Pepoted to Politics, News, Agriculture, Internal Improvements, Commerce, the Arts and Sciences, Morality, and the Samily Circle.

VOL. XI .-- NEW SERIES.

J. J. BRUAER, Editor and Propri . P. BELL, Jr., Assistant, Editor

More of Rum's Doings .- We have recounty, giving an account of the career th of a young man who recently The writer is severe in his reflections up another of them was conveyed to the disgrace, art the man!" two or fliree weeks ago, he went into a point, she exclaimed : "I shall soon stand be and pray for those thon mayst not win.

ing, in his chamber, a corpse.

The Tempeauce zeal of our correspon- Doctor hung their heads. dent inspires his pen as he details the parburning indignation of a mind impressed tion : with the terrible guilt of the agents who Is it the pleasure of this moting that any spiritual murder.

SELECTED FOR THE WATCHMAN.]

A TURILLING SCENE.

BT R. C. DELAYAN. Bullston Centre, N. Y.

Permit me to sketch to you a scene related to. us by an eye witness, which occurred in Conecticut, while the people in one of the towns in that State were gathered, to discuss the merits of the question of license, whether one neighbor should longer be permitted, under the sanction, those words of the wise man as having any conof the law, to destroy another, and bring pau nection with themselves." Were a minister to perions, crime and every description of misery announce, as his text, these words, there would on the neighborhood. he searce one among his heaver, she would con-

This town had suffered greatly from the sale sider it applicable to humsel( ) it, are there not and use of intoxicating drink. The leading in-very many, of whose words it may be truly said, hences were against the total abstinence doe " they are as wounds ?" New may we not go trine. At the mosting, the CL rgyman and Phy. further, and say there are few who are not, some ician, and also a leading Deacon in one of the times at least, guilty of inflicting these wounds; churches, were in favor of continuing hoenie, for . not, perhaps, in malice -- often not in uncharitapermitting a few men of good moral character bleness; yet, through indifference and careless to sell, for they all agreed in the opinion that nem; it may be from a deed-rooted selfishness the modern , use was not injurious ; that intox- and insensibility to the pain of others. Thus, a icating liquor was a good creature of God, and reputation that y sterday stood forth far and un to hamper its sale to be used in moderation was tainted, to-day is dragged, without mercy, solled an unjust restraint on human liberty, and a re- and bleeding, through the dust. The troumph flection on the benerolence of the Almighty .- ant murderor of fome, and the fair seeming l'har-With such powerful advocates in favor of the old usee, trainple it alike into hopeless degradation. g of the meeting appeared to The story be all one way, when a gentleman, who was pre- from tip to lip-hopes are crushed out, hearts are ent from another State by accident, chat who broken, homes and hearths desolated, "the rightand been a former resident of the town, begged your perish, and none layeth it to heart." " The lease to differ from the highly influential and righteous?" aye, start not that we say " the rightrespectable individuals who had spoken on the cous." Who was it that cried out in the depth subject. He entered into a history of the town of his agony, "I lie even among them that are from its earliest sortlement, he called the atten- set on fire: even the sons of men, where teeth tion of the assembly to the desolution the traffic are spears and arrows, and their tongue a sharp and moderate drinking had brought upon fami-sword !" Even David, the man after God's own lies and individuals; he pointed to the Poor heart-David, the sweet singer of Israel. Who House, the prison-house and the graveyard, for can dare to say, my skirts are clear, I have not the wife, the mother, religion shines with the numerous victims of the traffic. He urged, off-aded ! Are there not everywhere those who, a holy benignant beauty of its own, which and with eloquence, that in mercy the flood-gates but for " the scourge of the tongue," might have might be shut down and prevent, as far as pos-sible, the continued desolation of families, by perhaps have outstripped them in the race of virsustaining the immoral business of rum-selling. tue and religion 1 The voice of these wounded steady faith of piety. Beauty, intellect, But all would not do. The influence of the crieth unto the heavens, and the voice of God wealth? they are like pit-falls, dark in Clergyman, the Dietor and the Descon was too asks, "Who hath done this!" Shall the Church the brightest day, unless the divine light, apply them to any enlitvated land. much for him. No one followed on his side, reply, "Am I my brother's keeper f" delusive spell, with which moderate drinking when the hidden wounds bled afresh, and the had involved my loved ones-but the odds were heart was breaking, the angel of the covenant greatly against me-the tyrant appetite had has stood by and touched him, strengthening been formed-the Minister of God said that the him. The broken and the contrite heart he does poison that was destroying my husband and not despise.

