Nor is this the only attach to which the ministry is exposed. Mr. Rosbark J. II. McLaughlin, Esq., being then called on. having moved for a call of the house, July 12,

The position of affairs remains as before the repulse of June 18th. No permanent check has been sustained by the besiegers. Several regiments which suffered badly on the recent occasion have been re-organized, and the troops of general assault is not far off. Nor have the Rus sians been idle, as new works thrown up behind the Malakoff and Redan (a formidable star for behind) sufficiently testify. Seige operations may therefore be quoted as " setive," and the
