low cost, and long enough for us give you notice and to building a branch for your section. If so, should not all parties discard sectional feelings, log-rolling and restrictions, as other States have done, and harmonize all interests in a general system worthy of a great State, possessing more Agricultural and mineral wealth than any of her Southern Atlantic sisters.

What say you to a Rousing Convention at Salisbury, and also at Charlotte, some time early in the Fall. WM. A. LENOIR.

Fort Defiance, June 8, 1854.

FOR THE WATCHMAN.

We protest against the assertion that "The age of chivalry is gone,"—that woman is left untutored,—or that she is the flower that "wastes its sweetness on the desert air." We are happy in the recognition of the directly opposite in this age, and especially in this State, which, as the good and the patriotic cannot but have observed, is effecting the development of woman's true character, and assigning to her a position where she can exert her beneficial influence.

And apropos to the above as an instance, the village of Statesville on the 9th instant, manifested an heart-felt interest in the education and refinement of the female sex in that part of the State. The closing exercises of Statesville Female Academy, under the supervision of Miss C. McLEAN, acted as a pleasing relaxation from the stale realities of life; and certainly many were benefitted by the new vigor and activity produced by the occasion. The correct scholarship of the pupils, which was evinced during that day by a rigid and critical examination in their studies, gave delight and satisfaction to all. Much credit was given by many to the excellent Instructress for her care and attention to the young ladies under her charge. The performances of that day, so ably executed, will not be soon forgotten. At night the exercises were of such interest as to prevent us in the attempt at a description. It was a combination of the useful with the beautiful in life; an union of the rigid mental, with the more genial exercises of the heart;—in fine, "a feast of reason and a flow of soul." And who can forget the "good-bye" scene! and those words so full of tenderness and of esteem expressed by Miss McLean to her pupils, and who had manifested their attachment to her by an appropriate present! The sentiments contained in that address are so pure, the expressions so truthful, and the whole so characteristic of the person, that we submit it to the perusal of those who were not privileged to hear it.

MY DEAR PUPILS:—I cannot think of separating from you without addressing to you a few words ere we part. How swiftly have the moments glided away since we first welcomed you to our circle! Time, that tarries not, has fled as on eagle's wings, and the present moment finds us on the eve of bidding you—adieu!

My heart swells with gratitude to you for permitting me the happy privilege of saying to you, parents and guardians, that your department has been such as to make my burden pleasant and comparatively easy. As a little band of sisters you have been actuated by the same motives, and your thoughts and feelings thus running in the same channel while attaining the same object, you have added happiness to your own bosoms as well as mine. As your teacher, I have made your welfare the object of all my thoughts, and none but a teacher can appreciate the joy I felt in seeing your improvement. But more obstacles you must encounter before you can become thorough scholars, and here let me suggest to you a few thoughts relative to your future advancement in your studies. In any work never say, "I can't"—but let the language of your resolute hearts be "I'll try," and a bright future will beam upon you. You must not think that as Females are not privileged to vote, hold offices, legislate and to command armies, that their education should be limited; and that they need only a few accomplishments for their sphere! Far from it! Wherever the seeds of Christianity have been sown, there, it is acknowledged that our sex is not feeble,—not subject to man as slaves, neither, on the other hand, only to be gazed at and admired. But we were placed here to moralize as well as adorn the world,—to properly fit ourselves by education for the sphere in which God designed us, to labor and be useful. Then the world will require of you a cultivated mind and a taste which has kept pace with the growing age.

These things are important,— but I, as your counsellor, would entreat you to aim not merely to mental culture and attainments to the neglect of the pious improvement of the heart. I beseech you, dear girls! before you go from under my care, now while blooming in youth, not to forget that "life is but a span," and to impress upon your minds the words of the wisest of men:—"Remember your Creator in the days of your youth," and take the Bible as your guide, and it will prove a sweet and unfailing solace amid the cares of life.

And now, I would gladly express the deep emotions of gratitude I feel for you in thus presenting to me, as a token of your love, this Album—this bright casket, to be filled with "gems of purest ray serene,"—this case, to shine with flowers which cannot fade and will not wither away. Happy am I with this expression of your esteem, and it will be the fount from which shall flow bright waters to gladden the garden of my heart. Peace, joy and happiness be yours, my dear pupils! for this kind action! But the time has come when we must part.—Your presence will be missed, and your bright faces be yearned for, yet for your pleasure we subdue our wish, and say, "Return fair girls to friends and home!" And my heart wishes you a merry vacation and memorable joys;—then after your holy-days are spent, we will be happy to have you join us again—not only myself, but all our little village will bid you

"Welcome to our hearts again."

The great satisfaction from this public exhibition of the progress of the pupils, should elicit a generous patronage from many who live in the county, which, we trust, will be the result. In this time of moral reform in our State, parents and guardians should consider that the proper cultivation of the youthful mind is the prelude to inconceivably beneficent results yet to be accomplished. A VISITOR.

For the Watchman.

The following Preamble and Resolutions were adopted by the Grand Section of Cadets, which convened at Statesville, N. C., June 13th, 1854.

WHEREAS, The time has arrived, when the friends of Temperance throughout the State of North Carolina, are loudly called upon to take a decided stand in reference to a Prohibitory Law, therefore:

1. Resolved, That the Grand Section of Cadets of North Carolina, earnestly desiring the prosperity of the young in time, and their happy immortality in eternity, enjoin upon all its members and friends, their hearty co-operation in procuring the passage of such a Law.