boys was a good creature of God ; the Deacon Ah ! men and women ! ye know not what ye ceived a communication from Davidson sold them the poison; the Doctor said a little do, when ye go up and down as tale-bearers could do no harm, as he took his social glass among your people. If ye could but glance inwith them, and so all but myself fell into the to the hearts ye have wounded, how would ye died in Lexington, from excessive drink, snare; they could not escape; and one after shrink, as David, at the words of Nathan, " Thou on the dealers in liquor in that village, ful grave of the drunkard. Now, look at me Tale-bearer ! hasten in thy penitence, to beal TO CURE POISONED SHEEP. whom he holds morally responsible, in a again. You probably see me for the last time- where thou hast wounded-bind up-pour in oil great measure, for the death of young my sand is almost run. I have dragged my ex- and wine. Comfort ye, comfort ye my people, Bouros, that being the name of the in- hausted frame from u y present home-your saith your God. Say to them, "Though ye have dividual alluded to. Bolton was from Poor-house-to warn you all, to warn you Dea- lien among the pots, ye shall be as the wings of most Post, we believe, places the matter in its ter fitted by nature for so important an claiming. " I'm almost home for Meeklenburg county, a saddle and har- con, to warn you, false teacher of God's word, to a dove, covered with silver, and ber feathers with of our creeks and rivers, and without true and not very enviable light. ness maker, of respectable parentage, warn you dealers in strong drick - and with her yellow gold." Extend a hand to the fallen, treatment are almost sure to die. At your Hose it was Done .- We find in the aged about 92 years. He was intemper- arms high flung, and her tall form stretched to speak comfort to the suffering, win the erring request, I give a very simple remedy :-aged about 22 years. He was intemper-ate before he settled in Lexington. Some

"apree" which he kept up for a week or fore the Judgment seat of list I shall meet more. On the night of his death, he drank you there with your victims, you false guides, pretty freely at both the shops in Lexing-wretched female vanished from the assembly. and he a swift witness against you all." The ton, it is said, and was found next morn- A dead vience prevailed. A pin might have been heard to drop-the Prist, Descon and

The President slowly arose and with subdued ticulars of this case; he traces out the voice and with great solemonty, put the quesaccomplish such a fearful physical and more licenses be granted to sell intoxicating liquor in town ! The response came like a clap of thunder in one universal gathered up NO. Friends of humanity all over the world, had you been at this meeting, would you not have

auswered " No." too.

From the Presbyterica. The Words of a Tale-bearer are as

How few believe it - how few indeed, regard

And tell again our hoyhood wish, To roam like angel's there. There are mnoy dreams of gladaess That ching around the past-

In the huppy days now gone,

SELECTED FOR THE WATCHMAN.

And from the tomb of feeling Old thoughts come thronging fast-The forms we love as deariy

The heautiful and lovely. So fair to look upon Those bright and lovely maident

Who seemed so formed for bliss, Too glorious and too heavenly For such a world as this!

Whose soft dark eyes seemed swimming In a sea of liquid light. And whose locks of glod were streaming

O'er brows so suphy bright. Whose amiles were like the anothing In the spring time of the year-Lake the changeful gleams of April -They followed every tear" They have prased-like hope-away-All their loveliness has fled-Oh! many a heart is mourning

OUR CHILDHOOD.

BY G. D. PRENTICE

"Fis and -vel sweet- to listen.

And think we hear the suusic

To guze out on the even.

To the soft wind's gentle swell,

Our childhood knew so well;

And the boundless fields of air.

That they are with the dead Like the bright hads of summe They have fallen from the stem-Yet uh-it is a lovely death. To fade from earth like them And yet-the thought is suddening

To muse on such as they -And feel that all the heartiful Are passing fast away! That the fair ones whom we love,

Grow to each loving breast, Lake tendrils of the etinging vine Then perish where they rest

AGRICILITURAL

SALISBURY, N. C., MARCH 1, 1855.

Ebrons WATCHMAN :- Sheep are some- II. Seward to the United States' Senate, this is a matter to be controlled by the drels in the land, Wm. H. Seward.

the case. by this remedy, which were almost dead.

ed this remedy, and it was tried; and beten; and always with success.

P. HOUSTON. Iredell county, Feb. 23, 1855.

LIQUID MANURE.

