From the Providentille (1) MORE OLD PAPERS.

Our friend the Clerk and Master is Equity of this County has found in his office some curious specimens of newspapers, embracing copies of the Raleigh Star of 1818, printed by Col. Thos. Henderson, the Raleigh Minerva of 1818 and 1819, printed by Alex'r. Lucas, the Charleston Conrier of 1810, by Monford, Wilmington & Co., (Mr. Wilmington is now senior proprietor,) the Wilmington Gazette of 1800, by Allmand Hall, the VOL. XIV. N. C. Minerva and Raleigh Advertiser of 1799, by Hodge & Boylan, the Favetteville Gazette of 1794, by John Sibley, sincerely believe, that America is the onand No. 1, vol. 1, of the Fayetteville Ga- ly country in the world where such a dezette of August 24, 1789, by Sibley & liberative change of government count we have just returned, which assem-Howard. This is the first newspaper ev- whatever.

lead one to expect much in that way.

State Senate, Alex'r McAllister, Esq.;- abatement of the party which so much Webster. Robert Adam, and James Moore, Esqs. the Govenor and Council of North Caro- and glory of America, differing only country on his election to the Presidency, and Gen. Washington's reply. The Address is dated May 10, 1789, and the reply June 19, 1789. And the reply speaks To the Governor and Council of the of the Address as just received-one month and nine days from North Carolino to New York. Both letters are admirably written. As these letters are in-them in print, we copy them below. In the Enyetteville Gazette of Jan'y 14. graphs (making together 14 lines, one of which is as follows :--- people would never have heard of their will be wanting on the part of the differ. and its blessings throughout every porwretched blunders in legislation, of the ent branches of the general government dard. . laws which they passed without knowing to render the Union as perfect, and more it themselves until months afterwards; safe than ever it has been. The day (4th July) passed off smoothly has led to the adoption, in many semina-scolded again.

"On Saturday last, the general assembly of this state closed their session, after ment. place during the sessions."

and of the "small monuments" they erected in place of majestic ones which they palled down and consigned to the shades.
Here too, is the Raleigh Minerva of Dec.
(10, 1799, and the only paragraphs under the editorial head, and the only paragraphs under of the Legislature in the whole paper, are the following :--
The General Assembly have chosenA difference of opmon on political to freement to place of majestic ones which they paragraphs under the oddest, the addest, andMajor Ben. McCulloch, who has been to example with the men. We trust a terrible example with early regret to say, resulted in the morning, and the only mention of the Legislature in the whole paper, are the following :--Major Ben. McCulloch, who has been to work and consequences as it have are aware of, to cast a gloom on political to the capacity of a majority of the problement to the representation of the selected in the morning, are the following :--Major Ben. McCulloch, who has been to work and consequences as it have are aware of, to cast a gloom on political to the representation of the selected in the morning, and the only mention of the selected in the morning of the Legislature in the whole paper, are the following :--Major Ben. McCulloch, who has been to work and consequences as it have are aware of, to cast a gloom on the opposite time of the selected in the morning, and the only mention of the selected in the only withing the selected in the selected in the opposite time of the selected in the would interest the addest, and the only mention is too the present the different prints on the opposite time of the selected in the selected in the selected in the opposite time of the selected in the selected in the selected in the present time of the selected in the opposite time of the selected in t and of the "small monuments" they creet. A difference of opinion on The General Assembly have chosen being to be placed in interest plants of the object, the ablest, and the object and th the following gentlemen members of the the most virtuous statesmen have often the following gentlement members of the the most virtuous statesmen have often the other shattered to such a degree as to principle of judicious calture A friend tout was yesterilar brought before the peet him to string up Brigham Young at his heart-strings. How often has a sud viz. Thomas Brown, Robert Cochran, of government-we ought, indeed, rather out, and he was seriously injured in the viz. Thomas Brown, Robert Cochran, of government-we ought, indeed, rather out, and he was seriously injured in the Sunday regulations at a school where a a small or (box) from a lady's work-bag. gentle pastimes of indulgence in which bowl of life! What a warning against Hinton and Nathaniel Jones, Esquires, ed, than to regret that more could not, a separate county by the name of Ashe, which are evinced in your Address to me, preclude all hope of recovery, and he died and of Tyrrel into a separate county by and impressed with an idea that the citithe name of Washington, hath been passzens of your State are smeerely attached to the interest, the prosperity, and the glory ed into a law by our Legislature.

