To JIBBIE of A.

To thy fair brow I oft would turn
Ah! who would not, the chief'd by age lee
For 'mid its snow radiant arches burn
Bright orbs to gild the heart's page.

Who has not felt the fiery thrill
That lights the chambers of the soul,
Where'er the eyes their beaging fill,
On some fair form from beauty's mould.

The eyes may drink the starry light
That floats in ether's calmest day;
The soul may wander in its flight
And pluck ambrosial sweets away;

And sip from yonder fair blue skies,
The nectar sweets that in them float;
And on some wings of glory rise
Where angels strike their highest note.

But give, oh! give to me to know
That there's a heart that throbs with mine,
And all the changes here below
Will never wrest my fate from thine.

THE DINNER TO THE MINISTER.

The schooner Jno. A. Taylor, just arrived from Havana, brought us the following note from our attentive correspondent on board the United States steamer Princeton:

NAVANA, Nov. 9th, 1854.

We arrived here after rather a rough passage, all well, except Mr. Minister Wheeler, who shipped several seas on the voyage, but who crawled out just before entering the harbor. On "casting up his accounts," he found a large balance against him. However, as we steamed up, he hid the same, and we came to anchor in good spirits.

It soon became known that we had a live Minister on a board, and as it was ascertained that he was not a Minister of pious, but of secular affairs, a general commotion was visible throughout the city.—The military turned out, and we saw more volantes than you ever dreamed of—the girls looked inquiringly through the grated windows as we passed, and two men were taken out and garoted. Sky-rockets were let off at night, oranges and bananas (very fine ones) were sold dirt cheap—in short, the Habaneros knew that an event had taken place; and as for the Captain General, he determined to be up to the occasion.

We were all in the cabin of the Princeton enjoying a social glass of nip-cat, when the boson's whistle announced that somebody or other was coming aboard.—It proved to be Don Castilanos Hittemintheeyebim, with invitations from the Captain General, Don Jose de in Concha, to Minister Wheeler, Capt. Engle, and Davenport, to dine at the Imperial Palace next day. Invitations accepted of course. The Minister's was as follows:

IMPERIAL PALACE, Nov. 7th, 1854.

Don Jose de la Concha, Capt. General of the Island of Cuba, Knight of the Three Crowns, member of the Cortes, &c., &c., is delighted to hear of the arrival in Havanna of Mr. Wheeler, U. S. Minister to Nicaragua, and would be highly honored if His Excellency would take pot luck with him to-morrow, at 4 P. M. Cards of invitation for a few guest only, have been issued, viz—to Captain Engle, Consul Robertson, Don Pedro Pizzerinetum, Don Kuskardelar Kataxs, and one or two others.

God and Liberty,
CONCHA.

The party, preceded by the Imperial band playing "Lubly Fan, can't you come out to-night?"—with variations, in due season arrived at the Palace. They entered. The folding doors were opened, and the presentation took place.

I hear that the dinner passed off swimmingly. Plenty to eat—especially bananas, oranges, and preserves. Plenty to drink—especially cordials. The Captain General toasted the United States, and the Minister, Spain. Concha said nothing about Soule, and the Minister said never a word about Lopez. The tightest man in the crowd was Don Pedro Pizzerinetum, who grew familiar towards the shank of the evening, and embracing the Minister,—"I say Wheeler, hic, you fellows, hic, want Cuba eh!—Don't you, hic, wish you may get it, eh?"

Party broke up finally, and went to see the tomb of Columbus in the Cathedral.

One Minister next day wrote a note to the Captain General, and I have been fortunate enough to get a copy. Here it is:

HAVANA, U. S. Str. Princeton,
Nov. 9th, 1854.

On the eve, your Excellency, of my departure, (we sail for Pensacola in the morning,) I feel that it is due to the position I occupy, and also to my feelings, to express in some slight degree my regards for your distinguished consideration and hospitality. I may truly say that I have enjoyed myself greatly on this beautiful Island.—The sugar plantations are very extensive, and the amount of fruit raised enormous. Having been entrusted by the President of the United States with the delicate duty of finding out all about the Gopher in Isabella, I am now on my way to that distant place. May I request as a token of my regard, your Excellency's acceptance of the accompanying "History of North Carolina," written by myself—a work well known in my native State? The Legislature took fifty copies! Farewell, Don Jose de la Concha: of you it may truly be said, "Mens Concha sui."

Receive assurances of my distinguished consideration. (Signed)

J. H. WHEELER, Central America.

Have only time to add, we are off for Pensacola, and Don Pedro Pizzerinetum is waving his handkerchief. Buenos noches.

☞ MOBILE.—A gang of thieves and robbers infest this city. We hope the police will ferret them out and bring them to condign punishment. Murder and violence are fartoo frequent in every part of our country, and call loudly for the utmost rigor in the administration of the criminal law.—Sumpter County Whig.

MONKEYS DYING OF CHOLERA.—It is stated that the Monkeys in the neighborhood of Trinidad are dying in great numbers of the cholera. Persons who have passed through the woods report that hundreds are to be seen lying dead on the ground where they had fallen from the trees. It is said the same thing was observed while the small pox epidemic prevailed in Trinidad, the monkeys dying of that disease in equally large numbers.

A coxcomb talking of the transmigration of souls, said: "In the time of Moses, I have no doubt I was the the golden calf." "Very likely," said a lady, "time has robbed you of nothing but the gilding."

Hog Killing at Louisville.—About twenty-five thousand hogs have been killed this season at Louisville. The Courier says:

Prices rule very dull, with however, a marked firmness on the part of holders, and no disposition on the part of buyers to enter the market, or offer over four and a half cents net, on time. In Shelby and Scott counties, various sales of hogs have been made at three and one fourth cents gross, on four months time, the sellers being such farmers whose supply of corn was exhausted. In Cincinnati, owing mainly to the money pressure, the market continues flat, and sales of hogs were made on Wednesday at $3 62 1-2.

COMING BACK.

It is stated that many of the emigrants sent out by the anti-slavery society, to take possession of the territory of Kansas, are coming back sick of their undertaking. The fact is, they did'nt send the proper material. The kid-gloved clerks of Boston are not very well fitted to settle a new and unbroken country.

Danville Register.

EX-PRESIDENT FILLMORE.—Among a list of wealthy citizens of New York, published in the New York Sun, is ex-President Fillmore, whose property is valued at $150,000.

To Kill People With. The English government has lately contracted with a London manufacturer for thirty-five million cartridges and fifty-two thousand bomb-shells. It will take a year to complete the contract.

Cass on Clay.—General Cass in his recent speech at Detroit, in reply to the attack made on him by the Richmond Enquirer, thus alluded to Mr. Clay:—

"I hold the name of Mr. Clay in the greatest reverence, and rank him with the wisest and purest patriots whose services are written upon the history of our country, and whose memory is indelibly impressed upon the hearts of our countrymen. Such men as Mr. Clay may unite, they never conspire. In the stormy period of 1850 it was my pride to co-operate with him, and to add my feeble contribution to his gigantic efforts in behalf in the integrity and perpetuity of the constitution."

The "Yankees" are exploring Jamaica, and are about to make settlements in that once prosperous West India Island.

The Printers of Nashville are on a strike. The True Whig advertises for three Printers, and says they can make from $12 to $17 per week at the wages he gives.

Hogs.—Sales at Cincinnati range from $3 75 to 4 dollars nett.

At this place they are higher than at the former place, ranging from 3 75 to 4 dollars gross, or 3 dollars nett. Good supply.

Wheat.—From 75 to 1 dollar, good supply, but still in demand.—Jonesville Republican.