The value of liquid manure is not understood in this country. In Belgium, from sterile sands into fertile gardens by the use of liquid manures. Not only mixing them with compost, or applying ued there at twenty dollars per year. In solid portion to be dissolved and washed three days the assembly has discussed away in an unsheltered vard. the obligation of oaths of an extra-judi-decay on the outside more or less if left burg Royal Asylum is a paper, called the Morningside Mirror, edited and printed August it will keep forever.

in the Democratic papers of this and oth- long been a desideratum; and we hail its approaching danger as darkness gathers

Washington Union of Thursday, the folthe medicine; dissolve about a tablespoon-ted. The tendency of this extract, with ful in water, and drench the poisoned a stupidity remarkable even for the Washsheep with the solution. It may he nec- ington Union, seems to have been entiresheep with the solution. It may be nec-ly overlooked, and was quoted to show essary, sometimes, to repeat the dose two the shrewdness and smartness of that or three times in the course of a day; but longest of all personal and political scoun-

We give the extract to show the methindgment of the person who is managing od by which rascality subverted the aims and wills of freemen, and an infamous ab-I have seen sheep set upon their legs, olitionist and agitator was elected to the U. States Senate, to misrepresent the peoby this remedy, which were almost dead. ple of New York. Yet the Enquirer and One case, in particular, I would mention the Democratic press everywhere rejoice as evidence, the sheep was so nearly dead greatly at the consummation of the treachnicked out one of its eyes. I recommend- this rare intrigue as follows:

"When it was seen how powerful the fore night the sheep was walking about, new party was likely to become, the Se-I have used it, and seen it used, very of ward men, as by concert, crept into lodg-They were boisterous, eloquent and busy. any of the elements or qualities by which They denounced Seward and all his works, fortunes are gained at home. There are, They signed pledges, were suspected to unfortunately; few sources of wealth petalls cial character, and unpleasant to fulfil ;

vote against him. They put forward the culiar to a colony. The only advantage candidates, for the assembly; and there, which the emigrant may reasonably calwhen necessary to dispel suspicion, sign- culate upon enjoying, is the diminution ed written pledges to vote against Se- of competition. In England, the crowd ward. They were elected. They still is so dense that men smother one another, carried on the farce. Littlejohn was elec- It is only by opening up the same chanlarge tracts of land have been changed ted speaker, Sherman clerk, both of the nels of wealth under more favorable cir-Both these had been life-long cumstances, that the emigrant has any with the oligarchy in the war with Rosfriends of Seward; but the managers of right to calculate upon success. Withthe lodges, when interrogated on this out a profession, without any legitimate the British army. He says: the urine of animals but all the dish wa point, put their fingers to their noses, and calling in which his early years have been From this state of affairs it, was evident better prospect of making a fortune in a some one had to be cheated ; and most in- colony than at home. No one, however, them directly to the soil. We have seen telligent men contemplated what time has so circumstanced, entertains this belief; a statement that the urine of a cow is val- disclosed, as to who was to be the victim. on the contrary, he onters upon his new "The men who in the secret lodges carreer without any misgivings, and with this country not one in ten thousand farparty, while getting the votes of its par- enlisted recruit. Alas! the disappointmers save any of the liquid portion of the tisans, have, after three weeks deliberal ment which so soon and so inevitably animal excrements, and even heave the tion, concluded that it is best to betray succeeds, brings a crowd of vices and mis-

THE NEW DOGMA

NUMBER XI

TM ALMOST HOME.

formed. Saw logs cut in winter always A Crazy Man's Batire .- In the Edin-The traveller, weary and worn, cover ed with dust and suffering from many priover, while summer-cut logs keep sound for years. Hickory cut in winter soon modern productions and criticism is tasuffers with " powder-post." If cut in ken from its columns: "The Multiplica- smoke ascending from his old homes tion Table; a Blank Verse Poem in and choked with feelings almost too big Twelve Cantos. Translated from the for utterance, exclaims, while tears of joy BILL SEWARD. As a great deal is being said, particularly the Democratic papers of this and other is the literature of the age. It has from its fond parents, trembles for fear of er States in regard to the election of Wm, advent with enthusiasm. To the noble around its footsteps ; yet as soon as it sees translator we owe a deep debt of grati- some well known object, shakes its curitude for this great work. No man withtimes poisoned by eating the leaves of the the following from the Richmond Penny in the circle of our acquaintance was bet undertaking. The amount of talent and The mariner, after a long and toilsome learning he has brought to bear upon this journey, descries in the far distance the learning he has brought to bear upon this outline coast of his native land and sings abstruce subject is perfectly wonderful.— There is a strength of feeling, a depth of aloud with joy, while his heart is fall to preserve a power of thought a facility of breaking. "I'm almost home?"