er printed in Fayetteville. Its pages are We hope your Excellency will pardon the abscene of Prof. Wheat, the President, contains 3 columns. It opens with a larly on this subject ; but this State, how- W. Ogburn, Esq., of Guilford, one of the statement that all the materials with ever it may differ in any political opin- Vice Presidents. which it was printed (except the type) were made in Fayetteville—even the Press, which was made by Messrs. Burk-The diverse of the tillustrious virtue, which we feel and that illustrious virtue, which we feel on Wednesday, at 11 o'clock, the writ-"Why, Lize on Wednesday, at 11 o'clock, the writ-"Why, Co

loh. For the Convention to ratify the tance of time, be as perfect and more safe

By order and on behalf of the council, JAMES IREDELL President. By order, WILLIAM J. DAWSON, Clerk Council.

May 10, 1759.

State of North Carolina.

for any Address to have given me greater erous, unbounded. pleasure than that which I have just reof America, I most carnestly implore the living benediction and guidance in the

by their delegates on a subject of the nost momentous consequence-I mean hereafter, between the State of North der the new general government. G. WASHINGTON.

.

Bank of the State of North Carolina.

New York, June 19, 1789.

to-day. - Raleigh Standard.

"My Sox, how could you marry an Irish

Girl." "Why, father, Fam not able to keep two

Ludicrous Effects of the Appearance Educational State Convention. of a Comet in 1712 .- As every body is

We have just returned from the Edu- on the qui cice in regard to the Comet, cational State Convention, which assem-bled at Warrenton on Tuesday last. In the abscene of Prof. Wheat, the President, the President, the regard to it, we give the following ammes Di by 15 inches in dimensions, each page the liberty we take in writing so partice- the Convention was called to order by E ing sketch gleaned from an old paper : " In the year 1712 Mr. Whiston, having calculated the return of a recent comet loe and Mears. The editors avow their a pride in saying we believe, under God, er of this, W. W. Holden, delivered an terrifying addition that a total dissolution meadiness and ability to "carry into effect have been the principal means of preevery branch of printing;" though cer-tainly the specimen before us would not help considering you, sir, in some Wednesday evening cloquent and inter-land, both as a divine and a philosopher, measure, as the father of it, and hope to esting speeches were delivered by Prof. left little or no doubt with the populace The paper contains a recommendation experience the good effects of that confi- Phillips, Dr. Alexander Wilson, Wm. of the truth of this prediction. of the following candidates, viz: For the dence you so justly have acquired, in an Eaton, Jr., Rev. Mr. Christian, and Prof. "Several ludicrous events took

A number of persons in and about Lon-

for the Commons, Wm. Barry Grove and endangers a union on which the safety The Convention had not adjourned don seized all the barges and boats they Join McKay; for the Town, Col. Lutter founded. May that union, at a short dis-the the the the founded. May that union, at a short dis-harmony and enthusiasin prevailed. On Thursday morning, an Educational conflagration took place there would be Constitution of the United States, John then ever ! And in the mean while, may State Association having been permanent- the most safety on the water. A gentle-Ingram, John Hay, Win, Barry Grove, the State of North Carolina be consider- by formed, the following gentlemen were man who had neglected family prayer ed, as it truly deserves to be, attached elected its officers for the ensuing year: for better than five years informed his i The only item of interest, is a letter of with equal warmth with any State in the President, Dr. Alexander Wilson, of Al- wife that it was his determination to re-Union, to the true interest, prosperity, amance; Vice Presidents, E. W. Ogburn, sume that laudable practice the same evenof Guilford, Prof. Phillips, of Orange, W. ing; but his wife, having engaged a ball at lina, signed by Samuel Jshnston, Goven-some particulars in opinion as to the some particulars in opinion as to the pawson, Clerk of the Council, to Gen. Washington, congratulating hum and the Recording Secretary, W. H. Bass, of dia to 11; and the captain of a Dutch shit threw all his powder into the river Warren. The absence of Mr. Wiley, the State that the ship might not be endangered. Superintendent, occasioned by severe sickness was deeply felt and regretted. The hospitality of the people of War-and before noon the belief was universal renton, and of the surrounding country, that the Day of Judgment was at hand. GENTLEMEN :- It was scarcely possible manifested towards all, was profuse, gen- About this time three hundred and twenty-three clergymen were ferried over to We were gratified to see the public Lambeth, it was said, to petition that a teresting, and we have never before seen ceived from you : because I consider it men of Warrenton, headed by the vener short prayer might be penned and ordernot only demonstrative of your approba- able and distinguished Weldon N. Ed. ed, there being note in the Church sertion of my conduct in accepting the first wards-come forward and take so deep vice on that occasion. Three maids of office in the Union, but demonstrative of an interest in the proceedings of the Con-honor burnt their collection of novels and 1794, we find only two editorial parayour State towards their sister States, upon the many agreeable incidents, nor each of them a Bible and Bishop Tay and of the probability of their speedily indeed to give any of the regular pro- lor's 'Holy Living and Dying.' The run acceding to the new general governe ceedings. They shall appear in our upon the bank was so prodigious that all hands were employed from morning till next) passing seventy three bills, the captions In justification of the opinion which But we may add, for the encourage night in discounting notes and handing of which shall appear in our next, with a you were pleased to express of my readi- ment of the friends of education in all out specie. On Thursday considerably list of the appointments that have taken hess "to advise every measure calculated parts of the State, that the Convention more than 7,000 kept mistresses were le to compose party divisions, and to abate was regarded on all hands as successful ; gally married in the face of several con-There now that is all that a newspa-per of that day vouchs afed to say of the General Assembly of North Carolina. General Assembly of North Carolina ! communicated by me to the two Houses Association which was formed, and from fire officers in London requiring them to It is evident that Ind members of our late of Congress. On this occasion I am future Conventions: The good work is keep a good look-out and have a particu-Legislature were born three score years likewise happy in being able to add the yet, it is true, comparatively in its infan-too late. If they had served in 1597, the strongest assurances, that I entertain a cy-but it will go on, diffusing its benefits

