BATH, N. C.—A friend writes that the late storm did some damage in Bath, N. C., the tide having risen six feet above common high water mark.

—The corn crops in the neighborhood also suffered damage, the fodder being nearly destroyed.

By the way, there is a legend commonly credited in that vicinity that the celebrated George Whitfield having once preached in Bath, and received bad treatment from the audience, shook the dust from his feet, and pronounced the judgments of God upon that town. Not long afterward it was scourged with yellow fever; its prosperity was checked by rival towns, and it has never recovered its former importance. The denunciation of Whitfield is believed by many to be the cause of this reverse.

The Editor preached in Bath two years ago, and found its citizens to be civil hearers of the word, and kind and hospitable at their homes. In fact, he thinks Bath is a delightful old town, and that it merits respect and prosperity.—N. C. Christian Advocate.

Groom signifies one who serves in an inferior station. The name of bridegroom was formerly given to the new married, because it was customary for him to wait at table on his bride and friends on his wedding day.

LITERARY PERIODICAL,

MONTHLY,

IN THE

TOWN OF SALEM, NORTH CAROLINA.

BY

ANDREW J. STEDMAN.

A MONTHLY OF THE SIZE OF THE NORTH CAROLINA FARMER.

I shall begin to issue the MAGAZINE from the Town of Salem, N. C., on the first day of January next, and will continue it regularly on the first day of each month thereafter. Each number will contain 32 pages of reading matter, printed on fine paper, with new and handsome type, and will be issued in a neat and tasteful manner. The Magazine will be devoted to Literature, Science, Agriculture, Mechanics, Manufactures, Internal Improvements, Education, Morals, Religion, Politics, Biography, Poetry, Wit, Humor, Fashion, Amusements, Miscellany, &c., &c., and will be conducted with a view to the interests, the improvement, and the entertainment of the people of North Carolina, and the South generally.

Terms of the Magazine.

The Magazine will be published at the low price of THREE DOLLARS per year, which is required to be paid in advance, as the expense to be incurred in establishing such a publication in a new locality will be considerable.

☞ The First Number will be issued in January, 1858.