research, a power of thought, a facility of breaking. "I'm almost home?" expression, in parts of this magnificent The Christian, after having fought maben that we look for in vain elsewhere. ny hard battles, endured many trials, re-Ve venture to say-and we put our foot sisted many temptations, suffered from many afflictions, and grieved over many boldly on the assertion-that, in the whole shortcomings, feels gradually approac monished thereby of his speedy di tion, lifts his glad eye heavenward, while his heart melts within him, as he exclaims with the following passage, which occurs in Canto the Fifth : in triumph. " I'm almost home !"

Christian professor, thon too art almost home! Art thou wearing this world as a loose garment, so that it may be thrown off at a moment's notice ? Are thy affect tions and desires fixed on things above and art thou daily becoming more that the bazzards had attacked it, and ery. The New York Evening Post expresses tunate adventurers the secret of their fail- thousands on every side, art thou taking ing will undoubtedly show many unfor ed from things of time and sense ? or like ure and disappointment : " Nothing can thy rest here and living as though this be more absurd than to imagine that a were thy home ? Be more on thy guard fortune may be made in a colony by those in future-have thy lamp trimmed and ward men, as by concert, crept into lodg- fortune may be made in a colony by those burning, for at inidnight the cry may es, and undertook to lead the movement, who have neither in them nor about them sound in thine ear-" Behold, the bride groom cometh, go ye ont to meet Lutheran Observer.

THE CELTIC RACE AVENGED.

Mr. Donald McLeod, an honest Scotch man, in a letter to one of the morning papers, describes the highlanders of Se and as having no sympathy whatever sia, and entirely opposed to enlistment in "This is the predominant feeling all over the highlands of Scotland. I know it : I have travelled often and much among them ; they know that for the last thirty six years a ram of the Cheviot breed, a Dunlope, and an Argyle ball were consid ered worth at least three hundred Celts; they know, by long experience, how low they are in the eyes of the aristocracy until they are required to fight for the and that however much praise may be be stowed on their brawny legs, sinewed arm and achievements in the battle-field, and that however many prayers Englishops make for them, when the

and the chairman of the meeting was about to Glance a moment at the social circles where round them to purify and exalt, making illustrative of their being no such thing nesday or Thursday of last week, a negro openly repudiate it, and the Monks of St. have hitherto supplied you, and gain put the question, when all at once, there arose Christians mingle. How is the car open to the twice glorious that which seemed all love- in the world as destruction of substances, boy belonging to Mr. Thomas E. Herbert, Marino have been summoned before the for you the laurels you are yet wearing from a distant corner of the room a miserably tale of transgression-how is condemnation pro- liness before.

end and miserable looking female ; her appear- nounced and indgment passed, when the tear of Religion is very beautiful-in health ture." ance indicated the utmost wretchedness, and that pity should have fallen, or the prayer for pardon or sickness, in wealth or poverty. We her earthly career had almost closed. After a have been offered. How often is the mantle of never enter a sick chamber of the good, moment's silence, and all eyes being fixed upon charity thrown backward over the sins of the pro- but soft music seems to float on the air, her, she stretched her attenuated body to its ut fessed Christian 1. When is the pleading voice and the burden of their song is-" Lo! most limit, and her long shrivelled arms to their of love raised to defend the rash off-nder, who, peace is here."

greatest length, and then raising her voice to a even while the envenouned tongue of the talehigh and shrill pitch, she called upon all to look bearer is publishing his shame; his weeping in lies to day, when discontent fights sullenon her. "Yes," said she, "look upon me, secret humiliation over the crime of a moment. and then bear me." All that the last speaker but which shall rise up, like a ghastly spectre, in of unhappiness, want of religion in wo. and with regard to moderate drinking- as being his pathway, easting its black shadow backward he ruin of all drunkenness is true-all that he over the joys of the past, and forward over the a said with regard to the immorality of the hopes of the future ! Ah ! poor suffering one ! misery, destitution, ignorance-we should traffic is true. Now, look upon me as an illus- well will it be for thee if, in thy trouble, thou lose behold in all its most terrible deformity, tion. You all know me, or you once did .- not sight of Him who alone will not condemn the fruit of irreligion in woman. You all know-I was once the mistress of the best thee, but bid thee "go and sin no more."