Boarding School Severity.

The anxiety of parents to secure the political and agreeably, with but one exception, ries, of a "forem

A Lesson to a Scolding Mother.

A little girl who had witnessed the der severe trial, snid : it arrested the mother's attention almost spring. And so of the smile. A beau- to speak, but was so overcome with his

Why, Lizzie, what makes you ask uestion [" "Why, God is good-you know used to call him the "Good Man,' when I was little-and I should like to know if he over scolded."

"No, child, no."

"Well, I am glad he don't; for scoldit is not me in fault. I don't think could love God much if he scolded." The mother felt rebuked before her The words of Lizzie sank deep in her heart, and she turned away from the indren are quick observers; and Lizzie seeing the effect of her words, hastened to

"No, love, it was all right. I was only thinking how bad I had been to scold so much, when my girl could hear and be troubled by it.

"O, no mainma, you are not had ; you are a good mamma; only I wish there It makes me feel away from-you so far, as if I could not come near you, as I can when you smile and are kind; and O. I ometimes fear I shall be put off so far never can get back again that had been struggling in her eyes .---The child wondered what could so affect nother's neck and whispered :

" Mamma, dear, do I make you cry Do you love me!

"O, yes, I love you more than I can replied the parent, clasping the child to her boson. "And I will try never to scold again before my little sen-SILINE BIL much This was an effectual lesson, and the Courier. mother telt the force of that passage of Scripture, "Out of the mouths of babes

The Laugh and Smile of Woman. A woman has not a natural grace It leaps from her heart in a clear sparktiful smile is to the female countenance situation that he was unable to do so. what the sunbeam is to the landscape .-- He was terribly effected, and was a pit It embellishes an inferior face, and re- iable object to behold. deems an ugly one. A smile, however, to step forward upon the drop, he obeyed, should not become habitual, or insipidity exclaiming, "O Lord ! have mercy on met is the result ; nor should the mouth break | I dare not die! I'm afraid I'm not pre-into a smile on one side, the other re- pared." maining passive and unmoved, for this imparts an air of deceit and grotesqueing always makes me feel so bad, even if ness to the face. A disagreeable smile distorts the lines of beauty, and is more repulsive than a frown. There are many kinds of smiles, each having a distinctive imple child. Never had she heard so character ; some announce goodness and forcible a lecture on the evils of scolding. sweetness, others betray sarcasm, bitterness, and pride ; some soften the countenance by their languishing tenderness. nocent face of her little one to hide the others brighten it by their brilliant and tears that gathered in her eyes. Chil. spiritual vivacity. Gazing and poring before a mirror cannot aid in acquiring beautiful smiles half so well as to turn the gaze inward, to watch that the heart

