THE OHIO FUGITIVE SLAVE CASE.

A SPECK OF CIVIL WAR.—A telegraphic dispatch published in the Sun on Saturday gave an account of a violent resistance to the laws in Ohio. The Cincinnati Gazette of Friday has since brought us the following particulars:

There has been great excitement during the last two days in Greene county, in this State, in consequence of the arrest of fourteen negroes charged with aiding a slave to escape. On Tuesday, U. States Deputy Marshal [illegible], accompanied by Commissioner [illegible], left this city for Mechanicsburg, Champaign co., Ohio, [illegible] Stringtown, having with [illegible] Commissioner [illegible] of Charles [illegible], Russell Hyde [illegible] the warrant [illegible] A. G. White [illegible] served, [illegible] State of [illegible] from going [illegible] prevent the [illegible] A. G. White [illegible] reserved, [illegible] Republican [illegible] Kentucky by the [illegible] Ohio [illegible] United States [illegible] the penalty [illegible] Springfield [illegible] Mechanicsburg [illegible] the deputy [illegible] the press, [illegible] Mechanicsburg [illegible] crowded to [illegible] Commissioner [illegible] May 29, [illegible]

A [illegible] Cincinnati, May 29, [illegible]

The Enquirer's special telegraphed the Sun that the Commissioner [illegible] and [illegible] Deputy Marshals [illegible] Xenia [illegible] charge to [illegible] made [illegible] and [illegible] Commissioner [illegible] May 29, [illegible]

The Enquirer's special telegraphed the Sun that the Commissioner [illegible] and [illegible] Deputy Marshals [illegible] Xenia [illegible] charge to [illegible] made [illegible] and [illegible] Commissioner [illegible] May 29, [illegible]

Judge Leavitt, of the United States District Court, [illegible] the writs [illegible] Deputy Marshals [illegible] Xenia [illegible] charge to [illegible] made [illegible] and [illegible] Commissioner [illegible] May 29, [illegible]

THE YANCEY COURT HOUSE.

[illegible] the Yancey Court House [illegible] Democratic [illegible] Democratic [illegible] Democratic