AN OLD PRINTER.

We have in our office an old printer 76 years of age, who commenced his apprenticeship of seven years in the King's se who wish to engage in the pleasant Printing Office, London, in 1784,-64 years ago. He was a soldier under Sir John Moore, at Corunna, in Spain, 1808, when he received a ball in the right arm. He was present at the burial of Sir John A correspondent of the Carldo Gazette, ticulars of the scene. He was also with criting under date of the 28th ultimo, the Duke of Wellington through his whole campaign, and lost an ancle bone by a grape shot in the battle of Waterloo. This old man, after all his hard service, is still one of the swiftest and best com positors we have ever known, and though ame from his wounds, is still able, at "early morn and dewy eve," while younger men are wasting the golden hours in sensual pleasure; or snoozing them away in bed, to ramble over the fields and through the woods in search of wild flowers, with which he forms tempting bouity the wishes of some favorite little girl.