"Why do you cry, mother ? Was it keeps unsulfied from the reflection of naughty for me to ask you so many ques- evil, and is allumined and beautified by all sweet thoughts .- Porter's Spirit of the Times. Cunning of the Fox.

were not so many bad things to make us the following note :- A gamekeeper year were poor, the winter severe, killing were not so many bad things to make us the bolowing not Lochawe, who had many cattle, and the army of emigration you fret and talk like you did just now. been annoyed by the depredations of so large as to devour all before them.-"O, Lizzie, don't say that," said the ducks floating on the loch. In a little ed to live ; and if I had practiced here mother, unable longer to repress the tears while a fox was seen approaching the for ten years what I was forced to there.

ing it he picked up a bunch of heather rich man." its parent, but instinctively feeling it was and placed it in his mouth, so as to cover a case requiring sympathy, she reached his head; then slipping into the water, up and laid her little arms about her and immersing all but his nose, he floated but a bunch of weed. In due time he murder was made on that night, by tearand seized a duck, with which he return- the highest embankments on the Road. ed to the loch-side, and was making off near Gibsonville Station.to his young with the prize, when the

"O, I am so glad. I can get so near keeper who had noted all his movements, the break and stuck in the mud without to you when you don't scold ; and do you closed them by the dischorge of his dou- running off, and thas by the merest acci know mother, I want to love you so ble barrel. . Surely such sagacity deserv- dent the lives of perhaps hundreds of pas ed a better fate.-Dunfries (Scotland) sengers were saved. After several hours

Substantial Reasons for Declining

Office.

There were between seven and eight thousand persons present to witness the melancholy spectacle. Permission being given to address the andience, Johnson availed himself of it, and spoke with much earnestness and deep emotion. He closed by remarking that his punishment although terrible was just, and he was prepared to meet it. If he had remained at home during his early youth, and obeyed the pious instructions of his mother, he would not now have been on the scaffold a condemned murderer. He hoped all the youth, who heard him would take warning by his example, be influenced by the counsels of their good and pious mothers, keep out of bad comhim. Johnson was a young man. He "Mother, does God ever fret or scold ?" ling all, and the heart that hears it feels leaves a father, mother, four sisters and The query was so abrapt and startling as if bathed in the cool, exhibitarating four brothers. Sharpe seemed to desire When requested

A Terrible Warning to Boys. On the 12th inst., Geo. W. Sharpe and John Johnson were hung at Edwa

Illinois, for the murder of Jacob Barth

burg Intelligencer states that a hogshead of tobacco weighing 1230 lbs net, was sold on Thursday, at Oaks Warehouse at $50 a hundred, footing up the unprece-dented sum of $615. "This is the highdented sum of $615. est price paid during the season in this market-and we have no knowledge that the aggregate has ever before been reached in any market. Generally when very high prices have been paid, they have been for small packages or parcels-but this is for a full size hogshead."

The Way They Get Rich in the West. -A friend of ours just returned from Kansas, where he has resided two years, tells of the high prices of provisions in that region. Flour, last month, was selling at $14 per barrel, molasses $1,50 a gallon, pork 20 cents a pound and other - A gentleman in the Highlands sends things at the same rate. The crops last foxes, discovered a kennel in a glen at To the question how did you livef the the side of a small loch. While watch- answer was prompt. "Live," said he, ing one evening for the appearance of "live on cracked corn; corn for breakhe tenants he observed a brace of wild fast, corn for supper. I have just learnwaterside with cautious steps ; on reach- even at low wages, I should have been a

Villaincous Attempt .--- We learn from slowly and quietly down to where the a gentleman who came on the night train birds were quacking out delight in fan- from Charlotte on Sunday night last, that cied security, seeing nothing near them another villaincons attempt at wholesale neared the ducks, dropped the heather ing up the cross ties and rails on one of

Fortunately the Engine jumped off at labor the Engine was prized up, backed on the road, the iron and cross ties relaid and the train proceeded on its way.

Two of the scoundrels were taken in the act, we are informed, both negroes,who state that they were hired to do the

BIG PRICE FOR TOBACCO .- The Peters-

From the Fayetterille Gazette of Aug 21, 17=9.

The following Address of the Govenor counsels which are shortly to be taken and Council of this State, has lately been presented to General Washington, President of the United States-to the political relation which is to subsist which he has been pleased to return the Answer thereto subjoined. Carolina and the States now in union un-

To his Excellency George Washington. Esp'r President of the United States.

