CAROLINA WATCHMAN.

SALISBURY, N. C.

TUESDAY EVENING, OCT. 5, 1857.

TERMS OF THIS PAPER $2.00 CASH

From the Yanceyville Reporter.

CHINESE SUGAR CANE.

Messrs. Editors:—Feeling assured that every one will be more or less interested in the results of the experiments made of the value of the Chinese Sugar Cane as an agricultural product, and more particularly its capacity for yielding Molasses, I will give a short statement of my experiment and the [illegible]

[illegible]

PHILADELPHIA BOARD OF TRADE.

The Committee [illegible]

MOLASSES FROM INDIAN CORN.

Mr. [illegible] Patent Office, [illegible] Farming Gazette [illegible] Peters[illegible]

[illegible]

LEAPTHAN CONCERT.

We [illegible] Monday Evening last [illegible] Leapthan Band [illegible] Mr. W. A. Lucas, of this place. The Band has been [illegible] under the training of Prof. Weiss, and [illegible]

[illegible]

[illegible] Square. At [illegible] Square. At [illegible] Square. At [