2. Resolved, That unwavering integrity and uncompromising fidelity are the only sure guarantees of ultimate success in the propagation of our principles, and that we pledge our "aid and comfort," as far as in us lies, to the advocates of Prohibition.

3. Resolved, That we will not countenance those who profess to be our friends, but support in any thing inimical against Legislative enactment.

4. Resolved, That should this Legislative session decide to disregard our petition, we pledge ourselves to work even to the inhabitants of the good "Old North State," until we shall be privileged to vote, we will see to it, that our first votes are cast on the right side.

5. Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the Spirit of the Age, Ballot Box and Carolina Watchman and their publications requested.

POSTAGE RATES.

The effort to modify the rates of postage has failed. Better let the matter alone.

Cholera in New York.—There were fifty-five deaths from Cholera in New York last week. A special meeting of the Board of Health was called for yesterday, to take into consideration the state of affairs, and to devise measures to prevent the extension of the disease.

Negro Stampede.—Forty negroes out of fifty employed by one of the contractors on the Clarksville and Ridgeway Railroad ran off, on Sunday last, near Lynesville, North Carolina, and have not since been heard of.

Death of Mrs. Andrew.—We regret to learn that Mrs. Andrew, wife of Bishop Andrew, died in Oxford, Georgia, a few days since, and that Mrs. Dr. Means was at the same time lying in a very critical state.

Fine times in our county of Guilford! Only one candidate out for the Legislature, only one out for Sheriff, and nobody in jail!—Greensa. Patriot.

NEW YORK WHEAT CROP.—The Buffalo Courier says: "from what we have been able to gather from the press of this State, there is little room for doubt that the grain crop of New York will be equal to, if it does not exceed, that of any other year.

ANTI-NEBRASKA FEELING IN INDIANA.

BALTIMORE, June 15.

A large Democratic Anti-Nebraska meeting was held at Madison, Indiana, on Wednesday.

The resolutions of the Indiana, Democratic State Convention repudiate the Massachusetts Convention, called for the 13th of July.

Senator Petitt was hissed at Lafayette, Indiana, in attempting to address the people on the Nebraska Bill, and in consequence of the confusion no resolutions were put to the vote.

ESCAPE OF SLAVES FROM KENTUCKY.

BALTIMORE, June 15.

Twenty-three slaves escaped from Grant County, Kentucky, on Tuesday night, and took passage for Canada. Nine fugitives from Boone County had also arrived at Cincinnati.

The Life and Speeches of Henry Clay.

With a Portrait, and a View of the Birth-place of Mr. CLAY: in one handsome large size volume of 1300 pages, beautifully bound in cloth gilt. Price only three dollars! or bound in two volumes cloth, gilt, $2 50!

THE work herein presented is intended to trace clearly the career of Mr. Clay, from his entrance upon the stage of public life, down to the period of his death—mainly by the light of his lofty and persuasive and impassioned eloquence. Mr. Clay's parliamentary efforts, clear, direct and vigorous, embody all the illustration that is needful to their full understanding—the great importance, variety and indestructible interest of the topics he discussed—the character and ability of the orator, the direct and exact bearing of arguments on the controversies and interests of the times—all combine to render his speeches among the most valuable contributions of patriotism and genius to that enlightenment and genius of the American people.

SPECTACLES

Adjusted to Defective Sights upon Unerring Scientific Principles.

THE SUBSCRIBERS will visit SALISBURY about the 15th of July, when persons suffering from defective vision proceeding from any cause whatever, can have Glasses applied upon sound philosophical principles, which will not only improve vision, but will also preserve the sight from injury by constant reading or writing.

The citizens of Salisbury and the surrounding country will do well to call on the subscribers at an early day, as their stay must be limited and such an opportunity seldom offers.

REMOVAL.

NEW GOODS

AND

NEW STORE.

J. D. BROWN & LEMLY,

WOULD Respectfully announce to the public, that they have removed to NO. 2, in the GRANITE BUILDING, where they have a very large and handsomely fitted up Store Room, and are now receiving from New York and Philadelphia, their

SPRING AND SUMMER

STOCK OF GOODS,

which is the most varied and complete stock of Staple and Fancy Dry Goods, that we have ever offered to the public. We have the greatest variety of Ladies' Dress Goods and Gentlemen's wear of the best and most fashionable styles. Our Stock is too numerous to give in detail; we invite the attention of the Ladies to our stock of EMBROIDERIES, Crape de Paris, Shuffys, Embroideries, Mantillas, Ribbons, Bonnets, Shoes, Embroidered Pocket Handkerchiefs. We also invite the Gentlemen's attention to our stock of Cloths, Cassimeres, Vestings, Stocks, Cravats, Shirts and Collars, fine Pump Sole Boots and Shoes, Hats, and the finest lot of in the market. We hope all who want Goods, will give us a call, as we will spare no pains to show goods, and never get offended if they do not suit.

We would here render our thanks to the public, for the very liberal patronage that we have received since we have been in business, and we hope to continue to merit the confidence of our customers. All we want is a trial—give us a call, and you will be pleased.

J. D. BROWN & LEMLY.

Salisbury, April 6, 1854. 46

P. S. We have a remnant of Hardware, such as Shovels and Hoes, and also Crockery, which we will sell lower than they can be bought elsewhere, as we want to get out of the trade, and give our attention entirely to the Dry Goods.

J. D. B. & LEMLY.