Sig :--- A midst the congratulations which surround you from all quarters, we, the Governor and Council of_the State of N. Carolina, beg leave to offer ours, with equal sincerity and fervency with any ment, we look forward with the pleasing sembly. hope of its soon becoming such-and in quite a full one. Gen. Samuel F. Pat in a common interest and affection with E. Freeman, Esq., of this city, is secreta-posed, as will remove the apprehensions the President of the Bank, addressed the excit dat the conduct of the "mob," and of many of the good citizens of this State, stockholders at some length and in a lufor those liberties for which they have cid manner, on the past and present confought and suffered in common with oth- dition of the institution, the condition of ers. This happy event, we doubt not, will the business of banking in the State gen- Stewart appeared upon the platform, fore be accelerated by your Excellency's apperally, &c. No discussion took place on ing her way through the crowd, the obpointment to the first office in the Union, Monday. The stockholders adjourned to served of all observers, with veil aside since we are well assured the same great- meet this (Tuesday) morning at nine o' and moving with the grace and dignity ness of mind, which in all sences has so clock.

Your Excellency will consider thow ver others may forget) how extremely difficult it is to unite all the people of a great country in one common sentiment upon charter.

almost any political subjects, much upon a new form of government niateri ally different from one they have been accustomed to, and will therefore rather be disposed to rejoice that so much has women. -If I had married as American girl, I'd been effected, than regret that more could been obliged to hire an Irish gul to take care of not, all at once be 'accomplished. We her.

the wounded arm was performed by Dr. young girl from this city was placed. No The stolen property was found in his Swann; But the injuries the unfortunate in a few hours after the accident. He leaves a family, we understand, in destitute circumstances ; and surely if there ever was a case appealing to the sympathies of the benevolent, this is one. trust that some steps may be taken to relieve the necesities of this afflicted family .- Wilmington Herald.

able to repeat them, logides committing the enemy was repulsed with great laugh couldn't go because he was intending to and activity in doing good, all fortify and

The Petersburg Express, of yesterday, table, the text above mentioned to be ret the charge of having eaten (beaten) a or more, until his day of grace had nearsays, that in expectation of the arrival of cited. After tea, to the Chapel of the stage driver, for demanding more than ly expired. This argument brought Mr. James M. Lee, alias Banton, and Miss school for Bible class introduction, which, his fare. At the late Fourth of July din-Buchanan down. He at once acknowl-Stewart, an immense crowd repaired, on including prayers, lasts until 7 o'clock, ner in the town of Charlestown, none of Saturday evening, to the Richmond de From 6 to half past 9 o'clock three chappot in that city, intending, after giving ters in the Bible, to be read by each pu- (fowls.)

The stockholders of this institution met unarch him through the public streets, Dil before going to bed. The above are the reg The above are the regulations of the which can be presented to you. Though in this city, on Monday last, to act upon and at night give him the benefit of a day of ussy-what the herculcan labors

the mean time consider ourselves bound terson, of Caldwell, is presiding, and E. close, with his hand upon a well charged relieved from

....

The Lee Elopement.

pistol, ready to shoot the villain down on the other States, waiting only for the hap-the other States, waiting only for the hap-ry. On Monday afternoon, Mr. Mordecai, sengers in the train became very much on detail the sengers in the train became very much it was with difficulty that a passage could he made through them to the conveyances along the depot. Finally, Miss calculated to compose party divisions, and to abate any animosity that may be excited by a mere difference in opinion. present. He still remains in Richmond, helieve. We learn that the stockholders rejected the we I do not blame a bachelor. If he leads a single life ; The way the girls are now brought up-He can't support a wife. I do not blame the bachelor ; "Is-His courage must be great; *

If small be his estate, has sent us the following account of the police court on a charge of having stolen wonder that her health gave way: Sunday regulations for all girls' board-another paper, descending the river, ing school, called Young Ladies' Semina- came in contact with a steamboat ; and,

Clerical Wit Unwittingly.