a of this town. You all know, too, I once Ye who tread the smooth and even road, and on thy throne thou sittest, glorious and and one of the best-one of the kindest-one of gather up your skirts from the touch of the un- exalted. Not above the cloud, for earth in most devoted of husbands. You know, too, clean one, or who, perchance, pass by on the other clouds come never between, thee and truthe most devoted of husbands. You know, too, clean one, or who, perchance, pass by on the oth-had fine, noble-hearted, industrious boys, the ride of my file. Where are they now / Min-vour brethren in parity and tride, pause a mer a broad vista of exponding hearter. ide of my life. Where are they now ! Min- your brethren in parity and pride, pause a mo- a broad vista of exceeding beanty. ter of Christ-Deacon of the Church-Physiment, and remember a word of Jesus, which per- Its gates are the splendor of jasper and an of the body, where are they now ! You all haps you have forgotten, " There is more joy precious stones, white with a dewey light three away the inice. w. You all know they are buried side by over one sinner that repenteth, than over the that neither flashes nor blazes, but steadiand hims the diminant's gravering. They Had becore just Aye, verify. In hearen's times the brightness of ten thousand suns of all taught to believe that moderate drink courts there shall rise a sweeter, lottice anthem, yet soft, undazzling the eye. was innocent, excess only to be avoided - when the poor earth worn wanderer is received was innocent, excess only to be avoided— when the poor earth worn wanderer is received And there religion points. Art thou the banker for keeping safe his money, Birmingham which makes bricks nearly cally and displayed in small cars. at they drank to excess. They quoted you in the realms of glory. And, we may well be there forever." Art thou sorrowing !-

not mey arank to excess. They quoted for in the rounds of gary. And we may den up and you and you pointing with the shred of a lieve it, those ministering spirits have a deeper "Joy." Art thon weighed down with unager to the priest, descon and doctor, as better acquaintance with that wayward course of sin merited ignomony ? wity than mine. They thought themselves and sorrow, than any earthly heart, however near. in that holy home." Art thou poor ? in under your practical teaching. I saw the They have traced his steps through the wilder. very streets before thy mansion shall be adual change coming over my family and ness, and when fainting and realy to die, they gold." Art thou friendless ? "The an-respects with dismay and horror; I saw that have showed him a well of water, even the water thy friend and Father."

rere all to be overwhelmed in one common of life; through the crowd of unsympathizing Is religion beautiful f. We answer, all . I begged, I prayed, I agonised to ward men and scorning women, they have guided his is desolution and deformity where relime blow; I tried to break the spell-the faltering stops; and in the night of anguish, give is not .- Olive Brand in the second second

And we can but think of them In the soft and gentle spring, When the trees are waying o'er us, And the flowers are blossoming! For we know that winter's coming With his cold and stormy sky Aud the glorious beauty round us Is blooming but to die!

IS RELIGION BEAUTIFUL.

Always! In the child, the maiden, nothing of earth can mar. Never yet was the female character perfect without the unless religion throw her soft beams a-are composed.

deposited a sum of money in a bank, and now in a fair way of recovery .- South ten per cent. of the capital every year to until nine-tenths of it were exhausted ! as hard as stones. One of the new bricks That is just what the turnip-feeder did, sustain a weight of 2,625 lbs. A common "Kings and priests only that he gave it all in one year in- hand-made brick breaks at 645 lbs.

..... TIMBER should be cut while the tree is came near dislocating her neck ; she was ten cows and six horses, preserved last and the result of the casuistry is seen in which it was pumped and distributed bear but a ton and a half an acre, but ton Herald says that it has been inform-ting the decisions of the concluse, affirm-uncared to three tons by the ed " that the depth of water on the barial".

application one season. Where it is not convenient to send li- they can easily carry, in or out, a vessel "Let no man interfere with this our short-sighted England ! the sine of Solid substances are constantly decomposed, and even liquid contains more or such force as to knock off the bark (so less of the solid substances of which plants says our informant.) and to cause himself

Oh, religion ! benignant majesty, high Yet he allows all that watery portion a serious accident, the recital of which to go to waste, only saving the one-tenth we hope will be a caution to all pipe smo- quate to the duties which must be perof solid matter to restore the land to pro- kers. Climbing over a fence with a buck-> injuries that she was unable to speak or live. Look oute." swallow for two or three days. Webe What would we think of a man who lieve, however, that mother and son are

"A Printer Toast .-- Women-the fair lest work of nature; the edition being said her mother, formed.

A new process has been invented in

THE HARLEN FRAUDULENT STOCK.

