward and downward tendencies. Although not half so smart as cousin Jack, I shall endeavor to look at things up one side and down the other, avoiding all party issues and prejudices, and if any thing lame or ugly shall appear, I now assure all good citizens, that I will not indulge in the slightest personality. I shall send my first letter to the Governor very soon.

JONATHAN UPPING.

Uppington, May 1, 1854.

DEAR GOVERNOR:—Recollecting the great services rendered to the President by my cousin Jack Downing, though a plain man like myself, and considering the great responsibility, and the arduous duties of the office of Governor of N. Carolina, I have taken a fancy that I could be of service to you.

Now, Dear Governor, I don't propose to assist you in writing your Message, as cousin Jack did the President. I would not be so presuming. Neither will I undertake to discuss politics as Jack did, for he was a very long-headed man in that way, and could talk like a book to Gen. Jackson about all the great men and great doings on this side of the ocean, and on the other side too. I am sorry to say too, that I did not inherit much of cousin Jack's wit; but there is not much use for that in the affairs of government. Jack was also a man of capacious mind, though tolerably free from that over-grown Philanthropy—which has become the ruling passion with too many of our plain Republicans, who, boasting their freedom from the restraints of Foreign Government, would like, nevertheless, to be heard in foreign Courts, and for the better protection of all Nations, would like to say the whole unbounded Hemisphere is ours. In the blaze of political glorification they habitually overlook the real solid interests of their country, and the wants and comforts of Home.

Now, I feel sure, Governor, that you, as the great Father of a great State, would like to be acquainted with the true condition of your children's affairs every where, and of all classes, and that you would like to see all and each of your children just as happy as any other Governor's children.

Now, Dear Governor, if you will fly round a little even among our sister States, you will upon a careful comparison, be surprised to see how most of them, although less favored by nature, have gone ahead of us in providing for their people the means of intelligence, wealth and comfort. North, South, East, and West of us, the busy, rushing tides of prosperity, have been carried to their utmost borders by energetic, judicious State improvements. And when you behold the bright and cheerful faces that throng these tides, you will feel for the time in a good humor with yourself and every body else. But then, when you return to behold our good old State—a fair and fertile Land—full of natural resources; and find your children, many of them, so unused to such blessings, as to be almost insensible to their value, I am sure you would feel very sad! And when you look around upon the more enterprising ones, contending against all disadvantages, especially those in the rich Mountain Valleys of our Western counties, and who are subject to a desperate heart-ache every Autumn upon seeing their superabundant crops, rotting on hand, I am sure, Governor, it would give you the heart ache too! All this is owing to the onerous taxes paid upon bad roads, and to our miserable mud-boats of four horse power with two drivers, and which, with a freight of 3000 pounds or less, draw 6 to 18 inches of mud, and travel at the rate of 1 to 2 miles per hour! While these, your children of the up country, are thinking all the while how comfortable these good things would be to your children in the low country,—they too, sigh in vain for the health-giving breezes of the Mountains, which Providence intended as a joint inheritance for all your children.

The fact is, dear Governor, I am not sure but the hearts of many of your children will break if something is not done soon; which I know would cause the big drops of grief to course down your cheeks, and your great bosom to swell with the sorrows of your people! But don't feel too sorry now Governor, for you know when things get as bad as they can get, they are most sure to get a little better. Necessity sharpens the wits, and points out the remedy; which you will no doubt find as soon as you get a little respite from the weightier matters of State policy, the "interests of party," and our foreign relations, which we common people don't feel much interest in except when called to do the fighting! This you know we have always done well in defence of our rights. But Governor, if we should quit all the good works that lie before us in our State, and which are necessary for the well-being and comfort of your children, and go abroad to help manage the affairs of Foreigners; I fear the next pages of our history will not be such as your grand-children will read with the same delight that we read the deeds of our fathers.

Now it does appear plain to my mind, Governor, that there are duties incumbent upon us much more pleasing in their character! First of all, seeing the errors of our fathers, we should begin to mend up the waste places they have made; and instead of dreaming about new homesteads in the West, and in foreign lands; let us go to work in good earnest to dress up, and make new the beautiful old homesteads which our fathers have left, and to educate the poor and ignorant children which they have neglected.

Ere long many of our people will return to the good old Fatherland; and we can find room too, for a host of Foreigners. And don't you think, Governor, that we can do more for them here with less risk and trouble? and that our example and influence at home, would do more to regulate Foreign Affairs as we want them regulated. It would be done so peaceably and cheap too!

He who provideth not for his own household is worse than an Infidel, and it is because I think you have a parental regard for your children, that I have undertaken now, while we are waking from past slumbers, to give you, in a short letter occasionally, an expression of our warm heart's desires; and also, in the liberty of a free man, to point out some of our past and present errors. For, Governor, we ought to keep in mind the lamentable fact, that we, the sovereign people, can do wrong sometimes!!! Nothing more at present.

JONATHAN UPPING.

NORTH CAROLINA EDITION.

MITCHELL'S
Intermediate Geography.

Cowperthwait, Desilver & Butler,
Booksellers & Publishers, 253 Market St., Phila.

HAVE the pleasure of announcing as now ready, the North Carolina Edition of Mitchell's Intermediate Geography. This work contains, in one book, quarto form, a description of the present state of the world, and its five great divisions, America, Europe, Asia, Africa, and Oceanica, with their several Empires, Kingdoms, States, Territories, &c., illustrated by more than 40 colored Maps, and numerous wood cut Engravings.

The North Carolina matter of the work was prepared expressly for the use of the Schools of the State, by C. H. Wiley, Esq., State School Superintendent. This part of the work is illustrated by several fine wood Engravings, and by a large and very excellent Map of the State, colored in counties, and exhibiting clearly and faithfully, all the new Counties, Railroad Lines, &c. &c. Full and interesting Statistics of the State are given according to the census of 1850, and no pains have been spared to make the Work valuable, not only as a school-book but for general use in families.

The entire work is unquestionably the most convenient and reliable geographical manual now published.

It may be obtained of the publishers in Philadelphia; of H. D. Turner, and W. L. Pomeroy, of Raleigh; of E. W. Ogburn, Greensborough; of Cushings & Bailey, Baltimore; of McCarter & Co., and E. H. Lane, Charleston; and of booksellers generally.

HARNESS, LEATHER, &c.
BROWN & HAYNES,

WOULD CALL THE ATTENTION OF THEIR Customers to their splendid Stock of Harness, Leather, Boots, Shoes, &c., which they have been, and still are manufacturing. It is not necessary to State about their getting Mounting, Leathers, &c., from the North, as every body knows that has to be done in order to carry on the business, but all they would ask is a fair trial.

They thank the people for the patronage they have shown them, and by a continuance of the same they will try to please.

A NEW BROOM SWEEPS CLEAN.

THE subscriber having purchased the entire interest of Jno. A. Weirman, in the Tailoring Business, would take this opportunity of informing his friends and the public generally, that he may now be found at his Shop, over the Post Office, ready to execute all orders in his line with neatness and despatch. Man's exterior being his study, deficiency in shape and size become no obstacle to grace and beauty. To all we say, don't take our word, but give us a trial. Charges moderate.

Jno. A. Weirman, the former proprietor, can now be found at this Establishment in the capacity of Cutter, he being sufficiently known in that character, it is needless to say anything of his qualifications.