once, and thrash his adherents soundlyry, in a certain town in the Bay State: so serious was the injury to the boat, that be necessary-the Major thought it bet-Kise at half past 5 o clock-breakfast great exertions were necessary to save it. ter that some man of whom the public Have they not suffered enough in this then prayers of half an hour-from 9 An English paper once stated that the have a less ferocious idea, and consequent-world that they are so impatient to rash to 10 to attend a prayer meeting-at 10 Russian General Rackinoffkowsky was ly less ferocious expectations, should be o'clock to church, until 12 o'clock-din- found dead with a long word (sword) in the instrument of its initiation and develo'clock to church, until 12 o clock—to church ner at half past 12 o'clock—to church again from 1 to 3 o'clock—from 3 to 6 o'clock learn Bible lessons, and remember o'clock learn Bible lessons, and remember the texts of the two sermons so as to be said, that the conflict was dreadful, and ing the batchelor Executive that he able to repeat them, is also committing the enemy was repuised with great any repeat the original couldn't go because he was intending to and activity in doing good, all formy and to inemory another text called a "volumeter (slaughter.) Again :- A gentleman get married soon-a duty, the discharge confirm the powers of the body as well tary." Then tea, and while at the tead was systerday brought up to answer of which he had neglected for forty years as the mind. Not only is the intellect edged its invincibility, and bowed his ac-

.....

Small Horses.

this State has not yet a member of the Union ander the new form of govern-Union and burning. We learn that the meeting is every door was surrounded. A brother of such a system broke down after a few the bar were invited to the repast given way. Large horses are more liable to of Miss Stewart's was present, pressing months' trial, and was taken home, where, at the De Witt House by the followers of stumble, and he lame, than horses of mid-Galen, and after the cloth was removed, die size. They are clamsy, and cannot during the interchange of sentiments, the fill themselves so quick. The largest of Rev. Mr. B., while alluding to the inti- any class is an unnatural growth. They mate relations between the professions of have risen above the usual mark, and it the elergy and the physician, in all seri- costs more to keep them in position than she again became the bright, cheerful, ousness remarked that it was somewhat it would were they on a level with their a singular fact that "when the doctor was called the minister was sure to follow." The doctors gave him three cheers.

his disease was exceeding great; yet in longer limbs. On choosing a horse, take gin this work ! When the evil a his disease was exceeding great; yet in longer limbs. On choosing a horse, take the sought not to the Lord, but care by all means, that his legs are short, to the physicians. And Asa slept with his fathers, and died in the one and fortieth year of his reign.—Lynn News. A harder hit at the medical fraternity. Concertan

A harder hit at the medical fraternity Correctory is given in Mark's gospel, (v. 26,) relating to a certain woman who had suffered not to punish the guilty Putting Syrtage "many things of many physicians, and ing better, but rather grew worse."

sion can man indulge which does not tear den excess of rage broken the golden he was well satisfied the Mormons would all evil ways! Why are men so eager to give him no pretext when they found him backed by troops. If a peaceful policy such haste to put themselves out of the was to be pursued-as he believed it must world, when beyond it they can anticipate only the blackness of darkness?into another still more miserable? Will man life. Kind emotions, right affections, clearer, but the sleep is sounder, and the limbs are stronger. Such a man has nothing to fire his brain, or accelerate his blood, or to chuse his heart-to beat violently with rage or fear. Thus it often comes, as the reward of faith and patience and charity, as well as of honor and reverence to a father and mother, that the Hints on the Culture of Character.

....

Oh, how much have we to do, every one of us, before the years of our earthly life, few or many, be finally spent, and the thrones are set for judgment? This NEW FLOUR. Messra. Rowland & Brothers, acknow-ledge the receipt, on Wednesday the 1st the Bible. In the sixteenth chapter of the formula in the best for laying eggs. Extremes and that no form of palpable evil are not to be avoided. We want well blants us in these days of our youth and the Bible. In the sixteenth chapter of the formula in the sinterest of the the Bible. In the sixteenth chapter of the formed animals rather than such as have gladness ;--ye', are we making prepara -God forbid that this should be the fate of any one of us-capable of such happi Justice .- It is cruelty to the innocent ness, but capable- too, of such misery as ho imagination can conceive beforehand, and no power change when once felt !

Work-work-work!

healthy girl of sixteen summers.

The same house received from the same manufacturers the first new flour in market on the 5th July, 1855, and 8th July, 1856,-this year ahead of both. Hillsborough Recorder.

North Carolina Stocks are quoted in N. York at 92.

States and the second states which the Virginia 6s have fallen to $90 since the inter- had spent all that she had, and was nothest was paid.

"Work-work-work! Till the brain begins to swim ; Till the eyes are heavy and dim,