Bridgeton, while in the act of sneezing, in its most rapid season of growth, and insensible for some hours, and had it not been for the skill of the surgeon, who was mear the close of the growing season, when immediately sent for, life would soon with food at one of the soup houses is sta- under lucky or unlucky auspices ! the terminal bond of each limb is fully have been extinct.

The Pope has authorized an address to over the survivors have to return to the year all their liquids in a tank, from obligations. Conception dogma. It is a very long doe- ed burnt to the ground during their al evele of English literature, there is nothing that can compete, either in profundity of view or in solidity of reasoning,

" Five times five are twenty-five,

Five times six are thirty, Five times seven are thirty-five, Five times eight are forty."

....

Satisfactorily Explained .- The follow-

which was increased to three tons by the ed " that the depth of water on the bar is ing the immaculateness of the Virgin, bishops, Queen or country, however un now fifteen feet ; and our pilots say that the Pope concludes with this adjuration : godly they are dealt with. Ab! England quid manure over the farm let it be ab- drawing 141 feet. It is believed that a declaration, pronunciation, and definition, aristocracy have found you out at last sorbed by muck or a compost heap, and constant deepening is going on as the or oppose or contradict it with presump- your long nurtured ennity towards the work of improvement at the mouth of the tuous rashness. If any should presume to Scottish and Irish Celts for their and ying it will pay better than any other on the River progresses. Vessels carrying from assail it, let him know that he will incur loyalty and love to their legitimate source assail it, let him know that he will incur loyalty and love to their legitimate source assail it. farm. Even if the barnyard liquids con- 450 to 500 tons dead weight are now load the indignation of the Omnipotent God eigns will find its level, and will recoi tained only a tithe of the fertilizing pow-ers which they do it would hav well to

The new dogma, however, is not receiv- Heaven-you are too well known there: ed by the Roman Catholics of Germany. and murderers. Not to the hills and val Heaven denounces robbers, oppressor "The great fundamental laws of nature. Misfortune in a Family .- On Wed- In Tuscany also the Dominican friars leys of Caledonia, nor to green Erin, who should never be lost sight of in agricul, while running at full speed in his effort archbishops of Florence, on a charge of You have robbed them, starved them to to head a cow which he desired to drive contempt of the Pope in rejecting the dog. death, and banished them by thousand from your shores. To whom, then? To German mercenaries and poltroons.

In 1847, the first year after England The National Post Office .- A bill has bloody murder and massacre of Scottial to rebound back, measuring his full passed the U.S. Senate which appropri- highlanders at battle of Calloden, the The farmer this year exerts himself to and a third. The poor boy, who is a valraise a crop of turnips, to procure which unble negro, we are sorry to say was see. It will be so extended as to cover the landers would be worth all the army landers would be worth all the army harn and commences feeding them to his hores there was but a shadow of a hope carriages, &c. So rapid has been the her aristocracy to raise two thousand of And in felon's cells—in places of crime, misery, destitution, ignorance—we should by the attribution in the whole highlands of Scot-ry little water while thus fed, and for good of the adage that "misfortunes never in state, the increase of population, and far too many German hannery devils to reason, the turnips are nine-tenths water. come single," the mother of the above postage, the increase of population, and far too many German hungry devils to the spread of settlement westward, that keep up already, without saddling forty the present edifice is altogether inade- thousand more upon them.

> Beautiful .- We find the followin The following is cut from an Ohio pa. beautiful anecdote in the editors table per :- "Notis is hear by Given that now the January number of Graham : his apples and save the pumice while he tongue and into her throat, inflicting such pursen is pur-Mitted to take Ene Nuts of "We know a beautiful little blue erect Ene kind out of Mi Woods My hogh Must girl of some three years old, who was nes tled in her mother's arms, at twilight look ing out at the stars.

" Mother," said she, " it isgetting dark · And what makes it dark, Caroline large, lei no man be without a copy. Ba "Because God shuts his cres," replic the little noet.

Two BIRTH-DAYSIN & YEAR ---- We know New York, Feb. 19, 1855 .-- The Sa. a child who has two birth-days per an preme Court gave a judgment to-day hum. That will doubtless seem as strange against Alexander Kyle for Son non by to others as it did to us at first. But when A Hard Saceze.—A young lady of ing the par value of the fraulent stock is dax," and further, that in Edgefield this is dax," and further, that in Edgefield there in delightful occasion comes around twice in a twelvemonth, the difficulty is at once The population in Pittsburg supplied removed. Query : Was that child born

Edand Advertiger